Use of Proceeds

During the life of the Notes, ADB will use its best efforts to apply an amount equal to the net proceeds thereof for use in its ordinary operations to finance a pool of eligible projects which promote gender equality and women's empowerment, directly or indirectly through governments of ADB members or financial or other institutions or investments in private sector projects.

Eligible projects include those funded either in whole or in part from ADB's ordinary capital resources that target narrowing gender disparities and promoting empowerment of women and girls. To achieve this, such projects would typically address one or more of the following five areas/dimensions of gender equality and women's empowerment, either as part of the overall outcome of the project (referred to by ADB as a "gender equity theme" project) or by incorporating them into specific project components (referred to by ADB as an "effective gender mainstreaming" project):

- women's economic empowerment – access to finance/credit; micro, small and medium-sized enterprise development; agriculture development; value chain support; financial literacy and entrepreneurship training;
- gender equality in human development – education, skills development and technical and vocational education and training, including "nontraditional" female subjects/job sectors such as science and mathematics, engineering, technology, sexual and reproductive health and rights, sanitation and prevention of gender-based violence;
- reduced time poverty of women – reduced drudgery and time spent on unpaid care and domestic work through basic infrastructure (transport, water, sanitation, energy) or affordable child, elderly or family care support;
- participation in decision-making and leadership – through community groups, local governments, and public and private sector management; and/or
- women's resilience against risks and shocks including climate change and disaster impacts – environmental protection/ rehabilitation; flood and disaster risk management; budget support and social protection.

The above examples of eligible projects are for illustrative purposes only and no assurance can be provided that disbursements for projects with these specific characteristics will be made by ADB during the term of the Notes. In case it would be unable to apply an amount equal to the net proceeds of the Notes as provided above, ADB will apply the remaining proceeds thereof to its ordinary operations in accordance with the Agreement Establishing the Asian Development Bank.

Payment of principal of and interest on the Notes will be based solely on the creditability of ADB, and not on the performance of investments and loans under ADB's projects on gender equality and women's empowerment.

9. The Standard Provisions and this Terms Agreement, and any dispute or claim (including non-contractual disputes or claims) arising out of or in connection with it or its subject matter or formation shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of England.

Except for the rights of Indemnified Parties to enforce the indemnities provided under Section 7 of the Standard Provisions, a person who is not a party to this Terms Agreement has no rights under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term of the Standard Provisions or this Terms Agreement. Any date or period specified in the Standard Provisions or this Terms Agreement may be postponed or extended by mutual agreement among ADB and the Managers but, as regards any date or period originally fixed or so postponed or extended, time shall be of the essence. The Standard Provisions and this Terms Agreement, and any documents entered into pursuant thereto, constitute the entire agreement among ADB and the Managers in relation to the subject matter thereof and supersede and extinguish, and each of ADB and the Managers in entering into this Terms Agreement and such other documents agrees that it does not rely on and shall have no remedy in respect of, all prior drafts and all prior agreements, understandings, undertakings, arrangements, representations and warranties (of any nature whatsoever, of any person whether party to this Terms Agreement or not and whether written or oral) in relation to such subject matter other than as expressly set out in the Standard Provisions and this Terms Agreement, save that nothing herein shall exclude or limit any liability or remedy arising as a result of fraud or affect or diminish ADB's or the Managers' liability under Section 7 of the Standard Provisions.
