If you disagree, we will consider your explanation as to why our comment is inapplicable or a revision is unnecessary. Please be as detailed as necessary in your explanation. In some of our comments, we may ask you to provide us with information so we may better understand your disclosure. After reviewing this information, we may or may not raise additional comments.

Please understand that the purpose of our review process is to assist you in your compliance with the applicable disclosure requirements and to enhance the overall disclosure in your filing. Revenue Recognition, page 38

1. Tell us your basis for estimating revenues, pending finalization of costs studies and how you concluded that your estimates are reasonable. We note your disclosure on page 49 that you did not have in place an internal review process to ensure that the amounts being invoiced to inter-exchange carriers contained the correct rates and number of access minutes billed. Also, please provide us a variance analysis between your revenue estimates as recognized and actual revenues earned, following the finalization of cost studies for each reporting period during the last two years.

2. We note your disclosure that customer contracts of sales and installations are recognized using the completed-contract method. Please tell us more about these contracts. Tell us in greater detail the circumstances in which you apply the completed-contract method and your consideration of paragraphs 30-33 of SOP 81-1.
3. Tell us the nature of your “servicing of communication systems.” Also, tell us whether you provide on-going services with respect to your system sales and installations.

Note 11 – Guarantees, page 44

4. We note that you recorded your $2.133 million guarantee of a portion of the indebtedness of HCC as a liability at December 31, 2006. Please advise or revise.
6. Please comply with the above comment in each of your Forms 10-Q for the quarterly periods through June 30, 2007.
