Advanced Oxygen Technologies, Inc. ("Advanced Oxygen Technologies", "AOXY", "AOT" or the "Company"), incorporated in Delaware in 1981 under the name Aquanautics Corporation, was, from 1985 until May 1995, a development stage specialty materials company producing new oxygen control technologies. From May of 1995 through December of 1997 AOXY had minimal operations and was seeking funding for operations and companies to which it could merge or acquire. In March of 1998 AOXY began operations in California. From 1998 through 2000, the business consisted of producing and selling CD-ROMS for conference events, advertisement sales on the CD's, database management and event marketing all associated with conference events. From 2000 through March of 2003, the business consisted solely of database management. From 2003 forward, the business operations were derived totally from the Company's wholly owned business, IP Service, ApS, a Danish IP security vulnerability company ("IP Service"). IP Service provides network administrators early IP security warnings and vulnerabilities.

THE PATENT SALE

On May 1, 1995, the Company sold its patents, and all related technology and intellectual property rights (collectively the "Patents Rights") to W. R. Grace & Co. Subsequently these royalties and associated liabilities were transferred to a trust (see Trust Agreement 12/18/97 below).

During this reporting period all database orders and sales were completed through outsourced sales. AOXY has 1 active customer for Database Management. IP Services clients were comprised of network managers, internet clients, and companies looking for increased security for their networks. The resellers of IP Service are security and software sellers, and are all established in their respective geographies.

Advanced Oxygen Technologies, Inc.

We have audited the accompanying balance sheet of Advanced Oxygen Technologies, Inc. (the "Company") and subsidiary ("IPS") as of June 30, 2003 and 2002 and the related statements of operations and accumulated deficit, cash flows and stockholders' deficiency for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Advanced Oxygen Technologies, Inc. and subsidiary as of June 30, 2003 and 2002 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company and IPS will continue as a going concern. As shown in the financial statements, the Company and IPS incurred operating losses of $29,907 and $70,885 respectively during the fiscal years ended June 30, 2002 and 2003 and as of those dates, current liabilities exceeded current assets by $264,180 and $327,209, respectively. The foregoing raise substantial doubt about the Company's and IPS's ability to continue as going concerns. The management of IPS has carried out negotiations with various lenders and investors to increase stockholders' equity. So far these negotiations have ended with no result. If the plan is not carried out it is expected that the Danish Commerce Agency (Erhvervs- & Selskabsstyrelsen) will order IPS into forced liquidation in accordance with paragraph 52,3 in the Private Companies Act. The Company's and IPS's continuation as going concerns are dependent on the attainment of profitable operations and meeting its obligations on a timely basis. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

CONSOLIDATED NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Years ended June 30, 2003 AND 2002

NOTE 1- ORGANIZATION AND LINE OF BUSINESS

ORGANIZATION:

Advanced Oxygen Technologies, Inc. (formerly Aquanautic Corporation) (the "Company") was a specialty materials company in the development stage (as defined by the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") in Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") no. 7, "Accounting and Reporting by Development Stage Enterprises"). The Company's core technology consisted of a variety of materials, which have a high affinity for oxygen. Through 1993 the Company also conducted research through funding from various government agencies such as the office of Naval Research and from Small Business Innovative Research ("SBIR") grants, as well as through its own internally generated funds.

The Company's patent Rights and Trademark Rights were sold to W.R. Grace & Company - Connecticut ("Grace") in February 1995 for $236,000, net of applicable selling costs, in cash plus a royalty of 2% of the net sales price of any products sold by Grace which would, the sale of the Patent Rights notwithstanding, cause a patent infringement.

The Company has agreed to indemnify Grace for any out of pocket costs incurred because of the claims, litigation, arbitration, or other proceedings (a) relating to the validity or ownership of the Patent Rights, (b) relating to any infringement by the Patent Rights of any other patent or trademark owned by a third party, (c) relating to any breach by the Company of its representations, warranties, covenants in the Purchase Agreement, or (d) arising from any state of affairs existing at closing which was not this indemnity. The indemnity is for all such costs up to $75,000 and for 50% of such costs over $75,000. Amounts due Grace under the indemnity would be paid by withholding royalties from the Company.

The Company ceased its normal operation described above during 1995 and had dormant operations until March 1998. During 1997, the Company entered into the following agreements in preparation of starting a new line of business:

Stock Acquisition Agreement:

Pursuant to a Stock Acquisition dated as of December 18, 1997, the Company issued 23,750,000 shares of its common stock, par value $0.01 per share, to several investors for $60,000 in cash, plus consulting services with a fair value of $177,500. In December, 2000 an affiliated creditor received $125,000 to reduce the Company's debt from an unrelated buyer of 3,000,000 shares of common stock which the Company issued during the year

Waiver Agreement:

Three of the Company's shareholders paid $60,000 in cash to former directors for the Company's release from liability for repayment of an aggregate of $275,000, plus any interest accrued thereon. In addition, the Company entered into a Trust Agreement (described below) as additional consideration to the former directors.

Trust Agreement:

The Company assigned certain royalty rights and liabilities related to the technology sold to Grace to a trust. As part of the agreement, the trust assumed the obligations of the $275,000 in advances from the former directors.

On March 9, 1998, pursuant to an Agreement of Purchase and Sale of Specified Business Assets ("Purchase Agreement"), a Promissory Note, and a Security Agreement, the Company purchased certain tangible and intangible assets (the "Assets"), including goodwill and rights under certain contracts from Integrated Marketing Agency, Inc. ("IMA"). The assets purchased from IMA consisted primarily of furniture, fixtures, equipment, computers, servers, software, and databases previously used by IMA in its full-service telemarketing business. The purchase price consisted of (a) a cash down payment of $10,000, (b) a note payable of $550,000, and (c) 1,670,000 shares of the Company's Series 3 convertible preferred stock. As described in Note 10, the preferred shares automatically convert into the Company's common shares on March 2, 2000 in a manner that depends on the value of the common stock during the ten trading days immediately prior to March 1, 2000. However, as part of the Purchase Agreement, IMA has the option to redeem the converted shares for the aggregate sum of $500,000 by delivering written notice to redeem the converted shares within ten business days after the conversion date. At the time of the purchase, the fair value of the preferred shares was not clearly evident, even though it appeared to be less than $500,000. Therefore, the purchase price had a fair value of at least $1,060,000. The assets purchased were recorded based upon their fair values.

Pursuant to a Purchase Agreement dated January 28, 1999, the Company purchased the 1,670,000 shares of the Series 3 convertible preferred stock and the promissory note discussed in the preceding paragraph. As part of the agreement, the Company paid $15,000 to IMA, assumed a certain computer equipment lease with remaining obligations totaling $44,811 and executed a one-year $5,000 promissory note to IMA. In addition, both IMA and the Company provided mutual liability releases to each other.

On March 5, 2003, the Company, in exchange for 14,000,000 common shares, acquired the common stock of IP Service Aps("IP") a Danish corporation which developed and sells a software package "Analizt". Analizt is a security early warning tool used by network administrators in order for them to implement security patches on software installations. The product is sold as installed software together with a subscription for information updates for the security database. The common shares issued at the date of acquisition were valued at 2 cents per share assigned entirely to software costs, an intangible asset, which has no fixed determinable life. This asset is evaluated at least annually and any decline in value is charged to operations during that year.

