Andy Hall, President and Chief Executive Officer, commented, "Our October comparable store sales results were consistent with our August and September hurricane adjusted performance. We believe that this trend will continue into the fourth quarter, and are currently projecting that our fourth quarter comparable store sales will be down in the mid to high single digit range as consumers continue to reign in their discretionary spending. We continue to proactively manage our expenses and inventory levels as we navigate through this economic downturn. As a result of our efforts, we ended the month with inventory levels down approximately 13.0% on a comparable store basis."

Mr. Hall continued, "Although we are still in the process of finalizing our financial results for the third quarter, we currently expect to report a loss from operations for the period of $0.19 to $0.20 per diluted share. In addition, and as we had previously announced, due to the decline in the market capitalization for Stage Stores and our peers, we determined that an interim impairment test of the carrying value of the goodwill related to our acquisitions of Peebles and BC Moore was necessary. We have historically employed various methodologies to determine the fair value of our reporting unit. These tests rely on market valuation multiples, comparable transaction multiples and the expected cash flows of the reporting unit. Given the recent reduction in market valuation multiples, and the current challenging economic environment and its impact on the reporting unit's sales and earnings performance, we have concluded that a write-off of the entire goodwill balance is warranted at this time. As such, we will be taking a $95.4 million one-time, non-cash goodwill impairment charge in the third quarter, which equates to a charge of $2.47 per diluted share.

"It is very important to keep in mind that this is a non-cash charge which will not affect our revolving credit facility covenants or cash flows. In fact, our liquidity remains strong, and we project that our cash flow from operations for this year will exceed last year's amount of $124 million," Mr. Hall concluded.

The Company plans to report its third quarter results before the market opens on Thursday, November 20, 2008, and will hold a conference call and webcast the same day beginning at 8:30 am Eastern Time.
