THE 2002 ANNUAL REPORT TO SHAREHOLDERS ACCOMPANIES THIS NOTICE

MYERS INDUSTRIES, INC.

PROXY STATEMENT

This Proxy Statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation by the Board of Directors of Myers Industries, Inc., an Ohio corporation, of the accompanying proxy to be voted at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders to be held on April 23, 2003, at 9:00 A.M. (local time), and at any adjournment thereof. Shares represented by duly executed proxies in the accompanying form received by the Board of Directors prior to the meeting will be voted at the meeting. A shareholder who signs and returns a proxy in the accompanying form may revoke it prior to or at the meeting by giving notice to the Secretary. Myers Industries, Inc.® is a registered trademark of the Company.

The close of business on March 7, 2003, has been fixed as the record date for the determination of shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the meeting. On that date Myers had outstanding 30,087,949 shares of common stock, without par value ("Common Stock"), each of which is entitled to one vote. For information concerning principal shareholders, see the section headed "Principal Shareholders" below.

The presence, in person or by proxy, of a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock is necessary to constitute a quorum for the Annual Meeting. Shares of Common Stock represented by signed proxies will be counted toward the establishment of a quorum on all matters even though they are marked "Abstain," "Against" or "Withhold Authority." Broker/dealers who hold their customers' Common Stock in street name may, under the applicable rules of the self-regulatory organizations of which the broker/dealers are members, sign and submit proxies for such Common Stock and may vote such Common Stock on routine matters, which, under such rules, typically include the election of directors. Broker/dealers, however, may not vote such Common Stock on "nondiscretionary" matters, which would include the proposal to adopt the amendment to the 1999 Stock Plan, without specific instructions from the customer who owns such Common Stock. Proxies signed and submitted by broker/dealers which have not been voted on the matters as described in the previous sentence are referred to as "broker non-votes," and such proxies count toward the establishment of a quorum.

For the election of directors, under Ohio law, the Company's Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation, and its Code of Regulations ("Regulations"), if a quorum is present at the meeting, the nominees for election as directors who receive the greatest number of votes cast will be elected directors.

The proposal to approve the adoption of the amendment to the 1999 Stock Plan requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of Common Stock present or represented by proxy and entitled to vote at the meeting.

The proposal to ratify the appointment of the independent auditors is a non-binding proposal, but requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of Common Stock present or represented by proxy and entitled to vote at the meeting.

The mailing address of the principal executive offices of Myers is 1293 South Main Street, Akron, Ohio 44301. This Proxy Statement, together with the related proxy card and Myers' 2002 Annual Report to Shareholders, is being mailed to the shareholders of Myers on or about March 17, 2003.

The Board of Directors of Myers has several committees and has appointed members to such committees in April 2002 following the Annual Meeting of Shareholders.

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors is composed of Keith A. Brown, Chairman, Karl S. Hay, and Jon H. Outcalt. The Compensation Committee reviews executive performance and compensation, and approves compensation for the executive officers. The Compensation Committee, which met four times in 2002, had as its members, Jon H. Outcalt, Chairman, Edward W. Kissel, and Richard L. Osborne.

There were a total of five regularly scheduled and special meetings of the Board of Directors in 2002. Board Compensation Committee Report on Executive Compensation

The Compensation Committee, which is composed of three independent non-employee directors operates under a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors. The Committee is responsible for setting and administering the policies which govern executive compensation.

The executive compensation program for the Named Executive Officers, which includes the Chief Executive Officer, is administered by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors. The Committee's function is to review the performance of the Named Executive Officers and the performance of the Company in determining the amount and type of compensation to be paid and awarded, including incentive compensation, and to approve salary adjustments and awards in these areas. In addition, the Committee reviews and recommends plans, programs and benefits relating to executive compensation. The Committee's focus is on total compensation which consists of an executive's base salary, bonus, stock options and other benefits, such as health and pension benefits, some of which are available to all employees.

Although the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer is determined individually, the criteria and process used are the same as those used in determining the compensation of the other Named Executive Officers. Determination of compensation is based upon a number of factors. These can include the performance of the Company, compensation paid by companies which may be deemed to be the Company's peers, studies on compensation for companies of like size to the Company, as well as the recommendation of management. With regard to the compensation paid at the executive officer level, the Committee believes the amounts set are modest by industry standards and on an historic basis the amounts have been infrequently adjusted.

Bonus awards for any year are generally determined on or before March 1 of the following year and then distributed based on a three-year partial distribution cycle. Fifty percent of the total bonus awarded is paid in the first year and 25 percent in each of the following two years. With the exception of normal retirement, any unpaid bonus may be forfeited if the executive officer is not employed by the Company prior to the full distribution of the bonus award.

