Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements (Unaudited)

(Amounts in thousands, except share data)

A. Basis of Financial Statement Preparation

The accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States ("U.S. GAAP") and with the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") for interim financial information. The consolidated financial statements include all adjustments which, in the opinion of management, are necessary for a fair presentation of the results for the interim periods presented. All such adjustments are of a normal, recurring nature.

Certain information and disclosures required by U.S. GAAP for complete financial statements have been omitted in accordance with the rules and regulations of the SEC. These condensed consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and notes thereto included in the Company's annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005.

Use of Estimates in Financial Statement Preparation--The preparation of financial statements in accordance with U.S. GAAP requires the use of estimates and assumptions that affect reported amounts. The Company's consolidated financial statements include amounts that are based on management's best estimates and judgments. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

New Accounting Pronouncement Adopted--As discussed in Note D, the Company adopted Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123 (revised), "Share-Based Payment ("FAS 123R")," effective January 1, 2006. FAS 123R requires all share-based payments to employees, including grants of stock options, to be recognized as compensation costs in the financial statements based on their estimated fair values over the requisite employee service period (that is, pro forma disclosure is no longer an alternative to financial statement recognition). Prior to January 1, 2006, in accordance with FAS 123, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation," the Company followed Accounting Principles Board Opinion 25, "Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees" ("APB 25"). Under APB 25, no stock-based compensation expense was recognized related to the Company's stock options and Employee Stock Purchase Plan, as all options granted under the stock option plans had an exercise price equal to the market value of the underlying common stock on the date of grant and, with respect to the Employee Stock Purchase Plan, the discount did not exceed 15%.

Financial Statement Presentation-Changes--Certain amounts have been reclassified to conform to the current interim period presentation.

B. Seasonality of Business

Operating results for the six months ended July 1, 2006 are not indicative of results that may be expected for any other interim period or for the year ending December 31, 2006 because of business seasonality. Business seasonality results in higher revenues during the second and third quarters as compared with the first and fourth quarters of the year, while the methods of accounting for fixed costs, such as depreciation expense, are not significantly impacted by business seasonality.

C. Accounts Receivable, Net

Accounts receivable, net, consisted of the following:

	July 1, 2006	December 31, 2005
Accounts receivable	$ 78,967	$ 67,504
Receivables under contractual arrangements	10,054	4,287
	89,021	71,791
Less allowances for doubtful accounts	3,712	2,254
	$ 85,309	$ 69,537

Receivables under contractual arrangements consist of work-in-process in accordance with the terms of contracts, primarily with utility services customers.

D. Share-Based Compensation

The Davey Tree Expert Company 2004 Omnibus Stock Plan was approved by the Company's shareholders at its annual shareholders' meeting in May 2004. The Plan is administered by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors, with the maximum number of common shares that may be granted to or purchased by all employees and directors under this Plan being 5,000,000. In addition to the maintenance of the Employee Stock Purchase Plan, the Plan provides for the grant of stock options, restricted stock, stock appreciation rights, stock purchase rights, stock equivalent units, cash awards, and other stock or performance-based incentives. These awards are payable in cash or common shares, or any combination thereof, as established by the Compensation Committee.

New Accounting Pronouncement Adopted--Effective January 1, 2006, the Company adopted FAS 123R, "Share-Based Payment." FAS 123R requires all share-based payments to employees, including grants of stock options, to be recognized as compensation costs in the financial statements based on their estimated fair values over the requisite employee service period (that is, pro forma disclosure is no longer an alternative to financial statement recognition).

Prior to January 1, 2006, in accordance with FAS 123, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation," the Company followed APB 25, "Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees." Under APB 25, no stock-based compensation expense was recognized related to the Company's stock options and Employee Stock Purchase Plan, as all options granted under the stock option plans had an exercise price equal to the market value of the underlying common stock on the date of grant and, with respect to the Employee Stock Purchase Plan, the discount did not exceed 15%.

Under FAS 123R, all new grants of employee stock options awarded after December 31, 2005 to employees and subscriptions to purchase shares under the Employee Stock Purchase Plan after December 31, 2005 result in compensation costs being recognized. In adopting FAS 123R, there was no effect on prior period financial statements as compensation costs are only permitted to be recognized prospectively.

