ITEM 1. BUSINESS.

History

Supreme Industries, Inc., a Delaware Corporation, (the "Company" or "Supreme") is one of the nation's leading manufacturers of specialized vehicles, including truck bodies and shuttle buses. The Company was incorporated in 1979 and originally had one operating subsidiary, TGC Industries, Inc., which was spun-off to stockholders of the Company effective July 31, 1986.

Supreme Corporation, the Company's wholly-owned operating subsidiary, was formed in January 1984 to acquire a company engaged in the business of manufacturing, selling and repairing specialized truck bodies, shuttle buses and related equipment.

In August 1994, the Company acquired the business operations and substantially all of the operating assets of Murphy Body Company, Inc., Wilson, North Carolina. The acquisition provided additional refrigerated product lines that the Company did not currently produce and added additional capacity for the Company's existing product lines. The acquisition also provided better market penetration for all of the Company's product lines into Virginia and North and South Carolina.

Financial Information About Operating Segments

The Company has two operating segments, specialized vehicles and vertically integrated fiberglass products. The vertically integrated fiberglass products segment does not meet the quantitative thresholds for separate disclosure.

General Description of the Company's Business

The specialized vehicle industry consists of companies that manufacture and/or distribute specialized truck bodies and shuttle buses. Depending on the product, it is either built directly on a truck chassis or built separately and installed at a later date. The truck chassis, which consists of an engine, frame with wheels, and in some cases a cab, is manufactured by third parties who are major automotive or truck companies. Such companies typically do not build specialized truck bodies. See "Competition."

Supreme's products are medium-priced with prices generally ranging from $2,500 to $175,000. Supreme's truck bodies and custom trailers are offered in aluminum or fiberglass reinforced plywood panel ("FRP") construction and are available in lengths of 9 to 45 feet and heights up to 13 feet, 6 inches. Examples of optional equipment offered by Supreme include lift gates, cargo-handling equipment, customized doors, special bumpers, ladder racks, and refrigeration equipment, which are configured with the truck bodies to meet the end-user's needs.

Supreme also makes its own fiberglass wind deflectors under the name of Fuel Shark, which reduce wind resistance and improve fuel efficiency. Supreme is not in the business of manufacturing recreational vehicles or long-distance truck-trailers. The following is a brief summary of Supreme's products:

Van bodies. Supreme's van bodies are typically fabricated up to 28 feet in length with pre painted aluminum or FRP panels, aerodynamic front and side corners, hardwood floors and various door configurations to accommodate end-user loading and unloading requirements. This product is used for diversified dry freight transportation.

Refrigerated Chiller® insulated van bodies. Chiller® vans are insulated FRP bodies which can accommodate controlled temperature and refrigeration needs of end-users. All fiberglass exterior laminated walls are corrosion resistant and utilize foam insulation which permits varying levels of temperature to as low as minus twenty degrees Fahrenheit.

Kold King® aluminum insulated van bodies. Supreme's advances in insulated foam technology have created this aluminum insulated body with greater strength, less weight and better thermal efficiency.

Iner-City® cutaway van bodies. Aluminum or FRP cutaway van bodies are manufactured on cutaway chassis which are available with access to the cargo area from the cab. The Iner-City® cutaway van body is similar to the regular van body except for floor construction and shorter lengths (10 feet to 15 feet) as compared with van bodies which are constructed to lengths of up to 28 feet.

Iner-City® walk-in van bodies. Supreme manufactures its walk-in vans on a rail truck chassis having no cab. Supreme fabricates the driver's compartment and body using FRP panels and aluminum. Some uses for this product include the distribution of food products and small packages.

Spartan mini-bodies. Spartan mini-bodies are produced in three different configurations and designed to be mounted on small trucks for diversified commercial use.

Armored Trucks. Supreme's armored trucks are built to customer specifications in either aluminum, galvaneal or stainless steel.

StarTrans® shuttle buses. The StarTrans® shuttle buses have seating capacities for 12 to 29 people and are offered with a variety of seating arrangements and with options such as wheelchair lifts, custom interiors, and special exterior paint schemes. The shuttle bus line features an improved aerodynamic exterior design and is intended for use by hotels, nursing homes, car leasing companies, and airport-related users.

StarTrans® mid-size buses. Supreme's StarTrans® mid-size buses (President and Ambassador) are offered in lengths of up to 31 feet with capacities of up to 35 passengers. This product serves the public transit and tour markets and provides the Company's dealer network with a more comprehensive product line.

StarTrans® trolleys. Supreme's StarTrans® trolley line is similar in size to the mid-size bus line but resembles a San Francisco trolley car. It is marketed to resort areas, theme parks and cities desiring unique transportation vehicles.

Customized trailers. Supreme manufactures a variety of customized trailers for special needs, including mobile laboratories, antique and race car haulers, and trailers for the broadcasting industry.

Stake bodies. Stake bodies are flatbeds with various configurations of removable sides. The stake body is utilized for a broad range of agricultural transportation needs.

Chiller®, Kold King®, Nordica®, Iner-City®, Spartan, StarTrans®, and Fuel Shark are trademarks used by Supreme in its marketing of truck bodies and buses. Chiller®, Kold King®, Nordica®, Iner-City®, and StarTrans® are trademarks registered in the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office.

Some examples of specialized vehicles that are not manufactured by Supreme are dump bodies, utility bodies and garbage packers. Neither Supreme nor any of its competitors manufacture every type of specialized vehicle. Supreme intends to continue to expand its product line, but there is no assurance that it will do so.

Manufacturing

Supreme's manufacturing facilities are located in Goshen and Ligonier, Indiana; Griffin, Georgia; Cleburne, Texas; Moreno Valley, California; Jonestown, Pennsylvania and Wilson, North Carolina. Supreme's management estimates that the capacity utilization of its plants and equipment range from 60% to 90% of capacity when annualized on a one-shift basis. At various times during the year, several of the Company's plants operate at 100% capacity to meet fleet requirements.

Supreme builds specialized truck bodies and installs other equipment on truck chassis, most of which are provided by bailment pool arrangements or are owned by dealers or end-users. These truck bodies are built on an assembly line from engineered structural components, such as floors, roofs, and wall panels. These components are manufactured from Supreme's proprietary designs and are installed on the truck chassis. Supreme then installs optional equipment and applies any special finishes that the customer has specified. At each step of the manufacturing and installation process, Supreme conducts quality control procedures to insure that the products meet its customers' specifications. Supreme's products are generally produced to firm orders and are designed and engineered by Supreme. Order levels will vary depending upon price, competition, prevailing economic conditions and other factors.

Supreme is more vertically integrated than many of its competitors. The Company manufactures its own fiberglass reinforced plywood, fiberglass parts, and has extensive roll forming and metal bending capabilities. A portion of the excess capacity of these fabrication capabilities is used to supply products to the recreational vehicle and marine industries.

Supreme provides limited warranties against construction defects in its products. These warranties generally provide for the replacement or repair of defective parts or workmanship for five years following the date of retail sale.

Supreme generally does not purchase vehicle chassis for its inventory. Supreme accepts shipment of vehicle chassis owned by dealers or end-users, for the purpose of installing and/or manufacturing its specialized truck bodies and buses on such chassis. In the event of a labor disruption or other uncontrollable event adversely affecting the limited number of companies which manufacture and/or deliver such chassis, Supreme's level of manufacturing could be substantially reduced. The Company has established relationships with all major chassis manufacturers and in the event of a disruption in supply from one manufacturer the Company would attempt to divert its demand to the other manufacturer. Approximately 30% of the chassis involved in Supreme's manufacturing have been secured through bailment or consignment agreements with three major chassis manufacturers that provide for truck chassis pools at each of Supreme's manufacturing facilities.

Raw Materials

Supreme does not have any long-term raw material contracts and is dependent upon suppliers of lumber, fiberglass, aluminum and steel for its manufacturing. However, there are several readily available sources for these raw materials. Supreme's operations could be affected by labor disruptions at its raw material suppliers or freight carriers. The single greatest threat to Supreme would be the disruption of chassis availability as virtually all of Supreme's products are built on chassis. The Company believes it enjoys good relationships with all the chassis manufacturers that supply the chassis that its products are built on. In the event of a problem with one chassis supplier the Company would attempt to divert its products to other chassis suppliers.

Marketing

Supreme normally sells the vehicle and/or equipment that has been installed on the chassis to either truck equipment distributors, truck dealers or directly to end-users. Truck bodies purchased by a truck dealer from Supreme are sold by the dealer to its own customers. Since Supreme or its distributors (and not the truck dealers) generally service all Supreme products sold by the truck dealers, each truck dealer is normally located within relatively close geographic proximity to Supreme or the distributor supplying such dealer.

