Any and all such options and rights to which the Executive has become fully and completely vested prior to such termination date shall expire as set forth in the respective plan document or agreement granting such options and rights.

4.6 By Company Due to Change in Control. In the event a Change in Control (as hereafter defined) occurs and the Executive is not employed in the Position with the Company or its successor thereafter, the Executive shall be entitled to receive, and Company or its successor shall be obligated to pay, the monies and benefits described in this Section 4.6.

4.6.1 Monies and Benefits to The Executive. Upon such Change in Control and the Executive not being employed in the Position with the Company or its successor thereafter, the Executive shall be entitled to receive: (i) any Base Salary earned and unpaid, and fringe benefits described in Section 3.3 hereof accrued and unpaid, through the date of such Change in Control; (ii) two times the aggregate of (x) the Base Salary plus (y) the Incentive Compensation at the Target Rate in effect as of the date of such Change in Control; (iii) any Incentive Compensation for the fiscal year in which such Change in Control occurs prorated through the date of such Change in Control; provided, however, the Executive shall not receive any portion of the Incentive Compensation under this Section 4.6.1(iii) unless the Board determines in good faith that the Executive would have been entitled to receive any Incentive Compensation for the fiscal year in which such Change in Control occurred in accordance with Section 3.2; and (iv) continuation of the fringe benefits described in Section 3.3 under which the Executive is participating as of the date of such Change in Control for a period of twelve (12) months from the date of such Change in Control.

4.6.2 Payment of Monies and Benefits. and exercisable as if the Executive had satisfied any and all terms, conditions or requirements described or contained in such plan. In the event the Executive has not previously exercised, or does not exercise, all or any portion of such options or rights within sixty (60) days of the date of such Change in Control (the “Exercise Period”), the Executive shall be entitled to receive, and Company or its successor shall be obligated to pay, compensation for such unexercised options or rights in an amount equal to (i) the number of shares not exercised by the Executive under such options or rights multiplied by (ii) the closing price of the common stock of the Company as of the day immediately prior to such Change in Control minus the exercise price of the Executive described in such options or rights (the “Option Compensation”). The Option Compensation shall be payable in a lump sum within thirty (30) days after the expiration of the Exercise Period, and shall be subject to withholdings for applicable taxes. The Executive shall take any and all actions, and execute and deliver to Company or its successor any and all agreements, certificates or instruments, necessary or required to consummate the transactions contemplated under this Section 4.6.3 including, but not limited to, the assignment, transfer or conveyance of any and all shares to be acquired by the Company or its successor and the cancellation, revocation or termination of any options or rights the Executive has or may have under any such option or incentive plan.

4.6.4 Change in Control Defined. For purposes of this Agreement, a “Change in Control” shall be deemed to have occurred:

(a) on such date within the 12-month period following the date that any one person, or more than one person acting as a group (as defined in §1.409A-3(i)(5)(v)(B) of the Treasury Regulations), acquires ownership of stock that represents twenty-five percent (25%) or more of the combined voting power of the Company’s then outstanding securities (the “Trigger Date”), that a majority of the individuals who, as of the Trigger Date, constitute the Board (the “Incumbent Board”) are replaced by new members whose appointment or election is not endorsed by a majority of the members of the Incumbent Board before the date of such appointment or election;

(b) as of the date that any one person, or more than one person acting as a group (as defined in §1.409A-3(i)(5)(v)(B) of the Treasury Regulations), acquires ownership of stock that, together with stock held by such person or group, constitutes more than 50% of either (1) the then outstanding shares of common stock of the Company or (2) the combined voting power of the then outstanding voting securities of the Company entitled to vote generally in the election of directors; provided, however, if any one person or more than one person acting as a group, is considered to own more than fifty percent (50%) of the total fair market value or total voting power of the stock of the Company, the acquisition of additional stock by the same person or persons shall not be considered to cause a Change in Control; or

