LETTER FROM THE CHAIRMAN

Dear Shareholder:

We are pleased to present this annual report for General Money Market Fund, Inc. covering the 12-month period from December 1, 2004, through November 30, 2005. Inside, you'll find valuable information about how the fund was managed during the reporting period, including a discussion with the fund's portfolio manager, Bernard W. Kiernan, Jr.

The U.S. economy demonstrated remarkable resiliency over the past year, expanding at a steady pace despite the headwinds of soaring energy prices, higher interest rates and the dislocations caused by the Gulf Coast hurricanes. As short-term interest rates climbed, so too have yields of money market instruments, offering investors incrementally higher yields as compared to yields at the start of the reporting period.

As the end of 2005 approaches, the U.S. economy and financial markets may be reaching an inflection point. Investors' reactions to a change in leadership at the Federal Reserve Board and the effects of higher fuel prices on the rate of inflation may set the tone for the financial markets in 2006. As always, we encourage you to discuss these and other market forces with your financial advisor.

Thank you for your continued confidence and support.

Sincerely,

Stephen E. Canter
Chairman and Chief Executive Officer
The Dreyfus Corporation
December 15, 2005

DISCUSSION OF FUND PERFORMANCE

Bernard W. Kiernan, Jr., Senior Portfolio Manager

How did General Money Market Fund, Inc. perform during the period?

For the 12-month period ended November 30, 2005, the fund produced yields of 2.30% for Class A shares, 2.07% for Class B shares and 2.04% for Class X shares. Taking into account the effects of compounding, the fund also produced effective yields of 2.32% for Class A shares, 2.09% for Class B shares and 2.05% for Class X shares for the same period.<sup>1</sup>

What is the fund's investment approach?

The fund seeks as high a level of current income as is consistent with the preservation of capital. To pursue this goal, the fund invests in a diversified portfolio of high-quality, short-term debt securities. These include securities issued or guaranteed by the U.S. government or its agencies or instrumentalities, certificates of deposit, short-term securities issued by domestic or foreign banks, repurchase agreements, asset-backed securities, domestic and dollar-denominated foreign commercial paper and dollar-denominated obligations issued or guaranteed by foreign governments or their political subdivisions or agencies. Normally, the fund invests at least 25% of its net assets in domestic or dollar-denominated foreign bank obligations.

What other factors influenced the fund's performance?

The Federal Reserve Board (the "Fed") continued to raise short-term interest rates throughout the reporting period in an ongoing effort to forestall potential inflationary pressures. Indeed, just as the reporting period began, signs of more sustainable economic growth had emerged, and the Fed raised the overnight federal funds rate by 25 basis points at its meeting in late December 2004, leaving the overnight federal funds rate at 2.25% at year-end.

During the opening months of 2005, long-dormant inflationary pressures appeared to intensify when energy prices moved higher. It was no surprise, therefore, that the Fed raised short-term interest rates at its February and March meetings, driving the federal funds rate to 2.75%. It later was revealed that the U.S. economy expanded at a 3.5% annualized rate during the first quarter of 2005.

Although weaker-than-expected data in April suggested that the U.S. economy might have hit a soft patch, these concerns proved to be short-lived, and it later was estimated that the U.S. labor market added more jobs than expected during the month. Yet, evidence of slower economic growth in global markets weighed on investor sentiment during the spring, and the yield on the 10-year U.S. Treasury bond fell below 4%.

Although economic expectations appeared to improve in June, investors continued to worry about higher energy prices and interest rates. Still, on June 30 the Fed again hiked the federal funds rate to 3.25%. U.S. GDP grew at a 3.3% annualized rate during the second quarter of 2005.

Non-farm payrolls continued to increase in July, and the unemployment rate dropped to 5.0%, helping to convince investors that economic growth remained solid. While inflationary pressures appeared to stay contained due to steep discounts from automobile manufacturers and apparel retailers, oil and gas prices continued to escalate.

