Form 10-K for the Fiscal Year Ended December 31, 2006

Financial Statements

1. Please more fully describe the price sensitivity analysis used to prospectively test effectiveness as referred to in your response to comment 4 of our letter dated June 28, 2007.
2. Regarding cash flow hedges of forecasted transactions, including purchases and issuances of assets and liabilities as well as forecasted interest receipts and payments, please tell us the following for each type of forecasted transaction:
 - How you aggregate similar cash flows under paragraph 29(a) of SFAS 133;

- The defined time period over which you typically forecast the probable cash flows for each type of forecasted hedged transaction;
 - How you assess current hedgeable cash flows and expectations in determining whether the cash flows are probable throughout the hedge period;
 - Whether you have missed any of your forecasts (i.e. had more notional amounts of hedging instruments than actual hedgeable forecasted transactions) and if so, the number of times and frequency;
 - Whether you have ever changed the forecasted transaction of an established hedge; and
 - If so, how you considered the off-market components of the swap at the time of de-designation and re-designation.
3. Please provide us with your hedge documentation for a representative sample of one of your cash flow hedges of forecasted repurchase agreements. Please ensure this documentation shows how you concluded that the individual pool of repurchase agreements shares the same risk exposure.