Supreme's distributor/dealer network consists of approximately 40 bus distributors, 85 truck equipment distributors and 500 truck dealers. Management believes that this large distributor/dealer network, coupled with Supreme's geographically-dispersed plant and distribution sites, gives Supreme a distinct marketing advantage over its competitors. Supreme generally delivers its products within 4 to 8 weeks after the receipt of orders.

Supreme markets products direct to end users in geographic areas where the Company does not have a strong distributor. The Company currently has distribution facilities in the areas of St. Louis, MO; Louisville, KY; Cleveland, OH; Orlando, FL; Houston and San Antonio, TX; Denver, CO; San Francisco, CA and Woonsocket, RI. The Company plans to open a new distribution facility near Columbus, OH in the spring of 2002.

Approximately 85 employees are engaged in direct sales. Supreme engages in direct advertising in trade publications, trade shows and cooperative advertising campaigns with distributors.

Competition

Specialized vehicles are produced by many companies, most of which compete on a regional basis. Management believes that Supreme enjoys a competitive advantage based upon its established distributor/dealer network and six manufacturing facilities and nine distribution centers. Chassis manufacturers have not generally shown an interest in manufacturing specialized vehicles, including truck bodies and shuttle buses, because such manufacturers' highly-automated assembly line operations do not lend themselves to the efficient production of a wide variety of highly specialized vehicles with various options and equipment.

Trademarks

The Company owns and maintains trademarks that are used in marketing specialized products manufactured by Supreme. Management believes that these trademarks have significant customer goodwill.

Working Capital

The Company utilizes its revolving line of credit to finance its accounts receivable and inventories. The Company's Credit Agreement requires the Company to maintain a minimum working capital of not less than $10 million. The Company had working capital of $29.4 million at December 31, 2001.

Major Customers

The Company had one customer, Budget Group Inc., that accounted for approximately 11% of the Company's revenues during 1999. No single or group of customers accounted for 10% or more of the Company's revenues for the years ended December 31, 2001 and 2000. The Company's export sales are not significant.

Environment Regulation

The Company's manufacturing operations are subject to federal, state, and local statutes and regulations relating to the protection of the environment, work site safety standards, and product size and weight limitations. Such regulations increase the Company's cost of doing business. Because other companies are subject to similar regulations, such regulations are not believed to have an adverse effect on the Company's competitive position.

Employees

As of December 31, 2001, the Company employed approximately 1,800 employees, none of whom are represented by a collective bargaining unit. The Company considers its relations with its employees to be satisfactory.

Back Log

The Company's backlog of firm orders was $43.5 million at December 31, 2001 compared to $48.7 million at December 31, 2000.

ITEM 3. LEGAL PROCEEDINGS.

The Company is subject to various investigations, claims and legal proceedings covering a wide range of matters that arise in the ordinary course of its business activities. Each of these matters is subject to various uncertainties, and it is possible that some of these matters may be resolved unfavorably to the Company. The Company has established accruals for matters that are probable and reasonably estimable. Management believes that any liability that may ultimately result from the resolution of these matters in excess of accruals and or amounts provided by insurance coverage will not have a material adverse effect on the consolidated financial position or results of operations of the Company.

ITEM 4. SUBMISSION OF MATTERS TO A VOTE OF SECURITY HOLDERS.

No matters were submitted by the Company to a vote of the Company's security holders, through the solicitation of proxies or otherwise, during the fourth quarter of the year ended December 31, 2001.

ITEM 7. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS.

Comparison of 2001 with 2000

The Company experienced a revenue decline of $36.8 million for the year ended December 31, 2001 when compared to the year ended December 31, 2000. The Company's truck product lines declined $50.2 million to $164.6 million from $214.8 million for year ended December 31, 2000 while the Company's bus products increased to $55.7 million from $40.9 million for year ended December 31, 2000. Delivery and other income declined $1.4 million from $7.8 million to $6.4 million for the year ended December 31, 2001.

The decline in truck revenues was consistent throughout the country as each of the Company's manufacturing facilities experienced a decline in revenue during 2001 ranging from approximately 18% to as high as 29%. Revenues from the Company's relatively small refrigerated product line produced in Wilson, North Carolina declined 42%.

The increase in bus revenues of approximately 36% is related to additional capacity added in February, 2001 to the Company's midsize and trolley production line. The additional capacity allowed the Company to maintain reasonable lead times giving it a competitive advantage over other competitors who could not deliver as timely. A portion of the Company's municipal bus business is awarded on a multi year contract basis further mitigating the economic ups and downs experienced on the truck side.

The Company's gross profit percentage declined 0.8% to 14.0% in 2001 compared to 14.8% in 2000. A slight increase in overhead expenses as a percentage of revenue was offset by a slight decrease in direct labor as a percentage of revenue. Material cost as a percentage of revenue was the significant factor in the decline in gross profit during 2001.

The Company has experienced decreases in the prices paid for its major raw material items: steel, aluminum, lumber and fiberglass related products. The reason for the increase in material cost as a percentage of revenue is a much more competitive marketplace due to excess capacity in conjunction with variations in product mix.

Selling, general and administrative expenses were $21.5 million for the year ended December 31, 2001 compared to $22.9 million for the prior year. The Company's target was to reduce these expenses by $1.0 million in 2001; the actual reduction was $1.4 million. Contributing to the reductions were decreases in consulting fees relating to the Company's operating software, declines in legal and professional fees and incentive compensation as well as improvements in OEM marketing programs.

Interest expense declined $0.9 million to $2.2 million for the year ended December 31, 2001 from $3.1 million for the year ended December 31, 2000. A decline of $1.0 million of interest expense on bank and other long term debt was offset by a $0.1 million increase in chassis interest.

The Company's effective income tax rate was 39.0% for both 2001 and 2000.

Comparison of 2000 with 1999

Revenues for the year ended December 31, 2000 increased slightly to $263.5 million compared to $258.7 million for the year ended December 31, 1999. A general slowing in the overall economy, particularly in the automotive and truck equipment sectors, negatively affected the third and fourth quarters of 2000 and continued into 2001. There was little change in the Company's overall product offerings in 2000 when compared to 1999. The Company's northeast market was the only market that experienced growth in 2000 when compared to 1999. This growth was offset by a decline in the Company's Midwest market combined with small fluctuations in the Company's other market areas.

Overall revenues by customer category changed little in 2000 when compared to 1999. No single customer represented more than 6% of the Company's annual revenues in 2000. Unit shipments declined approximately 3% in 2000 when compared to 1999.

The Company's gross profit percentage improved to 14.8% in 2000 compared to 14.0% in 1999. The Company experienced improvements in material and direct labor as a percentage of revenues in 2000 when compared to 1999. Overhead, both in dollars and as a percentage of revenue, increased slightly in 2000 when compared to 1999. Employee-related costs for health insurance and fringe benefits were up slightly in 2000 when compared to 1999. These costs are part of the Company's efforts to improve its overall benefit package to help alleviate high employee turnover during tight labor markets.

Selling, general and administrative expenses were $22.9 million or 8.7% of revenue in 2000 compared to $20.1 million or 7.8% of revenue in 1999. Expenses contributing to the increase in order of significance were: wage expense, depreciation on the new operating software and professional services. A significant portion of the increase relates to the new operating software implemented January 1, 2000. While depreciation and amortization expenses will remain higher as the software is amortized over three years (approximately $800,000 annually), fees relating to professional services will decline in 2001. The Company plans to reduce selling, general and administrative expenses by $1.0 million during 2001.

Interest expense increased $0.9 million to $3.1 million in 2000 from $2.2 million in 1999. Contributing to the increase were the five-year term loan to finance the Dutch Auction completed in May of 1999 being outstanding for the full year of 2000, the $2.5 million industrial revenue bond issued in November to purchase the Company's North Carolina manufacturing facility and a $0.1 million increase in chassis interest expense.

The Company's effective income tax rate fell to 39.0% in 2000 from 39.7% in 1999. The decline is primarily the result of fluctuations in taxable income and varying tax rates in the states in which the Company transacts business.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Net income of $4.9 million in 2001 and availability under the revolving credit agreement continue to be the Company's major sources of funds for operations and capital expenditures. Depreciation and amortization of $4.5 million is the major noncash charge providing funds for operating activities. The Company's working capital management resulted in reductions of $4.3 million in accounts receivable and $5.1 million in inventories. Negatively impacting operating cash flow was a decrease in other current liabilities of $1.9 million, an increase of $0.7 million of other current assets and a reduction of $0.2 million in trade accounts payable.

The Company plans to continue to aggressively manage accounts receivable and inventories, but the reductions achieved over the last two years may not be possible if the economy turns more favorable.

Capital expenditures were $1.9 million during the year ended December 31, 2001, down from $8.2 million in the prior year. The Company plans to continue to hold annual capital expenditures under $4.0 million. The only exceptions to this would be major plant acquisitions for capacity expansion.