The economic recovery remained on track in August, and the Fed raised the federal funds rate to 3.5%. On August 29, however, Hurricane Katrina struck the Gulf Coast, and oil prices spiked to more than $70 per barrel. Hurricane Rita followed just a few weeks later, affecting a significant portion of U.S. oil drilling and refining capacity.

Although some analysts believed that the hurricanes might prompt the Fed to pause at its September 20 meeting, the Fed remained on course, increasing the federal funds rate to 3.75%. It was later announced that U.S. GDP grew at a robust 4.3% during the third quarter of 2005.

As was widely expected, the Fed hiked interest rates for the twelfth consecutive time in November, raising the federal funds rate to 4.0%. The economy continued to exhibit signs of strength, including evidence of greater activity in the corporate sector. According to the Bureau of Economic Analysis, business spending on equipment and software rose 10.8% during the third quarter, and many analysts expected corporate spending to remain robust as businesses rebuild depleted inventories.

In this changing environment, many money market investors focused primarily on securities with maturities of six months or less in an attempt to maintain liquidity and keep funds available for higher-yielding instruments as they became available. As a result, demand for shorter-term money market instruments was robust, while demand for instruments with one-year maturities was relatively low. This has caused yield differences between overnight instruments and one-year securities to widen significantly.

We maintained a relatively defensive investment posture by setting the fund's weighted average maturity in a range we considered shorter than industry averages to reflect prevailing market conditions and the proximity of upcoming FOMC meetings.

What is the fund's current strategy?

In its statement accompanying the November 2005 rate hike, the Fed again noted, "With underlying inflation expected to be contained, the Committee believes that policy accommodation can be removed at a pace that is likely to be measured." This suggests to us that further increases are likely. Accordingly, we have maintained the fund's relatively conservative positioning, which we believe is prudent until we see signs that the Fed is nearing the end of its credit-tightening campaign.

An investment in the fund is not insured or guaranteed by the FDIC or any other government agency. Although the fund seeks to preserve the value of your investment at $1.00 per share, it is possible to lose money by investing in the fund.

- <sup>1</sup> Effective yield is based upon dividends declared daily and reinvested monthly. Past performance is no guarantee of future results. Yields fluctuate. Yields provided for the fund's Class B and Class X shares reflect the absorption of certain fund expenses by The Dreyfus Corporation pursuant to an undertaking in effect that may be extended, terminated or modified at any time. Had these expenses not been absorbed, the fund's Class B shares would have produced a yield of 2.05% and an effective yield of 2.07%, and the fund's Class X shares would have produced a yield of 1.86% and an effective yield of 1.88%.

UNDERSTANDING YOUR FUND'S EXPENSES (Unaudited)

As a mutual fund investor, you pay ongoing expenses, such as management fees and other expenses. Using the information below, you can estimate how these expenses affect your investment and compare them with the expenses of other funds. You also may pay one-time transaction expenses, including sales charges (loads) and redemption fees, which are not shown in this section and would have resulted in higher total expenses. For more information, see your fund's prospectus or talk to your financial adviser.

Review your fund's expenses

The table below shows the expenses you would have paid on a $1,000 investment in General Money Market Fund, Inc. from June 1, 2005 to November 30, 2005. It also shows how much a $1,000 investment would be worth at the close of the period, assuming actual returns and expenses.

Expenses and Value of a $1,000 Investment
assuming actual returns for the six months ended November 30, 2005
	Class A	Class B	Class X
Expenses paid per $1,000†	$ 3.99	$ 5.10	$ 5.30
Ending value (after expenses)	$1,014.10	$1,013.00	$1,012.80

COMPARING YOUR FUND'S EXPENSES
WITH THOSE OF OTHER FUNDS (Unaudited)

Using the SEC's method to compare expenses

The Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) has established guidelines to help investors assess fund expenses. Per these guidelines, the table below shows your fund's expenses based on a $1,000 investment, assuming a hypothetical 5% annualized return. You can use this information to compare the ongoing expenses (but not transaction expenses or total cost) of investing in the fund with those of other funds. All mutual fund shareholder reports will provide this information to help you make this comparison. Please note that you cannot use this information to estimate your actual ending account balance and expenses paid during the period.