D. Share-Based Compensation (continued)

Stock-based compensation expense under all share-based payment plans – our Employee Stock Purchase Plan, stock option plans, and performance-based restricted stock units – included in the results of operations follows:

	Three Months Ended		Six Months Ended
	July 1, 2006	July 2, 2005	July 1, 2006	July 2, 2005
Compensation expense, all share-based payment plans	$ 179	$ 75	$ 321	$ 126

As a result of adopting FAS 123R on January 1, 2006, reported results for the six months ended July 1, 2006, were lower than if the Company had continued to account for share-based compensation under APB 25, as follows: (i) income before income taxes--$115; (ii) net income--$69; (iii) basic net income per share--$.01; and, (iv) diluted net income per share--$.01.

Stock-based compensation consisted of the following:

Employee Stock Purchase Plan--Under the Employee Stock Purchase Plan, all full-time employees with one year of service are eligible to purchase, through payroll deduction, shares of common stock. Employee purchases under the Employee Stock Purchase Plan are at 85% of the fair market value of the common shares--a 15% discount. Compensation costs are recognized as payroll deductions are made. The 15% discount of total shares purchased under the plan resulted in compensation cost being recognized during the six months ended July 1, 2006 of $112.

Stock Option Plans--Since adopting FAS 123R on January 1, 2006 and through the end of the second quarter, July 1, 2006, there were 238,000 stock option awards granted. The stock option awards were granted at an exercise price equal to the fair market value of the Company's common stock at the dates of grant. The stock options were awarded under a graded vesting schedule and have a term of ten years. Compensation costs for stock options are recognized over the requisite service period on the straight-line recognition method. Compensation expense for stock options during the six months ended July 1, 2006 was $24.

Performance-Based Restricted Stock Units--During February 2006, the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors awarded 36,687 Performance-Based Restricted Stock Units to certain management employees. Similar awards were made in prior periods. The awards vest over specified periods. The following table summarizes Performance-Based Restricted Stock Units as of July 1, 2006.

The Davey Tree Expert Company

(Amounts in thousands, except share data)

D. Share-Based Compensation (continued)

Date of Grant	Fair Value Per Share	Restricted Stock Units Granted
December 5, 2003	$ 13.50	16,508
May 19, 2004	15.70	27,643
February 29, 2005	20.00	37,468
February 28, 2006	6.22	36,687
		118,306

The fair value of the restricted stock units for awards made prior to January 1, 2006 is based on the market price of the Company's common stock on the date of award and is recognized as compensation cost on the straight-line recognition method over the vesting period. Under the provisions of FAS 123R, compensation cost for awards made after December 31, 2005 is determined using a fair-value method, amortized over the requisite service period and remeasured at each reporting date until the date of settlement. Compensation expense on restricted stock awards totaled $185 for the six months ended July 1, 2006 and $126 for the six months ended July 2, 2005.

For stock-based awards issued on or after January 1, 2006, the fair value of each award was estimated on the date of grant using a binomial option-pricing model. The binomial model considers a range of assumptions related to volatility, risk-free interest rate and employee exercise behavior. Expected volatilities utilized in the binomial model are based on historical volatility of the Company's stock prices and other factors. Similarly, the dividend yield is based on historical experience and expected future changes. The binomial model also incorporates exercise and forfeiture assumptions based on an analysis of historical data. The expected life of the stock-based awards is derived from the output of the binomial model and represents the period of time that awards granted are expected to be outstanding.

The fair values of stock-based awards granted during the six months ended July 1, 2006 were estimated at the date of grant with the following assumptions: volatility—14.1%; expected dividend yield—1.5%; risk-free interest rate—4.7% and expected life of the award—8.2 years.

As of July 1, 2006, there was $1,067 of unrecognized compensation cost related to performance-based restricted stock units, which will be recognized over a weighted-average period of 2.6 years.

	971,128	6.4 years	14.59	425,628	10.95

As of July 1, 2006, the aggregate intrinsic value of options outstanding was $7,681 and options exercisable was $4,914 ("intrinsic value" is defined as the amount by which the market price of a common share of stock exceeds the exercise price of an option). The Company issues common shares from treasury upon the exercise of stock options or restricted stock units.

E. Pension Plans

Substantially all of the Company's domestic employees are covered by noncontributory defined benefit pension plans. A plan for nonbargaining employees provides a benefit based primarily on annual compensation up to a defined level and years of credited service. Another plan is for bargaining employees not covered by union pension plans and provides benefits at a fixed monthly amount based upon length of service. During May 2004, the Company adopted a Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan ("SERP") and a Benefit Restoration Pension Plan ("Restoration Plan") for certain management employees. Both the SERP and the Restoration Plan are defined benefit plans under which nonqualified supplemental pension benefits will be paid in addition to amounts received under the Company's qualified retirement defined benefit pension plans, which are subject to Internal Revenue Service limitations on covered compensation.

The results of operations included the following net periodic benefit cost recognized related to the defined benefit pension plans.