Lines of Business:

Database Management:

After the Company purchased the assets of IMA in March 1998, the Company began its operations of database management and marketing and CD-ROM production/sales. During the year ended June 30, 2002 all of the Company's revenues were from a single customer.

Software Development:

Effective, March 5, 2003, with the acquisition of IP Service APS described above, the Company also develops and sells a software package called Analizt. IP has finished the first customer release of the product and has been proven satisfactory in the tests that have been performed. IP also works as security consultants and also sells other security software, and has entered into a sales representation agreement with the organization Element5, which will sell Analizt worldwide. IP is involved in educating programmers as well as network security personnel. Because of losses incurred in the fiscal period ended June 30, 2003, IP plans to obtain additional capital during late calendar year 2003. During the period from March 5, 2003 to June 30, 2003 approximately $9,000 of its revenues were derived from a single customer and all revenues were derived from operations in Denmark.

Consolidation:

These financial statements include the Company and IP. Intercompany transactions and balances, if any, are eliminated in consolidation. The financial statements include the accounts of IP commencing March 5, 2003, the date of acquisition.

NOTE 2 - GOING CONCERN AND BASIS OF PRESENTATION:

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, which contemplate continuation of the Company and IP as going concerns. As shown in the financial statements, the Company and IP incurred operating losses and had negative working capital at June 30, 2003 and 2002. These factors raise substantial doubt about the Company's and IP's ability to continue as going concerns.

In view of the matters described in the preceding paragraph, continued operations are dependent upon the Company's ability to continue to raise capital and generate positive cash flows from operations. These financial statements do not include any adjustments relating to the classification of recorded asset amounts or amounts and classifications of liabilities that might be necessary should the Company and IP be unable to continue its existence.

Management plans to take the following steps, which it believes will be sufficient to provide the Company with the ability to continue in existence:

- Increase its business volume and customer base.
- Acquire additional debt or equity financing.
- Control its costs in order to achieve its profit goals.
- Complete the development of Analizt software and launch it on a worldwide basis.

NOTE 3 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

Revenue Recognition:

Product Sales:

Revenue is recognized when delivery is made and risk has passed to the buyer. Revenues are recognized net of value added taxes, where required, duties and sales discounts. Database revenues are recognized after the reservation has been made and the time period for the registrant to cancel the registration and still receive a refund has expired.

Consulting Income:

Revenue is recognized at the time the consulting work is performed.

Research and development:

Costs for development of new products, and the development of Analizt software, are expensed as incurred. Once software is determined to be technologically feasible, such costs will be capitalized and amortized.

Property and equipment:

Property consisting of fixtures and fittings, tools and equipment are recorded at cost and are depreciated over their estimated lives of 5 years. Impairment losses, if any, are recognized when they become apparent. Small acquisitions are expensed as incurred.

Accounts receivable:

Accounts receivable are recorded at net realizable value consisting of the carrying amount less the allowance for uncollectible accounts.

The Company uses the allowance method for uncollectible trade receivable balances. Under the allowance method, an estimate of uncollectible customer balances is made based on the percentages of balances that exceed certain levels. When an account balance is past due and attempts have been made to collect the receivable through legal or other means, the amount is considered uncollectible and is written off against the allowance balance.

Prepayments:

Prepayments comprise incurred costs relating to subsequent periods. Prepayments are carried at amortized cost.

Lease commitments:

Lease commitments relating to assets held under finance leases are recognized in the balance sheet as liabilities and are measured at amortized cost. The interest portion of such lease payments are recognized over the term of the contract as financial costs.

Foreign currency translation:

Foreign currency transactions are translated applying the current rate method. Assets and liabilities are translated at current rates. Stockholders' equity accounts are translated at the appropriate historical rates and revenue and expenses are translated at weighted average rates for the year. Exchange rate differences that arise between the rate at the transaction date and the one in effect at the payment date, or at the balance sheet date, are recognized in the income statement.

Income Taxes:

The Company accounts for income taxes under the asset and liability method of accounting. Under this method, deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period that includes the enactment date. A valuation allowance is required when it is less likely than not that the Company will be able to realize all or a portion of its deferred tax assets. Because it is doubtful that the net operating losses of recent years will ever be used, a valuation allowance has been recognized equal to the tax benefit of net operating losses generated.

Net Earnings per Share:

For the year ended June 30, 1999, the Company adopted SFAS No. 128, "Earnings per Share". Basic earnings per share is computed by dividing income available to common shareholders by the weighted-average number of common shares available. Diluted earnings per share is computed similar to basic earnings per share except that the denominator is increased to include the number of additional common shares that would have been outstanding if the potential common shares had been issued and if the additional common shares were dilutive.

Cash and Cash Equivalents:

For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Company considers all highly liquid investments purchased with original maturities of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Estimates:

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, as well as the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reported period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Concentrations of Credit Risk:

Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to major credit risk consist principally of receivables from a single customer.

NOTE 4 - PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT:

Property and equipment at June 30, 2003 consisted of the following:

Value at acquisition March 5, 2003	16,235
Less accumulated depreciation and

amortization	(2,029)
$	14,206

Depreciation and amortization expense for the period ended June 30, 2003 was $2,029..

NOTE 5 - RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS AND COMMITMENTS-IP SERVICE APS

Mr.Kurt Soendergaard, an officer of IP, and a shareholder prior to its acquisition by the Company was authorized to receive a salary of approximately $14,000 during the period March 5, 2003 to June 30, 2003, but has not received the salary and has agreed to postpone the payment of the salary indefinitely. The amount of the salary due to the officer has been recorded as a current liability.

IP leases office space from Mr. Soendergaard under an operating lease expiring in 2005 providing for an annual rent of approximately $4,000 or a total commitment of approximately $8,700.

NOTE 6 - COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES:

Lease Commitment:

On October 1, 1998, the Company entered into a non-cancelable lease agreement for its operating facilities in Santa Clarita, California. Monthly rent of $4,038 is due with annual increases starting October 1, 1999.

Minimum annual non-cancelable commitments under the lease are as follows:

Year Ending June 30,
2002	$ 56,052
2003	58,904
2004	19,952
	$134,908

At June 30, 2001, the Company had not paid $17,860 rent due under this lease. Subsequent to June 30, 2001, the Company vacated the premises and forfeited the security deposit of $4,093. Rent expense under this lease aggregated $53,960 during the year ended June 30, 2001 and $4,093 during the year ended June 30, 2002. The Company may be liable for minimum rents unpaid until the premises are leased to a new tenant. The Company was negotiating with the landlord to obtain a release from the balance of the lease in exchange for payments of balances owing.

See also Note 5 for discussion of other current rent and other commitments.

Contingency:

Since July 2002 IP has been developing an internet security software by name of Analizt. Prior to July 2002 research was carried out by a related party to IP (IP Solutions A/S) pertaining to a product (MYTH-Software) with some of the same characteristics as Analizt. IP Solutions A/S filed for bankruptcy in April 2002. Soon after a Danish public funding organization (Vaekstfonden) continued the research which had been carried out prior to bankruptcy. In August 2002 IP purchased the project from Vaekstfonden. However, since Vaekstfonden did not deliver the research, IP never paid the contract price of approximately $3,750 in cash plus a loan of approximately $45,000 on special terms and Vaekstfonden finally revoked the sale on October 2, 2002. It is uncertain whether Vaekstfonden will file a lawsuit against IP for violation of the sales contract. It is also possible that Vaekstfonden will seek compensation due to the similarity of the product functionality of MYTH-Software and the new developed product ANALIZT. According to management, IP has not infringed on Vaekstfonden's rights to the MYTH-Software, as ANALIZT is developed in a different platform environment.

