Hello, Everyone!

I hope this message finds you well. As well as an email can find you, of course. I am thrilled to share some exciting news with you about my upcoming feature film THE RATTLIN BOG, my debut as a writer/director with the help of an incredible team of young and passionate professionals.

We're so thrilled to announce the initial phase of our upcoming feature film, and to invite you into our first wave of financing! We are opening up an exclusive early investment opportunity to our friends, family, and associates who have supported my work (and this project) before launching our campaign to the public. Your support and belief in my journey has always meant the world to me, and I want you to be part of this exciting next step.

Here are a few key details about the project:

- Project Title: THE RATTLIN' BOG (based off the short film of the same name)
- Genre: Dark Comedy / Horror
- Synopsis: When three friends embark on a weekend getaway, their bond is put to the test as pride, fragile egos, and jealousy threaten to tear them apart.
- Budget: $150,000

I am incredibly passionate about this project and believe it has great potential, and your early support can make a significant impact on bringing this vision to life. As a special bonus, we are opening up VIP perks for early investors. If you are among the initial $25,000, you stand to make back 138% PLUS 40% of Net Profits while normal investors - after the early bird VIP - stand to make back 125%. These VIP perks are our way of expressing gratitude for your eager and dedicated support as we begin our creative work.

If you are interested in learning more about the project and the investment opportunities, please feel free to reach out! I would be happy to provide you with more detailed information and answer any questions you might have. Additionally, your support of this project means everything and the best way to support outside of financial investments is spreading the word! If you know anyone who may be interested in partnering with our production, send them the link and information to our film, or have them get a hold of me and my team.

I leave you with the link to our platform where you can find more information as well as invest directly to the project: <https://wefunder.com/rattlin.bog.llc>

*We are 'testing the waters' to gauge investor interest in an offering under Regulation Crowdfunding. No money or other consideration is being solicited. If sent, it will not be accepted. No part of the purchase price will be received until a Form C is filed and only through Wefunder's platform. Any indication of interest involves no obligation or commitment of any kind.

Looking forward to hearing from you soon!

Best regards,

Maxwell Hughes Klaiber

Hello, Everyone!

I am going around and spreading the word about my upcoming horror-comedy feature film! My team and I wanted this film to be community driven. We are all about open and honest communication between investors and production. As well as anyone just following along! We will be posting our triumphs, our shortcomings, and everything in between. We want to make a change to what independent feature filmmaking can look like. Everyone is welcome to come along for the ride!

Like other independent filmmakers before us, we have decided to open our film on WeFunder - a public investing platform where anyone can buy equity points in our film. The entry to investing starts at only $100. We believe in giving the people, not the studios, the power in the movie. Especially at our budget level! Where if the film is successful, that money goes back to the people who believed and supported it from the beginning. We are also offering that the first $50,000 dollars invested on the platform toward our budget will receive 138% return of initial investment as compared to 125% which will be the standard after that first $50,000. We aim to have a budget of $150,000, but if there is enough interest, we will max out our project to $250,000 as to not dilute too many shares.

If this sounds like something you would be interested in, even if not as an investor yourself, feel free to reach out and get a hold of me! I love talking about this project and I love talking about how we are going about making it. It's all about connecting with like-minded individuals who also want to see a change in independent filmmaking. Thank you for your time!!

*We are 'testing the waters' to gauge investor interest in an offering under Regulation Crowdfunding. No money or other consideration is being solicited. If sent, it will not be accepted. No part of the purchase price will be received until a Form C is filed and only through Wefunder's platform. Any indication of interest involves no obligation or commitment of any kind.

Hello, Everyone!

I hope this email finds you well, again. I wanted to follow up on the email I sent last Friday regarding the exciting investment opportunity for my upcoming feature film, THE RATTLIN' BOG.

As a reminder, this project marks my debut as a writer/director, supported by an incredible team of passionate professionals. I wanted to reach back out to remind everyone about our campaign. We have some small updates, and I wanted to let everyone know we will begin posting updates on all of our socials as the film is now underway. We want to remind everyone that we are thrilled to offer an exclusive early investment opportunity to friends, family, and close associates before launching our campaign to the public.

Key details about the project:

- Project Title: THE RATTLIN' BOG (based on the short film of the same name)
- Genre: Dark Comedy / Horror
- Synopsis: When three friends embark on a weekend getaway, their bond is put to the test as pride, fragile egos, and jealousy threaten to tear them apart.
- Budget: $150,000

Early Investment Perks:

- Early investors contributing to the initial $50,000 will receive a 138% return plus 40% of net profits. This is an update from our last email. We decided as a team that it would mean more for us to have the first $50,000 receive an additional bonus. It goes back to wanting this to be a community driven experience, and we believe fully in giving back the best we can to the community that supports us.
- Subsequent investors will stand to make back 125%.

Your support can make a significant impact on bringing this vision to life. If you are interested in learning more about the project and investment opportunities, please don't hesitate to reach out. I would be happy to provide you with more detailed information and answer any questions you might have.

Additionally, your support in spreading the word would be greatly appreciated! If you know anyone who may be interested in partnering with our production, please share the link and information about our film or have them contact me directly. There is so much you can do for our film outside of financial compensation. The freest and easiest way to contribute to our film is letting as many people as possible know about it!

For more information and to invest directly in the project, please visit: <https://wefunder.com/rattlin.bog.llc>.

*We are 'testing the waters' to gauge investor interest in an offering under Regulation Crowdfunding. No money or other consideration is being solicited. If sent, it will not be accepted. No part of the purchase price will be received until a Form C is filed and only through Wefunder's platform. Any indication of interest involves no obligation or commitment of any kind.

Thank you for your time and consideration. I look forward to hearing from you soon!

My apologies that things got out of hand there towards the end. I have never experienced anything like this before in my life, but I thought I should share anyway. All mutual parties are okay now 🤝

HELLO EVERYONE!!

We are SO close to being able to begin! I made this fun little bingo card to show you how close we are to hitting our minimum goal. If we are able to fill this out in the next few days, we can begin our movie! I'll be updating the progress and taking off slots as they get knocked off the board!

Once I get out of this bog, I'll be able to match these shots with my cast and crew members with shots of our own 🤝
