RAYMOND JAMES FINANCIAL REPORTS OCTOBER 2014 OPERATING DATA

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. - In an effort to provide timely information to investors about general trends in our major business segments, we are releasing selected operating data for October 2014. Due to the limited nature of this data, a consistent correlation to earnings should not be assumed.

Total securities commissions and fees of $287.4 million in October 2014 increased 8.1 percent over last October and 3.5 percent over September 2014, which had two fewer equity trading days. This October's increase was attributable to the Capital Markets segment, as institutional equity and fixed income commissions were lifted by the spike in market volatility during the first half of the month.

Client assets under administration reached $480.3 billion, increases of 10.1 percent and 1.1 percent over the prior year's October and preceding month, respectively. Financial assets under management of $66 billion grew 14.4 percent over the year-ago period and 2.2 percent over the preceding month. Growth in client assets under administration and financial assets under management was driven by strong financial advisor retention and recruiting results, as well as market appreciation as the S&P 500 increased 2.3 percent in October.

"Investment banking revenues declined significantly in October following a record month in September," said CEO Paul Reilly. "However, the M&A and underwriting pipelines remain very robust."

Raymond James Bank grew net loans to a record $11.3 billion, a substantial 27 percent increase over the prior October and a $300 million increase for the month.

"We are pleased with our results in October, especially given the elevated market volatility throughout most of the month," said Reilly. "We remain well-positioned for growth in all of our businesses."

Forward-Looking Statements

Certain statements made in this press release may constitute "forward-looking statements" under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements include information concerning future strategic objectives, business prospects, anticipated savings, financial results (including expenses, earnings, liquidity, cash flow and capital expenditures), industry or market conditions, demand for and pricing of our products, acquisitions and divestitures, anticipated results of litigation and regulatory developments or general economic conditions. In addition, words such as "believes," "expects," "anticipates," "intends," "plans," "estimates," "projects," "forecasts," and future or conditional verbs such as "will," "may," "could," "should," and "would," as well as any other statement that necessarily depends on future events, are intended to identify forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements are not guarantees, and they involve risks, uncertainties and assumptions. Although we make such statements based on assumptions that we believe to be reasonable, there can be no assurance that actual results will not differ materially from those expressed in the forward-looking statements. We caution investors not to rely unduly on any forward-looking statements and urge you to carefully consider the risks described in our filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission from time to time, including our most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K and subsequent Forms 10-Q, which are available on www.raymondjames.com and the SEC's website at www.sec.gov. We expressly disclaim any obligation to update any forward-looking statement in the event it later turns out to be inaccurate, whether as a result of new information, future events, or otherwise.
