NOTES TO INTERIM FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1 - Organization and Description of business

Independence Lead Mines Company ("the Company") is a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Arizona on September 16, 1929. The Company is the owner of fifteen patented and fourteen unpatented mining claims. This claim group (the "property") is situated Northwest of Hecla Mining Company's Lucky Friday Mine in the Coeur d'Alene Mining District, Shoshone County Idaho. The Company's property is part of the "DIA Area" which is currently being developed and mined by Hecla Mining Company. The Company has been in the exploration stage since its inception. The Company's only recurring source of funds has been a monthly advance royalty from Hecla Mining Company of $1,500. In March 2002, the Company notified Hecla Mining Company that it considered the DIA Lease terminated and as a result would no longer accept advance royalty payments. Subsequent to that notice, the Company began accepting advance royalty payments, pending the outcome of the dispute between the Company and Hecla Mining Company. On July 19, 2004 the court ruled in favor of Hecla Mining Company. Subsequently, the Company has begun the process of appealing the court's decision to the Idaho Supreme Court.

Note 2 - Basis of Presentation

The foregoing unaudited interim financial statements have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles for interim financial information and with the instructions to Form 10-QSB and Regulation S-B as promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"). Accordingly, these financial statements do not include all of the disclosures required by generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America for complete financial statements. These unaudited interim financial statements should be read in conjunction with the financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2004. In the opinion of management, the unaudited interim financial statements furnished herein include all adjustments, all of which are of a normal recurring nature, necessary for a fair statement of the results for the interim period presented.

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America requires the use of estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities known to exist as of the date the financial statements are published, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Uncertainties with respect to such estimates and assumptions are inherent in the preparation of the Company's financial statements; accordingly, it is possible that the actual results could differ from these estimates and assumptions and could have a material effect on the reported amounts of the Company's financial position and results of operations.

Operating results for the nine month period ended Sept. 30, 2005 are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the year ending December 31, 2005

NOTES TO INTERIM FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 3 – Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In December 2004, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 153 (hereinafter “SFAS No. 153”). This statement addresses the measurement of exchanges of nonmonetary assets. The guidance in APB Opinion No. 29, “Accounting for Nonmonetary Transactions,” is based on the principle that exchanges of nonmonetary assets should be measured based on the fair value of the assets exchanged. The guidance in that opinion, however, included certain exceptions to that principle. SFAS No. 153 amends APB Opinion 29 to eliminate the exception for exchanges of nonmonetary assets that do not have commercial substance. A nonmonetary exchange has commercial substance if the future cash flows of the entity are expected to change significantly as a result of the exchange. This statement is effective for financial statements for fiscal years beginning after June 15, 2005. Earlier application is permitted for nonmonetary asset exchanges incurred during fiscal years beginning after the date of this statement is issued. Management believes the adoption of this statement will not impact the financial statements of the Company.

In December 2004, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 152, which amends SFAS Statement No. 66, “Accounting for Sales of Real Estate,” to reference the financial accounting and reporting guidance for real estate time-sharing transactions that is provided in AICPA Statement of Position (SOP) 04-2, “Accounting for Real Estate Time-Sharing Transactions.” This statement also amends SFAS No. 67, “Accounting for Costs and Initial Rental Operations of Real Estate Projects,” to state that the guidance for (a) incidental operations and (b) costs incurred to sell real estate projects, does not apply to real estate time-sharing transactions. The accounting for those operations and costs is subject to the guidance in SOP 04-2. This statement is effective for financial statements for fiscal years beginning after June 15, 2005. Management believes the adoption of this statement will not impact the financial statements of the Company.

In November 2004, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 151, “Inventory Costs – an amendment of ARB No. 43, Chapter 4” (hereinafter “SFAS No. 151”). This statement amends the guidance in ARB No. 43, Chapter 4, “Inventory Pricing,” to clarify the accounting for abnormal amounts of idle facility expense, freight, handling costs, and wasted material (spoilage). Under some circumstances, SFAS No. 151 mandates that items such as idle facility expense, excessive spoilage, double freight, and re-handling costs be recognized as current-period charges. In addition, this statement requires that allocation of fixed production overheads to the costs of conversion be based on the normal capacity of the production facilities. This statement is effective for inventory costs incurred during fiscal years beginning after June 15, 2005. Management believes the adoption of this statement will not impact the financial statements of the Company.