Expenses and Value of a $1,000 Investment
assuming a hypothetical 5% annualized return for the six months ended November 30, 2005
	Class A	Class B	Class X
Expenses paid per $1,000†	$ 4.00	$ 5.11	$ 5.32
Ending value (after expenses)	$1,021.11	$1,020.00	$1,019.80

† Expenses are equal to the fund's annualized expense ratio of .79% for Class A shares, 1.01% for Class B shares and 1.05% for Class X shares; multiplied by the average account value over the period, multiplied by 183/365 (to reflect the one-half year period).

FINANCIAL HIGHLIGHTS

The following tables describe the performance for each share class for the fiscal periods indicated. All information reflects financial results for a single fund share. Total return shows how much your investment in the fund would have increased (or decreased) during each period, assuming you had reinvested all dividends and distributions. These figures have been derived from the fund’s financial statements.

NOTE 1—Significant Accounting Policies:

General Money Market Fund, Inc. (the “fund”) is registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the “Act”), as a diversified open-end management investment company. The fund’s investment objective is to provide investors with as high a level of current income as is consistent with the preservation of capital. The Dreyfus Corporation (the “Manager”) serves as the fund’s investment adviser. The Manager is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Mellon Financial Corporation (“Mellon Financial”).

Dreyfus Service Corporation (the “Distributor”), a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Manager, is the distributor of the fund’s shares. The fund is authorized to issue 25.5 billion shares of $.001 par value Common Stock. The fund currently offers three classes of shares: Class A (15 billion shares authorized), Class B (10 billion shares authorized) and Class X (500 million shares authorized). Class A, Class B and Class X shares are identical except for the services offered to and the expenses borne by each class and certain voting rights. Class A shares are subject to a Service Plan adopted pursuant to Rule 12b-1 under the Act, Class B and Class X shares are subject to a Distribution Plan adopted pursuant to Rule 12b-1 under the Act and Class A, Class B and Class X shares are subject to a Shareholder Services Plan. In addition, Class B shares are charged directly for sub-accounting services provided by Service Agents (a securities dealer, financial institution or other industry professional) at an annual rate of .05% of the value of the average daily net assets of Class B shares. During the period ended November 30, 2005, sub-accounting service fees amounted to $3,200,069 for Class B shares and are included in shareholder servicing costs. Income, expenses (other than expenses attributable to a specific class), and realized and unrealized gains or losses on investments are allocated to each class of shares based on its relative net assets.

As of November 30, 2005, MBC Investment Corp., an indirect subsidiary of Mellon Financial Corporation, held all the outstanding shares of Class X.

It is the fund's policy to maintain a continuous net asset value per share of $1.00; the fund has adopted certain investment, portfolio valuation and dividend and distribution policies to enable it to do so. There is no assurance, however, that the fund will be able to maintain a stable net asset value per share of $1.00.

The fund's financial statements are prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles, which may require the use of management estimates and assumptions. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

The fund enters into contracts that contain a variety of indemnifications. The fund's maximum exposure under these arrangements is unknown. The fund does not anticipate recognizing any loss related to these arrangements.

(a) Portfolio valuation: Investments in securities are valued at amortized cost, in accordance with Rule 2a-7 of the Act, which has been determined by the Board of Directors to represent the fair value of the fund's investments.

(b) Securities transactions and investment income: Securities transactions are recorded on a trade date basis. Interest income, adjusted for accretion of discount and amortization of premium on investments, is earned from settlement date and recognized on the accrual basis. Realized gain and loss from securities transactions are recorded on the identified cost basis. Cost of investments represents amortized cost.

The fund has an arrangement with the custodian bank whereby the fund receives earnings credits from the custodian when positive cash balances are maintained, which are used to offset custody fees. For financial reporting purposes, the fund includes net earnings credits, if any, as an expense offset in the Statement of Operations.

