Hi Ashtor, wow I would love to but I currently would not have enough funds to be able to at this moment. You know I totally love this and thinking about my future plans to purchase for myself and maybe as an investment as well.

I've already put you in my clients roster already. But just for clarification, in the Reg CF, you can invest as low as $100

Oh ok we can do that lol

We can set up a meeting for this week

Dear James,

My name is Emanuel Ashtor, Founder of Vertikka Home. Our mission is to address the housing shortage and affordability crisis by providing innovative prefab and modular homes. We offer sustainable construction solutions tailored for the residential, government, and commercial sectors.

I'm reaching out to explore the possibility of partnering with PulteGroup to establish manufacturing facilities across the U.S. and build homes using our EPD-certified production processes. With the rising demand for accessible and affordable housing, I believe there's a significant opportunity for us to make a meaningful impact together.

I would appreciate the chance to connect and schedule a brief meeting to discuss this opportunity further. I'm confident that our partnership could drive mutual growth and success.

Looking forward to your response.

Best regards,
