

David Stybr

Investment Executive | Board Member | Listed Companies | IPO | Movie Production

Profile

As a seasoned executive with a proven track record in steering listed companies, spearheading movie production ventures, and orchestrating successful IPOs and acquisitions, I bring a wealth of experience to the intersection of finance, investments, venture capital, and real estate.

Throughout my career, I have played pivotal roles in diverse business environments, from managing assets exceeding 200 million EUR for family offices and venture capital firms to navigating the intricacies of US futures markets for investment companies. My journey includes impactful leadership in a leading Central and Eastern European real estate company, where I contributed significantly to financial management.