NOTE 7 - DUE TO AFFILIATE

Due to affiliate at June 30, 2002 consisted of advances payable to Crossfield, Inc., a related party, which are not collateralized, non-interest bearing, and payable upon demand, however, the Company did not expect to make payment within one year. During the year ended June 30, 2002 and 2003 the Company borrowed $37,373 and $16,277, respectively, from affiliates and officers to meet expenses. The balances were not collateralized, were non-interest bearing and were payable on demand. On June 26, 2003, the affiliate and an officer forgave obligations totaling $147,999 and received no consideration from the company for so doing.

NOTE 8 - SUBSEQUENT EVENT

Subsequent to June 30, 2003, the management and owners of IP have been negotiating with prospective investors about injecting additional capital to carry on IP Service ApS' operations, including continuing the development and marketing of Analizt. Negotiations have not shown any result yet, and therefore it is uncertain whether the Company can carry on its operations in the coming financial year. The Company does have the necessary capital to pay its debts and in case the continuing negotiations will not be successful it must be expected that the Company will go into liquidation proceedings.

NOTE 9- INCOME TAXES

As of June 30, 2003, the Company had federal and state net operating loss carryforwards of approximately $12,400,000 of which approximately $1,600,000 may be utilized to offset future taxable income. Section 382 of the Internal Revenue Code imposes substantial restrictions on the utilization of net operating loss and tax credit carryforwards when a change in ownership occurs. No deferred tax debits have been recorded because it is considered unlikely that they will be realized. The loss carryforwards will expire during the fiscal years ended June 30 as follows:

2012	$464,000
2018	236,000
2019	548,000
2020	351,000
2021	29,000
Total	$1,628,000

The overall effective tax rate differs from the federal statutory tax rate of 34% due to operating losses and other deferred assets not providing benefit for income tax purposes.

Compensation Committee Report

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors was responsible for reviewing and approving the Company's compensation policies and the compensation paid to executive officers. Mr. Wolfe and Mr. Donofrio, who comprise the Compensation Committee are employee and non-employee directors respectively.

Compensation Philosophy

The general philosophy of the Company's compensation program, which has been reviewed and endorsed by the Committee, was to provide overall competitive compensation based on each executive's individual performance and the Company's overall performance.

There are two basic components in the Company's executive compensation program: (i) base salary and (ii) stock option awards.

Base Salary

Executive Officers' salaries are targeted at the median range for rates paid by competitors in comparably sized companies. The Company recognizes the need to attract and retain highly skilled and motivated executives through a competitive base salary program, while at the same time considering the overall performance of the Company and returns to stockholders.

Stock Option Awards

With respect to executive officers, stock options are generally granted on an annual basis, usually at the commencement of the new fiscal year. Generally, stock options vest ratably over a four-year period and the executive must be employed by the Company in order to vest the options. The Compensation Committee believes that the stock option grants provide an incentive that focuses the executives' attention on managing the Company from the perspective of an owner with an equity stake in the business. The option grants are issued at no less than 85% of the market price of the stock at the date of grant, hence there is incentive on the executive's part to enhance the value of the stock through the overall performance of the Company.

Compensation Pursuant to Plans

The Company has three plans (the "Plans") under which its directors, executive officers and employees may receive compensation. The principal features of the 1981 Long-Term Incentive Plan (the "1981 Plan"), the 1988 Stock Option Plan (the "1988 Plan"), and the Non-Employee Director Plan (the "Director Plan") are described below. During the fiscal year ended June 30, 1994, the Company terminated its tax qualified cash or deferred profit-sharing plan (the "401(k) Plan"). During fiscal 1998, no executive officer received compensation pursuant to any of the Plans except as described below.

The 1981 and 1988 Plans

The purpose of the 1981 Plan and 1988 Plan (the "Option Plans") is to provide an incentive to eligible directors, consultants and employees whose present and potential contributions to the Company are or will be important to the success of the Company by affording them an opportunity to acquire a proprietary interest in the Company and to enable the Company to enlist and retain in its employ the best available talent for the successful conduct of its business.

The 1981 Plan

The 1981 Plan was adopted by the Board of Directors in May 1981 and approved by the Company's stockholders in March 1982. A total of 500,000 shares have been authorized for issuance under the 1981 Plan. With the adoption of the 1988 Plan, no additional awards may be made under the 1981 Plan. As a result, the shares remaining under the 1981 Plan are now available solely under the 1988 Plan. Prior to its termination, the 1981 Plan provided for the grant of the following five types of awards to employees (including officers and directors) of the Company and any subsidiaries: (a) incentive stock rights, (b) incentive stock options, (c) non-statutory stock options, (d) stock appreciation rights, and (e) restricted stock. The 1981 Plan is administered by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors.

The 1988 Plan

The 1988 Plan provides for the grant of options to purchase Common Stock to employees (including officers) and consultants of the Company and any parent or subsidiary corporation. The aggregate number of shares which remained available for issuance under the 1981 plan as of the effective date of the 1988 Plan plus an additional 500,000 shares of Common Stock.

Options granted under the 1988 Plan may either be immediately exercisable for the full number of shares purchasable thereunder or may become exercisable in cumulative increments over a period of months or years as determined by the Compensation Committee. The exercise price of options granted under the 1988 Plan may not be less than 85% of the fair market value of the Common Stock on the date of the grant and the maximum period during which any option may be paid in cash, in shares if the Company's Common Stock or through a broker-dealer same-day sale program involving a cash-less exercise of the option. One or more optionees may also be allowed to finance their option exercises through Company loans, subject to the approval of the Compensation Committee.

Issuable Shares

As of September 20, 1995, approximately 374,000 shares of Common Stock had been issued upon the exercise of options granted under the Option Plans, no shares of Common Stock were subject to outstanding options under the Options Plans and 626,000 shares of Common Stock were available for issuance under future option grants.

From July 1, 1991 to September 20, 1995, options were granted at exercise prices ranging from $1.22 to $8.15 per share. The exercise price of each option was equal to 85% of the closing bid price of Company's Common Stock as reported on the NASDAQ Over the Counter Bulletin Board Exchange. Due to employee terminations, all options became void in August 1995. As of September 30, 2001 1,000,000 shares of Common Stock were available for issuance under future option grants.

Board of Directors Compensation

As of June 30, 2003 the directors did not receive any compensation for serving as members of the Board.

In addition to any cash compensation, non-employee directors also are eligible to participate in the Non-Employee Director Stock Option Plan and to receive automatic option grants thereunder. The Director Plan provides for periodic automatic option grants to non-employee members of the Board. An individual who is first elected or appointed as a non-employee Board member receives an annual automatic grant of 25,000 shares plus the first annual grant of 5,000 shares, and will be eligible for subsequent 5,000 share grants at the second Annual Meeting following the date of his initial election or appointment as a non-employee Board member.

During the fiscal year ended June 30, 2003, no options were granted to non-employee Board members.

1. DESCRIPTION OF BUSINESS IP Service ApS (the Corporation) offers an array of IT services to customers located mainly in Denmark. The services include both sales of IT-security products and consultant fees.