The fund may enter into repurchase agreements with financial institutions deemed to be creditworthy by the Manager, subject to the seller's agreement to repurchase and the fund's agreement to resell such securities at a mutually agreed upon price. Securities purchased subject to repurchase agreements are deposited with the fund's custodian and, pursuant to the terms of the repurchase agreement, must have an aggregate market value greater than or equal to the repurchase price plus accrued interest at all times. If the value of the underlying securities falls below the value of the repurchase price plus accrued interest, the fund will require the seller to deposit additional collateral by the next business day. If the request for additional collateral is not met, or the seller defaults on its repurchase obligation, the fund maintains the right to sell the underlying securities at market value and may claim any resulting loss against the seller.

(c) Dividends to shareholders: It is the policy of the fund to declare dividends from investment income-net on each business day; such dividends are paid monthly. Dividends from net realized capital gain, if any, are normally declared and paid annually, but the fund may make distributions on a more frequent basis to comply with the distribution requirements of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"). To the extent that net realized capital gain can be offset by capital loss carryovers, it is the policy of the fund not to distribute such gain.

(d) Federal income taxes: It is the policy of the fund to continue to qualify as a regulated investment company, if such qualification is in the best interests of its shareholders, by complying with the applicable provisions of the Code, and to make distributions of taxable income sufficient to relieve it from substantially all federal income and excise taxes.

At November 30, 2005, the components of accumulated earnings on a tax basis were substantially the same as for financial reporting purposes.

The accumulated capital loss carryover of $2,104,246 is available for federal income tax purposes to be applied against future net securities profits, if any, realized subsequent to November 30, 2005. If not applied, $3,739 of the carryover expires in fiscal 2008, $10,418 expires in fiscal 2011, $256,218 expires in fiscal 2012 and $1,833,871 expires in fiscal 2013.

The tax character of distributions paid to shareholders during the fiscal periods ended November 30, 2005 and November 30, 2004, were all ordinary income.

At November 30, 2005, the cost of investments for federal income tax purposes was substantially the same as the cost for financial reporting purposes (see the Statement of Investments).

NOTE 2—Management Fee and Other Transactions with Affiliates:

(a) Pursuant to a management agreement (“Agreement”) with the Manager, the management fee is computed at the annual rate of .50% of the value of the fund’s average daily net assets and is payable monthly. The Agreement provides that if in any full fiscal year the aggregate expenses of the fund, exclusive of taxes, brokerage fees, interest on borrowings and extraordinary expenses, exceed 1½% of the value of the fund’s average net assets, the fund may deduct from payments to be made to the Manager, or the Manager will bear, such excess expense. During the period ended November 30, 2005, there was no expense reimbursement pursuant to the Agreement.

(b) Under the Service Plan with respect to Class A (the “Plan”), adopted pursuant to Rule 12b-1 under the Act, Class A shares bear directly the cost of preparing, printing and distributing prospectuses and statements of additional information and implementing and operating the Plan, such aggregate amount not to exceed in any fiscal year of the fund, the greater of $100,000 or .005% of the average daily net assets of Class A. In addition, Class A shares pay the Distributor for distributing their shares, servicing shareholder accounts (“Servicing”) and advertising and marketing relating to Class A shares at an aggregate annual rate of .20% of the value of the average daily net assets of Class A. The Distributor may pay one or more Service Agents a fee in respect of Class A shares owned by shareholders with whom the Service Agent has a Servicing relationship or for whom the Service Agent is the dealer or holder of record. The schedule of such fees and the basis upon which such fees will be paid shall be determined from time to time by the Distributor. If a holder of Class A shares ceases to be a client of a Service Agent, but continues to hold Class A shares, the Distributor will be permitted to act as a Service Agent in respect of such fund shareholders and receive payments under the Plan for Servicing. The fees payable for Servicing are payable without regard to actual expenses incurred. During the period ended November 30, 2005, Class A shares were charged $2,228,632 pursuant to the Plan.