Note 4 – Marketable Securities

The Company’s investments in equity securities are intended to be held for a short period and are classified as trading securities. These securities are recorded at fair value as current assets on the balance sheet under the caption of marketable securities. The Company’s marketable securities consist of capital stock of other companies in the mining industry.

Note 5 – Mineral Properties

The Company is the owner of fifteen patented and fourteen unpatented mining claims. This claim group (“the property”) is situated Northwest of Hecla Mining Company’s Lucky Friday Mine in the Coeur d’Alene Mining District, Shoshone County, Idaho. Adjacent are the community of Mullan and U.S. Interstate Highway 90.

Pursuant to the terms of an agreement dated February 8, 1968, among Hecla Mining Company (“Hecla”), Day Mines, Inc. (“Day”), Abot Mining Company (“Abot”), and the Company (the “Unitization Agreement”), the Eastern portion of the Company’s Property (approximately five-eighths of the Property) was unitized with certain adjoining and near-by properties owned by Day and Abot into a unitized area, consisting of 55 claims, (known as the “DIA Area”).

By a second agreement also dated February 8, 1968 (the “Lease Agreement”), Hecla leased the DIA Area for a period of fifty (50) years, subject to a 30-year extension, for the purpose of conducting mineral exploration and development of the DIA Area and mining such commercial ore as may be discovered in the DIA Area by Hecla.

The Lease Agreement provides that all costs and expenses incurred in the exploration, development, and operation of the DIA Area are to be paid by Hecla subject to the right of Hecla to be reimbursed for such costs and expenses, together with all advance royalties paid, out of any future net profits realized from the operation of the DIA Area. After recovery of Hecla’s costs and expenses and amounts paid as advance royalties, and the establishment of a three month working capital reserve, net profit royalties are to be paid to the Company and the other property owners. The Company is currently receiving $1,500 per month in advance royalties.

Note 6 – Capital Stock

Preferred Stock

The Company has no preferred stock authorized.

Common stock:

In September 1997 the capitalization of the Company was increased from 4,000,000 shares to 5,000,000 shares of $1.00 par value common stock. In September 2005 the capitalization of the Company was increased from 5,000,000 shares of $1.00 par value common stock to 10,000,000 shares of $0.10 par value common stock. The common stock and additional paid-in capital accounts at December 31, 2004 have been re-stated to reflect the change in capitalization. During the year ended December 31, 2004 the Company sold 357,000 shares of common stock at an average of $0.62 per share and issued 10,000 shares of common stock for services received. In addition, the Company sold 61,436 shares of treasury stock at an average price of $0.88 per share. In the nine months ended September 30, 2005 the Company sold 150,000 shares of its common stock at an average of $0.54 per share. There were no shares sold in the third quarter 2005.

Note 7 – Other Assets

In September 2004 the Company paid $104,713 to Hecla Mining Company as reimbursement for Hecla’s legal fees incurred in the trial between the Company and Hecla. If the Company prevails in it’s appeal of the court’s adverse opinion, the $104,713 will be returned to the Company.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations.

Forward-Looking Statements

This Quarterly Report on Form 10-QSB, including this Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations, contains forward-looking statements regarding future events and the Company's future results that are subject to the safe harbors created under the Securities Act of 1933 (the "Securities Act") and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act"). These statements are based on current expectations, estimates, forecasts, and projections about the industry in which the Company operates and the beliefs and assumptions of the Company's management. Words such as "expects," "anticipates," "targets," "goals," "projects," "intends," "plans," "believes," "seeks," "estimates," "continues," "may," variations of such words, and similar expressions are intended to identify such forward-looking statements. In addition, any statements that refer to projections of the Company's future financial performance, the Company's anticipated growth and potentials in its business, and other characterizations of future events or circumstances are forward-looking statements. Readers are cautioned that these forward-looking statements are only predictions and are subject to risks, uncertainties, and assumptions that are difficult to predict, including those identified elsewhere herein and in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-KSB for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004 under "Risk Factors." Therefore, actual results may differ materially and adversely from those expressed in any forward-looking statements. The Company undertakes no obligation to revise or update any forward-looking statements for any reason.

