Finance and Audit Committee Report

The Finance and Audit Committee's role is to act on behalf of the Board of Directors in the oversight of all aspects of the Company's financial reporting, internal control and audit functions. The role and responsibilities of the Finance and Audit Committee are set forth in the written charter adopted by the Board of Directors. Management has the primary responsibility for the financial statements and the reporting process, including the systems of internal controls.

In fulfilling its oversight responsibilities, the Finance and Audit Committee reviewed and discussed the audited financial statements contained in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for fiscal year 2001 with management. The Finance and Audit Committee discussed with PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP (“PricewaterhouseCoopers”), the Company’s independent accountants, the overall scope and plans for their audit. The Finance and Audit Committee also met with PricewaterhouseCoopers, with and without management present, to discuss the results of their examination, management’s response to any significant findings, their evaluations of the Company’s internal controls, the overall quality of the Company’s financial reporting, the selection, application and disclosure of critical accounting policies, new accounting developments and accounting-related disclosure, the key accounting judgments and assumptions made in preparing the audit and whether the financial statements would have materially changed had different judgments and assumptions been made, and other pertinent items related to the Company’s accounting, internal controls and financial reporting.

The Finance and Audit Committee also reviewed and discussed with PricewaterhouseCoopers the matters required to be discussed with the Finance and Audit Committee under generally accepted auditing standards (including Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61). In addition, the Finance and Audit Committee discussed with PricewaterhouseCoopers the independence of PricewaterhouseCoopers from management and the Company, including the matters in the written disclosures required by the Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1. The Finance and Audit Committee has determined that the provision of non-audit services to the Company by PricewaterhouseCoopers is compatible with their independence.

In reliance on these reviews and discussions, the Finance and Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements be included in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2001 for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Option Grants In Last Fiscal Year

The following table sets forth information regarding options granted to the Named Executive Officers in 2001.

Name	Individual Grants				Potential Realizable Value at Assumed Annual Rates of Stock Price Appreciation for Option Term (2)
	Number of Shares Underlying Options Granted (1)	% of Total Options Granted to Employees in Fiscal Year	Exercise Price ($/Sh)	Expiration Date	5% ($)	10% ($)
James L. Vincent	50,000	1.302	56.3900	12/14/11	1,773,168	4,493,556
James C. Mullen	350,000	9.114	56.3900	12/14/11	12,412,178	31,454,898
Burt A. Adelman	100,000	2.604	56.3900	12/14/11	3,546,334	8,987,112
	40,000	1.042	56.8250	9/28/11	1,429,476	3,622,576
Peter N. Kellogg	55,000	1.432	56.3900	12/14/11	1,950,485	4,942,912
Sylvie L. Gregoire	150,000	3.901	57.0500	8/08/11	5,381,765	13,638,451

- (1) All options listed were granted pursuant to the 1985 Plan at the market price on the date of grant and have ten-year terms. All of the options, except those granted to Mr. Vincent, vest annually in equal installments over four years, commencing one year from the date of grant. The options granted to Mr. Vincent are immediately exercisable, but the shares issuable upon exercise of the options are subject to repurchase by the Company under certain conditions and for a specified period.
- (2) Amounts represent hypothetical gains that could be achieved for the respective options if exercised at the end of the option term. These gains are based on assumed rates of stock price appreciation of 5% and 10% compounded annually from the date the respective options were granted to their expiration date. The gains shown are net of the option's exercise price, but do not include deductions for taxes or other expenses associated with the exercise of the option or the sale of the underlying shares. The actual gains, if any, on the exercise of stock options will depend on the future performance of the Company's Common Stock, the option holder's continued employment throughout the option period, and the date on which the options are exercised. The potential realizable values for all stockholders at the assumed annual rates of stock price appreciation of 5% and 10% would be $5,407,750,101 and $13,705,543,698, respectively, after ten years beginning December 31, 2001 based upon a price of $58.2000 per share, the closing sale price of the Company's Common Stock on December 31, 2001.

Aggregated Option Exercises In Last Fiscal Year And Year-End Option Values

The following table sets forth information regarding the exercise of options by each of the Named Executive Officers in 2001. In addition, this table includes the number of shares covered by both exercisable and unexercisable stock options at December 31, 2001, and the value of “in-the-money” options, which value represents the positive spread between the exercise price of any such option and the fair market value of the Company’s Common Stock on December 31, 2001.

