The PCC facilitates peers and clinicians to work effectively together, leading to better outcomes for their clients. We assist peers to understand the clinical elements of their practice, keep professional boundaries and work-life balance, Medi-Cal conformity, and utilize telehealth. We assist clinicians to understand the peer (whole-person) approach in treatment to offer new insights, awareness, skills, and tools. This collaboration results in both valuing each other's contributions and supporting one another more effectively, serving the community.