Overview

The Company is the owner of fifteen patented and fourteen unpatented mining claims. This claim group ("the property") is situated Northwest of Hecla Mining Company's Lucky Friday Mine in the Coeur d'Alene Mining District, Shoshone County Idaho. Adjacent is the community of Mullan and U.S. Interstate Highway 90.

Pursuant to the terms of an agreement dated February 8, 1968, among Hecla Mining Company ("Hecla"), Day Mines, Inc. ("Day"), Abot Mining Company ("Abot"), and the Company (the "Unitization Agreement"), the Eastern portion of the Company's Property (approximately five-eighths of the Property) was unitized with certain adjoining and near-by properties owned by Day and Abot into a unitized area, consisting of 55 claims, (known as the "DIA Area"). Under the terms of the Unitization Agreement, ores and minerals in place are owned by the parties thereto in the following percentages:

Day (now Hecla by merger)	47.70%
Independence	46.30%
Abot	6.00%

By a second agreement also dated February 8, 1968 (the "Lease Agreement"), Hecla leased the DIA Area for a period of fifty (50) years, subject to a 30-year extension, for the purpose of conducting mineral exploration and development of the DIA Area and mining such commercial ore as may be discovered in the DIA Area by Hecla.

The Lease Agreement provides that all costs and expenses incurred in the exploration, development, and operation of the DIA Area are to be paid by Hecla subject to the right of Hecla to be reimbursed for such costs and expenses, together with all advance royalties paid, out of any future net profits realized from the operation of the DIA Area. After recovery of Hecla's costs and expenses and amounts paid as advance royalties, and the establishment of a three month working capital reserve, net profit royalties are to be paid to the Company and the other property owners as follows:

Day (now Hecla by merger)	19.08%
Independence	18.52%
Abot	2.40%

Under the terms of the Unitization Agreement, one-half of the first net profit royalties received by the Company are to be paid over to Day (now Hecla) until Day recovers the sum of $450,000. The relationship of the parties to the Agreement may, under certain circumstances, be converted to a joint venture at the option of the property owners, where after the property owners would become participating, non-operating working interest owners who would share profits and expenses in connection with the DIA Area in the same ratio as exists pursuant to lease arrangement with Hecla described above.

Until Hecla commences to pay net profit royalties and during such period as the Lease Agreement is in effect, Hecla is obligated to pay an advance royalty to the Company of $750 per month subject to increase to $1,500 if production for the DIA Area exceeds 2,000 tons per month. The Company currently receives an advance royalty of $1,500 per month, which is recorded in the financial statements as deferred income.

Pursuant to the terms of the February 8, 1968, agreements, Hecla will be obligated to pay a royalty of 18.52 percent of defined net profits after Hecla has recouped its costs to explore and develop this property from the new discovery to Independence Lead Mines Company.

Since June 30, 1999 the Company has experienced substantial differences with the Lessee. In January 1997, Hecla chose to go forward with the DIA Project's Phase III and by June 1, 1998 the Project reached full production. In the first year of full production the Project lost $785,000 after mining and milling 260,000 tons. Independence requested Hecla to stop mining to prevent loss of the resource. Hecla's management has refused all requests to act with prudence, and continues to mine at this writing. Since Hecla chose to go forward with Phase III, through the end of 2004 there have been 1,428,000 tons mined and milled and all development costs have been lost. Request for prudence over the years has failed. During 2003 Hecla mined and milled 151,991 tons containing 15.76 oz. Silver per ton, 9.05% lead, and 2.18% zinc, and during 2004 164,624 tons were mined and milled assaying 13.17 oz. silver per ton, 7.78% lead, and 2.36% zinc. For the year 2003 the Project lost $723,147 and for the year 2004 the Project lost $3,000,605. The DIA Project total cost at December 31, 2004 was $36,353,259. We believe the record indicates the DIA Project was not viable to undertake with the mining method chosen and the existing economic conditions, and did not justify the start-up of a large mining operation on the Lessor's property.