Name	Shares Acquired on Exercise (#)	Value Realized ($)	Number of Shares Underlying Unexercised Options at Year-End (#)		Value of Unexercised In-the-Money Options at Year-End ($) (1)
			Exercisable	Unexercisable	Exercisable	Unexercisable
James L. Vincent	0	0	1,210,000 (2)	0	18,191,242 (2)	0
James C. Mullen	150,500	8,273,764	574,571	1,011,429	16,159,923	5,826,521
Burt A. Adelman	0	0	220,800	208,000	8,774,461	1,444,345
Peter N. Kellogg	0	0	45,000	235,000	29,593	217,924
Sylvie L. Gregoire	20,000	935,620	66,800	200,800	1,672,892	578,908

(1) The value of unexercised in-the-money options at year-end assumes a fair market value for the Company’s Common Stock of $58.2000, the closing sale price of the Company’s Common Stock on December 31, 2001.

(2) The options granted to Mr. Vincent are immediately exercisable, but the shares issuable upon exercise of the options are subject to repurchase by the Company under certain conditions and for a specified period.

Pension Plan

The Company has a tax-qualified defined benefit pension plan in which all regular U.S. employees participate as of the first day of the quarter following date of hire. Benefits are expressed as cash balance accounts. At the end of each plan year, the participant’s cash balance account is increased by an amount equal to a basic credit ranging from 2% to 15% of the participant’s compensation during the year depending on the participant’s age. In addition, a participant may receive a supplemental credit equal to 3% (or the participant’s basic credit percentage, if less) of compensation during the year in excess of the participant’s Social Security covered compensation level. Account balances grow each year at a specified rate of interest equal to the average of the One-Year Treasury Bill (T-bill) rate for the prior year plus 1%. The plan’s interest credit will not be less than 5.25% nor more than 10%. A participant is eligible to retire and begin receiving his or her vested benefit from the plan as early as age 55. The total account balance is converted to a monthly pension at retirement. Alternatively, a participant may elect to receive his or her account balance as a lump sum. For 1995 and earlier years, the plan’s benefit formula provided at different times varying amounts of benefit accrual. A participant’s vested interest in the plan is subject to a graded vesting schedule based on years of service with Biogen and fully vests after seven years of service.

The Company also maintains a Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan (“SERP”). The SERP provides senior executives with benefits that, due to tax law limits, cannot be paid from the tax-qualified pension plan. For certain senior executives, the SERP also preserves the level of retirement benefits provided under the pension plan’s benefit formula before its amendment effective in 1989 to comply with the Tax Reform Act of 1986.

The following table shows estimated annual benefits payable upon normal retirement (age 65) for life under the pension plan and the SERP. These estimates assume that account balances will grow 7% each year, that an employee will work for the Company until normal retirement age, and that the participant's compensation level equals the amounts shown below for each year of service.

The (i) current pensionable earnings (salary and bonus), (ii) current years of service and (iii) projected total service at age 65 are as follows for each of the Named Executive Officers: Mr. Vincent, $1,024,324, 16 years and 19 years (projected); Mr. Mullen, $1,757,998, 12.5 years and 34 years (projected); Dr. Adelman, $520,008, 10.5 years and 26 years (projected); Mr. Kellogg $558,802, 1.5 years and 21.5 years (projected); and Dr. Gregoire, $492,469, 6 years and 31 years (projected).

The Company also maintains a Voluntary Executive Supplemental Savings Plan ("Executive Savings Plan"). The Executive Savings Plan provides senior executives with additional tax-deferred savings supplementing those available under the Company's tax-qualified savings plan. The Executive Savings Plan allows senior executives whose compensation exceeds the amount of compensation that may be taken into account by the tax-qualified savings plan for any plan year to make savings deposits under the Executive Savings Plan from such excess compensation with matching Company contributions on the same basis as provided in the tax-qualified savings plan, and allows senior executives to make additional, unmatched savings deposits from base salary or bonus if they elect to do so.