(c) the date any one person, or more than one person acting as a group (as defined in §1.409A-3(i)(5)(v)(B) of the Treasury Regulations), acquires (or has acquired during the 12-month period ending on the date of the most recent acquisition by such person or persons) all, or substantially all, of the assets of the Company, except for any sale, lease exchange or transfer resulting from any action taken by any creditor of the Company in enforcing its rights or remedies against any assets of the Company in which such creditor holds a security interest. Provided further, a transfer of assets by the Company shall not be treated as a Change in Control if the assets are transferred to:

- (i) A shareholder of the Company (immediately before the asset transfer) in exchange for or with respect to its stock;
- (ii) An entity, 50% or more of the total value or voting power of which is owned, directly or indirectly, by the Company;

- (iv) An entity, at least 50% of the total value or voting power of which is owned, directly or indirectly, by a person described in paragraph (iii) herein.

For purposes of subsection (c) and except as otherwise provided in paragraph (i), a person's status is determined immediately after the transfer of the assets.

4.7 Execution of Release by The Executive. Company shall not be obligated to pay any portion of the monies and benefits described above, if any, unless and until the Executive shall have executed and delivered to the Company a release of all claims against the Company and its Subsidiaries and their respective shareholders, partners, member, directors, managers, officers, employees, agents and attorneys, arising out of or related to any act or omission which occurred on or prior to the date on which this Agreement was terminated, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Company.

5. POST-EMPLOYMENT DUTIES. For a period of three (3) years following the termination of this Agreement, the Executive shall: (i) fully and truthfully cooperate and assist the Company and its Subsidiaries, to the fullest extent possible, in any and all issues, matters, legal proceedings or litigation related to or associated with the business, management or operation of or any other matter involving the Company or its Subsidiaries in any way or of any nature whatsoever arising from, related to or connected with any period in which the Executive was employed by or otherwise provided services to the Company or its Subsidiaries or in which the Executive has or may have past knowledge, information or experience or applicable expertise; and (ii) fully cooperate, assist, participate and work with the Company or its Subsidiaries on any and all issues or matters for which the Company or its Subsidiaries may seek the Executive's cooperation, assistance, participation, involvement or consultation. Such assistance shall be provided at such times and dates which shall not unreasonably interfere or conflict with the Executive's then current employment. The Company shall reimburse the Executive for any and all costs and expenses reasonably incurred by the Executive in providing such assistance in accordance with the standard policies and procedures of the Company in effect from time to time related to such reimbursable expenses.

6. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION. The Executive acknowledges that the Executive will have access or be privy to certain confidential business and proprietary information of the Company and its Subsidiaries as a result of the Executive's employment with the Company or its Subsidiaries. Such confidential information may include but is not limited to business decisions, plans, procedures, strategies and policies, legal matters affecting Company and its Subsidiaries and their respective businesses, personnel, customer records information, trade secrets, bid prices, evaluations of bids, contractual terms and arrangements (prospective purchases and sales), pricing strategies, financial and business forecasts and plans and other information affecting the value or sales of products, goods, services or securities of the Company or its Subsidiaries, and personal information regarding employees (collectively, the "Confidential Information"). The Executive acknowledges and agrees the Confidential Information is and shall remain the sole and exclusive property of the Company or such Subsidiary. The Executive shall not disclose to any unauthorized person, or use for the Executive's own purposes, any Confidential Information without the prior written consent of the Board, which consent may be withheld by the Board at its sole discretion, unless and to the extent that the aforementioned matters become generally known to and available for use by the public other than as a result of the Executive's acts or omissions. The Executive agrees to maintain the confidentiality of the Confidential Information after the termination of the Executive's employment; provided, further, that if at any time the Executive or any person or entity to which the Executive has disclosed any Confidential Information becomes legally compelled (by deposition, interrogatory, request for documents, subpoena, civil investigative demand or similar process) to disclose any of the Confidential Information, the Executive shall provide the Company with prompt, prior written notice of such requirement so the Company, in its sole discretion, may seek a protective order or other appropriate remedy and/or waive compliance with the terms hereof. In the event that such protective order or other remedy is not obtained or the Company waives compliance with the provisions hereof, the Executive shall ensure that only the portion of the Confidential Information which the Executive or such person is advised by written opinion of the Company's counsel that the Executive is legally required to disclose is disclosed, and the Executive further covenants and agrees to exercise reasonable efforts to obtain assurance that the recipient of such Confidential Information shall not further disclose such Confidential Information to others, except as required by law, following such disclosure. In addition the Executive covenants and agrees to deliver to the Company upon termination of this Agreement, and at any other time as the Company may request, any and all property of the Company including, but not limited to, keys, computers, credit cards, company car, memoranda, notes, plans, records, reports, computer tapes, printouts and software, Confidential Information in any form whatsoever, and other documents and data (and copies thereof) and relating to the Company or any Subsidiary which he may then possess or have under his control or to which the Executive had access to or possession of in the course of such employment.

