Jim Scarborough, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, commented, "Our December sales results were negatively impacted by the calendar shift, which was anticipated, as well as the effects of the challenging retail environment.

"Based upon our sales results for November and December, and our belief that the retail environment will continue to be challenging during January, we now project that our comparable store sales for the fourth quarter will be down in the low to mid single digit range, and our earnings for the quarter will be in a range of $0.76 to $0.81 per diluted share. This compares to our previous forecast for the fourth quarter of flat comps and earnings of $0.80 to $0.85 per diluted share. Our revised earnings per share estimates reflect the beneficial impact of our recently completed $50 million stock repurchase program. We plan to provide an update of our forecast when we report our January sales results in early February," Mr. Scarborough concluded.