The Corporation is a Private Limited Liability company organized under the company code of the Kingdom of Denmark. Corporation was founded in April 2002, but has been inactive until January 1, 2001. 2. a. Reporting currency - The functional currency of the corporation is Danish Kroner (DKK). b. Research and Development expenses - Research and development expenses during the start-up phase are expensed when incurred.

c. Equipment - Equipment is measured at cost. Equipment is depreciated on a straight-line basis over the expected lives of 3 years for computer equipment.

d. Earnings per share - The company has not issued any stock options or warrants. Therefore, basis earnings per share equals diluted earnings per share.

e. Revenue recognition - Revenues are recognized when the services are rendered and the products are delivered.

Since July 2002 the corporation has been developing an internet security software by name of Analizt. Prior to July 2002 research was carried out by a related party to the corporation (IP Solutions A/S) pertaining to a product (MYTH-Software) with some of the same characteristics as Analizt. IP Solutions A/S filed for bankruptcy in April 2002. Soon after a Danish public funding organisation (Vaekstfonden) took pledge in the research which had been carried out prior to the bankruptcy. In August 2002 IP Service ApS purchased the project from Vaekstfonden. However, since Vaekstfonden did not deliver the research, IP Service ApS never paid the price of DKK 25,000 in cash plus a DKK 300,000 loan on special terms, and Vaekstfonden finally recalled the sale on October 2, 2002. It is uncertain whether Vaekstfonden will file a lawsuit against IP Service for violation of the sale agreement with Vaekstfonden. It is further a possibility, that Vaekstfonden will seek compensation due to the similarity of the product functionality of the product MYTH and the new developed product ANALIZT. According to the board of Directors assessment, IP Service ApS has not infringed on Vaekstfondens rights to the MYTH software, as ANALIZT is developed in a different platform environment, but we cannot be sure that Vaekstfonden will not initiate a lawsuit related to this matter.

IP Business Description:

Company Overview

IP Service is a Danish based privately owned company. The business was incorporated in July 2000 to distribute and develop e-security software products for global markets. The financial status of the business has been audited to 31st December 2001.

Management Team

It is recognised that experienced international management is a requirement, together with the continuity of the founders technical expertise, to achieve investment and sales success. The Board of Directors will consist of the following:

Kurt Søndergaard: President and CTO of IP Solutions.

A founder and major shareholder of the company, Mr. Søndergaard was educated in the Danish Navy as an electronic engineer. He has worked for 10 years in the electronic security industry , specifically in the IT sector. During this period, Kurt has developed as a business entrepreneur, building and selling an IT business.

Laue Traberg Schmidt, Esq., Chairman of the board

Chairman of the Board. Mr. Smidt holds a law degree from the university of Copenhagen and has had positions as managing director for many major Danish organizations such as Håndværksrådet (Danish Entrepreneur Organization), Byg and Save the Children and is a former member of the Danish Parliament. Mr. Smidt has an extensive experience in management of companies. Mr. Smidt is currently practising as an attorney in Copenhagen.

The business

The business of IP Solution has been doing consultancy work for the security industry mainly in Denmark and further to develop a propriatary software solution to secure early warning systems for network and internet applications.

The Analizt Solution

IP Service have developed Analizt, a scaleable solution that can be rapidly deployed across any size of network locally or globally.

It delivers affordable secure solutions that demonstrate a fast return on investment by maximising efficiencies in personnel and other resources.

Analizt highlights potential weaknesses or vulnerabilities that may be potential targets for hackers.

As a result of this, any weaknesses are reported immediately. Uniquely, Analizt also offers a solution.

Analizt provides a database of known weaknesses and vulnerabilities that can be cross-matched against an organisations IT inventory, highlighting weaknesses in that particular network. The system alerts the relevant personnel or individual as to the nature and risk of the threat and ultimately offers solutions and information in order to deal with these weaknesses to ensure that the systems cannot be exploited.

Analizt is an IT based security solution positioned to be a next generation product, addressing the needs of both commercial and non-commercial organisations. Analizt provides a structured approach, able to leverage the growing demand for content based security technologies. This allow for greater protection against hackers, cyber theft and damage resulting from such actions.

Analizt is patent pending technology that protects the valuable knowledge based assets residing across networks from one single source. This removes the need to rely upon numerous sources to identify weaknesses within that network. It also reduces the need for consultancy services, personnel or other services to search for, find and implement a solution. Using Analizt, organisations are able to combine IT functions, control costs, and enable valuable IT personnel to focus on areas that will derive business benefit.

Analizt is a Security Early Warning Solution (SEWS) that highlights any weaknesses and vulnerabilities in a network.

It allows for a complete inventory of the network either manually or automatically.

The system issues warnings on risk levels via secure email, SMS reports or other forms of alerts. It allows for the system to be configured specifically for the organisation or department. Highlighting risks to the network as high, medium or low enables personnel within both the IT department and business to make informed, relevant decisions in order to protect the assets, business, intellectual property and reputation of the organisation.

This is achieved by comparing known vulnerabilities to the configuration of an organisations network and highlighting any weakness. Central to the solution is a database that holds all known vulnerabilities and weaknesses. By comparing the network inventory to the database it is able to create a profile, or a complete network vulnerability overview.

Prior to Analizt, companies would access a number of different databases and services in order to identify vulnerabilities. Not only was this time consuming, it is a major drain on resources and does not produce a solution to the problem.

Analizt covers most operating systems, applications and firmware. It is no longer the case that the most vulnerable areas of a network are the servers. This vulnerability has now extended to the desktop and routing technology.

The Analizt tool can aid the design of software solutions from a security perspective. It enables comparative review of different designs and approaches.

Analizt reduces the workload contained in monitoring the large flow of security related information related to the corporate computer systems. The administrator or IT-department will be notified when the information is relevant to their system.

Analizt will keep the entire system updated from a security vulnerability point of view. When combined with the traditional firewalls and IDS systems this gives a much higher level of security.

Analizt provides the basis of a security policy across the enterprise encompassing applications, operating systems and firmware within the network.

IP Service believe that Analizt is unique.

Relocation of office

In January of 2002 IP Service moved to the offices at Sønderbrogade 99, 8700 Horsens and at the same time acquired office equipment located at the premises. The company has a dispute with the vendors of the equipment regarding actual payment for the equipment. Whereas Ip Service ApS claims to have paid for the equipment in full the vendor claims that there is still owed app. 15,000 USD. This dispute is handled in the Courts of Horsens, Denmark and a solution will be found sometime in 2003 or 2004.

Purchase of Myth.

During the summer of 2002 IP Service entered into an agreement with the Danish Innovation Fund (Controlled by the Danish State) Vækstfonden whereby IP Service ApS acquired the products rights to the product MYTH. A product that provides specific alerts to Internet Security customers. The product was acquired for a total sum of 300.000 DKK. However Vækstfonden has been unable to actually deliver the product, and IP Service has filed a demand for compensation for costs and losses. This case might go to trial.

Change of ownership

In May of 2002 the ownership of the all shares in IP Service changed from KS Holding to the current owners, Logical Management Ltd, Henistone Project Ltd and Borkwood Developments Ltd. This move has provided a new and stronger development arm of the company and has strengthened the marketing.

Should the Indemnitor elect to defend the same at its own expense, the Indemnitor shall have the absolute right to compromise or settle such claim, demand or other matter in its sole discretion. If the Indemnitor fails within twenty (20) days after receipt of such notice to defend the same, the other party hereto shall, in addition to any other rights it may have, at law or in equity, have the right to undertake the defense of and compromise or settle the claim, demand or other matter.

