Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On September 16, 2008, Irwin Financial Corporation's Indiana state-chartered bank subsidiary, Irwin Union Bank and Trust Company (the "Bank"), entered into an agreement with Roosevelt Management Company LLC, a Delaware limited liability company ("Roosevelt") to amend the Asset Purchase Agreement entered into between them dated as of July 18, 2008 (the "Residuals Asset Purchase Agreement") and previously reported in a Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on July 24, 2008.

The Residuals Asset Purchase Agreement relates to the sale by the Bank to Roosevelt of residual interests and related mortgage servicing rights and obligations associated with certain of the Bank's prior home equity securitizations, plus the assumption by Roosevelt of certain liabilities in connection with home equity lines of credit included within those securitizations (the "residual interest transactions"). The closing of the residual interest transactions is subject to the receipt of third party consents and approvals.

The primary purposes of the above-referenced amendment were to extend the agreed-upon time periods contemplated for obtaining certain of the third party consents and approvals, and to provide as a condition of the residual interest transactions that the parties execute an agreement for the sale to Roosevelt of portions of the Corporation's home equity lending and servicing operations (the "Platform Agreement"). The deadline for receiving one of these third party consents is September 26, 2008, and the deadline for executing the Platform Agreement is September 22, 2008. In the event that either of these deadlines is not met, the transactions contemplated by the Residuals Asset Purchase Agreement are subject to rescission in the absence of a waiver or further agreement of the parties to the contrary. The amendment also clarifies various other provisions of the Residuals Asset Purchase Agreement.