Results of Operations for the Period Ended September 30, 2005.

Nine months ended September 30, 2005 compared to the nine months ended September 30, 2004:

During the nine months ended September 30, 2005 the Company realized no income. General and administrative expenses decreased to $53,137 for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2005 as compared to $201,299 for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2004. This decrease is principally due to decreased legal and consulting expenses incurred in the first nine months of 2005. Legal and consulting expenses were higher in 2004 because of active litigation being carried on by the Company with Hecla Mining Company (see Item 1, Legal Proceedings, in Part II – Other Information). For the nine months ended September 30, 2005, the Company experienced a loss of $53,076, or $0.011 per share, compared to $201,498, or $0.046 per share, during the comparable period in the previous year.

Nine months ended September 30, 2004 compared to the nine months ended September 30, 2003:

During the nine months ended September 30, 2004 the Company realized no income. General and administrative expenses increased to $201,299 for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2004 as compared to $87,743 for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2003. This increase was principally attributed to increased legal expenses incurred in the second and third quarters of 2004. For the nine months ended September 30, 2004 the Company experienced a net loss $201,498, or $0.046 per share, compared to a net loss of $77,978, during the comparable period in the previous year.

Liquidity and Capital Resources.

The Company financed its obligations during the nine months ended September 30, 2005 by selling 150,000 shares of its common stock at an average price of $0.54 per share. The Company's only recurring source of funds has been a monthly advance royalty from Hecla Mining Company of $1,500. The Company has incurred operating losses since inception; these factors indicate doubt as to the ability of the company to continue business as a going concern. The financial statements do not contain any adjustments which might be necessary if the Company is unable to continue as a going concern. In order to maintain operations, the Company will have to raise additional capital through loans or through the sale of securities. If the Company is unable to raise additional capital, it may have to cease operations.

In 1999 the Company acquired 38,436 shares of Independence Common Stock on the open market at an average price of $0.49 per share, and in 2000 the Company acquired 94,800 shares at an average price of $0.38 per share. These shares were carried as treasury stock by the Company, and in December 2003, 72,000 shares of treasury stock were sold for $0.70 per share. In the first quarter of 2004 an additional 25,036 shares of treasury stock were sold for $0.75 per share. The remaining 36,400 shares of treasury stock were sold in the second quarter of 2004 at an average price of $0.97 per share. During the year ended December 31, 2004 the Company sold 357,000 shares of common stock in a private placement at an average price of $0.62 per share and issued 10,000 shares for services received.

The current officers and directors of the Company serve without compensation and are not considered by the Company to be employees.

Cash Flows for the Nine Months Ended September 30, 2005 were as follows:

During the nine-month period ended September 30, 2005, the Company's cash position increased by $40,583, due to the private placement sale of 150,000 shares of common stock at an average price of $0.54 per share, and the receipt of $13,500 in advance royalties. During this period, the Company used $39,917 in operating activities, principally in connection with its continuing litigation with Hecla Mining Company.

Effect of Recently Issued Accounting Pronouncements.

In December 2004, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 153 (hereinafter "SFAS No. 153"). This statement addresses the measurement of exchanges of nonmonetary assets. The guidance in APB Opinion No. 29, "Accounting for Nonmonetary Transactions," is based on the principle that exchanges of nonmonetary assets should be measured based on the fair value of the assets exchanged. The guidance in that opinion, however, included certain exceptions to that principle. SFAS No. 153 amends APB Opinion 29 to eliminate the exception for exchanges of nonmonetary assets that do not have commercial substance. A nonmonetary exchange has commercial substance if the future cash flows of the entity are expected to change significantly as a result of the exchange. This statement is effective for financial statements for fiscal years beginning after June 15, 2005. Earlier application is permitted for nonmonetary asset exchanges incurred during fiscal years beginning after the date of this statement is issued. Management believes the adoption of this statement will not impact the financial statements of the Company.