The shareholder-approved 1999 Stock Plan authorizes grants of options to purchase stock, generally at current market prices, to executive officers and key employees. Whether options are to be granted and, if so, the amounts to be granted, are functions of the Compensation Committee. In the granting of the stock options, in addition to the factors mentioned above, the individual Named Executive Officer's level of responsibility and past contributions to the Company are taken into consideration. In an effort to foster extended employment, such as with the bonus awards, any options awarded generally vest at 20 percent per year over a five-year period and expire on the fifth, or tenth, anniversary. Any unexercised options are forfeited if the executive leaves the Company's employ voluntarily, or if he is terminated for just cause prior to total vesting.

The Committee has reviewed the qualifying compensation regulations under Code Section 162(m) as issued by the Internal Revenue Service which provide that no federal income tax deduction is allowed for applicable employee remuneration paid by a publicly held corporation to a covered employee to the extent that the remuneration paid to the employee exceeds $1.0 million for the applicable taxable year, unless certain conditions are met. Currently, remuneration is not expected to exceed the $1.0 million base for any covered employee.

PROPOSAL NO. 2

Approval of the Amendment of the Myers Industries, Inc. 1999 Stock Plan

The Board of Directors has adopted, subject to shareholder approval, an amendment to the Myers Industries, Inc. 1999 Stock Plan (the "1999 Stock Plan"). The Board of Directors believes that approval of the amendment to the 1999 Stock Plan will advance the interests of the Company by providing eligible non-employee directors with stock options for their purchase of the common stock of the Company.

Summary of the 1999 Stock Plan Amendment

The following summary description of the amendment to the 1999 Stock Plan is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the 1999 Stock Plan. Copies of the 1999 Stock Plan may be obtained by a shareholder upon written request to the Secretary of the Company.

The 1999 Stock Plan was approved by the shareholders in April 1999. Part of this Plan provides that up to 62,500 shares of Common Stock may be issued as options to directors at the fair market value of the stock on the day the option is granted.

The proposed amendment provides for two changes to the Plan. First, each non-employee director would be awarded annually, on the day after the Annual Meeting of Shareholders, stock options to purchase 2,500 shares of Common Stock. This is an increase of 1,500 shares from the current grant of an option to purchase 1,000 shares. Note that the Plan currently allows the Board to increase the number of shares to 2,000 without further shareholder approval. Second, it would remove the condition that the annual option grant is made only if the Company's "Return on Equity" for the immediately preceding fiscal year is equal to or greater than 10 percent.

Currently, there are seven non-employee directors on the Board of Directors of the Company. Assuming the number of non-employee directors remains constant, the non-employee directors as a group will receive options to purchase a total of 17,500 shares of Common Stock each year pursuant to non-discretionary grants under the 1999 Stock Plan.

The Board firmly believes the proposed amendment is both desirable and necessary to more fairly compensate the Board due to the increased time, effort and work required of board members under the rules imposed by the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, and the proposed rules of the New York Stock Exchange. Further, few if any option plans contain a condition that a grant is made only if some financial event is reached. The proposed amendment would bring the provisions of the Company's 1999 Stock Plan in line with the provisions of most other director stock option plans.

The option price per share would remain at 100 percent of the fair market value of a share of Common Stock on the date the option is granted. The option may not be exercised until 12 months after the date of grant, then will remain exercisable until 10 years from the date of grant. The options are not transferable.

The directors stock program is a self-executing option program in that the grant is made automatically. It is administered by the Vice President-Finance of the Company.

With regard to the employee stock option portion of the 1999 Stock Plan which is currently in existence, there are a total of 1,469,915 shares reserved under the 1999 Stock Plan which are available for grant as options to employees. The maximum annual grant of options which can be made to any one individual employee is one and one-half percent of the total outstanding shares of Common Stock of the Company at the time of grant. Options are granted at 100% of the fair market value on the date of the award. No award may be granted under the 1999 Stock Plan after ten years from the date of the Plan, but awards previously granted may extend beyond such date.

The full purchase price of any stock option must be paid upon exercise either in (i) immediately available funds, (ii) shares of Common Stock having an aggregate fair market value equal to the full purchase price, (iii) a combination of (i) and (ii), or (iv) by use of a cashless exercise procedure.

In the event the outstanding shares of the Company's Common Stock are increased or decreased as a result of stock dividends, stock splits, recapitalizations, reorganizations or other changes in corporate structure effected without the receipt of consideration, or in the event the Company's Common Stock is converted into other shares or securities of the Company or any other corporation in connection with a corporate transaction, then appropriate adjustments will be made to the class and/or number of shares available for subsequent issuance under the 1999 Stock Plan.