Components of pension expense (income)	Three Months Ended		Six Months Ended
	July 1, 2006	July 2, 2005	July 1, 2006	July 2, 2005

Net pension expense of defined benefit pension plans	$ 233	$ 227	$ 466	$ 455

Contributions of $27 were made to the defined-benefit plans during the six-months ended July 1, 2006. The Company expects, as of July 1, 2006, to make additional defined-benefit plan contributions of $61 before December 31, 2006.

F. Long-Term Debt

Long-term debt consisted of the following:

	July 1, 2006	December 31, 2005
Revolving credit facility
Prime rate borrowings	$ 8,400	$ 3,600
LIBOR borrowings	42,000	25,000
	50,400	28,600

	51,336	29,730
Less current portion	766	665
	$ 50,570	$ 29,065

Revolving Credit Facility--The Company has a $120,000 revolving credit facility with a group of banks, which will expire in December 2007 and permits borrowings, as defined, up to $120,000 with a letter of credit sublimit of $70,000. The revolving credit facility contains certain affirmative and negative covenants customary for this type of facility and includes financial covenant ratios, as defined, with respect to funded debt to EBITDA (earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization), and funded debt to capitalization.

The Davey Tree Expert Company
Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements (Unaudited)
July 1, 2006

(Amounts in thousands, except share data)

As of July 1, 2006, the Company had unused commitments under the facility approximating $17,050, with $102,950 committed, consisting of borrowings of $46,900 and issued letters of credit of $56,050. Borrowings outstanding bear interest, at the Company's option, at the agent bank's prime rate or LIBOR plus a margin adjustment ranging from .7% to 1.5%, based on a ratio of funded debt to EBITDA. A commitment fee ranging from .15% to .20% is also required based on the average daily unborrowed commitment.

The Company uses an interest rate contract to effectively convert a portion of variable-rate revolving credit borrowings to a fixed rate, thus reducing the impact of interest-rate changes on future interest expense. As of July 1, 2006, the Company had an interest rate contract outstanding, with an underlying notional amount totaling $10,000, requiring interest to be paid at 4.96% and maturing in November 2008. The fair value of the contract is the amount quoted by the financial institution that the Company would pay or receive to terminate the agreement, an asset of $114 at July 1, 2006.

G. Comprehensive Income (Loss)

The components of comprehensive income (loss) follow:

	Three Months Ended		Six Months Ended

H. Net Income Per Share and Common Shares Outstanding (continued)

The partially-paid subscriptions relate to common shares purchased at $12.00 per share, in connection with the stock subscription offering completed in August 2002, whereby some employees opted to finance their subscription with a down-payment of at least 10% of their total purchase price and a seven-year promissory note for the balance due, bearing interest at 4.75% per year. Promissory note payments, of both principal and interest, are made either by payroll deduction or annual lump-sum payment. The promissory notes are collateralized with the common shares subscribed and the common shares are only issued when the related promissory note is paid-in-full. Dividends are paid on all unissued subscribed shares.

The purchase rights outstanding were granted, in connection with the stock subscription offering completed in August 2002, to all employees (excluding directors, officers and certain operations management) that purchased $5 or more of common stock. A right to purchase one additional common share at $12.00 per share was granted for every two common shares purchased. Each right may be exercised at the rate of one-seventh per year and will expire seven years after the date that the right was granted. Employees may not exercise a right if they cease to be employed by the Company.

I. Segment Information

The Company's operating results are reported in two segments: Residential and Commercial Services and Utility Services for operations in the United States. Residential and Commercial Services provides for the treatment, preservation, maintenance, cultivation, planting and removal of trees, shrubs and other plant life; its services also include the practice of landscaping, tree surgery, tree feeding and tree spraying, as well as the application of fertilizer, herbicides and insecticides. Utility Services is principally engaged in the practice of line clearing for public utilities, including the clearing of tree growth from power lines, clearance of rights-of-way and chemical brush control.

Our Canadian operations provide a comprehensive range of Davey horticultural services, and Davey Resource Group provides services related to natural resource management and consulting, forestry research and development, and environmental planning and also maintains research, technical support and laboratory diagnostic facilities. Canadian operations and Davey Resource Group are presented below as "All Other."

Measurement of Segment Profit and Loss and Segment Assets--The Company evaluates performance and allocates resources based primarily on operating income and also actively manages business unit operating assets.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations.

(Amounts in thousands, except share data)

We provide a wide range of horticultural services to residential, commercial, utility and institutional customers throughout the United States and Canada.

