ALLETE ANNOUNCES DECISION TO SPIN-OFF ITS AUTOMOTIVE SERVICES BUSINESS TO SHAREHOLDERS

DULUTH, Minn. — ALLETE, Inc. (NYSE: ALE) announced today that its Board of Directors has approved a plan to spin-off its automotive services business which will become a publicly traded company to be named ADESA Corporation. The spin-off is expected to take the form of a tax-free stock dividend to ALLETE's shareholders who will receive one ADESA share for each share of ALLETE stock they own. ALLETE has not yet finalized details of the spin-off.

The Board's decision was made after a lengthy review of strategic alternatives and reflects ALLETE's intention to create long-term shareholder value. To prepare for the spin-off and its operation as a stand-alone entity, ALLETE's automotive services business will immediately begin refinancing its debt.

ALLETE and ADESA are two very distinct businesses and the Company believes that this spin-off will better facilitate the strategic objectives of both businesses. With its strong cash flow, the Company believes that ADESA Corporation will be better positioned to pursue growth opportunities as a stand-alone company and will appeal to a broader group of institutional investors. For ALLETE, the Company believes the split will create a simplified regulatory and risk profile and a more stable credit rating, which will enhance its ability to pursue strategic growth initiatives.

"Since the beginning of the year our Board has carefully weighed a number of alternatives to optimize ALLETE's long-term value for our shareholders," said Dave Gartzke, ALLETE Chairman, President and CEO. "These companies have very different characteristics and capital requirements. As two separate companies, we believe ALLETE and ADESA will offer investors the opportunity to target their investments more specifically. Each company will have its own distinct path for growth. Our board of directors has given its full support to this initiative."

ALLETE Automotive Services, the company which will become ADESA Corporation, had 2002 revenue of $844 million. Its ADESA wholesale auctions is a leader in the industry, growing from the initial 12 auctions ALLETE purchased in 1995 into a network of 53 wholesale vehicle auctions, 28 salvage auctions, and 82 Automotive Finance Corporation offices, that span the United States and Canada. Automotive Finance Corporation is the largest provider of floorplanning for independent car dealers in North America; ADESA Impact is the Company's salvage auction business. ADESA is based in Indianapolis, Indiana, with plans to move into a new headquarters building in Carmel, Indiana in spring 2004.

After the spin-off, ALLETE will be comprised of Minnesota Power and ALLETE Properties, Inc. ALLETE's headquarters will remain in Duluth, Minnesota. In 2002, Minnesota Power and ALLETE's Investments business (which includes ALLETE Properties, Inc.) generated revenue of approximately $663 million.

Minnesota Power generates, transmits, distributes and markets electrical power for retail and wholesale customers in the Upper Midwest. It serves 146,000 residents of Minnesota and Wisconsin and some of the nation's largest industrial customers. Its subsidiary, Superior Water, Light and Power, sells electricity to 14,000 customers, natural gas to 12,000 customers and provides water services to 10,000 customers in northwest Wisconsin. Minnesota Power also includes BNI Coal, a lignite coal mine in North Dakota and Enventis, a telecom subsidiary. ALLETE Properties owns Florida real estate operations in six different locations.

The Board, in consultation with its financial and legal advisors, is working on the details that need to be finalized to accomplish ADESA's refinancing and the spin-off. The spin-off is subject to the approval of ALLETE's Board of Directors of the final plan, favorable market conditions, receipt of tax opinions, satisfaction of U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) requirements and other customary conditions, and is expected to occur in mid-2004. Specific information concerning this transaction at this time is limited by SEC regulations. The Company noted that additional details will be forthcoming.

UBS Warburg and Merrill Lynch & Co., Inc. are financial advisers, and Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP, and Kaplan, Strangis and Kaplan, P.A., are legal counsel to ALLETE.

ALLETE will be hosting a conference call to discuss its third quarter financial results and the information contained in this press release on Friday, October 24, 2003, at 9:00 AM Central Time. AUTOMOTIVE EARNINGS GROWTH HIGHLIGHTS ALLETE'S THIRD-QUARTER RESULTS

DULUTH, Minn.—Bolstered by a strong showing from its Automotive Services businesses, ALLETE, Inc. (NYSE:ALE) today reported third quarter 2003 earnings of 57 cents per share, compared with 55 cents per share in the third quarter of 2002. Net income for the quarter rose six percent to $47.6 million on revenue of $397 million, compared with $45.1 million on revenue of $389 million during the same time period last year.

“Our third quarter results were on target with our expectations,” said Dave Gartzke, ALLETE Chairman, President and CEO. “And I remain confident that we’ll achieve our earnings projections for the year.”

Net income at Automotive Services was $29.2 million in the third quarter of 2003, an increase of 20 percent over last year. This was due primarily to an increase in the number of vehicles sold at ADESA auctions and improved conversion rates compared with the third quarter of 2002 when difficult market conditions were present.

Separately today, ALLETE announced that its Board of Directors has approved a plan to spin-off its Automotive Services business which will become a publicly traded company to be named ADESA Corporation.

Energy Services net income was $15.3 million for the quarter compared with $17.5 million during the same time period in 2002. Higher employee benefit costs in 2003 and a positive one-time adjustment in 2002 related to the utility fuel adjustment clause impacted the third quarter comparison.

Florida Water Services Sale Update

ALLETE continues to divest of its water businesses. Significant progress was made during the third quarter with to-date sales or sales agreements totaling $442 million, which represents approximately 90 percent of Florida Water’s assets.

“Nearly all of the Florida Water systems are now sold or contracted to be sold,” said Gartzke. “We expect most of the transactions to close by the end of the year.” Proceeds from these sales will be used to strengthen ALLETE’s balance sheet. Earlier this month ALLETE issued a redemption notice on its $50 million, 7¾ percent First Mortgage Bonds.

ALLETE’s corporate headquarters are located in Duluth, Minnesota. ALLETE’s holdings include ADESA, the second largest wholesale vehicle auction network in North America; AFC, the leading provider of independent auto dealer financing; Minnesota Power, a low-cost electric utility that serves some of the largest industrial customers in the United States; and significant real estate holdings in Florida.

The statements contained in this release and statements that ALLETE may make orally in connection with this release that are not historical facts, are forward-looking statements. Actual results may differ materially from those projected in the forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties and investors are directed to the risks discussed in documents filed by ALLETE with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