Employment Arrangements with the Company and Certain Transactions

James Mullen, Peter Kellogg, Burt Adelman and Sylvie Gregoire (collectively, the "Executives") each has an employment agreement, as amended from time to time, with the Company under which he or she receives executive life insurance and tax preparation services. The employment agreements for each of the Executives also provide for a specified target bonus each year. Mr. Mullen's employment agreement further provides for a lump sum payment in the event of termination of Mr. Mullen's employment by the Company, other than for cause, in the amount of base salary and target annual performance bonus, for twenty-four months, and certain medical benefits, for twenty four months or until alternative employment is obtained. The employment agreements of Mr. Kellogg, Dr. Adelman and Dr. Gregoire provide for compensation in the event of termination of each executive's employment by the Company, other than for cause, in the amount of the greater of (i) base salary and certain medical benefits, for twelve months or until alternative employment is obtained, if earlier; and (ii) an amount obtained by taken into account the executive's years of service with the Company and such executive's monthly annual compensation, including salary and bonus, as of the date of termination, which amount may not exceed 18 months of monthly annual compensation as of the date of termination. In addition, Mr. Kellogg's employment agreement sets forth certain benefits to which he is entitled in connection with his hiring and relocation in 2000 to the Company's headquarters in Cambridge, Massachusetts. Such benefits include an interest-free mortgage loan secured by the real property acquired with the loan, reimbursement of mortgage-related costs on his former home, a bridge loan on the equity of his former home, which loan has been repaid, and a contingent signing bonus which vests over 3 years.

Mr. Vincent has an employment agreement under which he receives term life, disability and personal liability insurance, personal income tax preparation and tax audit services. Mr. Vincent's agreement was amended in 1996, and again in March 2000. Under Mr. Vincent's amended employment agreement, in the event of a non-cause termination (whether by the Company or by Mr. Vincent in certain circumstances, including following a change of control of the Company), Mr. Vincent will be entitled to receive a payment equal to at least 2.5 times and no more than 6.5 times his average annual cash compensation for the three years preceding termination, depending upon the date of termination. In the event of termination, under certain circumstances, Mr. Vincent will be entitled to the continuation of certain benefits until age 65 as well as continued service credit and possible accelerated payment under the Company's SERP. Termination payments will be made together with the amount of certain excise taxes imposed on the termination payments. The amended agreement also includes a three-year non-competition provision and a two-year non-solicitation provision. Under the March 2000 amendment, the Company exercised its option to extend the term of Mr. Vincent's service as Chairman of the Board to 2004.

The 1985 Plan provides that if an officer or other designated employee or a director is terminated other than for cause at any time within two years following a non-hostile change of control, his or her stock options will accelerate and become fully exercisable. In the event of a hostile change of control of the Company, the stock options of executive officers as well as all other employees and directors will accelerate and become fully exercisable immediately.

In connection with the hiring of certain executives, the Company has granted bonuses contingent upon the executive's continued employment over a period of years. The Company has also, in the ordinary course of its business, made loans to certain executive officers and other key employees in connection with their hiring to facilitate their relocation to the area.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

In 2001, the members of the Compensation and Management Resources Committee, which determines cash remuneration and benefits for senior executives and reviews executive development and succession, were Roger H. Morley (Chairman), Harold W. Buirkle, Mary L. Good, Phillip A. Sharp and James L. Vincent, the Chairman of the Board of the Company. No member of the Compensation and Management Resources Committee serves as a member of the board of directors or compensation committee of any company that has an executive officer serving as a member of the Company's Board of Directors or the Compensation and Management Resources Committee.

JOINT REPORT ON COMPENSATION PHILOSOPHY
BY THE COMPENSATION AND MANAGEMENT
RESOURCES COMMITTEE AND THE STOCK AND OPTION PLAN ADMINISTRATION COMMITTEE

