Dear Mr. Francis:

We have reviewed your response letter and have the following comment. Where indicated, we think you should revise your document in response to this comment. If you disagree, we will consider your explanation as to why our comment is inapplicable or a revision is unnecessary. Please be as detailed as necessary in your explanation. In some of our comments, we may ask you to provide us with information so we may better understand your disclosure. After reviewing this information, we may raise additional comments.

Form 10-K for the Fiscal Year Ended December 31, 2008

Consolidated Statements of Changes in Shareholders' Equity, page F-4

1. We have considered your response to our prior comment number two in our letter of March 3, 2009. We do not agree with your conclusions. As the parent of Iramco did not have greater than 50% control of the buyer of the assets, it appears the parties, while related, are not under common control. Therefore, the related party loss should be reported in your consolidated statement of operations, not as a reduction to additional paid-in capital. Please restate your Fiscal Year 2007 financial statements for this error in your Form 10-K for the Fiscal Year ended December 31, 2008.