In the event of a "Change in Control," all stock options or shares which have been outstanding under the 1999 Stock Plan immediately vest in full, except (and to the extent) there are limitations at the time the shares are issued under the 1999 Stock Plan which preclude such accelerated vesting in whole or in part. The acceleration of the vesting of stock options could have the effect of discouraging a Change in Control of the Company and in management even though such Change in Control could be favored by a majority of shareholders.

For purposes of valuation under the 1999 Stock Plan, the fair market value of a share of Common Stock, on any relevant date, is the reported closing price per share on the NYSE.

No material modification to the 1999 Stock Plan may be made without shareholder approval, such as increase the total number of shares issuable under the 1999 Stock Plan. The Board of Directors may at any time amend, suspend or terminate the 1999 Stock Plan, in whole or part, provided such action does not materially alter the Plan or adversely affect the rights of participants with respect to outstanding options or shares.

Unless sooner terminated by Board action, the 1999 Stock Plan will terminate upon the earlier of (i) ten years after adoption, or (ii) the first date when all the shares of the Company's Common Stock available for issuance thereunder, or options therefor, have been issued.

The closing price of the Common Stock on the NYSE on January 31, 2003 was $10.32.

Certain Federal Income Tax Consequences

The following discussion summarizes certain federal income tax consequences of the issuance and exercise of stock options awarded under the 1999 Stock Plan. The summary does not address all federal tax consequences, nor does it cover state or local tax consequences.

In general, a participant realizes no taxable income on either the grant or the vesting of a stock option. The exercise of a NQSO results in ordinary income (generally subject to withholding, if the participant is an employee) equal to the difference (the "Option Spread") between the value of the Common Stock purchased and the option exercise price. A corresponding deduction is available to the Company. In general, the ordinary income associated with the exercise is measured and taken into account at the time of exercise. Any subsequent sale of Common Stock purchased under a NQSO may result in a capital gain or loss.

The exercise of an ISO does not produce ordinary taxable income. However, because the Option Spread constitutes "alternative minimum taxable income" (measured and taken into account, in general, at the time of exercise), exercise of an ISO may result in an alternative minimum tax liability. In addition, shares purchased under an ISO ("ISO Shares") are subject to special tax holding rules. If a participant holds ISO Shares for at least two years from the date of the ISO grant and at least one year after exercise, any gain or loss recognized for tax purposes upon a subsequent sale of the shares will be a long-term capital gain or loss. A disposition of ISO Shares, however, by the participant within either of these special holding periods (a so-called "disqualifying disposition") results in ordinary compensation income in the year of the disposition equal, in general, to the Option Spread at the time the option was exercised. The ordinary income realized upon a disqualifying disposition of ISO Shares is deductible by the Company but is not subject to withholding. Any additional gain recognized for tax purposes in a disqualifying disposition will be taxed as short-term or long-term capital gain.

An ISO that is exercised by the participant more than three months following termination of employment (one year, if termination occurred by reason of total and permanent disability) is treated for tax purposes as an NQSO. ISOs granted to a participant under the 1999 Stock Plan (together with ISOs granted to the participant after 1986 under any other plans of the Company) are also treated as NQSOs to the extent that, in the aggregate, they first become exercisable in any calendar year for shares of Common Stock having a fair market value (determined at time of grant) in excess of $100,000.

Under the so-called “golden parachute” provisions of the Code, certain awards vested or paid in connection with a Change in Control of the Company may also be non-deductible to the Company and may be subject to an additional 20% federal excise tax. Non-deductible “parachute payments” will in general reduce the $1.0 million limit on deductible compensation under Code Section 162(m), to the extent such limit is applicable to remuneration paid under the 1999 Stock Plan or otherwise. Since the 1999 Stock Plan was approved by the shareholders, certain payments to executive officers under the 1999 Stock Plan will be eligible for treatment as “performance-based” compensation under Code Section 162(m).

PROPOSAL NO. 3

Independent Public Accountants

Ratification

The firm of Ernst & Young LLP, independent public accountants, has audited the books and records of the Company for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002. Representatives of Ernst & Young LLP are expected to be available at the meeting to respond to appropriate questions and will be given the opportunity to make a statement if they desire to do so.

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors has selected the firm of Ernst & Young LLP to audit the books and accounts of the Company for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2003. In the event the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP is not ratified by the shareholders, the adverse vote will be deemed to be an indication to the Audit Committee that it should consider selecting another independent accountant, but it is not otherwise bound to make such change.

A description of the fees billed to the Company by Ernst & Young LLP during the year ended December 31, 2002 is set forth below. The Audit Committee (see, “Report of Audit Committee”) reviewed the non-audit services provided by Ernst & Young LLP during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002, and determined that the provision of such non-audit services was compatible with maintaining the accountants’ independence.