Having attained its goal of moving from a development-stage company to a fully-integrated pharmaceutical company, Biogen continues to focus on achieving sustained growth and development. The Company's current strategy towards this objective is to grow the worldwide market for its AVONEX® (Interferon beta-1a) product, develop drugs from its current pipeline, fill its pipeline so that there are new drugs to bring to market in the future, continue to foster the creative energies of the internal research group as a source of new development programs, and do all of this in a financially responsible way so as to maximize value for shareholders. The Company's achievements in 2001 reflect its efforts toward fulfilling this strategy. These achievements included exceeding $1 billion in revenues, achieving $971.6 million in revenues from sales of AVONEX, maintaining AVONEX as the worldwide market leader among multiple sclerosis therapies; completing Phase 3 trials of AMEVIVE® (alefacept) in patients with moderate to severe chronic plaque psoriasis; filing a simultaneous registrational filing for AMEVIVE in the United States and Europe, with submission of data from the Phase 3 studies; in collaboration with Elan Corporation, successfully completing Phase 2 studies of ANTEGREN® (natalizumab) in multiple sclerosis and Crohn's disease, and successfully initiating Phase 3 studies of ANTEGREN in both indications; continuing aggressive development of the Company's clinical pipeline, including entering into a collaboration with ICOS Corporation for the joint development of small molecule antagonists to leukocyte function associated Antigen-1; progress in clinical development programs, including completion of a Phase 1 study for the oral form of the second generation small molecule adenosine A1 receptor antagonist product, and initiation of a Phase 2a trial of the molecule in patients with congestive heart failure; and making substantial progress on the construction of the Company's large scale manufacturing facility in Research Triangle Park, North Carolina and completion of a new building to house process development operations on the Company's Cambridge, Massachusetts campus.

Biogen has chosen challenging goals. The Company's success in achieving its mission to date and the magnitude of this success are due in large part to the Company's philosophy and practice of recruiting, motivating and retaining senior executives with demonstrated talent and managerial leadership skills typically gained from successful experiences in positions of greater scope and responsibility in pharmaceutical and other industry settings. A competitive compensation program has been a crucial part of the Company's efforts. The Biogen executive compensation program consists of three parts: (i) base salary and benefits, (ii) annual bonus and (iii) stock options. The Company's target for total compensation is to be competitive with major biotechnology companies, generally those peer companies with significant revenues and at least one product successfully developed and marketed, and with pharmaceutical industry companies, on a size-adjusted basis. In 2001, the total compensation package paid to executive officers, other than the Chairman, was about average compared to the major biotechnology companies with respect to cash compensation and the value of stock options granted. Individual compensation decisions are made with reference to progress toward goals tailored for Biogen's stage of development.

Base Salary and Benefits

The Company's philosophy is to maintain executive base salary at a competitive level sufficient to recruit individuals possessing the skills and values necessary to achieve the Company's vision and mission over the long term. Determinations of appropriate base salary levels and other compensation elements are generally made through participation in a variety of industry surveys and studies, as well as by monitoring developments in key industries such as the pharmaceutical industry. Periodic adjustments in base salary relate to competitive factors and to individual performance evaluated against pre-established objectives. Executive officers are also entitled to participate in benefit plans generally available to employees and to receive executive life insurance and other benefits as described elsewhere in this Proxy Statement.

Annual Bonus

The Compensation and Management Resources Committee of the Board of Directors, in its discretion, may award bonuses to executive officers. The Company pays bonuses based on each executive officer's achievement of his or her performance goals. The intent of the annual bonus is to motivate and reward performance of senior executives measured against distinct and clearly articulated goals, with a view towards the competitive compensation practices of the biotechnology industry. The goals vary with responsibilities and are based on individual milestones rather than overall measures of the Company's performance. In 2001, these goals included: achieving certain commercial milestones with respect to AVONEX; achieving certain clinical milestones with respect to the Company's key development-stage products, including AMEVIVE, ANTEGREN and the adenosine A1 receptor antagonist small molecule product; achieving certain research and development milestones with respect to the Company's product pipeline; the completion of construction of new facilities in Cambridge, Massachusetts to house process development operations and substantial progress in the construction of large-scale manufacturing capacity in Research Triangle Park, North Carolina; the building of a corporate infrastructure in Japan and Asia; and completing key recruiting and strategic planning efforts.

Stock Options

Stock options are a fundamental element in the total compensation program because they emphasize long-term Company performance as measured by creation of stockholder value and foster a community of interest between stockholders and employees. Accordingly, the Company believes that the use of stock options is preferable to other forms of stock compensation such as restricted stock. Options are granted to all regular full-time employees, and particularly to key employees likely to contribute significantly to the Company. In determining the size of an option grant to an executive officer, the Company considers not only competitive factors, changes in responsibility and the executive officer's achievement of individual pre-established goals, but also the number and terms of options previously granted to the officer. In addition, the Company usually makes a significant grant of options when an executive officer joins the Company. The Stock and Option Plan Administration Committee determines the size of option grants to executive officers.