7. COVENANT NOT TO COMPETE, SOLICIT OR DISPARAGE. The Executive hereby agrees that for a period of three (3) years following the expiration or termination of this Agreement (the "Non-Compete Period"), the Executive shall not: (i) directly or indirectly, either individually or for any other person or entity (whether as an officer, director, employee, owner, stockholder, consultant, agent, advisor, general partner, limited partner or otherwise), or as a part of a group, own, operate, manage, control, participate in, consult with, render services for, or in any manner engage in any business competing with any part of the business presently engaged in by the Company within any geographical area in which the Company engages or has proposed to engage in such business (or solicit any person to engage in any of the foregoing activities); (ii) directly or indirectly, individually or for any other person or entity induce or attempt to induce any employee of the Company to leave the employ of the Company, hire any person who is an employee of the Company as of or immediately prior to the time of such hiring, or induce or attempt to induce any manufacturers' representative, customer, supplier, licensee, agent or any other person or entity having a business relationship with the Company to cease doing business with or reduce the volume of its business with the Company; or (iii) initiate, participate or engage in any communication whatsoever with any current or former customer, supplier, vendor or competitor of the Company or its Subsidiaries or any of their respective shareholders, partners, members, directors, managers, officers, employees or agents, or with any current or former shareholder, partner, member, director, manager, officer, employee or agent of the Company or its Subsidiaries, or with any third party, which communication could reasonably be interpreted as derogatory or disparaging to the Company or its Subsidiaries, including but not limited to the business, practices, policies, shareholders, partners, members, directors, managers, officers, employees, agents, advisors and attorneys of the Company or its Subsidiaries. Provided, however, nothing herein shall prohibit the Executive from being a passive owner of or controlling, directly or indirectly, not more than five percent (5%) in the aggregate of the outstanding stock of any class of a corporation which is publicly traded and which competes in the business of the Company so long as the Executive has no direct or indirect participation in the management of such corporation. The Executive acknowledges that the foregoing restriction is reasonable in all respects and that there is no less restrictive provision in terms of duration, prohibited activities or geographic area which would adequately protect the Company's assets and other legitimate business interests. For purposes of the foregoing, a business shall be deemed to be competing with the business of the Company if such business (a) operates apparel stores in small markets (populations of less than 25,000) and (b) operates a significant number of its apparel stores (75% or more of its total apparel stores) in 10,000 to 30,000 square foot formats. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event any part of this covenant set forth in this provision shall be held invalid, illegal or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, the Executive and the Company hereby agree that such invalid, illegal or unenforceable provision or section hereof shall be severed from this Agreement without affecting the remaining portions hereof in any manner. In the event any portion of this provision related to the time or geographical area restrictions hereof shall be declared by a court of competent jurisdiction to exceed the maximum time or geographical area restrictions such court deems reasonable or enforceable, said time or geographic area restriction shall be deemed to become and thereafter shall be such time or geographic area which such court shall deem reasonable and enforceable.

8. ARBITRATION.
