The Securities and Exchange Commission (Commission) issued an Order Instituting Proceedings (OIP) on May 5, 2009, pursuant to Section 12(j) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (Exchange Act), alleging that the named Respondents violated Section 13(a) of the Exchange Act and Exchange Act Rules 13a-1 and 13a-13 for extended periods. The Division of Enforcement (Division) notified each Respondent that its investigative files were available for inspection and copying, and each Respondent was served with the OIP. No Respondent filed an Answer to the OIP and no Respondent participated in the telephonic prehearing conference on May 26, 2009. Accordingly, I find all Respondents, except Haven Holding, Inc. DELINQUENT PERIODIC FILINGS

Exchange Act Section 13(a) and the rules promulgated thereunder require issuers of securities, registered pursuant to Exchange Act Section 12, to file with the Commission current and accurate information in periodic reports, even if the registration is voluntary under Section 12(g). Section 12(j) of the Exchange Act authorizes the Commission, as it deems necessary or appropriate for the protection of investors, to revoke the registration of a security if it finds that a security issuer has violated the statute or any regulation thereunder.

Hamilton Digital, Hamilton-McGregor, Happiness Express, Harvard Industries, and HealthCor are delinquent in their periodic filings with the Commission, have repeatedly failed to meet their obligations to file timely periodic reports for periods that extend from over seven to fourteen years, and have failed to heed delinquency letters sent to them by the Commission's Division of Corporation Finance requesting compliance with their periodic filing obligations or, through their failure to maintain a valid address on file with the Commission as required by Commission rules, did not receive such letters. This evidence shows that these Respondents have failed to comply with Exchange Act Section 13(a) and Rules 13a-1 and 13a-13 thereunder, which, respectively, require issuers to file annual and quarterly reports, and that it necessary and appropriate to revoke the registrations of their registered securities to protect investors.

ORDER

I ORDER, pursuant to Section 12(j) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, that the registration of each class of registered securities of Hamilton Digital Controls, Inc., Hamilton-McGregor International, Inc., Happiness Express, Inc., Harvard Industries, Inc., and HealthCor Holdings, Inc., are revoked.

I FURTHER ORDER that a telephonic prehearing conference will be held at 12:00 p.m. EDT, Wednesday, June 17, 2009, if Haven Holding, Inc. (n/k/a Haven Holdings I, Inc.), and Helm Capital Group, Inc., have not submitted signed Offers of Settlement by that date.