Our operating results are reported in two segments: Residential and Commercial Services and Utility Services for operations in the United States. Residential and Commercial Services provides for the treatment, preservation, maintenance, cultivation, planting and removal of trees, shrubs and other plant life; its services also include the practice of landscaping, tree surgery, tree feeding and tree spraying, as well as the application of fertilizer, herbicides and insecticides. Utility Services is principally engaged in the practice of line clearing for public utilities, including the clearing of tree growth from power lines, clearance of rights-of-way and chemical brush control.

Second Quarter Overview

- Revenues of $132,332 in the second quarter of 2006 were 9.0% higher as compared to $121,404 in the second quarter of 2005. Revenues increased 15.6% in Utility Services, 3.5% in Residential and Commercial Services and, in total, for All Other segments increased 9.2%.
- Income from operations for the second quarter of 2006 was $13,721 compared to $12,524 in the second quarter of 2005. Income from operations was $2,378 in Utility Services and $8,877 for Residential and Commercial Services and, in total, for All Other segments $3,192.
- Net income for the second quarter of 2006 was $7,694 or $1.00 per share as compared to $6,888 or $.88 per share in the second quarter of 2005.

First Half and Cash Flow Overview

- Revenues increased 11.5% to $233,704 in the first half of 2006 compared to $209,553 in the first half of 2005. Revenues increased 17.1% in Utility Services, 3.1% in Residential and Commercial Services and, in total, for All Other segments increased 20.2%.
- Income from operations for the first half of 2006 was $13,754 compared to $10,545 in the first half of 2005. Income from operations for the first half of 2006 was $4,889 in Utility Services, $7,086 in Residential and Commercial Services, and $3,950 for All Other segments.
- Net income for the first half of 2006 was $7,088 or $.90 per share as compared to $5,181 or $.65 per share in the first half of 2005.
- Cash flow provided by operations was $5,313 in the first half of 2006 compared to $1,526 in the first half of 2005.

Results of Operations--Second Quarter--Three Months Ended July 1, 2006 Compared to Three Months Ended July 2, 2005.

Revenues--Revenues of $132,332 increased $10,928 compared with $121,404 in 2005. Utility Services increased $7,190 or 15.6% compared with the second quarter 2005. Increases in existing contracts as well as new contracts and increased productivity within our eastern and western utility operations accounted for the increase. Residential and Commercial Services increased $1,977 or 3.5% from the comparable period last year. The increase is primarily attributable to a general increase in demand for Residential and Commercial services. All Other segments increased $1,761 or 9.2%. Increased demand for Canadian services coupled with new and expanded inventory and consulting contracts within the Resource Group account for the increase.

Operating Expenses--Operating expenses of $84,078 increased $6,699 compared with the second quarter 2005 but, as a percentage of revenues, decreased .2% to 63.5%. Utility Services increased $6,088 or 17.4% compared with the second quarter 2005. Additional labor and equipment costs necessary to support the increased revenue in both our eastern and western utility operations, account for the increase. Residential and Commercial Services increased $797 or 2.7% compared with 2005. Increases in labor, equipment and material expense necessary to support the increase in revenues were slightly offset by a reduction in subcontractor expense. All Other segments increased $624 or 5.3%. The increase is due to an increase in labor and equipment costs associated with the increased revenue within our Canadian and Resource Group operations.

Selling Expenses--Selling expenses of $19,450 for the second quarter increased $1,835 over the second quarter 2005 and as a percentage of revenues increased .2% to 14.7%. Utility Services experienced an increase of $441 or 10.3% over the same period last year, primarily for field management wages and incentives and travel expenses associated with the increased revenue. Residential and Commercial Services experienced an increase of $984 or 8.3% over the second quarter 2005. The increase is attributable to increased field management wages and incentives expense and branch office wages and expenses. All Other segments combined increased $299 or 11.3% for field management wages and incentive expense primarily in our Canadian operations, the result of increased revenues.

General and Administrative Expenses--General and administrative expenses of $8,123 increased $613 from $7,510 in the second quarter 2005 but as a percentage of revenues, decreased .1% to 6.1%. The increase is attributable to an increase in salary and incentive expense, professional services and employee education and training expense, computer and office supplies and stock-based compensation expense.

Depreciation and Amortization Expense--Depreciation and amortization expense of $7,045 increased $727 from $6,318 in the second quarter 2005, and as a percentage of revenues increased .1% to 5.3%. The increase is the result of additional capital expenditures necessary to support the continued increase in business levels.

Gain on the Sale of Assets, Net--Gain on the sale of assets of $85 increased $143 from the $58 loss experienced in the same period last year. The increase is the result of an increase in the number of vehicles disposed of in the second quarter 2006 as compared to the second quarter 2005.