Failing such resolution, Shareholder may seek an equitable resolution in a court of law, and during such time as the matter is pending and until the matter is finally and judicially resolved, Shareholder shall be prohibited from declaring the obligations under this Agreement, or any ancillary document including but not limited to the Covenant of Non Competition and the Employment Agreement, by reason of the set-off, to be in default.

Exhibit B

COVENANT OF NON-COMPETITION

THIS COVENANT OF NON-COMPETITION (Agreement) is executed and made effective on March 05, 2003 by the Shareholders (as listed in the Stock Acquisition Agreement) (collectively and individually referred to as Covenantor) in the State of New York.

1 Recitals.

The covenants, obligations and rights created by and arising hereunder are premised upon the following facts which are recited hereat to have the force of conclusive presumptions:

1.1.1. Covenantor has, contemporaneously with the execution hereof, closed a transaction pursuant to a Stock Acquisition Agreement (annexed hereto as Exhibit B) whereby Covenantor has sold to Advanced Oxygen Technologies, Inc. (Covenantee herein) 100% of all classes of equity of a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Denmark, IP Service ApS (herein referred to as Company), its wholly owned or majority owned subsidiaries as listed in the Stock Acquisition Agreement, goodwill, and all of the Company assets of which the Company has heretofore engaged in business as a Network Security and software security systems company (Business), and the like and which operates under the name IP Service ApS nationally.

1.1.2. Covenantor is a majority shareholder, director or key officer of Company, such that he has a personal and beneficial interest in the said Stock Acquisition Agreement.

1.1.3. A material, bargained-for benefit to the Covenantee in said Stock Acquisition Agreement is the agreement of the Covenantor that they will cease and desist from engaging in the Business which, if not proscribed by operation of this covenant, would substantially devalue the business advantages acquired by Covenantee pursuant to the said Stock Acquisition Agreement, except as provided with respect to Covenantor in any Employment Agreement as defined in the Stock Acquisition Agreement.

1.2 In consideration of the benefits conferred upon Covenantor under the said Stock Acquisition Agreement, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, Covenantor hereby irrevocably binds and pledges themselves to the terms set forth hereinbelow, by creating this covenant of non-competition.

2. Covenant of Non-Competition.

2.1 Subject to the terms of 2.3 below, Covenantor hereby covenants to Covenantee, and Covenantee's parent companies, subsidiaries, partners, affiliates, successors and assigns, that with the sole exception of the activities permitted in Section 2.2 hereinbelow, for a period of Five (5) years, Covenantor shall not, directly or indirectly, whether as an owner, sole proprietor, partner, shareholder, director, agent, employee, advisor, independent contractor or in any other capacity whatsoever, or through any person or entity under the direction or control of Covenantor, carry on or engage in the Business within the geographical area specified in Exhibit A hereto (including non-contiguous states, territories, possessions and protectorates).

2.2 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary appearing herein, Covenantor shall not be deemed to be in breach hereof if any one or more of them engage in the proscribed activities in the capacity of employee of the Covenantee or as an agent acting on behalf of Covenantee.

2.3 Notwithstanding the foregoing, and in the event that Covenantee shall be in default of any monetary payment due to Covenantor under the Stock Acquisition Agreement, or any Employment Agreement, then, and only in such event, the Covenantor shall be released from this Covenant Not to Compete.

3. Covenant Absolute; Good Faith Observance; Binding Covenant.

3.1 No cause, claim, event or circumstance of any type or nature, whether or not foreseeable (including but not limited to any cause, claim, event or circumstance which may relate to or affect the Covenantee at any time in the future) shall be deemed to extinguish, release or excuse the faithful performance of the foregoing covenant of non-competition, the good faith observance of which shall be an absolute duty which shall be performed without offset or counterclaim of any type or nature whatsoever.

3.2 Covenantor hereby expressly acknowledges that the acts of prohibited competition enumerated above are not only proscribed as to their own direct or indirect conduct; but also it shall be impermissible, and shall constitute a breach of the covenant of non-competition hereunder, to carry out any act of the prohibited competition or to attempt to do so through the auspices of any other party or entity or to enlist the aid of, engage the services of or to conspire with any other party or entity so as to circumvent the spirit and intent of this covenant by using other parties or entities to stand in the place of, or as alter ego of, Covenantor, which Covenantors themselves are prohibited from doing (including by way of example, but not as a limitation, the use of a so-called front man, straw man, sham company, family member, relative, friend or other party to create the false appearance that acts of prohibited competition are instead the act and deed of a party other than Covenantor).

4. Miscellaneous Provisions.

4.1 Attorney's Fees and Costs. In the event that any action or other formal proceeding is instituted to enforce or interpret any part of this agreement, the party prevailing in such action or proceeding shall be entitled to recover, in addition to the prevailing party's costs of suit, such attorney's fees as the presiding tribunal deems to have been reasonably incurred by the prevailing party.

4.2 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original but all of which, when taken together, shall constitute one and the same document.

4.3 Definition of Writing. All references in this Agreement to written consents, notices or other documentation required to be given, received or obtained, shall mean a writing (printed, typewritten or hand written) actually signed by the party giving such consent, notice or otherwise, with the intent to give such consent, notice or otherwise, free from duress, undue influence, fraud and coercion.

4.4 Gender; Plural and Singular. Whenever required by the context hereof, the singular shall be deemed to include the plural, the plural shall be deemed to include the singular, the masculine the feminine, and the neuter gender shall be deemed to include the others.

4.5 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be interpreted, construed and governed by, in accordance with and consistent with the laws of the State of New York, which shall apply in all respects, including statutes of limitations, to any disputes or controversies arising out of or pertaining to this Agreement.

4.6 Severability. In the event that any term, provision, clause, article, condition or other portion of this Agreement or any agreement referenced, included, or annexed hereto, is determined to be invalid, void or unenforceable by a forum of competent jurisdiction, the same shall not affect any other term, provision, clause, article, condition or other portion hereof, and the remainder of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect, as if such invalid, void or unenforceable term, provision, clause, article, condition or other portion of this Agreement did not appear herein.

4.7 Voluntary Execution.

Each of the Covenantor and each officer executing this covenant on behalf of a corporate-Covenantor does hereby expressly acknowledge that he/she has carefully read this Agreement, that he/she is completely familiar with and understands each and every provision hereof, whereby the parties do enter into, execute and accept it of their own individual free and voluntary will, without reliance upon any statements, representations, promises, covenants or inducements made by any party, or any of the representatives, attorneys or agents of any other party, except as are incorporated into and form a part of this agreement. REMAINDER OF PAGE LEFT INTENTIONALLY BLANK

4.3 Employee shall not do any of the following: 4.3.1 Participate in any other business activities, during or after the term of his employment hereunder which are proscribed by that certain Covenant of Non-Competition to which Employee is a party and which is executed by Employee contemporaneously with this Agreement.

4.4 Unless and until otherwise determined by the Board, Employee shall report directly to the general manager of Employer. 5 Compensation of Employee; Bonus. 5.1 Employer shall compensate the Employee for services rendered hereunder as follows: 5.1.1 Commencing with the Closing Date as defined in the Stock Acquisition Agreement, Employee shall receive his base annual salary (Base Salary) as set forth on Schedule E-1.