The major financing activity during the year was the $13.7 million net repayment of long-term debt. The Company also purchased 132,575 shares of its Class A Common Stock for $0.4 million. The Company had $20.0 million of availability under its revolving credit facility at February 28, 2002.

The Company believes that cash flows from operations and funds available under the Company's revolving line of credit will be sufficient to meet the Company's cash requirements during 2002.

New Accounting Pronouncements

The Company does not believe the implementation of SFAS Nos. 142, 143 or 144 (see Note A of Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements) will have a significant effect on the Company's financial position.

Forward-Looking Statements

ITEM 7A. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

In the normal course of business, operations of the Company are exposed to fluctuations in interest rates. These fluctuations can vary the cost of investing, financing and operating. The Company's primary risk exposure results from changes in short-term interest rates. In an effort to manage risk exposures, the Company strives to achieve an acceptable balance between fixed and floating rate debt positions. The Company's revolving line of credit is floating rate debt and bears interest at the bank's prime rate or LIBOR plus certain basis points depending on the pricing option selected and the Company's leverage ratio. At December 31, 2001, the Company is party to two (2) interest rate swap agreements dated September 30, 1998 and May 11, 1999. The September 30, 1998 interest rate swap agreement relates to a five-year term loan (original principal balance of $7 million) and the May 11, 1999 interest rate swap agreement relates to a five-year term loan (original principal balance of $17.1 million). Both of these term loans bear interest at LIBOR plus certain basis points determined by the Company's leverage ratio. The effective interest rates at December 31, 2001 for these term loans were 2.81%, on outstanding principal balances of $2,449,987, and 3.13%, on outstanding principal balances of $8,964,570. The interest rate swap agreements are contracts to exchange floating rate for fixed rate interest payments over the lives of the interest rate swap agreements, which coincide with the terms of the related debt, without exchange of the underlying notional amounts. The notional amounts of the interest rate swap agreements are used to measure interest to be paid or received and do not represent the amount of exposure of credit loss. The differential paid or received under the interest rate swap agreements is recognized as an adjustment to interest expense. The following is a summary of interest rate swap agreements outstanding at December 31, 2001:

Notional Amount	Fixed Rate	Maturity
$2,450,000	5.8%	September 30, 2003
8,964,600	5.8%	May 11, 2004

Based on the Company's overall interest rate exposure at December 31, 2001, including floating rate debt and the related interest rate swap agreements, a hypothetical 10 percent change in interest rates applied to the fair value of the financial instruments as of December 31, 2001, would have no material impact on earnings, cash flows or fair values of interest rate risk sensitive instruments over a one-year period.

Supreme Industries, Inc. And Subsidiaries

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

A. NATURE OF OPERATIONS AND ACCOUNTING POLICIES.

Supreme Industries, Inc. and its subsidiaries (collectively the "Company") manufacture specialized truck bodies that are mounted on new truck chassis produced by others. The Company's truck body products include cut-away and dry freight van bodies, refrigerated units, stake bodies and other specialized trucks. The Company also manufactures shuttle buses and trailers. At December 31, 2001, the Company had 17 manufacturing, distribution and supply facilities. The Company's customers are located principally in the United States.

The following is a summary of the significant accounting policies used in the preparation of the accompanying consolidated financial statements:

Principles of Consolidation - The accompanying consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Supreme Industries, Inc. and its wholly owned subsidiaries. All significant intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

Revenue Recognition - The production of specialized truck bodies and shuttle buses starts when an order is received from the customer. Revenue is recognized when the unit is shipped to the customer in accordance with Securities and Exchange Commission Staff Accounting Bulletin 101, "Revenue Recognition in Financial Statements".

Concentration of Credit Risk - Concentration of credit risk is limited due to the large number of customers and their dispersion among many different industries and geographic regions. In 1999, the Company had one customer that accounted for approximately 11% of the Company's net sales. The Company performs an ongoing credit evaluation of its customers' financial condition, and credit is extended to customers on an unsecured basis. Future credit losses are provided for currently through the allowance for doubtful accounts and actual credit losses are charged to the allowance when incurred.

Accounting for Freight Costs - During 2001, the Company adopted Financial Accounting Standards Board Emerging Issues Task Force ("EITF") Issue No. 00-10, "Accounting for Shipping and Handling Fees and Costs". As required by EITF 00-10, freight costs billed to customers are considered sales revenue, while freight costs incurred should be classified as cost of sales. Net freight costs have historically been classified as selling, general and administrative expenses by the Company. Freight costs billed to customers of $7,386,859 and $6,687,872 for the years ended December 31, 2000 and 1999, respectively, have been reclassified to net sales to conform to the current presentation (freight revenue of $5,972,431 is included in net sales for the year ended December 31, 2001). Freight costs incurred by the Company of $9,366,876 and $8,143,935 for the years ended December 31, 2000 and 1999, respectively, have been reclassified to cost of sales to conform to the current presentation (freight costs of $6,976,620 are included in cost of sales for the year ended December 31, 2001). The adoption of EITF 00-10 had no impact on net income.

Financial Instruments and Fair Values - The Company has entered into interest rate swap agreements to reduce the impact of changes in interest rates on certain of its floating rate debt (Term Notes B and C). The swap agreements are contracts to exchange the debt obligation's LIBOR floating rate (exclusive of the applicable spread) for fixed rate interest payments over the life of the debt obligations without exchange of the underlying notional amounts. The notional amounts of the interest rate swap agreements are used to measure interest to be paid or received and do not represent the amount of exposure of credit loss. The differential paid or received under interest rate swap agreements is recognized as an adjustment to interest expense.

The following is a summary of interest rate swap agreements outstanding at December 31, 2001 and 2000:

Notional Amount		Fixed Rate	Maturity
2001	2000
$2,450,000	$3,850,000	5.8%	September 30, 2003
8,964,600	12,401,100	5.8%	May 11, 2004

The actual market or credit exposure of these types of financial instruments are significantly less than the notional amounts. The primary risk associated with the swaps is the inability of counterparties to meet the terms of the contracts. The Company does not expect the counterparties to fail to meet their respective obligations. At December 31, 2000, the estimated fair value of the interest rate swap agreements, based on then current market rates, was not significant.

As of January 1, 2001, the Company adopted Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 133, "Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities," which establishes accounting and reporting standards for derivative instruments and hedging activities. SFAS No. 133 requires the Company to recognize all derivatives as either assets or liabilities in the balance sheet and measure those instruments at fair value. It further provides criteria for derivative instruments to be designated as fair value, cash flow or foreign currency hedges, and establishes accounting standards for reporting changes in the fair value in the balance sheet and recognizing the offsetting gains or losses as adjustments to be reported in net income or other comprehensive income, as appropriate. The Company designated these hedge arrangements to be highly effective cash flow hedges to fix future interest payments. The Company expects to hold these interest rate swaps through their maturity and the fair value of the swaps will reverse out of accumulated other comprehensive loss with the passage of time. Based on the Company's derivative positions at December 31, 2001, the Company recorded a net liability of $396,834 for the fair value of its derivative portfolio and a corresponding charge of $242,069, net of income tax benefit, to other comprehensive income.

The carrying amounts of cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable and trade accounts payable approximated fair value as of December 31, 2001 and 2000 because of the relatively short maturities of these instruments. The carrying amount of long-term debt, including current maturities, approximated fair value as of December 31, 2001 and 2000, based upon terms and conditions available to the Company at those dates in comparison to the terms and conditions of its outstanding long-term debt.

Cash and Cash Equivalents - The Company considers all highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Inventories - Inventories are stated at the lower of cost or market, with cost determined using the first-in, first-out method.

Property, Plant and Equipment - Property, plant and equipment are recorded at cost. For financial reporting purposes, depreciation is provided based on the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets. Amortization of leasehold improvements, for financial reporting purposes, is determined by the straight-line method over the lesser of the useful life of the asset or term of the lease. Upon sale or other disposition of assets, the cost and related accumulated depreciation and amortization are removed from the accounts and any resulting gain or loss is reflected in operations. Expenditures for maintenance and repairs are charged to operations as incurred. Betterments and major renewals are capitalized and recorded in the appropriate asset accounts.

Capitalized Interest - Interest costs capitalized during the construction period of plant and equipment were $100,000 for the year ended December 31, 1999.

Intangible Assets - Intangible assets consist of goodwill - $3,379,031 and patents - $325,000, and are recorded at cost and shown net of accumulated amortization. Amortization of goodwill is provided using the straight-line method over the estimated benefit period (16 to 25 years), and patents are amortized over seven years using the straight-line method. Accumulated amortization at December 31, 2001 and 2000 was $2,765,455 and $2,608,575, respectively.