Under the Distribution Plan with respect to Class B (“Class B Distribution Plan”) adopted pursuant to Rule 12b-1 under the Act, Class B shares bear directly the costs of preparing, printing and distributing prospectuses and statements of additional information and of implementing and operating the Class B Distribution Plan, such aggregate amount not to exceed in any fiscal year of the fund the greater of $100,000 or .005% of the average daily net assets of Class B. In addition, Class B shares reimburse the Distributor for payments made to third parties for distributing Class B shares at an annual rate not to exceed .20% of the value of the average daily net assets of Class B. During the period ended November 30, 2005, Class B shares were charged $12,881,103 pursuant to the Class B Distribution Plan.

Under the Distribution Plan with respect to Class X (“Class X Distribution Plan”) adopted pursuant to Rule 12b-1 under the Act, Class X shares pay the Distributor for distributing Class X shares at an annual rate of .25% of the value of the average daily net assets of Class X. During the period ended November 30, 2005, Class X shares were charged $171 pursuant to the Class X Distribution Plan.

(c) Under the Shareholder Services Plan with respect to Class A (“Class A Shareholder Services Plan”), Class A shares reimburse the Distributor an amount not to exceed an annual rate of .25% of the value of the average daily net assets of Class A for certain allocated expenses of providing personal services and/or maintaining shareholder accounts. The services provided may include personal services relating to shareholder accounts, such as answering shareholder inquiries regarding Class A shares and providing reports and other information, and services related to the maintenance of shareholder accounts. During the period ended November 30, 2005, Class A shares were charged $435,714 pursuant to the Class A Shareholder Services Plan.

Under the Shareholder Services Plan with respect to Class B and Class X ("Shareholder Services Plan"), Class B and Class X shares pay the Distributor at an annual rate of .25% of the value of the average daily net assets of Class B and Class X for servicing shareholder accounts. The services provided may include personal services relating to shareholder accounts, such as answering shareholder inquiries regarding Class B and Class X shares and providing reports and other information, and services related to the maintenance of shareholder accounts. The Distributor may make payments to Service Agents in respect of these services. The Distributor determines the amounts to be paid to Service Agents.

The Manager has undertaken from December 1, 2004 through November 30, 2005, to reduce the expenses of Class B shares if the aggregate expenses of Class B shares of the fund, exclusive of taxes, brokerage fees, interest on borrowings and extraordinary expenses, exceed an annual rate of 1.01% of the value of the average daily net assets of Class B shares. The Manager had undertaken from December 1, 2004 through November 30, 2005, to reduce the expenses of Class X shares, if the aggregate expenses of Class X shares, exclusive of taxes, brokerage fees, interest on borrowings and extraordinary expenses, exceed an annual rate of 1.05% of the value of the average daily net assets of Class X shares. During the period ended November 30, 2005, Class B and Class X shares were charged $16,000,344 and $171, respectively, pursuant to the Shareholder Services Plan, of which $1,168,403 and $105, respectively, were reimbursed by the Manager.

The fund compensates Dreyfus Transfer, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Manager, under a transfer agency agreement for providing personnel and facilities to perform transfer agency services for the fund. During the period ended November 30, 2005, the fund was charged $440,519 pursuant to the transfer agency agreement.

During the period ended November 30, 2005, the fund was charged $3,453 for services performed by the Chief Compliance Officer.

The components of Due to The Dreyfus Corporation and affiliates in the Statement of Assets and Liabilities consist of: management fees $3,523,608, Rule 12b-1 distribution plan fees $1,409,444, shareholder services plan fees $1,843,400, chief compliance officer fees $1,547 and transfer agency per account fees $79,992, which are offset against an expense reimbursement currently in effect in the amount of $78,466.

(d) Each Board member also serves as a Board member of other funds within the Dreyfus complex. Annual retainer fees and attendance fees are allocated to each fund based on net assets.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

Shareholders and Board of Directors General Money Market Fund, Inc.

