Want To Change The World Through Sex
And Make A Lot Of Money Doing It?

“I WANT TO CHANGE
THE WORLD
THROUGH SEX & MAKE A LOT OF MONEY DOING IT”
CINDY GALLOP

THE PROBLEM

The marginalization of sex and the role it plays in mental health, gender equity, relationships and overall happiness

No open conversation about sex

Porn has become (negative) sex education by default, exacerbating sexual harassment/abuse/violence, and unhappy relationships due to unsatisfactory sex

Children see porn as young as 7
British Board of Film Classification, Sept 2019

Children under 10 account for 22% of online porn consumption
Bitdefender, Dec 2017

55% increase in reported incidents of sexual violence in schools
US Department of Education, Jan 2021

THE ECONOMIST GETS IT

‘A generation ago being depressed or anxious—let alone having serious mental-health problems—meant suffering mostly in silence. Stigma meant few people wanted to talk . . . These days the stigma has faded, if not entirely disappeared. A similar transformation is due for sexual problems, which lie beneath the same blanket of taboo and embarrassment as mental health once did . . .

The sex in film and television dramas, let alone pornography, bears scant relation to real life . . .

Sex is one of the greatest joys in a human life. At its best, it is a source of ecstasy and a shared expression of lasting affection. That so many people nonetheless find it painful or disappointing is a tragedy. Yet for a large proportion of them, it can be turned into something far more agreeable. Being more open about sex is one of the easiest ways to enhance happiness and health.’

IMAGINE

‘I’m 35 years old, and a very single straight male, working at a factory in a very small town. As I have gotten older the one thing I felt that I have been missing is some type of connection when viewing porn. My habits have always been go to pornhub search a video boom done. That changed when I was watching one of the videos on here. I don't think I have ever seen something that I was so taken aback by. It was intimate, it was two people you saw actual connection with. It made me question my own viewing habits right now. Which is a good thing I feel in terms of growth.

THIS IMPACT, SCALED

I feel like for the first time I want to confront my own issues with sex, and my own sexual health. Which in all honesty is not good at all. Dating has been non existent for years. Mainly due to me being so busy for most of my life with working 3 jobs to survive that I never really got a chance like I do now to try to understand why.

All of this came about with your website. I am very grateful to kind of start a new journey here. To try to understand myself more. I want to thank you guys for this. I feel like this has kind of been a nice wake up call. Thanks again.'