Options are granted, as a matter of Company policy, at 100% of the fair market value on the date of grant. The Company generally awards options to officers upon the commencement of employment and at regular intervals, but other awards may be made as well. Some of the Company's stock option plans also provide for option grants to members of the Board. Options granted to employees generally vest over periods ranging from four to seven years after grant.

Chief Executive Officer Compensation

The compensation of James C. Mullen reflects the Company's general compensation philosophy. Mr. Mullen's compensation as Chief Executive Officer in 2001 was not formula-based, but rather was determined jointly by the Compensation and Management Resources Committee and the Stock and Option Plan Administration Committee based on the Committees' assessment of Mr. Mullen's performance and review of data showing the compensation of Mr. Mullen's peers in the pharmaceutical and biotechnology industries. The Committees collectively evaluated Mr. Mullen's performance by considering various factors, including the breadth of Mr. Mullen's responsibilities and progress made by the Company toward its goals as measured by the Committees' assessment of the performance of the key departments. In 2001, the quality of Mr. Mullen's performance was reflected in the Company's progress toward its goals.

In determining whether to grant Mr. Mullen options, the Compensation and Management Resources Committee and the Stock and Option Plan Administration Committee considered not only competitive factors and Mr. Mullen's performance, but also the number and terms of options previously granted.

Impact of Internal Revenue Code Section 162(m)

Internal Revenue Code Section 162(m) ("Section 162(m)") precludes the Company from taking a deduction for compensation in excess of $1 million paid to the Named Executive Officers. Certain income is not subject to the limit. The Company was able to fully deduct compensation paid to its executive officers in 2001, except for a portion of the compensation paid to Mr. Mullen, the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer. In awarding the compensation to Mr. Mullen, the Board and the Compensation and Management Resources Committee determined that the effect on the Company of being disallowed the deduction was outweighed in light of Mr. Mullen's performance and a review of data showing the compensation of Mr. Mullen's peers in the pharmaceutical and biotechnology industries. Each time Section 162(m) will affect the Company, the Board and its relevant Committees will assess the practical effect on executive compensation and the Company, and determine what action, if any, is appropriate while maintaining the discretion to compensate its executive officers in a manner consistent with the Company's compensation policies without regard to deductibility.

Committees' Roles

The stock option plans for senior executives are administered by the Stock and Option Plan Administration Committee (consisting of Harold Buirkle and Roger Morley) of the Board. Other compensation decisions for senior executives are made by the Compensation and Management Resources Committee and, in the case of the Chief Executive Officer, ratified by the Board based on recommendations from that Committee.

Schneier, who joined the Company in October 2001 as the Company's Senior Vice President of Strategic Organization, Design and Effectiveness. The Company made payments of approximately $400,000 to Craig Eric Schneier Associates for work performed on the Company's behalf in 2001 prior to his joining the Company. The relationship between the two parties terminated prior to Dr. Schneier joining the Company in October 2001 as an employee on a full-time basis.

On September 20, 2001, the Company purchased 130,000 shares of Common Stock in a private transaction from Harold W. Buirkle, one of the Company's directors, for $56.25 per share, or an aggregate price of $7,312,500. The purchase price equaled the sale price of the Company's Common Stock as of the time the repurchase was effected on September 20, 2001.

SECTION 16(a) — BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

The Company's officers, directors and greater-than-ten-percent stockholders are required to file reports of ownership and change of ownership with the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. PERFORMANCE GRAPH

The following graph compares the yearly percentage change in the Company's cumulative total shareholder return on its Common Stock during a period commencing on December 31, 1996 and ending December 31, 2001 (as measured by dividing (i) the sum of (A) the cumulative amount of dividends for the measurement period, assuming dividend reinvestment, and (B) the difference between the Company's share price at the end and the beginning of the period; by (ii) the share price at the beginning of the period) with the cumulative return of the Standard & Poor's 500 Stock Index and the Nasdaq Pharmaceutical Stocks Total Return Index. The Nasdaq Pharmaceutical Stocks Total Return Index, which is calculated and supplied by Nasdaq, represents all companies trading on Nasdaq under the Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) Code for pharmaceutical, including biotechnology, companies.
