Summary

Julia Coulter is a director, writer and actor based in Los Angeles. A graduate of the Royal Welsh College of Music and Drama (RWCMD), she earned her BA Honors in Acting. Julia worked with some of the UK's top directors and performed on some of London's biggest stages: The Royal Court and The National. In her second year of training, she booked her first professional voiceover job with BBC Radio.

After moving to Los Angeles, Julia signed with FireStarter Entertainment. Julia made her network debut in the HBO series Insecure, and shortly after, she booked a role on the Showtime pilot The Wood.

In 2019, she directed her first short film, Brothers, which she wrote and produced. The film stars Sharon Lawrence and has played at a total of ten film festivals including the Academy Award Qualifying New Hampshire Film Festival. Her second short film, Habit, which she wrote and starred in is currently making the festival rounds, it most recently won best short film at the Vegas Movie Awards.

Behind the camera, Julia has worked in the production office for HBO's Silicon Valley, Generation, Insecure and The Idol, the Netflix series Special and Amazon series Hunters X-Ray.