Evaluation of Impairment of Long-Lived Assets - In accordance with SFAS No. 121, "Accounting for the Impairment of Long-Lived Assets and Long-Lived Assets to be Disposed Of," the Company evaluates the carrying value of long-lived assets whenever significant events or changes in circumstances indicate the carrying value of these assets may be impaired. The Company evaluates potential impairment of long-lived assets by comparing the carrying value of the assets to the expected net future cash inflows resulting from use of the assets. Management believes that no material impairment of long-lived assets exists at December 31, 2001.

Stock-Based Compensation - The Company has adopted the disclosure only provisions of SFAS No. 123, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation" and, accordingly, accounts for its stock option plans under the provisions of Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. 25, "Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees."

Warranty - Estimated warranty costs are provided at the time of sale and are based upon historical experience.

Income Taxes - Deferred income taxes are determined using the liability method.

Use of Estimates in the Preparation of Financial Statements - The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Earnings Per Share - Basic earnings per share is computed by dividing net income by the weighted average number of shares of common stock outstanding during the period. Diluted earnings per share is computed by dividing net income by the weighted average number of shares of common stock outstanding plus the dilutive effect of stock options. The computations of the number of shares used in the determination of basic and diluted earnings per share give retroactive recognition to all common stock dividends declared and paid during the periods.

Segment Information - The Company's principal business is manufacturing specialized vehicles. Management has not separately organized the business beyond specialized vehicles and vertically integrated fiberglass manufacturing processes. The vertically integrated fiberglass manufacturing subsidiary constitutes a segment by definition of SFAS No. 131, "Disclosures about Segments of an Enterprise and Related Information"; however, this segment does not meet the quantitative thresholds for separate disclosure as set forth in this statement. The vertically integrated fiberglass manufacturing subsidiary's revenues are less than 10 percent of consolidated revenues, the absolute amount of its reported income is less than 10 percent of the absolute amount of consolidated net income, and finally, its assets are less than 10 percent of consolidated assets.

New Accounting Pronouncements - In July 2001, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued SFAS No. 142, "Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets", which is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2001. SFAS No. 142 primarily addresses the accounting for goodwill and other intangible assets subsequent to their acquisition. The most significant changes made by SFAS 142 are (1) goodwill and indefinite lived intangible assets will no longer be amortized, (2) goodwill will be tested for impairment at least annually at the reporting unit level, (3) other intangible assets deemed to have an indefinite life will be tested for impairment at least annually, and (4) the amortization period of intangible assets with finite lives will no longer be limited to forty years. Management anticipates the adoption of SFAS No. 142 will not have a significant effect on the Company's consolidated financial position or results of operations.

In June 2001, the FASB issued SFAS No. 143, "Accounting for Asset Retirement Obligations." SFAS No. 143 addresses accounting and reporting for obligations associated with the retirement of tangible long-lived assets and the associated asset retirement costs. This statement is effective for fiscal years beginning after June 15, 2002. The Company is currently assessing the impact of this new standard.

In July 2001, the FASB issued SFAS No. 144, "Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets," which is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2001. The provisions of this statement provide a single accounting model for impairment of long-lived assets. The Company is currently assessing the impact of this new standard.

Reclassifications - Certain amounts in the 2000 and 1999 consolidated financial statements have been reclassified to conform with the 2001 presentation. These reclassifications had no effect on total assets, stockholders' equity or net income as previously reported.

The revolving line of credit, term notes and a letter of credit facility are part of a master credit agreement (the "Credit Agreement"). All borrowings under the Credit Agreement are unsecured. The Credit Agreement provides for a revolving line of credit facility as defined, up to $20 million. Interest on outstanding borrowings under the revolving line of credit is based on the bank's prime rate or certain basis points above LIBOR depending on the pricing option selected and the Company's leverage ratio, as defined. There were no outstanding borrowings under the revolving line of credit at December 31, 2001, except for checks outstanding in excess of bank balances. The weighted average interest rate on borrowings outstanding at December 31, 2000 was 8.4%. The revolving line of credit also requires a quarterly commitment fee ranging from 1/8% to 3/16% per annum depending on the Company's leverage ratio and based upon the annualized average unused portion. All amounts outstanding under the revolving line of credit will be due at maturity, April 30, 2003.

D. LONG-TERM DEBT, Concluded.

In addition to the required quarterly installments, Term Note C requires an annual principal payment to be paid within 105 days after year end, equal to 20% of the preceding year's net income which exceeds $5.0 million, with such additional annual payment not to exceed $1.0 million in any year. No additional principal payment is required to be made in 2002 based on net income for the year ended December 31, 2001 ($596,995 was paid in 2001 based on 2000 net income). The Company also made an additional principal payment of $403,005 during 2001.

Outstanding letters of credit, which reduce availability under the credit facility, aggregated $1.8 million and $1.2 million at December 31, 2001 and 2000, respectively. Under separate agreements, at December 31, 2001 the Company has outstanding $4.6 million ($4.9 million at December 31, 2000) in irrevocable letters of credit in favor of bond trustees as a credit enhancement for bondholders of two industrial development revenue bonds.

The Credit Agreement contains, among other matters, certain restrictive covenants including maintenance of a minimum consolidated tangible net worth of $28 million plus 50% of cumulative net income of the Company, as defined, commencing with the year ended December 31, 1999 ($38.6 million at December 31, 2001), minimum consolidated working capital of $10 million and required financial ratios.

The Company's cash management system and revolving line of credit are designed to maintain zero cash balances and, accordingly, checks outstanding in excess of bank balances are classified as additional borrowings under the revolving line of credit. Checks outstanding in excess of bank balances at December 31, 2001 and 2000 aggregated $883,000 and $2,670,000, respectively.

Maturities of long-term debt for each of the next five years are as follows: 2002 - $4,303,239; 2003 - $3,819,892; 2004 - $4,558,093; 2005 - $433,333 and 2006 - $366,667.

E. RETIREMENT PLAN.

The plan provides that eligible employees can contribute from one to fifteen percent of their annual compensation and the Company will match thirty percent of employees' contributions up to seven percent of the employees' compensation. The Board of Directors may increase or decrease the Company's contribution on a year-by-year basis. Expense related to this plan for the years ended December 31, 2001, 2000 and 1999 was $436,045, $482,706 and $413,829, respectively.

H. COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES.

Lease Commitments and Related Party Transactions

The Company leases certain office and manufacturing facilities under operating lease agreements which expire at various dates from May 2002 through July 2006. Certain of the lease agreements are with related parties for which related party rent expense was $742,187, $665,562 and $499,762 for the years ended December 31, 2001, 2000 and 1999, respectively.

In addition to the above related party lease transactions, the Company purchases delivery services and rents the use of an aircraft from companies owned by officers/directors of the Company. During the years ended December 31, 2001, 2000 and 1999, the Company had related party transactions with officers/directors aggregating $2,756,000, $3,821,000 and $2,832,000, respectively.

Consigned Inventories

The Company obtains vehicle chassis for its specialized vehicle products directly from the chassis manufacturer under converter pool agreements. Chassis are obtained from the manufacturers based on orders from customers, and to a lesser extent, for unallocated orders. Although each manufacturer's agreement has different terms and conditions, the agreements generally provide that the manufacturer will provide a supply of chassis to be maintained from time to time at the Company's various production facilities under the conditions that the Company will store such chassis and will not make any additions or modifications to such chassis and will not move, sell or otherwise dispose of such chassis, except under the terms of the agreement. The manufacturer does not transfer the certificate of origin to the Company and, accordingly, the Company accounts for the chassis as consigned inventory belonging to the manufacturer. Under these agreements if the chassis is not delivered to a customer within a specified timeframe, the Company is required to pay a finance charge on the chassis. At December 31, 2001 and 2000, chassis inventory, accounted for as consigned inventory to the Company by the manufacturers, aggregated $44.8 million and $45.6 million, respectively. Typically, chassis are converted and delivered to customers within 90 days of the receipt of the chassis by the Company.

Self-Insurance

The Company is self-insured for a portion of product liability ($50,000 per occurrence with no annual aggregate), certain employee health benefits ($125,000 annually per employee with an annual aggregate of approximately $5,000,000) and workers' compensation in certain states ($250,000 per occurrence with an annual aggregate of approximately $4,500,000). The Company accrues for the estimated losses occurring from both asserted and unasserted claims. The estimate of the liability for unasserted claims arising from incurred but not reported claims is based on an analysis of historical claims data.

Stock Repurchase Programs

On April 12, 1999, the Company announced a "Dutch Auction" offer to its stockholders to acquire up to 2,000,000 shares of its Class A and Class B Common Stock at a cash purchase price not greater than $10.00 per share nor less than $8.75 per share. The Company purchased 1,688,823 shares of Class A Common Stock at $10.00 per share, plus expenses of $103,653, through the offer. The Company financed this stock repurchase program with a term note (see Note D). During the year ended December 31, 1999, the Company also purchased 1,040 shares of Class A Common Stock for $8,307.