5.1.2 During any contract year (Contract Year defined as the full years one day from one year following the Closing Date and each year thereafter through the term of the employment of the Employee as set forth on Schedule E-1) the employee will receive a subsequent bonus (Subsequent Bonus) as set forth on Schedule E-1.

5.1.3 Any such Subsequent Bonus shall be payable thirty (30) days following the end of the subject Contract Year (less customary withholdings of taxes and other deductions as required by law). 6 Benefits. 6.1 During the term of the employment hereunder, Employee shall be entitled to receive the following benefits: 6.1.1 Fully-paid leaves of absence for such holidays as may be granted from time in accordance with Employer's then-current policies governing such leaves for all Employee; and

6.1.2 Leaves of absence as may be required by applicable law (including for purposes of example, but not as a limitation, reasonable time from work to vote in elections, to serve as a juror and to testify in legal proceedings if subpoenaed to do so); provided, however, that such leaves will be fully-paid only where required by law and will be limited in duration as required by law; and

6.1.3 Leaves of absence on account of illness, bereavement or family emergency in such frequency and duration as provided by Employer's then-current policies governing such leaves for all Employee. 6.2 In addition to the foregoing benefits (but not as a limitation thereon), Employee shall be entitled to be absent from his employment hereunder as defined in Schedule III. During such vacation leave, Employee shall be compensated at the rate of his above-prescribed base salary, together with all other benefits specified in this Agreement. Such vacation leave must be pre-approved by Employer (which approval will not be unreasonably withheld) and may be taken consecutively or in separate time segments; provided, however, that unless otherwise expressly agreed to by Employer's president, all accrued vacation leave must be taken within twelve (12) months following the accrual thereof unless Employer has failed to approve a request for vacation leave, in which case such leave may be taken in the following twelve (12) month period. A failure by an Employee to take vacation leave within the prescribed time shall work as a forfeiture of Employee's right to take such time, but not as a forfeiture of Employee's right to be paid Base Salary therefore. For purposes of this Agreement, the term business day is defined as any day which is not a Saturday, a Sunday, a day customarily granted by Employer as a holiday or a day which Employee would have otherwise been entitled to be absent from work under Employer's then-current policies governing such leaves for all Employee.

7.2 Employer's obligations to reimburse Employee for any expenses specified in this Agreement shall not arise unless and until Employee has submitted to Employer written vouchers evidencing such expenses in a form as may be prescribed from time to time by the rules of state and federal tax authorities. 8 Obligations Not Conditioned On Or Related To Others. 8.1 Employer may terminate Employee's employment at any time for Cause.

8.2 Employee's employment hereunder shall terminate immediately upon his death or disability. For purposes of this Section 8.2, an Employee shall be deemed to be disabled if, on account of illness or other incapacity, he has been unable to perform his duties for 60 consecutive days. The Employer shall continue to pay Employee his Base Salary and other employment benefits hereunder prior to termination by the Board of Directors pursuant to this Section 8.2, even though such Employee is disabled during the 60-day period preceding such termination.

8.3 This Agreement may be terminated with the mutual written consent of the parties

8.4 If an Employee's employment hereunder is terminated for any of the reasons set forth in Sections 8.1, 8.2 or 8.3 hereunder, then all rights and obligations of Employer and such Employee hereunder shall terminate automatically thereupon, except (i) as to any right which Employee, Employee's estate or dependents may have under COBRA or any other federal or state law, (ii) as to any Base Salary earned by him prior to such termination, or (iii) to the extent otherwise specifically set forth herein.

8.5 For purposes of this Agreement: Cause means, when used in connection with the termination of Employee's employment with Employer (or the right to effect such termination): (i) Employee's commission of any crime involving moral turpitude or any felony;

(ii) Employee's commission of an act of fraud or embezzlement upon Employer;

(vi) Failure by Employee to disclose material, adverse personal, business or financial information at the time of signing this Agreement which failure can materially and adversely affect the business and affairs of Employer. 8.6 Upon termination of Employee hereunder for any reason, such Employee shall forthwith deliver back to Employer any and all property belonging to Employer of every type and nature, including but not limited to, keys, documents, manuals, catalogs, correspondence, product samples and documentation of every type and nature including all copies or other duplications. 9 Non Competition: 9.1 Employee hereby agrees that the terms and conditions of the Covenant of Non Competition, executed as of the date hereof, shall be effective and binding upon him for the period of Five (5) years from the date of the termination of employment, or Five (5) years from the date of the closing of the Stock Acquisition Agreement, whichever is later.

9.2 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary appearing herein, Employee shall be deemed to be in breach hereof if he engages in the activities proscribed in the Covenant of Non Competition, or as may otherwise be agreed to in writing by the Employer.

10 Confidentiality. 10.1 Without the specific prior written consent of Employer, Employee shall, directly or indirectly, at any time after the date hereof, divulge to any person or entity, or use for his own direct or indirect benefit, any information confidential and/or proprietary to Employer concerning its business, affairs, products, services, assets, liabilities, revenues, condition (financial or otherwise), or prospects, customers or suppliers, including, without limitation, any data or statistical information of or with respect to Employer whether created or developed by Employer or on its behalf, or with respect to which Employee may have knowledge or access, it being the intent of the parties hereto to restrict Employee from disseminating or using any such information of or with respect to Employer or in Employer's trade; provided that nothing in this Section 10 shall prohibit such disclosure within the scope of Employee's employment or in the best interest of Employer. 11 Miscellaneous Provisions. 11.1 Attorneys' Fees, Etc. In the event that any suit in law or equity, or other formal proceeding is instituted by any party to this Agreement, to enforce, interpret or recover damages for breach of any provision or part of this Agreement, then the party prevailing in such action or other formal proceeding shall be entitled to recover, in addition to the costs of suit incurred by such prevailing party, such attorneys' fees as the tribunal presiding in such action or other formal proceeding shall deem to have been reasonably incurred by such prevailing party.

Gentlemen:

We have acted as counsel to Advanced Oxygen Technologies, Inc. in connection with the execution and delivery of that certain Stock Acquisition Agreement (the Stock Acquisition Agreement) among Advanced Oxygen Technologies, Inc., and the shareholders listed on Exhibit A attached hereto (collectively, the Shareholders). This opinion is being provided pursuant to Section 6.2.2 of the Stock Acquisition Agreement. Capitalized terms used herein without definition shall have the meaning given to such terms in the Stock Acquisition Agreement (The Stock Acquisition Agreement, and the Ancillary Documents annexed thereto, are sometimes also hereinafter referred as the Transaction Documents).

In connection with the delivery of this opinion, we have examined an executed copy of the Stock Acquisition Agreement (including the Schedules thereto) and the company records of Advanced Oxygen Technologies, Inc., a Delaware corporation (hereinafter AOXY). We also have examined such other agreements, instruments and documents and matters of law as we deemed relevant or necessary as a basis for the opinions expressed herein. As to questions of fact material to such opinions, we have relied, without independent verification, on certificates of the Shareholders, certificates of public officials and on the accuracy and completeness of the representations set forth in the Transaction Documents.