Interest Expense--Interest expense of $860 increased $251 from the $609 incurred in the second quarter 2005. The increase is the result of higher interest rates on our bank borrowings and higher debt levels as compared to the second quarter 2005.

Income Taxes--Income tax expense for the second quarter was $5,108, as compared to $4,768 for the second quarter 2005. The 2006 effective tax rate was 39.9% as compared to 40.9% in 2005.

Net Income--Net income for the second quarter of $7,694 was $806 more than the $6,888 in the second quarter 2005 and, as a percentage of revenues, increased .1% to 5.8%

Results of Operations--First Half--Six Months Ended July 1, 2006 Compared to Six Months Ended July 2, 2005.

Revenues--Revenues of $233,704 increased 11.5% or $24,151 from the $209,553 in the first half of 2005. Utility Services increased 17.1% or $15,411. Increases in existing contracts, new contracts and increased productivity, within our eastern and western utility operations account for the increase. Residential and Commercial Services increased $2,812 or 3.1% from the comparable period last year, the result of an overall increase in demand for Residential and Commercial services. All Other segments increased $5,928 or 20.2% from the first half of 2005. The increase is primarily attributable to an overall increase in the demand for Canadian services as well as increases in inventory and consulting contracts within the Resource Group.

Operating Expenses--Operating expenses of $154,053 increased $15,019 from the $139,034 in the first half of 2005 but as a percentage of revenues decreased .5% to 65.9%. Utility Services increased $12,300 or 17.8% from 2005. Eastern utility operations incurred additional costs for labor and equipment associated with the start-up of new contracts and additional revenues, while our western utility operations experienced increases in labor and equipment costs, the result of additional revenues. Residential and Commercial Services increased $554 or 1.1%. Increases in labor, equipment and materials associated with the increase in revenues were partially offset by a decrease in subcontractor expense. All Other segments increased $2,824 or 15.2% from the first half of 2005. Increases in labor, equipment and material expense occurred in our Canadian operations, the result of increased revenues.

Selling Expenses--Selling expenses of $35,658 increased $3,392 over the first half 2005 but as a percentage of revenues declined .1% to 15.3%. Utility Services experienced an increase of $920 or 11.0% over the same period last year, primarily for field management wages and incentives and travel expenses associated with the increased revenue. Residential and Commercial Services experienced an increase of $1,591 or 7.4% over the first half 2005. The increase is attributable to increased field management wages and incentives expense and branch office wages and expenses. All Other segments combined increased $809 or 18.0% for field management wages and incentive expense primarily in our Canadian operations, the result of increased revenues.

General and Administrative Expenses--General and administrative expenses of $16,942 increased $1,464 or 9.5% from $15,478 in the first half 2005, but as a percentage of revenues declined .2% to 7.2%. The increase is the result of increases in salary and incentive expense, professional services and employee education and training expense, computer and office supplies, and stock-based compensation expense as compared to the first half 2005.

Depreciation and Amortization Expense--Depreciation and amortization expense of $13,503 increased $1,316 from $12,187 in the first half of 2005, but as a percentage of revenues remained stable at 5.8%. The increase is due to additional capital expenditures for equipment among all operating segments, the result of increased demand for our services.

Gain on the Sale of Assets, Net--Gain on the sale of assets of $206 increased $249 from the $43 loss experienced in the same period last year. The increase is the result of an increase in the number of vehicles disposed of in the first half of 2006 as compared to the first half 2005.

Interest Expense--Interest expense of $1,441 increased $408 from the $1,033 incurred in the first half 2005. The increase is attributable to higher interest rates on bank borrowings and higher debt levels during the first half 2005.

Income Taxes--Income tax was $4,706 as compared to $3,586 for the first half 2005. The 2006 effective tax rate was 39.9% as compared to 40.9% during the first half 2005.

Net Income--Net income of $7,088 was $1,907 more than the $5,181 for the first half 2005 and, as a percentage of revenues, increased .5% to 3.0%.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

Our principal financial requirements are for capital spending, working capital and business acquisitions.

Cash decreased $3,029 during the first six months of 2006. Net cash provided by operating activities of $5,313 and financing activities of $19,179 was offset by $27,521 of cash used in investing activities.

Net Cash Provided by Operating Activities

Operating activities for the first six months of 2006 provided $5,313 of cash, a net increase of $3,787 as compared to the $1,526 provided during the first six months of 2005. The net increase of $3,787 in cash provided by operating activities for first-half 2006 as compared to first-half 2005 was attributable to $1,907 increase in net income, $1,316 increase in depreciation and amortization, $1,063 increase in other items; all of which were offset by a net $499 use of cash from changes in operating assets and liabilities.

