Rule 10b5-1 Trading Plan

Pursuant to Rule 10b5-1 promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the securities trading policies of American Greetings Corporation (the "Company") permit its directors and executive officers to enter into written sales plans or arrangements for buying and selling the Company's securities.

On December 26, 2002, James C. Spira, President, Chief Operating Officer and Director of the Company, entered into a four-year trading plan complying with Rule 10b5-1 and the Company's insider trading policy. Mr. Spira's employment agreement with the Company expires in June 2003, and his financial advisors have recommended that he enter into a long-term trading program as a diversification strategy. Pursuant to the plan, Mr. Spira has instructed his broker to sell a maximum of 218,333 of the Company's Class A Common Shares (the "Shares") in specified numbers of Shares, as the Share market price rises above or falls below specified levels. The number of Shares eligible for sale under the plan will be adjusted to reflect stock dividends, splits and similar adjustments. The plan expires on March 31, 2006, and may be modified or canceled only in writing.

The Company anticipates that, as permitted by Rule 10b5-1 and its insider trading policy, other executive officers and directors may establish written sales plans in the future.