Other

The Company is subject to various investigations, claims and legal proceedings covering a wide range of matters that arise in the ordinary course of its business activities. Each of these matters is subject to various uncertainties, and it is possible that some of these matters may be resolved unfavorably to the Company. The Company has established accruals for matters that are probable and reasonably estimable. Management believes that any liability that may ultimately result from the resolution of these matters in excess of accruals and or amounts provided by insurance coverage will not have a material adverse effect on the consolidated financial position or results of operation of the Company.

"Fair Market Value" shall mean, if the Stock is traded on one or more established markets or exchanges, the mean of the opening and closing prices of the Stock on the primary market or exchange on which the Stock is traded, and if the Stock is not so traded or the Stock does not trade on the relevant date, the value determined in good faith by the Board of Directors. For purposes of valuing Incentive Stock Options, the Fair Market Value of stock shall be determined without regard to any restriction other than one which, by its terms, will never lapse.

Sec. 1:9. Holder. "Holder" shall mean an Eligible Individual to whom an Option has been granted.

Sec. 1:10. Incentive Stock Options. "Incentive Stock Options" shall mean stock options that are intended to satisfy the requirements of Sec. 422 of the Code.

Sec. 1:11. Nonstatutory Stock Options. "Nonstatutory Stock Options" shall mean stock options that are not intended to be, or are not denominated as, Incentive Stock Options.

Sec. 1:12. Options. "Options" shall mean either Incentive Stock Options or Nonstatutory Stock Options, or both.

Sec. 1:13. Stock. "Stock" shall mean Company's authorized $.10 par value Class A Common Stock.

Article II

Stock and Maximum Number of Shares Subject to the Plan

Sec. 2:1. Description of Stock and Maximum Shares Allocated. The Stock which Options granted hereunder give a Holder the right to purchase may be unissued or reacquired shares of Stock, as the Board of Directors may, in its sole and absolute discretion, from time to time determine. Subject to the adjustments in Sec. 6.6 hereof, the aggregate number of shares of Stock to be issued pursuant to the exercise of all Options granted hereunder may equal, but may not exceed, 750,000 shares of Company's Stock.

Sec. 2:2. Restoration of Shares. If an Option hereunder expires, terminates, or is not exercised for any reason during the term of this Plan, the shares of Stock which were subject to such Option shall be "restored" to the Plan by again being available for Options granted after the shares' restoration, effective as of the first day of the year following such expiration, termination, or non-exercise.

Article III

Administration of the Plan

Sec. 3:1. Stock Option Committee. This Plan will be administered by a Committee consisting of between three and six members to be appointed by Company's Board of Directors. The members of the Stock Option Committee must be members of the Company's Board of Directors.

Sec. 3:2. Duration, Removal, Etc. The members of the Committee shall serve at the pleasure of the Board of Directors, which shall have the power, at any time and from time to time, to remove members from the Committee or to add members thereto. Vacancies on the Committee, however caused, shall be filled by the Board of Directors.

Sec. 3:3. Meetings and Actions of Committee. The Committee shall elect one of its members as its Chairman and shall hold its meetings at such times and places as it may determine. All decisions and determinations of the Committee shall be made by the majority vote of all of its members present at a meeting; provided, however, that any decision or determination reduced to writing and signed by all of the members of the Committee shall be as fully effective as if it had been made at a meeting duly called and held. The Committee may make any rules and regulations for the conduct of its business that are not inconsistent with the provisions hereof and with the Bylaws of Company.

Sec. 3:4. Committee's Powers. Subject to the express provisions hereof, the Committee shall have the authority, in its sole and absolute discretion to: (a) adopt, amend, and rescind administrative and interpretive rules and regulations relating to the Plan; (b) determine the terms and provisions of the respective Agreements (which need not be identical), including provisions defining or otherwise relating to: (i) subject to Article VI of the Plan, the term and the period or periods and extent of exercisability of the Options, (ii) the extent to which the transferability of shares of Stock issued upon exercise of Options is restricted, (iii) the effect of termination of employment upon the exercisability of the Options, and (iv) the effect of approved leaves of absence (consistent with any applicable regulations of the Internal Revenue Service); (c) accelerate the time of exercisability of any Option that has been granted; (d) construe the respective Option Agreements and the Plan; and (e) make all other determinations and perform all other acts necessary or advisable for administering the Plan, including the delegation of such ministerial acts and responsibilities as the Committee deems appropriate. The Committee may correct any defect or supply any omission or reconcile any inconsistency in the Plan or in any Agreement in the manner and to the extent it shall deem expedient to carry it into effect, and it shall be the sole and final judge of such expediency. The determination of the Committee on the matters referred to in this Sec. 3.4 shall be final and conclusive.

Article IV

Eligibility and Participation

Sec. 4:1. Eligible Individuals. Options may be granted hereunder only to persons who are Eligible Individuals at the time of the grant thereof. Notwithstanding any provision contained herein to the contrary, a person may not receive an Incentive Stock Option hereunder unless he or she is an employee of Company and/or an Affiliate, nor shall a person be eligible to receive an Incentive Stock Option hereunder if he or she, at the time such Option is granted, would own (within the meaning of Secs. 422 and 424 of the Code) stock possessing more than ten percent (10%) of the total combined voting power or value of all classes of stock of Company or an Affiliate, unless at the time such Incentive Stock Option is granted the exercise price per share is at least one hundred ten percent (110%) of the Fair Market Value of each share of stock to which the Incentive Stock Option relates and the Incentive Stock Option is not exercisable after the expiration of five (5) years from the date it is granted.

Sec. 4:2. No Right to Option. The adoption of the Plan shall not be deemed to give any person a right to be granted an Option.

Article V

Grant of Options and Certain Terms of the Agreements

Sec. 5:1. Determination of Eligible Individuals. Subject to the express provisions hereof, the Committee shall determine which Eligible Individuals shall be granted Options hereunder from time to time. In making grants, the Committee shall take into consideration the contribution the potential Holder has made or may make to the success of Company and/or its Affiliates along with such other considerations as the Board of Directors may from time to time specify. The Committee shall also determine the number of shares subject to each of such Options and shall authorize and cause Company to grant Options in accordance with such determinations.

Sec. 5:2. Date of Grant. The date on which the Committee completes all action constituting an offer of an Option to an individual, including the specification of the number of shares of Stock to be subject to the Option, shall be the date on which the Option covered by an Agreement is granted, even though certain terms of the Agreement may not be determined at such time and even though the Agreement may not be executed until a later time. For purposes of the preceding sentence, an offer shall be deemed made if the Committee has completed all such action and has communicated the grant thereof to the potential Holder. In no event, however, may an Optionee gain any rights in addition to those specified by the Committee in its grant, regardless of the time that may pass between the grant of the Option and the actual execution of the Agreement by Company and the Optionee.

Sec. 5:3. Stock Option Agreement. Each Option granted hereunder shall be evidenced by an Agreement, executed by Company and the Eligible Individual to whom the Option is granted, incorporating such terms as the Committee deems necessary or desirable. More than one Option may be granted hereunder to the same Eligible Individual and be outstanding concurrently hereunder. In the event an Eligible Individual is granted both one or more Incentive Stock Options and one or more Nonstatutory Stock Options, such grants shall be evidenced by separate Agreements, one for each of the Incentive Stock Option grants and one for each of the Nonstatutory Stock Option grants.

Sec. 5:4. Forfeiture of Stock. Each Agreement may provide for conditions giving rise to the forfeiture of the Stock acquired pursuant to an Option granted hereunder and/or such restrictions on the transferability of shares of Stock acquired pursuant to an Option granted hereunder as the Committee in its sole and absolute discretion deems proper or advisable. Such conditions giving rise to forfeiture may include, but need not be limited to, the requirement that the Holder render substantial services to Company and/or its Affiliates for a specified period of time. Such restrictions on transferability may include, but need not be limited to, options and rights of first refusal in favor of Company.

Sec. 5:5. Cash Awards. In addition, the Board of Directors may authorize the Committee to grant cash awards payable in connection with the exercise of an Option upon such terms and conditions as are specified by the Board of Directors; provided that no such cash award shall be effective unless it complies with any applicable requirements for exemption from liability pursuant to Rule 16b-3 promulgated under the Act.

Article VI

Terms and Conditions of Options

All Options granted hereunder shall comply with, be deemed to include, and shall be subject to, the following terms and conditions:

Sec. 6:1. Number of Shares. Each Agreement shall state the number of shares of Stock to which it relates. Except to the extent an Agreement otherwise provides, the following limitations shall apply to the exercise of each Option:

A. First Year. A Holder may not exercise his or her Option during the first twelve (12) month period following the date of grant of such Option.

B. After First Year. A Holder may exercise up to (but not more than) one-third of the total shares of Stock subject to his or her Option at any time after the first twelve (12) month period following the day of grant of such Option.