Accounts receivable increased $15,772 during the first six months of 2006. The increase arises primarily from business seasonality and changes in business levels. With respect to the change in accounts receivable arising from business seasonality, the "days-sales-outstanding" in accounts receivable ("DSO") at the end of second quarter 2006 decreased one day to 58 days, as compared with the end of the second quarter 2005. The DSO at July 2, 2005 was 59 days.

Accounts payable and accrued expenses decreased $5,164 during the first six months of 2006. Increases in employee compensation, self-insured medical claims and tax liabilities were offset by decreases in commercial insurance payables and trade payables.

Self-insurance accruals increased $6,327 in 2006, as compared with the increase of $3,438 experienced in 2005. The increase occurred in all classifications -- workers' compensation, general liability and vehicle liability--and resulted primarily from an overall increase in deductible amounts under commercial insurance (that is, an increase in the self-insured risk retention).

Operating assets, net increased $1,585, a change of $3,690 over the $2,105 decrease in 2005. The increase is attributable to increases in prepaid expenses and deposits related to insurance coverage.

Net Cash Used In Investing Activities

Investing activities used $27,521 of cash, $7,616 more than the $19,905 used in the first six months of 2005. Capital expenditures made during both first-half 2006 and first-half 2005 were necessary to support our increased business levels. We anticipate that capital expenditures in 2006 will exceed that of 2005.

Net Cash Provided by Financing Activities

Financing activities provided $19,179 of cash, $1,595 more than the $17,584 provided during the first six months of 2005. Our revolving credit facility and other borrowings, net provided $1,369 more than the $19,944 provided in 2005 and were used primarily for capital expenditures. Treasury share transactions (purchases and sales) used $297 less than the $1,187 used in 2005. Dividends paid increased to $1,244 from the $1,173 paid in the first six months of 2005.

Revolving Credit Facility--The Company has a $120,000 revolving credit facility with a group of banks, which will expire in December 2007 and permits borrowings, as defined, up to $120,000 with a letter of credit sublimit of $70,000.

As of July 1, 2006, the Company had unused commitments under the facility approximating $17,050, with $102,950 committed, consisting of borrowings of $46,900 and issued letters of credit of $56,050. Borrowings outstanding bear interest, at the Company's option, at the agent bank's prime rate or LIBOR plus a margin adjustment ranging from .7% to 1.5%, based on a ratio of funded debt to EBITDA. A commitment fee ranging from .15% to .20% is also required based on the average daily unborrowed commitment.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

There are no “off-balance sheet arrangements” as that term is defined in Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) Regulation S-K, Item 303(a)(4)(ii).

Contractual Obligations Summary

The following is a summary of our long-term contractual obligations, as at July 1, 2006, to make future payments for the periods indicated.

Description	Total	Six Months Ending December 31,	Year Ending December 31,				Thereafter
		2006	2007	2008	2009	2010
Revolving credit facility	$ 50,400	$ -	$ 50,400	$ -	$ -	$ -	$ -
Term loans	936	21	765	75	75	-	-

Operating lease obligations	4,769	1,107	1,657	1,084	579	270	72
Self-insurance accruals	40,587	8,392	12,650	8,972	5,134	2,486	2,953
Other liabilities	2,815	363	809	842	422	201	178
	$ 102,462	$ 10,425	$ 67,763	$ 11,460	$ 6,654	$ 2,957	$ 3,203

The self-insurance accruals in the summary above reflect the total of the undiscounted amount accrued as at July 1, 2006 and amounts estimated to be due each year may differ from actual payments required to fund claims. Other liabilities include estimates of future funding requirements related to retirement plans and other items. Because their future cash outflows are uncertain, noncurrent deferred taxes have been excluded from the summary above.

As of July 1, 2006, we were contingently liable for letters of credit in the amount of $59,122, of which $56,050 is committed under the revolving credit facility. Substantially all of these letters of credit, which expire within a year, are planned for renewal as necessary.

Also, as is common in our industry, we have performance obligations that are supported by surety bonds, which expire during 2006 and 2007. We intend to renew the surety bonds where appropriate and as necessary.

Capital Resources

Cash, generated from operations, and our revolving credit facility are our primary sources of capital.

Business seasonality results in higher revenues during the second and third quarters as compared with the first and fourth quarters of the year, while our methods of accounting for fixed costs, such as depreciation expense, are not significantly impacted by business seasonality. Capital resources during these periods are equally affected. We satisfy seasonal working capital needs and other financing requirements with the revolving credit facility and several other short-term lines of credit. We are continually reviewing our existing sources of financing and evaluating alternatives. At July 1, 2006, we had working capital of $43,211, short-term lines of credit approximating $4,501 and $17,050 available under our revolving credit facility.