Whenever our opinion with respect to the existence or absence of facts is indicated to be based upon our knowledge, or is qualified by known to us or words of similar import, we are referring solely to the conscious awareness the undersigned attorney, who devoted substantive attention to the Transaction Documents and the matters contemplated by such Documents. Assumptions

For purposes of rendering the opinions expressed herein, we have assumed (a) the genuineness of all signatures, (b) the completeness and authenticity of all document and records submitted to us as originals, (c) the conformity to original document and records of all Document and records submitted to us as certified, photocopies or conformed copies, (d) the due authorization, execution and delivery of the Transaction Documents by the parties thereto (other than the Shareholders), (e) the validity of all applicable statutes, ordinances, rules and regulations, and (f) the legal capacity of all natural persons executing Documents. Opinion

Based upon the foregoing, and subject to the qualifications set forth below, we are of the opinion that: AOXY is a corporation duly organized, validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of the State of Delaware and has full corporate power and authority to conduct its business as and where its business is now conducted.

To our knowledge, AOXY has full right, power, authority and capacity to execute and deliver this agreement and any other Document and instruments required to be executed and delivered hereunder, and to perform its obligations under the Transaction Documents executed and delivered in connection herewith. AOXY's execution and delivery of and performance under the Stock Acquisition Agreement has been duly authorized by all necessary corporate action of AOXY and the Stock Acquisition Agreement constitutes the valid and binding obligation of AOXY, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms, except as may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency or other similar laws affecting the enforcement of creditors rights generally and subject to general principles of equity.

To our knowledge, the execution, delivery and performance of the Transaction Documents by AOXY, and the consummation of any of the transactions contemplated thereby, by AOXY will not (i) violate any constitution, statute, regulation, rule or other restriction of any government or government agency to which the AOXY is subject; (ii) violate or conflict with any provision of the Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws of AOXY; (iii) conflict with, or result in the breach or termination of, or constitute a default under, any agreement, commitment or other instrument, or any order, judgment or decree, to which AOXY is a party or by which it is bound; or (iv) permit the acceleration of the maturity of any indebtedness of, or any indebtedness secured by the property of, AOXY.

To our knowledge, neither the shareholders nor the board of directors of AOXY have considered any action which would result in a change in AOXY's corporate form (including merger and dissolution) nor are there any facts or circumstances presently in existence on which basis a reasonable person would have reason to believe that such action would be likely to be taken during the time that AOXY is indebted to the Shareholders named in the Stock Acquisition Agreement, nor in the Promissory Note delivered thereunder nor in any other related agreement.

To our knowledge, no consent, notification, approval or authorization of, or designation, declaration or filing with, any governmental authority or any other party is required in connection with the execution, delivery and performance of the Stock Acquisition Agreement and the Ancillary Documents on the part of AOXY. Qualifications

We are members of the Bar of the State of New York, and we express no opinion as to any matters covered by any laws other than the laws of the State of New York and the federal laws of the United States of America. We do not express any opinion concerning any other law.

Insofar as this opinion relates to the enforceability of any document or instrument, it is subject to (a) all applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, fraudulent conveyance, moratorium, arrangement, avoidance and other laws and court decisions affecting the rights of creditors generally; (b) limitations imposed upon creditors generally by the constitutions of the United States of America, the State of Delaware and the State of New York and other jurisdictions in which any of AOXY's real or personal properties are located; (c) general principles of equity, including, without limitation, concepts of materiality and fair dealing (regardless of whether enforceability is considered in a proceeding at law or in equity or in arbitration); (d) our assumption that, in seeking enforcement of various agreements, the parties will comply with procedural requirements; (e) our assumption (without knowledge or investigation of any kind) that, with regard to the Transaction Documents governed by the laws of any jurisdiction other than the State of New York, the laws of such jurisdiction are identical in all respects to the laws of New York; (f) limitations on indemnification, contribution or exculpation provisions contained in the Transaction Document that encompass indemnification or exculpation or require contribution with respect to the negligence or misconduct of an indemnitor, or that are found contrary to public policy (whether under federal or state securities laws or regulations or otherwise); (g) limitations imposed by applicable law and court decisions on the enforcement of the remedy, waiver, and similar provisions of the Transaction Documents; (h) the possible unenforceability of provisions purporting to require arbitration of disputes; (i) the possible unenforceability of provisions prohibiting competition, the solicitation or acceptance of customers, of business relationships or of employees, the use or disclosure of information, or other activities in restraint of trade; (j) the possible unenforceability of provisions imposing increased interest rates or late payment charges upon delinquency in payment or default or providing for liquidated damages, or for premiums on prepayment, acceleration, redemption, cancellation or termination, to the extent any such provisions are deemed to be penalties or forfeitures; (k) the possible unenforceability of provisions that determinations by a party or a party's designee are conclusive; (l) the possible unenforceability of provisions that the provisions of an agreement are severable; (m) the effect of laws requiring mitigation of damages; (n) the possible unenforceability of provisions permitting the exercise, under certain circumstances, of rights without notice or without providing opportunity to cure failures to perform; and (o) the effect of agreements as to rights of set-off otherwise than in accordance with applicable law. Our opinion that a document is duly executed means that it has been signed on behalf of a company, corporation or trust by a person having the requisite company, corporate or trust authority to bind such entity, but does not mean that such execution is effective for any particular purpose (other than under New York law). We express no opinion as to the extent to which any provision of the Transaction Documents may be specifically enforced.

We express no opinion as to (a) title to any real estate or personal property, (b) the adequacy or accuracy of any descriptions of AOXYs real or personal properties, (c) the operation or effect of, or compliance with, any laws, rules, or regulations relating to environmental matters or the occupancy and use of any real estate, (d) the validity or enforceability of any provision for recovery of attorneys fees, (e) the enforceability of any choice of law provisions, (f) the validity or enforceability of any provision purporting to determine the jurisdiction whose laws shall govern the interpretation, construction, and enforcement of the Transaction Documents, (g) the validity or enforceability of any provision waiving the right to a jury trial, (h) the validity or enforceability of any provision of the Transaction Documents purporting to limit the AOXYs liability for, or obligation to indemnify the AOXY against, the consequences of its own negligent acts or omissions, (i) the validity or enforceability of any provision purporting to preclude the modification of the Transaction Documents through conduct, custom, course of performance, or course of action or dealing or purporting to waive equitable rights or remedies, (j) the enforceability of self-help and non-judicial remedies provided to parties in the Transaction Documents in the event of default, without judicial process, (k) the validity or enforceability of any provision purporting to require the payment or reimbursement of fees, costs, expenses, or other amounts, or (l) the validity or enforceability of any provision purporting to require that all amendments to any Transaction Documents be in writing and executed by certain parties.

This opinion letter is limited to the matters stated herein, and no opinion is implied or may be inferred beyond the matters expressly stated. This opinion letter speaks as of its date and we undertake no obligation to update this opinion based on events, changes in the law or other matters occurring after the date hereof or to provide any notice to any person or entity of any subsequent events, facts, or other matters which might affect the opinions given herein. This opinion letter is provided to you at your request and is to be limited in its use to reliance by AOXY in consummating the transactions contemplated under the Transaction Documents. Other than AOXY, no other person or entity may rely or claim reliance upon this opinion. We make no representations as to the sufficiency for your purposes of the points on which we have expressed an opinion. The foregoing opinions may not be reproduced or quoted in whole or in part or otherwise referred to, nor is this letter to be delivered to or filed with, any governmental agency or other person or entity, without our prior written consent.