C. After Second Year. A Holder may exercise up to (but not more than) two-thirds of the total shares of Stock subject to his or her Option at any time after the first twenty-four (24) month period following the date of grant of such Option.

D. After Third Year. A Holder may exercise all of the shares of Stock subject to his or her Option at any time after the first thirty-six (36) month period following the date of grant of such Option.

E. Senior Status. Notwithstanding the limitations stated above, if a Holder is sixty-five (65) years of age or older at the time his or her Option is granted, such Holder may exercise up to (but not more than) one-half of the total shares of Stock subject to such Option at any time during the first twelve (12) month period following the date of grant of such Option and thereafter may exercise all of the shares of Stock subject to such Option.

F. De Minimus Limitation. Subject to the limitations stated above, each Option may be exercised at one time or on several successive occasions; however, each Option may not be exercised in an amount less than one hundred (100) shares at any one time (unless such exercise is being made as to the entire portion of Stock which may be purchased pursuant to this Plan).

Sec. 6:2. Exercise Price. Each Agreement shall state the exercise price per share of Stock. The exercise price per share of stock subject to an Incentive Stock Option shall not be less than the greater of: (a) the par value per share of the Stock; or (b) one hundred percent (100%) of the Fair Market Value per share of Company's Stock on the date of the grant of the Option. The exercise price per share of stock subject to a Nonstatutory Stock Option shall not be less than fifty percent (50%) of the Fair Market Value per share of the Stock on the date of the grant of the Option.

Sec. 6:3. Medium and Time of Payment, Method of Exercise, and Withholding Taxes.

A. Exercise of Option. Except as otherwise permitted below, the exercise price of stock covered by an Option shall be payable upon the exercise of the Option in cash, by certified or cashier's check. Exercise of an Option shall not be effective until Company has received written notice of exercise. Such notice must specify the number of whole shares to be purchased and be accompanied by payment in full of the aggregate exercise price of the number of shares purchased. Company shall not in any case be required to sell, issue, or deliver a fractional share with respect to any Option.

1. Stock-for-Stock Exercise. With the consent of the Committee, the Holder may pay the exercise price with shares of Stock of Company which have been held by the Holder for at least six (6) months prior to the date of exercise, or with the consent of the Committee, by a combination of cash and such shares. Such Stock shall be duly endorsed for transfer to Company. Such Stock shall be deemed to have a fair market value on the date of delivery equal to the aggregate purchase price of the shares with respect to which such Option or portion thereof is being exercised.

2. Cashless Exercise/Sale Method. With the consent of the Committee, payment in full of the exercise price of the Option may be made through the Company's receipt of a copy of instructions to a broker directing such broker to sell the Stock for which the Option is being exercised, to remit to the Company an amount equal to the aggregate exercise price of such Option, with the balance being remitted to Holder.

B. New Options. In the event that a Holder pays the exercise price of his Option, in whole or in part, with previously owned shares of Stock, pursuant to the rules specified above, then, if and to the extent approved by the Committee, in addition to the shares of Stock purchased pursuant to the Option exercise, such Holder shall also receive a new Option, subject to the terms and conditions set forth below and in the Holder's individual Stock Option Agreement. Upon exercise of the Option with payment in the form of either shares of Stock or a combination of cash and shares of Stock, the Committee may, in its sole and absolute discretion, grant the Holder a new Option for shares of Stock equal to the number of shares that were delivered by the Holder to Company to pay, in whole or in part, the exercise price of the previous Option. The exercise price of the new Option shall be equal to at least 100% of the Fair Market Value per share of the Stock on the date of the exercise of the previous Option. Provided, however, the new Option cannot be exercised by the Holder until the later of: (1) the exercisability dates specified in the individual Option Agreement; or (2) six (6) months after the date of grant. As a further condition on the exercisability of the new Option, the shares of Stock received by the Holder upon exercise of his or her previous Option must be held by the Holder for at least six (6) months prior to any sale of such shares by the Holder. Any sale of such shares by a Holder prior to the expiration of the six (6) month holding period shall render the new Option non-exercisable. Nothing in this paragraph shall prevent the Committee from granting a Holder another new Option in the future when the previous new Option is exercised by the Holder with the payment of previously owned shares of Stock.

C. Withholding.

1. General. The Committee may, in its discretion, require a Holder to pay to Company at the time of exercise of an Option (or portion thereof) the amount that Company deems necessary to satisfy its obligation to withhold Federal, state, or local income or other taxes incurred by reason of the exercise. Upon the exercise of an Option requiring tax withholding, a Holder may make a written request to have shares of stock withheld by Company from the shares otherwise to be received. The number of shares so withheld shall have an aggregate Fair Market Value on the date of exercise sufficient to satisfy the applicable withholding taxes. The acceptance of any such request by a Holder shall be at the sole discretion of the Committee, including, if deemed necessary by the Committee, approval by the Securities and Exchange Commission and the satisfaction of any additional requirements necessary to obtain such approval.

2. Additional Sec. 16b Requirements. Currently, with respect to Option holders subject to liability under Section 16b of the Act, such additional requirements include the following: (1) any previously owned shares of Stock used to satisfy the withholding obligation must have been held by the taxpayer for at least six (6) months, and any Option shares otherwise issuable hereunder to be withheld to satisfy such obligations may be so withheld only if both the exercise of the Option and the election to have shares withheld are made at least six (6) months after the date of grant; (2) the Option holder's election must be made: (a) at least six (6) months less one day prior to the date on which the option exercise becomes taxable, or (b) within a 10-day "window period" beginning on the third business day following the release of Company's annual or quarterly financial reports and ending on the twelfth day thereafter (but in no event later than the date the option exercise becomes taxable); (3) Company has been subject to the Act's reporting requirements for more than a year and has filed all reports and statements required to be filed pursuant to Section 13 of the Act; (4) Company regularly issues quarterly or annual summary statements of sales and earnings; (5) all members of the Committee administering the Plan with respect to Option holders subject to liability under Section 16b of the Act are "disinterested" in accordance with Rule 16b-3 promulgated under the Act; (6) the Committee will be empowered to consent to or disapprove an Option holder's withholding election; and (7) any withholding election will be required to be irrevocable.

Sec. 6:4. Terms, Time of Exercise, and Transferability of Options.

A. Decrease in Term of Option. In addition to such other terms and conditions as may be included in a particular Agreement granting an Option, an Option shall be exercisable during a Holder's lifetime only by him or her or by his or her guardian or legal representative (or assignee after a permitted assignment). An Incentive Stock Option shall not be transferrable other than by will or by the laws of descent and distribution. A non-statutory stock option shall not be transferrable other than by will or the laws of descent and distribution or to a qualified charity or a member of the Holder's family. For this purpose, a "qualified charity" shall mean an organization described in Section 170(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. Each Option shall also be subject to the following terms and conditions (except to the extent a Holder's Agreement otherwise provides):

1. Termination of Employment or Directorship.

a. Voluntary Termination. If a Holder ceases to be employed by at least one of the employers in the group of employers consisting of Company and its Affiliates because the Holder voluntarily terminates his or her employment with such group of employers and the Holder does not remain or thereupon become a director of Company or one or more of its Affiliates, or if a Holder ceases to be a director of at least one of the corporations in the group of corporations consisting of Company and its Affiliates and the Holder does not remain or thereupon become an employee of Company or one or more of its Affiliates, the portion (if any) of an Option that remains unexercised, including that portion (if any) that pursuant to the Agreement is not yet exercisable, as of the date of the Holder's termination of employment or ceasing to be a director, whichever occurs later, shall terminate and cease to be exercisable as of such date (or ninety [90] days prior thereto if the Holder elected to exercise his or her Option in anticipation of such termination [to be determined in the sole discretion of the Committee]).

b. Termination for Cause. If a Holder ceases to be employed by at least one of the employers in the group of employers consisting of Company and its Affiliate because any of such entities terminates the Holder's employment for cause, the portion (if any) of an Option that remains unexercised, including that portion (if any) that pursuant to the Agreement is not yet exercisable, at the time of the Holder's termination of employment, shall terminate and cease to be exercisable immediately upon such termination (or ninety [90] days prior thereto if the Holder elected to exercise his or her Option in anticipation of such termination [to be determined in the sole discretion of the Committee]). A Holder's employment shall be deemed terminated "for cause" if terminated by the Board of Directors of Company (or the board of directors of an Affiliate) because of incompetence, insubordination, dishonesty, other acts detrimental to the interest of Company and/or its Affiliates, or any material breach by the Holder of any employment, nondisclosure, noncompetition, or other contract with Company and/or one of its Affiliates. Whether "cause" exists shall be determined by such Board of Directors in its sole discretion and in good faith. The exercise of an option in anticipation of a termination for cause shall be null and void.

c. Termination Without Cause. If a Holder ceases to be employed by at least one of the employers in the group of employers consisting of Company and its Affiliates because one or more of such entities terminates the employment of the Holder for otherwise than for "cause," and the Holder does not remain or thereupon become a director of Company and/or one or more of its Affiliates, the Holder shall have the right for thirty (30) days following such termination to exercise the Option with respect to that portion thereof that has become exercisable pursuant to Holder's Agreement as of the date of such termination, and thereafter the Option shall terminate and cease to be exercisable.

