INFORMATION STATEMENT

WE ARE NOT ASKING YOU FOR A PROXY AND YOU ARE REQUESTED NOT TO SEND US A PROXY

This Information Statement is first being mailed or furnished to stockholders on or about December 16, 2006 to those persons who were stockholders of the Company as of the close of business on November 20, 2006, the record date. The corporate actions approved by the board and the majority shareholders and described in this Information Statement will not take effect until at least 20 days after this has been mailed to the shareholders. The name change is expected to be effected on or about January 5, 2007.

Summary

The Company is changing its corporate name from Harrell Hospitality Group, Inc. to NorAm Capital Holdings, Inc. On November 20, 2006, the name change was approved by the board of directors and shareholders owning 90% of the voting shares of the Company. The only remaining steps necessary for completion of the name change are: notice to the shareholders through this Information Statement, acceptance by the Secretary of State of Delaware of filing of the amendment to the Certificate of Incorporation, and notice of the name change given to NASDAQ. The anticipated effective date of the new name is on or about January 5, 2007. No action is required of you at this time, and you have no dissenter's rights to this corporate action.

Questions and Answers about the Name Change

The following questions and answers are intended to respond to frequently asked questions concerning the name change of the Company. You should carefully read the entire Information Statement, as well as its exhibits and the documents incorporated by reference in this Information Statement.

Q: Why is the Company changing its name?

A: When the Company sold its hospitality assets in late September 2006, it had committed to the purchasers that it would change its name and that the purchasers could use the Harrell name in their hotel management operations. In addition, the Company's new majority owners and new management are changing the focus of the Company's business to consumer debt collection and other financial services and believe a new name will help avoid confusion with the previous business operations.

Q: Why isn't the Company soliciting proxies relating to a special meeting?

A: We have received written consent from the holders of a majority of the capital stock authorized to vote on the name change. Under the Delaware Law and our Certificate of Incorporation and bylaws this transaction may be approved by the written consent of a majority of the voting interests entitled to vote on it without the necessity of holding a meeting. Since we have received the written consent of the necessary number of votes to approve the name change, conducting a meeting of the stockholders is not necessary and represents a substantial and avoidable expense.

Q: How will the name change be accomplished?

A: The Company will amend its Certificate of Incorporation to change the name of the corporation from Harrell Hospitality Group, Inc. to NorAm Capital Holdings, Inc. The sales of shares of Harrell Hospitality

Group, Inc. will cease to be reported on the NASD Over The Counter Bulletin Board quotation system (“OTCBB”) and the sales of shares of NorAm Capital Holdings, Inc. common stock will begin being reported in their place beginning on the effective date of the name change, under a new CUSIP number and new trading symbol that have not yet been assigned.

Q: How will the name change affect your ownership interest of the Company?

A: The name change will not affect your rights as a stockholder of the Company. The number of outstanding shares of capital stock will not change.

Q: How will the name change affect the officers and directors of the Company?

A: The name change will not change our officers and directors who will continue to hold the same positions with the Company.

Q: Can I require the Company to purchase my stock?

A: No. The Delaware Law does not give you the right to require the Company to purchase your shares.

Q: Who will pay the costs of name change?

A: We will pay all costs of the filings associated with the name change and the preparation and distribution of this Information Statement, including all mailing and printing expenses. We will also, upon request, reimburse brokers, banks and similar organizations for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in forwarding this Information Statement to their clients.

Amendment of the Certificate of Incorporation

Under the Delaware Law, the change to the Company name is effected by amending the Company’s Certificate of Incorporation. Our Board has approved an amendment of the Certificate of Incorporation to change the corporate name from Harrell Hospitality Group, Inc. to NorAm Capital Holdings, Inc. A copy of the form of the Certificate of Amendment is included with this Information Statement as Exhibit “A”.

Vote Required

The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of our outstanding voting stock is required to approve the amendment of the Company’s Certificate of Incorporation under Delaware law. This vote was obtained by the holders of a majority of our outstanding voting stock through written consent effective November 20, 2006. On that date, the record date, our company had 14,049,210 shares of voting common stock outstanding, and the holders of 12,644,290 (90.0%) had delivered their written consent to change the name of the Company to NorAm Capital Holdings, Inc. Under the Delaware Law, if a written consent of a majority of shareholders is obtained, a meeting of shareholders is not necessary. Therefore, no proxies are being solicited, no meeting will be held, and no action is required of you.

No Dissenters’ Rights

The Delaware Law does not provide for appraisal rights or dissenters rights in connection with our name change.

Interests of Certain Persons

No director, executive officer, associate of any director, executive officer or any other person has any substantial interest, direct or indirect, in the name change of the Company.

Regulatory Approvals and Remaining Steps

Because the transaction has been approved by our board of directors and the majority shareholders, the only remaining conditions to the name change are (1) the distribution of this Information Statement to the shareholders, (2) filing of the amendment to the Certificate of Incorporation with the Secretary of State of Delaware at least 20 days after this Information Statement is mailed to the shareholders, and acceptance of that filing, (3) obtaining a new CUSIP number for the Company, and (4) notice to NASDAQ of the name change within ten days of the change, and assigning by NASDAQ of a new trading symbol. The new name is expected to be effective on or about January 5, 2007.

Costs of the Name Change

We will pay all costs of the filings associated with the name change and the preparation and distribution of this Information Statement, including all mailing and printing expenses. We will also, upon request, reimburse brokers, banks and similar organizations for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in forwarding this Information Statement to their clients.
