Carey L. Officer

President of PERSOWN Connect | Healthcare Strategy Expert
Jacksonville, Florida, United States

Summary

As a healthcare innovator and leader with over two decades of experience, I have a passion for creating and delivering solutions that enhance the quality of life for healthcare consumers worldwide. I am currently the President of PERSOWN Connect, a mission-driven company that aims to revolutionize global health in developing countries through a cutting-edge digital health platform that integrates proven technologies and innovative financing solutions.

Throughout my career, I have demonstrated a remarkable track record of pioneering and scaling profitable and impactful healthcare initiatives that leverage technology, data, and human-centered design. Some of my notable achievements include launching the first pediatric telemedicine service, leading the digital transformation and growth of a large healthcare organization, incubating and licensing trusted content for a leading education site, and speaking and publishing on healthcare innovation, digital health, and telehealth. My core strengths include executive-level leadership, strategic planning and analysis, digital strategy and execution, product management, operations management, and P&L management.
