UPDATE ON SASOL'S CONFERENCE CALL

Sasol was scheduled to host a conference call on Tuesday, 10 March 2020, at 15:00 (SAST) in order to discuss the recent outcome of the periodic ratings review by S&P Global and Moody's.

Given the latest developments where oil prices have declined significantly and increased market volatility, the conference call will be moved to Tuesday, 17 March 2020, at 15:00 (SAST). This allows more time to assess the impact of these latest developments on the market and Sasol in particular.

Balance sheet protection remains a key priority. As communicated during the interim financial results, we continue to actively manage the balance sheet and several steps have already been taken to mitigate market volatility. This includes our hedging programme to mitigate commodity price movements and exchange rate exposures. We have hedged our US$/ZAR exchange rate and ethane exposure, but oil price exposure is not hedged for the remainder of FY20.

These statements may also relate to our future prospects, expectations, developments and business strategies. Examples of such forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements regarding exchange rate fluctuations, volume growth, increases in market share, total shareholder return, executing our growth projects (including LCCP), oil and gas reserves, cost reductions, our Continuous Improvement (CI) initiative, our climate change strategy and business performance outlook. Words such as “believe”, “anticipate”, “expect”, “intend”, “seek”, “will”, “plan”, “could”, “may”, “endeavour”, “target”, “forecast” and “project” and similar expressions are intended to identify such forward-looking statements, but are not the exclusive means of identifying such statements. Forward-looking statements apply only as of the date on which they are made, and we do not undertake any obligation to update or revise any of them, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