2. Disability. If a Holder ceases to be employed by at least one of the employers in the group of employers consisting of Company and its Affiliates by reason of disability (as defined in Sec. 22(e)(3) of the Code) and does not remain or thereupon become a director of Company or one or more of its Affiliates, or if the Holder ceases by reason of such disability to be a director of at least one of the corporations in the group of corporations consisting of Company and its Affiliates, the Holder shall have the right for ninety (90) days after the date of termination of employment with, or cessation of directorship of, such group of employers by reason of disability, whichever occurs later, to exercise an Option to the extent such Option is exercisable on the date of his or her termination of employment, and thereafter the Option shall terminate and cease to be exercisable.

3. Death. If a Holder dies while in the employ of Company or an Affiliate, or dies while a director of Company or an Affiliate, his or her Option shall be exercisable by his or her legal representatives, legatees, or distributees for six (6) months following the date of the Holder's death to the extent such Option is exercisable on the Holder's date of death, and thereafter the Option shall terminate and cease to be exercisable.

B. Term of Option. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Plan, including the provisions of Subsection A above, no Incentive Stock Option may be exercised after the expiration of ten (10) years from the date it was granted (or the period specified in Sec. 4.1, if applicable). The Committee may prescribe in any Agreement that the Option evidenced thereby may be exercised in full or in part as to any number of shares subject thereto at any time or from time to time during the term of the Option, or in such installments at such times during said term as the Committee may prescribe. Except as provided above and unless otherwise provided in any Agreement, an Option may be exercised at any time or from time to time during the term of the Option. Such exercise may be as to any or all whole (but no fractional) shares which have become purchasable under the Option.

C. Issuance of Stock Certificates. Within a reasonable time, or such time as may be permitted by law, after Company receives written notice that the Holder has elected to exercise all or a portion of an Option, such notice to be accompanied by payment in full of the aggregate exercise price of the number of shares purchased, Company shall issue and deliver a certificate representing the shares acquired as a result of the exercise and any other amounts payable in consequence of such exercise. In the event that a Holder exercises both an Incentive Stock Option, or portion thereof, and a Nonstatutory Stock Option, or a portion thereof, separate Stock certificates shall be issued, one for the Stock subject to the Incentive Stock Option and one for the Stock subject to the Nonstatutory Stock Option. The number of shares of Stock transferrable due to an exercise of an Option under this Plan shall not be increased due to the passage of time, except as may be provided in an Agreement.

D. Issuance in Compliance With Securities Laws. Nothing herein or in any Option granted hereunder shall require Company to issue any shares upon exercise of any Option if such issuance would, in the opinion of counsel for Company, constitute a violation of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or any similar or superseding statute or statutes, or any other applicable statute or regulation, as then in effect.

E. Investment Legend. At the time of exercise of an Option, Company may, as a condition precedent to the exercise of such Option, require from the Holder of the Option (or in the event of his or her death, his or her legal representatives, legatees, or distributees) such written representations, if any, concerning his or her intentions with regard to the retention or disposition of the shares being acquired by exercise of such Option and such written covenants and agreements, if any, as to the manner of disposal of such shares as, in the opinion of counsel to Company, may be necessary to ensure that any disposition by such Holder (or in the event of his or her death, his or her legal representatives, legatees, or distributees), will not involve a violation of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or any similar or superseding statute or statutes, or any other applicable state or federal statute or regulation, as then in effect. Certificates for shares of Stock, when issued, may have the following legend, or statements of other applicable restrictions, endorsed thereon, and may not be immediately transferable:

The shares of Stock evidenced by this certificate have been issued to the registered owner in reliance upon written representations that these shares have been purchased for investment. These shares may not be sold, transferred, or assigned unless, in the opinion of Company and its legal counsel, such sale, transfer, or assignment will not be in violation of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission, and any applicable state securities laws.

Sec. 6:5. Limitation on Aggregate Value of Shares That May Become First Exercisable During Any Calendar Year Under an Incentive Stock Option. With respect to any Incentive Stock Option granted under this Plan, to the extent that the aggregate Fair Market Value of shares of Stock exceed $100,000, then such excess over $100,000 shall not be considered as subject to an Incentive Stock Option, but rather shall be considered as subject to a Nonstatutory Stock Option. This rule shall be applied by taking shares of Stock subject to Incentive Stock Options that are purchasable for the first time in the calendar year into account in the order in which such Incentive Stock Options were granted.

Sec. 6:6. Adjustments Upon Changes in Capitalization, Merger, Etc.

A. Method of Adjustment. In the event of any change in the number of outstanding shares of Stock effected without receipt of consideration therefor by Company (other than as a result of the conversion of Company's Class B Common Stock into Class A Common Stock) by reason of a stock dividend, or split, combination, exchange of shares or other recapitalization, merger, or otherwise, in which Company is the surviving corporation, the aggregate number and class of the reserved shares, the number and class of shares subject to each outstanding Option, and the exercise price of each outstanding Option shall be automatically adjusted to accurately and equitably reflect the effect thereon of such change (provided that any fractional share resulting from such adjustment may be eliminated). In the event of a dispute concerning such adjustment, the decision of the Committee shall be conclusive. The number of reserved shares or the number of shares subject to any outstanding Option shall be automatically reduced by any fraction included therein which results from any adjustment made pursuant hereto.

B. Termination of Option. The following provisions shall apply unless a Holder's Agreement provides otherwise. A dissolution or liquidation of Company; a sale of all or substantially all of the assets of Company where it is contemplated that within a reasonable period of time thereafter Company will either be liquidated or converted into a nonoperating company or an extraordinary dividend will be declared resulting in a partial liquidation of Company (but in all cases only with respect to those employees whom it is anticipated will lose their employment with Company and its Affiliates as a result of such sale of assets); a merger or consolidation (other than a merger effecting a reincorporation of Company in another state or any other merger or a consolidation in which the shareholders of the surviving corporation and their proportionate interests therein immediately after the merger or consolidation are substantially identical to the shareholders of Company and their proportionate interests therein immediately prior to the merger or consolidation) in which Company is not the surviving corporation (or survives only as a subsidiary of another corporation in a transaction in which the shareholders of the parent of Company and their proportionate interests therein immediately after the transaction are not substantially identical to the shareholders of Company and their proportionate interests therein immediately prior to the transaction) shall cause every Option then outstanding to terminate, but the Holders of each such then outstanding Option shall, in any event, have the right, immediately prior to such dissolution, liquidation, sale of assets, merger, consolidation, or transaction, to exercise each such Option, to the extent not theretofore exercised, without regard to the determination as to the periods and installments of exercisability made pursuant to a Holder's Agreement if (and only if) such Options have not at that time expired or been terminated.

Sec. 6:7. Rights as a Shareholder. A Holder shall have no right as a shareholder with respect to any shares covered by his or her Option until a certificate representing such shares is issued to him or her. No adjustment shall be made for dividends (ordinary or extraordinary, whether in cash or other property) or distributions or other rights for which the record date is prior to the date such certificate is issued (except as provided in Sec. 6.6. Hereof).

Sec. 6:8. Modification, Extension, and Renewal of Options. Subject to the terms and conditions of and within the limitations of the Plan, the Committee may modify, extend, or renew outstanding Options granted under the Plan, or accept the surrender of Options outstanding hereunder (to the extent not theretofore exercised) and authorize the granting of new Options hereunder in substitution therefor (to the extent not theretofore exercised). The Committee may not, however, without the consent of the Holder, modify any outstanding Incentive Stock Options so as to specify a lower exercise price or accept the surrender of outstanding Incentive Stock Options and authorize the granting of new Options in substitution therefor specifying a lower option price. In addition, no modification of an Option granted hereunder may, without the consent of the Holder, alter or impair any rights or obligations under any Option theretofore granted hereunder to such Holder under the Plan, except as may be necessary with respect to Incentive Stock Options to satisfy the requirements of Sec. 422 of the Code.

Sec. 6:9. Furnish Information. Each Holder shall furnish to Company all information requested by Company to enable it to comply with any reporting or other requirements imposed upon Company by or under any applicable statute or regulation.

Sec. 6:10. Obligation to Exercise; Termination of Employment. The granting of an Option hereunder shall impose no obligation upon the Holder to exercise the same or any part thereof. In the event of a Holder's termination of employment with Company or an Affiliate, the unexercised portion of an Option granted hereunder shall terminate in accordance with Sec. 6.4 hereof.

