I'm excited to announce that we are launching a community investment round on Wefunder!

Wefunder allows anyone—whether or not they're an accredited investor—to become an angel investor in a company they love.

We're inviting our friends, family, and customers to invest first with an early bird bonus. This means our closest contacts can make non-binding reservations before we go live to the public.

Our achievements thus far have been made possible by your support, feedback, and encouragement.

It only makes sense to share ownership with our earliest believers and continue growing our vision together!

Please reach out with any questions. I'd be happy to schedule a call to share more!

Thank you for believing in us!

~Kellan