We have audited the accompanying statement of assets and liabilities of General Money Market Fund, Inc., including the statement of investments, as of November 30, 2005, and the related statement of operations for the year then ended, the statement of changes in net assets for each of the two years in the period then ended, and financial highlights for each of the years indicated therein. These financial statements and financial highlights are the responsibility of the Fund's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements and financial highlights based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements and financial highlights are free of material misstatement. We were not engaged to perform an audit of the Fund's internal control over financial reporting. Our audits included consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Fund's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements and financial highlights, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, and evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. Our procedures included confirmation of securities owned as of November 30, 2005 by correspondence with the custodian. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements and financial highlights referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of General Money Market Fund, Inc. at November 30, 2005, the results of its operations for the year then ended, the changes in its net assets for each of the two years in the period then ended, and the financial highlights for each of the indicated years, in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

INFORMATION ABOUT THE REVIEW AND APPROVAL OF THE FUND'S MANAGEMENT AGREEMENT (Unaudited)

At a meeting of the Board of Directors held on August 2 and 3, 2005, the Board considered the re-approval for an annual period of the fund's Management Agreement, pursuant to which the Manager provides the fund with investment advisory and administrative services. The Board members, none of whom are "interested persons" (as defined in the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended) of the fund, were assisted in their review by independent legal counsel and met with counsel in executive session separate from representatives of the Manager.

Analysis of Nature, Extent and Quality of Services Provided to the Fund. The Board members received a presentation from representatives of the Manager regarding services provided to the fund and other funds in the Dreyfus fund complex, and discussed the nature, extent and quality of the services provided to the fund pursuant to its Management Agreement. The presentation included a detailed summary of the services provided to Dreyfus-managed mutual funds by each business unit within the Manager. The Manager's representatives reviewed the fund's distribution of accounts and the relationships the Manager has with various intermediaries and the different needs of each. The Board noted that the fund's shares are sold primarily through institutional channels and often serve as a "sweep vehicle" for use by third party broker-dealers for their customers. The Manager's representatives noted the diversity of distribution among the funds in the Dreyfus fund complex, and the Manager's corresponding need for broad, deep, and diverse resources to be able to provide ongoing shareholder services to each of these distribution channels, including that of the fund. The Board also reviewed the number of shareholder accounts in the fund, as well as the fund's asset size.

The Board members also considered the Manager's research and portfolio management capabilities and that the Manager also provides oversight of day-to-day fund operations, including fund accounting and administration and assistance in meeting legal and regulatory requirements. The Board members also considered the Manager's extensive administrative, accounting, and compliance infrastructure.

Comparative Analysis of the Fund's Performance and Management Fee and Expense Ratio. The Board members reviewed the fund's performance, management fee and expense ratio and placed significant emphasis on comparisons to a group of comparable funds and to iMoneyNet averages (with respect to performance) and Lipper category averages (with respect to expense ratios). The group of comparable funds was previously approved by the Board for this purpose, and was prepared using a Board-approved selection methodology that was based, in part, on selecting non-affiliated funds reported in iMoneyNet and identified by the Manager as being offered primarily as "sweep vehicles" for use by third party broker-dealers for their customers. The Board members discussed the results of the comparisons for various periods ended June 30, 2005, and noted that the fund's performance was better than the comparison group averages for the 1-, 3- 5- and 10-year periods. The Board noted that the fund's performance was lower than the iMoneyNet category averages for the 1-, 3-, 5- and 10-year periods, but that the fund's performance progressively improved compared to the iMoneyNet category averages during each of those periods. The Board members discussed with representatives of the Manager the reasons for the fund's underperformance compared to the iMoneyNet category averages during the applicable periods. It was noted that many of the funds included in the iMoneyNet category, unlike the fund, were designed exclusively for institutional investors and require high minimum investments; these funds typically have lower fixed costs which have a greater impact on money market fund performance during periods of low interest rates. The Board also received a presentation from the fund's primary portfolio manager during which he discussed the fund's investment strategy and the factors that affected the fund's performance. The Board members also discussed the fund's management fee and expense ratio and reviewed the range of management fees and expense ratios for the funds in the comparison group. The fund's management fee was lower than the comparison group average. The Board noted that the fund's total expense ratio was lower than the fund's comparison group average and the same as the Lipper category average.