Sincerely,

CONSULTING AGREEMENT

This CONSULTING AGREEMENT (this Agreement), dated effective March 05, 2003, is by and between IP Service, AS, a Danish corporation (hereinafter referred to as Client), and, Crossfield, Inc., a New Jersey Corporation (hereinafter referred to as Consultant).

Definitions and Interpretation.

In addition to any other terms that may be defined elsewhere in this Agreement, the following shall govern the construction and interpretation hereof:

The Board means and refers to the Board of Directors of Client.

Consulting Year means and refers to a span of time which begins on the Closing Date (defined in the Stock Acquisition Agreement of even date herewith Exhibit B (the Purchase Agreement)), in any calendar year during the term of the Consulting (as defined herein) and which ends at midnight on the day immediately preceding the same date in the subsequent calendar year.

Whenever in this Agreement there appears the locative adverbs herein, hereunder, hereinbelow, hereinabove, or any substantially similar adverb, the same shall be deemed to refer to this Agreement in its entirety and not to any specific article, section, subsection, subpart, paragraph or subparagraph.

Recitals.

The contractual relationship created by operation of this Agreement is premised upon the following facts:

Pursuant to the Stock Acquisition Agreement, AOXY has purchased One Hundred (100) of the issued and outstanding shares of capital stock of IP Service A/S (the Company), which is engaged in the business of Network Security and software security systems (the Business).

The Board has determined that:

Consultant has substantial experience as a treasurer and financial consultant of the Company, by virtue of which Consultant possesses skills, ability and background in and knowledge of Client's business and the industry in which it is engaged, which are essential to the best interests of Client.

In consideration of the mutual duties created herein and the mutual benefits conferred hereby, the adequacy of which is hereby acknowledged, each of the undersigned voluntarily enters into this Agreement.

Term of Consulting; Effect of Expiration of Term.

Client hereby retains Consultant and Consultant hereby accept the below-specified Consulting for a period of four (4) Consulting Years.

After expiration of the fourth Consulting Year, such Consulting shall automatically become terminable at the discretion of either party hereto with or without Cause (as defined herein).

Consultant's Full Time Duties.

Consultant shall render services for the Company as follows (the Consulting):

Consultant will oversee and supervise the regulatory and filing operations of the Company, including but not limited to: creating, reviewing and filing regulatory documents of the Company and of its Parent, AOXY, consulting with counsel, and accountants, and performing duties in accordance with the policies established by the Board, and consistent with Client's policies as adopted by the Board (and as same may be hereafter amended).

Nothing in this Agreement shall be interpreted to prohibit or restrict the activities by Consultant not related to the Consulting; provided, however, that without the prior approval of Client, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, Consultant shall not participate in any other business activities during the term of this Agreement on behalf of any person, firm, company or entity (in any capacity, including but not limited to that of consultant, agent, officer, director, consultant or investor), whether for profit or not-for-profit, which is engaged in any business that is competitive with Client's business;

Unless and until otherwise determined by the Board, Consultant shall report directly to the general manager of Client.

Consulting Fee; Subsequent Fees.

Until this Agreement is terminated, Client shall compensate Consultant for Consultant's services hereunder as follows:

Commencing with the Closing Date, as defined in the Purchase Agreement, Consultant shall receive an annual consulting fee (Consulting Fee) Forty Two Thousand US Dollars ($42,000.00) for services rendered hereunder; provided, however, that the Consulting Fee may be increased periodically during the term of this Agreement if, in the judgment of the president of the Client, such increase is justified based upon the growth of the Business.

If, during any calendar year during the term of this Agreement the gross revenues for the Company for such year exceeds the amounts defined below, the Consultant shall receive additional fees (the Subsequent Fees) for such calendar year, equivalent to an amount as defined on Schedule II for each Consultant.

Any such Subsequent Fees shall be payable thirty (30) days following the end of the subject calendar year.

During the term of the Consulting hereunder, Consultant shall be entitled to receive no benefits.

Reimbursement of Business Expenses Incurred by Consultant.

Client shall reimburse Consultant for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred and paid by Consultant during the term of the Consulting hereunder in connection with the conduct of Client's business and/or the discharge of Consultant's duties including, for purposes of example but not as a limitation, travel expenses, food and lodging while away from home subject, however, to the prior approval of Client.

Client's obligations to reimburse Consultant for any expenses specified in this Agreement shall not arise unless and until Consultant has submitted to Client written vouchers evidencing such expenses in a form as may be prescribed from time to time by the rules of state and federal tax authorities.

Obligations Not Conditioned On Or Related To Others.

a) Subject to this Section Client may terminate this Agreement only for Cause. For purposes of this Agreement, Cause means: (i) Consultant's commission of any crime involving moral turpitude or any felony;

(ii) Consultant's commission of an act of fraud or embezzlement upon Client;

(iii) Willful misconduct, gross negligence or willful failure by Consultant to perform his duties to Client or material breach of this Agreement, after Consultant has been given written notice of such misconduct, negligence or failure to perform or breach and a reasonable time to cure such problem;

(iv) Habitual drug, alcohol or other substance abuse by Consultant;

(v) Failure by Consultant to disclose material, adverse personal, business or financial information at the time of signing this Agreement which failure can materially and adversely affect the business and affairs of Client.

b. Subject to this Section, Consultant may terminate this Agreement at any time by giving the Client sixty days (60) written notice prior to the termination date, and in compliance with the notice provisions contained herein.

Upon termination of this Agreement hereunder, Consultant shall forthwith deliver back to Client any and all property belonging to Client of every type and nature, including but not limited to, keys, documents, manuals, catalogs, correspondence, product samples and documentation of every type and nature, including all copies and duplications, and Client shall promptly pay any portion of the Consulting Fee (as adjusted pursuant to Section 5 hereof, if applicable) and Subsequent Fees due and owing to Consultant as of such termination.

Non-Employment. This Agreement does not constitute an employment agreement, contract, or obligation and further does not constitute employment by Client, and Consultant shall operate as, and have the status of, independent contractor. Consultant possesses skills, tools, equipment, and services independent of Client. The parties hereto mutually understand and agree that:

The Client shall not be required to withhold tax or pay any FICA tax or unemployment, workers' compensation or other insurance on behalf of Consultant.

Consultant will complete all necessary tax reporting forms with the Client and the Internal Revenue Service for all revenue derived by the services performed in accordance with this Agreement, if any.

Confidentiality.

Without the specific prior written consent of Client, Consultant shall not, directly or indirectly, at any time after the date hereof, divulge to any person or entity, or use for his own direct or indirect benefit, any information confidential and/or proprietary to Client concerning its business, affairs, products, services, assets, liabilities, revenues, condition (financial or otherwise), or prospects, customers or suppliers, including, without limitation, any data or statistical information of or with respect to Client whether created or developed by Client or on its behalf, or with respect to which Consultant may have knowledge or access, it being the intent of the parties hereto to restrict Consultant from disseminating or using any such information of or with respect to Client which is at the time of such use or dissemination unpublished and not readily available or generally known to the public or in Client's trade; provided that nothing in this Section 11 shall prohibit such disclosure within the scope of Consultant's Consulting or in the best interest of Client. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained herein shall in any way restrict or impair Consultant's right to use, disclose or otherwise deal with any information or data which Consultant can show it was received by him as a matter of lawful right after the time of disclosure from a third party who did not acquire it from Client or any of its Affiliates under an obligation of confidence and that without breach of any obligation Consultant is free to disclose it to others.

Miscellaneous Provisions.