In December 2004, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 152, which amends SFAS Statement No. 66, "Accounting for Sales of Real Estate," to reference the financial accounting and reporting guidance for real estate time-sharing transactions that is provided in AICPA Statement of Position (SOP) 04-2, "Accounting for Real Estate Time-Sharing Transactions." This statement also amends SFAS No. 67, "Accounting for Costs and Initial Rental Operations of Real Estate Projects," to state that the guidance for (a) incidental operations and (b) costs incurred to sell real estate projects, does not apply to real estate time-sharing transactions. The accounting for those operations and costs is subject to the guidance in SOP 04-2. This statement is effective for financial statements for fiscal years beginning after June 15, 2005. Management believes the adoption of this statement will not impact the financial statements of the Company.

In November 2004, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 151, "Inventory Costs – an amendment of ARB No. 43, Chapter 4" (hereinafter "SFAS No. 151"). This statement amends the guidance in ARB No. 43, Chapter 4, "Inventory Pricing," to clarify the accounting for abnormal amounts of idle facility expense, freight, handling costs, and wasted material (spoilage). Under some circumstances, SFAS No. 151 mandates that items such as idle facility expense, excessive spoilage, double freight, and re-handling costs be recognized as current-period charges. In addition, this statement requires that allocation of fixed production overheads to the costs of conversion be based on the normal capacity of the production facilities. This statement is effective for inventory costs incurred during fiscal years beginning after June 15, 2005. Management believes the adoption of this statement will not impact its financial statements.

ITEM 3. Controls and Procedures

Disclosure Controls and Procedures.

The Company's principal executive officer and principal financial officer have evaluated the effectiveness of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures (as such term is defined in Rules 13a-13(e) and 15d-15(e) under the Exchange Act) as of the end of the period covered by this report. Based on such evaluation, the Company's principal executive officer and principal financial officer have concluded that, as of the end of such period, the Company's disclosure controls and procedures are effective in recording, processing, summarizing and reporting, on a timely basis, information required to be disclosed by the Company in the reports that it files or submits under the Exchange Act.

Changes in Internal Control Over Financial Reporting.

PART II - OTHER INFORMATION

Item 1. Legal Proceedings.

The Company is currently in litigation with Hecla Mining Company over Hecla's operation of the Lucky Friday Mine under the agreement covering the DIA Project. The Company has retained the Boise law firm of Marcus, Merrick, Christian and Hardee as its attorneys. As required by terms of the 1968 Lease Agreement with Hecla Mining Company, our Company gave notice of termination of that agreement in early March 2002. This agreement covered the DIA Project, which is Hecla's principle operation at the Lucky Friday mine near Mullan, Idaho. Both parties agreed to waive the arbitration requirement contained in the lease and agreed to a trial without a jury.

A nine-day trial was held from March 22nd through April 1st of 2004, and closing written arguments were submitted to the court by April 30, 2004. Further, the court required the parties to submit to the court a written rebuttal to the other party's closing arguments by May 17, 2004. On July 19, 2004 the court ruled in favor of Hecla Mining Company. Independence is currently in the process of appealing the court's opinion to the Idaho Supreme Court. As of the date of this Form 10QSB, a hearing date has not been set for the appeal.

Item 2. Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities and Use of Proceeds.

During the nine months ended September 30 the Company sold 150,000 shares of the company's common stock in private placement transactions without registration under the Securities Act in reliance upon the exemptions from the registration requirements provided by Section 4(2), and Rule 506 of Regulation D under the Securities Act. Proceeds have been used for Company operations and to finance the litigation with Hecla Mining Company.

Item 3. Defaults Upon Senior Securities.

None.

Item 4. Submission of Matters to a Vote of Security Holders.