Representatives of the Manager reviewed with the Board members the fees paid to the Manager or its affiliates by mutual funds managed by the Manager or its affiliates with similar investment objectives, policies and strategies as the fund (the “Similar Funds”). It was noted that the Similar Funds were mutual funds in the same iMoneyNet category as the fund or in the “First Tier Funds” category of iMoneyNet. The Manager’s representatives also reviewed the costs associated with distribution through intermediaries. The Board analyzed differences in fees paid to the Manager and discussed the relationship of the advisory fees paid in light of the Manager’s performance and the services provided. The Board members considered the relevance of the fee information provided for the Similar Funds to evaluate the appropriateness and reasonableness of the fund’s advisory fees. The Board acknowledged that differences in fees paid by the Similar Funds seemed to be consistent with the services provided. The Manager’s representatives noted that there were no institutional or wrap fee separate accounts managed by the Manager or its affiliates with similar investment objectives, policies and strategies as the fund.

Analysis of Profitability and Economies of Scale. The Manager’s representatives reviewed the dollar amount of expenses allocated and profit received by the Manager and the method used to determine such expenses and profit. The Board received and considered information prepared by an independent consulting firm regarding the Manager’s approach to allocating costs to, and determining the profitability of, individual funds and the entire Dreyfus mutual fund complex. The Manager’s representatives stated that the methodology had also been reviewed by an independent registered public accounting firm which, like the consultant, found the methodology to be reasonable. The consulting firm also analyzed where any economies of scale might emerge in connection with the management of the fund. The Board members evaluated the analysis in light of the relevant circumstances for the fund, and the extent to which economies of scale would be realized as the fund grows and whether fee levels reflect economies of scale for the benefit of fund investors. The Board noted that it appeared that the benefits of any economies also would be appropriately shared with shareholders through increased investment in fund management and administration resources. The Board members also considered potential benefits to the Manager from acting as investment adviser and noted that there were no soft dollar arrangements with respect to trading the fund's portfolio.

It was noted that the Board members should consider the Manager's profitability with respect to the fund as part of their evaluation of whether the fee under the Management Agreement bears a reasonable relationship to the mix of services provided by the Manager, including the nature, extent and quality of such services and that a discussion of economies of scale is predicated on increasing assets and that, if a fund's assets had been decreasing, the possibility that the Manager may have realized any economies of scale would be less. The Board members also discussed the profitability percentage ranges determined by appropriate court cases to be reasonable given the services rendered to investment companies. It was noted that the profitability percentage for managing the fund was not unreasonable given the fund's overall performance and generally superior service levels provided.

At the conclusion of these discussions, each of the Directors expressed the opinion that he or she had been furnished with sufficient information to make an informed business decision with respect to continuation of the fund's Management Agreement. Based on their discussions and considerations as described above, the Board made the following conclusions and determinations.

- The Board concluded that the nature, extent and quality of the services provided by the Manager are adequate and appropriate.
- The Board was generally satisfied with the fund's overall performance, including the Manager's efforts to improve performance.

- The Board concluded that the fee paid by the fund to the Manager was reasonable in light of comparative performance and expense and advisory fee information, costs of the services provided and profits to be realized and benefits derived or to be derived by the Manager from its relationship with the fund.
- The Board determined that the economies of scale which may accrue to the Manager and its affiliates in connection with the management of the fund had been adequately considered by the Manager in connection with the management fee rate charged to the fund, and that, to the extent in the future it were to be determined that material economies of scale had not been shared with the fund, the Board would seek to have those economies of scale shared with the fund.

The Board members considered these conclusions and determinations, along with the information received on a routine and regular basis throughout the year, and, without any one factor being dispositive, the Board determined that re-approval of the fund's Management Agreement was in the best interests of the fund and its shareholders.