Our sources of capital presently allow us the financial flexibility to meet our capital-spending plan and to complete business acquisitions.

New Accounting Pronouncement Adopted

Effective January 1, 2006, the Company adopted Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123 (revised), "Share-Based Payment ("FAS 123R")." FAS 123R requires all share-based payments to employees, including grants of stock options, to be recognized as compensation costs in the financial statements based on their estimated fair values over the requisite employee service period (that is, pro forma disclosure is no longer an alternative to financial statement recognition).

Prior to January 1, 2006, in accordance with FAS 123, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation," the Company followed Accounting Principles Board Opinion 25, "Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees" ("APB 25"). Under APB 25, no stock-based compensation expense was recognized related to the Company's stock options and Employee Stock Purchase Plan, as all options granted under the stock option plans had an exercise price equal to the market value of the underlying common stock on the date of grant and, with respect to the Employee Stock Purchase Plan, the discount did not exceed 15%.

Under FAS 123R, all new grants of employee stock options awarded after December 31, 2005 to employees and subscriptions to purchase shares under the Employee Stock Purchase Plan after December 31, 2005 result in compensation costs being recognized. In adopting FAS 123R, there was no effect on prior period financial statements as compensation costs are only permitted to be recognized prospectively.

Compensation costs under all share-based payment plans—our Employee Stock Purchase Plan, stock option plans, and performance-based restricted stock units—totaled $321 for the six months ended July 1, 2006 and $126 for the six months ended July 2, 2005.

As of July 1, 2006, there was $1,067 of unrecognized compensation cost related to performance-based restricted stock units, which will be recognized over a weighted-average period of 2.6 years.

Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates

Our consolidated financial statements are prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. The preparation of these financial statements requires the use of estimates, judgments and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the periods presented.

On an ongoing basis, we evaluate our estimates and assumptions, including those related to accounts receivable, specifically those receivables under contractual arrangements primarily arising from Utility Services customers; allowance for doubtful accounts; and self-insurance accruals. We base our estimates on historical experience and on various other factors that we believe to be reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis for making judgments about the carrying values of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

We believe the following are our "critical accounting policies and estimates"--those most important to the financial presentations and those that require the most difficult, subjective or complex judgments.

Revenue Recognition--Revenues from Residential and Commercial Services are recognized as the services are provided and amounts are determined to be collectible. Revenues from contractual arrangements, primarily with Utility Services customers, are recognized based on costs incurred to total estimated contract costs. Changes in estimates and assumptions related to total estimated contract costs may have a material effect on the amounts reported as receivables arising from contractual arrangements and the corresponding amounts of revenues and profit.

Utility Services Customers--We generate a significant portion of revenues and corresponding accounts receivable from our customers in the utility industry. One utility industry customer approximated 12% of revenues during 2005, 13% during 2004 and 14% during 2003. Adverse conditions in the utility industry or individual utility customer operations may affect the collectibility of our receivables or our ability to generate ongoing revenues.

Allowance for Doubtful Accounts--In determining the allowance for doubtful accounts, we evaluate the collectibility of our accounts receivable based on a combination of factors. In circumstances where we are aware of a specific customer's inability to meet its financial obligations to us (e.g., bankruptcy filings), we record a specific allowance for doubtful accounts against amounts due to reduce the net recognized receivable to the amount we reasonably believe will be collected. For all other customers, we recognize allowances for doubtful accounts based on the length of time the receivables are past due. If circumstances change (e.g., unexpected material adverse changes in a major customer's ability to meet its financial obligation to us or higher than expected customer defaults), our estimates of the recoverability of amounts could differ from the actual amounts recovered.

Self-Insurance Accruals--We are generally self-insured for losses and liabilities related primarily to workers' compensation, vehicle liability and general liability claims. We use commercial insurance as a risk-reduction strategy to minimize catastrophic losses. We accrue ultimate losses based upon estimates of the aggregate liability for claims incurred using certain actuarial assumptions followed in the insurance industry and based on our specific experience. Our self-insurance accruals include claims for which the ultimate losses will develop over a period of years. Accordingly, our estimates of ultimate losses can change as claims mature. Our accruals also are affected by changes in the number of new claims incurred and claim severity. The methodology for estimating ultimate losses and the total cost of claims were determined by third-party consulting actuaries; the resulting accruals are continually reviewed by us, and any adjustments arising from changes in estimates are reflected in income currently.