Sec. 6:11. Agreement Provisions. The Agreements authorized under the Plan shall contain such provisions in addition to those required by the Plan (including, without limitation, restrictions or the removal of restrictions upon the exercise of the Option and the retention or transfer of shares thereby acquired) as the Committee deems advisable. Each Agreement shall identify the Option evidenced thereby as an Incentive Stock Option or Nonstatutory Stock Option, as the case may be, and no Agreement shall cover both an Incentive Stock Option and Nonstatutory Stock Option. Except as provided by Subsection B of Sec. 6.6, each Agreement relating to an Incentive Stock Option granted hereunder shall contain such limitations and restrictions upon the exercise of the Incentive Stock Option to which it relates as is necessary for the Incentive Stock Option to which such Agreement relates to constitute an incentive stock option, as defined in Sec. 422 of the Code.

Article VII

Duration of Plan

No Incentive Stock Options may be granted hereunder after the date that is ten (10) years from the earlier of: (i) the date this Plan is adopted by the Board of Directors; or (ii) the date this Plan is approved by Company's shareholders. In addition, with respect to shares of Stock not currently covered by an outstanding Option, this Plan may be terminated at any time by the Board of Directors.

Article VIII

Amendment of Plan

The Board of Directors may, insofar as permitted by law, with respect to any shares at the time are not subject to Options, suspend or discontinue the Plan or revise or amend it in any respect whatsoever; provided, however, that, without the approval of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of voting stock of all classes of Company, no such revision or amendment shall: (a) change the number of shares of the Stock subject to the Plan, (b) change the designation of the class of employees eligible to receive Options, (c) decrease the price at which Incentive Stock Options may be granted, (d) remove the administration of the Plan from the Committee, or (e) without the consent of the affected Holder, cause the Incentive Stock Options granted hereunder and outstanding at such time that satisfied the requirements of Sec. 422 of the Code to no longer satisfy such requirements.

Article IX

General

Sec. 9:1. Application of Funds. The proceeds received by Company from the sale of shares pursuant to Options shall be used for general corporate purposes.

Sec. 9:2. Right of Company and Affiliates to Terminate Employment. Nothing contained in the Plan, or in any Agreement, shall confer upon any Holder the right to continue in the employ of Company or any Affiliate, or interfere in any way with the rights of Company or any Affiliate to terminate his or her employment at any time.

Sec. 9:3. No Liability for Good Faith Determinations. Neither the members of the Board of Directors nor any member of the Committee shall be liable for any act, omission, or determination taken or made in good faith with respect to the Plan or any Option granted under it, and members of the Board of Directors and the Committee shall be entitled to indemnification and reimbursement by Company in respect of any claim, loss, damage, or expense (including attorneys' fees, the costs of settling any suit, provided such settlement is approved by independent legal counsel selected by Company, and amounts paid in satisfaction of a judgment, except a judgment based on a finding of bad faith) arising therefrom to the full extent permitted by law and under any directors and officers liability or similar insurance coverage that may from time to time be in effect.

Sec. 9:4. Information Confidential. As partial consideration for the granting of each Option hereunder, the Holder shall agree with Company that he or she will keep confidential all information and knowledge that he or she has relating to the manner and amount of his participation in the Plan; provided, however, that such information may be disclosed as required by law and may be given in confidence to the Holder's spouse, tax, and financial advisors, or to a financial institution to the extent that such information is necessary to secure a loan. In the event any breach of this promise comes to the attention of the Committee, it shall take into consideration such breach, in determining whether to recommend the grant of any future Option to such Holder, as a factor militating against the advisability of granting any such future Option to such individual.

Sec. 9:5. Other Benefits. Participation in the Plan shall not preclude the Holder from eligibility in any other stock option plan of Company or any Affiliate or any old age benefit, insurance, pension, profit sharing retirement, bonus, or other extra compensation plans which Company or any Affiliate has adopted, or may, at any time, adopt for the benefit of its employees.

Sec. 9:6. Execution of Receipts and Releases. Any payment of cash or any issuance or transfer of shares of Stock to the Holder, or to his or her legal representative, heir, legatee, or distributee, in accordance with the provisions hereof, shall, to the extent thereof, be in full satisfaction of all claims of such persons hereunder. The Committee may require any Holder, legal representative, heir, legatee, or distributee, as a condition precedent to such payment, issuance, or transfer, to execute a release and receipt therefor in such form as it shall determine.

Sec. 9:7. No Guarantee of Interests. Neither the Committee nor Company guarantees the Stock of Company from loss or depreciation.

Sec. 9:8. Payment of Expenses. All expenses incident to the administration, termination, or protection of the Plan, including, but not limited to, legal and accounting fees, shall be paid by Company or its Affiliates.

Sec. 9:9. Company Records. Records of Company or its Affiliates regarding the Holder's period of employment, termination of employment and the reason therefor, leaves of absence, re-employment, and other matters shall be conclusive for all purposes hereunder, unless determined by the Committee to be incorrect.

Sec. 9:10. Information. Company and its Affiliates shall, upon request or as may be specifically required hereunder, furnish or cause to be furnished, all of the information or documentation which is necessary or required by the Committee to perform its duties and functions under the Plan.

Sec. 9:11. No Liability of Company. Company assumes no obligation or responsibility to the Holder or his or her personal representatives, heirs, legatees, or distributees for any act of, or failure to act on the part of, the Committee.

Sec. 9:12. Company Action. Any action required of Company shall be by resolution of its Board of Directors or by a person authorized to act by resolution of the Board of Directors.

Sec. 9:13. Severability. If any provision of this Plan is held to be illegal or invalid for any reason, the illegality or invalidity shall not affect the remaining provisions hereof, but such provision shall be fully severable, and the Plan shall be construed and enforced as if the illegal or invalid provision had never been included herein.

Sec. 9:14. Notices. Whenever any notice is required or permitted hereunder, such notice must be in writing and personally delivered or sent by mail. Any notice required or permitted to be delivered hereunder shall be deemed to be delivered on the date on which it is personally delivered, or, whether actually received or not, on the third business day after it is deposited in the United States mail, certified or registered, postage prepaid, addressed to the person who is to receive it at the address which such person has theretofore specified by written notice delivered in accordance herewith. Company or a Holder may change, at any time and from time to time, by written notice to the other, the address which it or he had theretofore specified for receiving notices. Until changed in accordance herewith, Company and each Holder shall specify as its and his or her address for receiving notices the address set forth in the Agreement pertaining to the shares to which such notice relates.

Sec. 9:15. Waiver of Notice. Any person entitled to notice hereunder may waive such notice.

Sec. 9:16. Successors. The Plan shall be binding upon the Holder, his or her heirs, legatees, and legal representatives, upon Company, its successors, and assigns, and upon the Committee, and its successors.

All questions arising with respect to the provisions of the Plan shall be determined by application of the laws of the State of Delaware except to the extent Delaware law is preempted by federal law. Questions arising with respect to the provisions of an Agreement that are matters of contract law shall be governed by the laws of the state specified in the Agreement, except to the extent Delaware corporate law conflicts with the contract law of such state, in which event Delaware corporate law shall govern. The obligation of Company to sell and deliver Stock hereunder is subject to applicable laws and to the approval of any governmental authority required in connection with the authorization, issuance, sale, or delivery of such Stock.

Sec. 9:19. Word Usage. Words used in the masculine shall apply to the feminine where applicable, and wherever the context of this Plan dictates, the plural shall be read as the singular and the singular as the plural.

Sec. 9:20. Remedies. Company may recover from a Holder reasonable attorneys' fees incurred in connection with the enforcement of the terms and provisions of the Plan and any Agreement whether by an action to enforce specific performance or for damages for its breach or otherwise.

AMENDMENT NO. 1
TO
2001 STOCK OPTION PLAN
SUPREME INDUSTRIES, INC.

By means of a 2001 Stock Option Plan (the "Plan") dated January 31, 2001, Supreme Industries, Inc. (the "Company") put into effect a Stock Option Plan for the benefit of its officers, employees, and advisors.

Article VIII of the Plan permits the Board of Directors of the Company to amend the Plan from time to time.

In order to provide a more accurate method for determining the fair market value of the Company's stock, at its meeting held on May 2, 2001, the Company's Board of Directors passed a resolution agreeing to amend the Plan so as to provide for a more accurate method.

The purpose of this Amendment is to amend the Plan by deleting Section 1:8 in its entirety and substituting therefor the following:

"Sec. 1:8. Fair Market Value. 'Fair Market Value' shall mean, if the Stock is traded on an established market or exchange, the closing price of the Stock on the market or exchange on which the Stock is traded on the immediately preceding business day, and if the Stock is not so traded or the Stock does not trade on a relevant date, the value determined in good faith by the Board of Directors. For purposes of valuing Incentive Stock Options, the Fair Market Value of Stock shall be determined without regard to any restriction other than one which, by its terms, will never lapse."

DATED to be effective May 2, 2001.
