Form 10-K for the Fiscal-Year ended July 31, 2009

Financial Statements and Supplementary Data, page 43

Note 2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies, page 48

Cash and Cash Equivalents and Marketable Securities, page 53

1. We note your response to prior comment 2 and the information you plan to include in your future filings, if material. In future filings, please also revise this note to clearly indicate that your cash equivalents include reverse repurchase agreements and, consistent with the information included in the first bullet to your response, disclose a brief description of the transactions and your business reasons for undertaking them. Further, disclose how you account for and record the transactions on your books – for example, if true, you could disclose that you account for the transactions as collateralized financing transactions carried on your books at the amounts at which the securities will be sold (the amounts advanced), plus any accrued interest.

As appropriate, please respond to this comment within 10 business days or tell us when you will provide us with a response. Please furnish a cover letter that keys your responses to our comment and provides any requested information. Detailed cover letters greatly facilitate our review. Please understand that we may have additional comments after reviewing your responses to our comment.

You may contact Kevin Kuhar, Staff Accountant, at (202) 551-3662 or me at (202) 551-3603 if you have questions regarding comments on the financial statements and related matters. Please contact Tim Buchmiller at (202) 551-3635 or Geoff Kruczek at (202) 551-3641 if you have questions on other comments.