Our self-insurance accruals are based on estimates and, while we believe that the amounts accrued are adequate, the ultimate claims may be in excess of or less than the amounts provided.

Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This quarterly report on Form 10-Q contains forward-looking statements (within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995). These statements relate to future events or our future financial performance. In some cases, forward-looking statements may be identified by terminology such as "may," "will," "should," "expects," "plans," "anticipates," "believes," "estimates," "predicts," "potential," "continue" or the negative of these terms or other comparable terminology. These statements are only predictions and involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause our or our industry's actual results, levels of activity, performance or achievements to differ materially from what is expressed or implied in these forward-looking statements. Some important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements include:

- Our business, other than tree services to utility customers, is highly seasonal and weather-dependent.
- Significant customers, particularly utilities, may experience financial difficulties, resulting in payment delays or delinquencies.
- The seasonal nature of our business and changes in general and local economic conditions, among other factors, may cause our quarterly results to fluctuate, and our prior performance is not necessarily indicative of future results.
- Significant increases in fuel prices for extended periods of time will increase our operating expenses.
- We have significant contracts with our utility, commercial and government customers that include liability risk exposure as part of those contracts. Consequently, we have substantial insurance, and increases in the cost of obtaining adequate insurance, or the inadequacy of our self-insurance accruals or insurance coverages, could negatively impact our liquidity.
- Because no public market exists for our common shares, the ability of shareholders to sell their common shares is limited.
- We are subject to intense competition.
- Our failure to comply with environmental laws could result in significant liabilities, fines and/or penalties.
- We may encounter difficulties obtaining surety bonds or letters of credit necessary to support our operations.

Although we believe that the expectations reflected in the forward-looking statements are reasonable, we cannot guarantee future results, levels of activity, performance or achievements. Moreover, neither we nor any other person assumes responsibility for the accuracy and completeness of these statements. We are under no duty to update any of the forward-looking statements after the date of this quarterly report on Form 10-Q to conform these statements to actual future results.

The factors described above, as well as other factors that may adversely impact our actual results, are discussed in our annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005 in "Item 1A. Risk Factors."

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures about Market Risk.

During the six months ended July 1, 2006, there have been no material changes in the reported market risks presented in the Company's annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures.

As of the end of the period covered by this report, we carried out an evaluation, under the supervision and with the participation of our management, including our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, of the effectiveness of the design and operation of our disclosure controls and procedures pursuant to Rule 13a-15 of the Exchange Act. Based upon that evaluation, our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures were effective as of July 1, 2006 in alerting them on a timely basis to material information required to be included in our periodic filings with the SEC.

During the quarter ended July 1, 2006, there were no significant changes in our internal control over financial reporting or in other factors that have materially affected or are reasonably likely to materially affect our internal control over financial reporting.

Part II. Other Information

Items 1, 3 and 5 are not applicable.

Item 1A. Risk Factors.

Information regarding risk factors appears in “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations – Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements,” in Part I – Item 2 of this Form 10-Q and in Part I – Item 1A of the Company’s annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005. There have been no material changes from the risk factors described previously in the Company’s annual report on Form 10-K.

The following table provides information on purchases made by the Company of its common shares outstanding during the first six months of 2006.

Period	Total Number of Shares Purchased	Average Price Paid per Share	Total Number of Shares Purchased as Part of Publicly Announced Plans or Programs	Maximum Number (or Approximate Dollar Value) of Shares that May Yet Be Purchased Under the Plans or Programs n/a--Not applicable. There are no publicly announced plans or programs of the Company to purchase its common shares.

Our common shares are not listed or traded on an established public trading market and market prices are, therefore, not available. Semiannually, for purposes of our 401KSOP, the fair market value of our common shares is determined by an independent stock valuation firm, based upon our performance and financial condition, using a peer group of comparable companies selected by that firm. The peer group currently consists of ABM Industries Incorporated, Dycom Industries, Inc., FirstService Corporation, Quanta Services, Inc., Rollins, Inc., and The ServiceMaster Company. The semiannual valuations are effective for a period of six months and the per share price established by those valuations is the price at which our Board of Directors has determined our common shares will be bought and sold during that six-month period in transactions involving the Company or one of its employee benefit or stock purchase plans. Since 1979, the Company has provided a ready market for all shareholders through its direct purchase of their common shares, although the Company is under no obligation to do so. The purchases listed above were added to the treasury stock of the Company.

Item 4. Submission of Matters to a Vote of Security Holders

An annual meeting of shareholders was held on May 16, 2006. The following sets forth the actions considered and the results of the voting:
