II. BACKGROUND

Based on the above the structure used for Mysk Orlando Growth Fund LLC is as follows:

1. Mysk Orlando Growth Fund LLC, a Delaware LLC, offers limited liability company interests via their public REG CF Offering.
2. The Offering is listed through Caravan Funds (www.caravanfunds.com), an SEC-registered, non-broker-dealer member of FINRA.
3. Investors purchase Class A Shares at $1000 per share, becoming parties to the LLC Agreement governing the company under Delaware law.
4. Investors have the right to cancel under certain conditions, and the Company can reject subscriptions according to the SEC regulations for Reg CF.
5. The Company will invest the raised funds in purchasing 1-14 condominium units in Orlando, Florida, from an affiliate of the Manager, at a 12% discount to pre-construction prices.

6. The units are part of the Mysk Hotel and Condominium Resort within the Everest Place master-planned community.
7. The Company will lease the units for 2-5 years as vacation rentals, managed by EICON FLORIDA RENTAL MGR, LLC, and then sell them, subject to market conditions.
8. The purchase will be made in cash as per Florida law applicable to New Construction Condominiums.
9. The Company will allocate income, gains, losses, deductions, and expenses to follow cash distributions, ensuring each Member's capital account aligns with their entitled amount upon liquidation.
10. Upon liquidation, proceeds from the sale of units and assets will pay off liabilities, and remaining funds will be distributed to Members based on their capital account balances, reflecting their share of profits and losses.

In summary, this is an investment in Mysk Orlando Growth Fund LLC, a Delaware LLC that will purchase and lease condominium units in Orlando, Florida. Investors purchase Class A Shares, and profits, losses, and distributions are allocated based on the LLC Agreement. Upon liquidation, proceeds will be distributed to Members after paying liabilities. The investment is governed by an Investment Agreement and the LLC Agreement, with disputes settled through arbitration. The required company disclosure is published in SEC and can be found there and on the Carvan Funds site.