Audit Fees	$456,000
Audit Related Fees	25,000
Tax Fees	402,000

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT THE SHAREHOLDERS VOTE FOR THE RATIFICATION OF ERNST & YOUNG LLP AS THE COMPANY’S INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

Change of Independent Public Accountants — June 2002

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors selects the Company’s independent accountants. On June 13, 2002 the Audit Committee terminated Arthur Andersen LLP as its independent auditors. Simultaneously with the termination of Arthur Andersen LLP, the Audit Committee appointed Ernst & Young LLP as the Company’s independent auditors. The appointment of Ernst & Young LLP was made after significant consideration and review by the Audit Committee, and concluded a thorough and deliberate evaluation including discussions with the Board of Directors and management.

The reports of Arthur Andersen LLP on the Company’s financial statements for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2000 and 2001 did not contain an adverse opinion, disclaimer of opinion or qualification or modification as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles. During the fiscal years ended December 31, 2000 and 2001 and during the subsequent interim period, there were no disagreements with Arthur Andersen LLP on any matters of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure or auditing scope or procedures. During the fiscal years ended December 31, 2000 and 2001 and during the subsequent interim period, there were no reportable events (as defined in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K).

During the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002, aggregate fees billed by Arthur Andersen LLP, prior to their termination as the Company’s independent auditors, were approximately $458,000 for work related to the audit of the Company’s financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2001, including reviews of quarterly unaudited financial statements and statutory audits of subsidiaries. In addition, the Company was billed approximately $128,000 for other services provided by Arthur Andersen LLP, related principally to tax compliance and employee benefit plan audits. There were no fees billed to the Company by Arthur Andersen LLP during this period for financial information systems design and implementation.

The Audit Committee reviewed the non-audit services provided by Arthur Andersen LLP during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002, and determined that the provision of such non-audit services was compatible with maintaining the accountants’ independence.

Simultaneously with the dismissal of Arthur Andersen LLP, the Audit Committee appointed Ernst & Young LLP as the Company’s independent auditors. During the years ended December 31, 2000 and 2001 and through the date of the Audit Committee’s decision, the Company did not consult Ernst & Young LLP regarding the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction, either completed or proposed, or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company's consolidated financial statements, or any matter that was either the subject of disagreement on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure or auditing scope or procedures or a reportable event as defined in Item 304 (a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K.

Report of the Audit Committee

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors is composed of three non-employee independent directors and operates under a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors. The directors who serve on the committee are all "independent," that is, none of whom is an officer or employee of the Company and each of whom is considered by the Board of Directors as satisfying the independence and financial literacy standards of the New York Stock Exchange.

Under the review of the Audit Committee, in 2002, the Company adopted formal codes, charters and policies, including: (a) Code of Ethical Conduct for the Finance Officers and Finance Department Personnel; (b) Disclosure Committee Charter, and (c) Disclosure and Certification Procedures for Reports to the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Management is responsible for the Company's internal controls and the financial reporting process. The independent accountants are responsible for performing an independent audit of the Company's consolidated financial statements in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States and to issue a report thereon. The Audit Committee's responsibility is to monitor and oversee these processes, and the Committee chair, as representative of the Committee, discusses the interim financial information contained in quarterly earnings announcements with both management and the independent auditors prior to public release. The Audit Committee also recommends to the Board of Directors the selection of the Company's independent accountants.

The members of the Audit Committee are not professionally engaged in the practice of auditing or accounting and are not experts in the fields of accounting or auditing, including in respect of auditor independence. Members of the Committee rely without independent verification on the information provided to them and on the representations made by management and the independent accountants. Accordingly, the Audit Committee's oversight does not provide an independent basis to determine that management has maintained appropriate accounting and financial reporting principles or appropriate internal control and procedures designed to assure compliance with accounting standards and applicable laws and regulations. Furthermore, the Audit Committee's considerations and discussions referred to above do not assure that the audit of the Company's financial statements has been carried out in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, that the financial statements are presented in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles or that the Company's auditors are in fact "independent."

In this context, the Audit Committee has met and held discussions with management of the Company, who represented to the Audit Committee that the Company's consolidated financial statements were prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. The Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed the consolidated financial statements with both management and the independent accountants. The Audit Committee also discussed with the independent accountants matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communication with Audit Committees). The Company's independent accountants also provided to the Audit Committee the written disclosures required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees) and the Audit Committee discussed with the independent accountants their independence.

Based upon the Audit Committee's discussion with management and the independent accountants, and the Committee's review of the representation of management and the report of the independent accountants to the Audit Committee, the Audit Committee recommended that the audited consolidated financial statements in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2002 be filed with the Commission. The Audit Committee also approved that Ernst & Young LLP be retained as the Company's independent accountants to complete the audit for the 2002 fiscal year.

The foregoing report has been furnished by the current members of the Audit Committee, being:
