ITEM 1. Business.

Overview

Parkway Properties, Inc. is a real estate investment trust ("REIT") specializing in the operation, leasing, acquisition and ownership of office properties. The Company performs these services for its own account and for other institutional investors through co-ownership structures such as discretionary funds and/or partnerships. The terms "we," "us," "our," "Parkway," or the "Company" refer to Parkway Properties, Inc. individually or together with its subsidiaries. The Company is geographically focused on the Southeastern and Southwestern United States and Chicago, primarily because these markets have experienced high population and employment growth and are expected to continue to do so in the foreseeable future. Parkway and its predecessors have been public companies engaged in the real estate business since 1971, and the management team has had experience managing a public real estate company through all phases of the real estate business cycle. As part of its strategy, the Company places an emphasis on property operations and customer satisfaction with an ultimate goal of achieving a high level of customer retention. The Company is self-administered, in that it provides its own investment and administrative services internally through its own employees. The Company is also self-managed, as it internally provides the management, maintenance and other real estate services that its properties require through its own employees, such as property managers and engineers and in some cases, leasing professionals. In addition Parkway is self-leased for renewal leases for the majority of its office property portfolio.

At February 15, 2008, Parkway owned or had an interest in 69 office properties located in 11 states with an aggregate of approximately 14.1 million square feet of leasable space. Included in the portfolio are one discretionary fund and several partnership arrangements which encompass 21 properties totaling 3.8 million square feet, representing 27% of the portfolio. With the discretionary fund and/or partnerships, the Company receives fees for asset management, property management, leasing and construction management services and potentially receives incentive fees upon sale if certain investment targets are achieved. Increasing the number of co-investments, and consequently the related fee income, is part of the Company's strategy to transform itself to an operator-owner versus an owner-operator. The strategy highlights the Company's strength in providing excellent service in the operation and acquisition of office properties for investment clients in addition to its direct ownership of real estate assets. Fee-based real estate services are offered through the Company's wholly owned subsidiary, Parkway Realty Services LLC, which also manages and/or leases approximately 1.8 million square feet for third party owners as of February 15, 2008. A significant phase of the transformation to an operator-owner is currently under way through the Company's GEAR UP Plan, which started January 1, 2006 and ends December 31, 2008.

Strategic Planning

Parkway is a focused office REIT with a hands-on, service-oriented approach, a disciplined capital allocation program and a willingness to recycle assets. However, we see the future transformation taking Parkway from being an owner-operator to being an operator-owner. On January 1, 2006, the Company initiated a new three-year operating plan referred to as the "GEAR UP" Plan that will serve as the spring board to transform Parkway from being first an owner of real estate and secondarily an operator of real estate for others to being first an operator of real estate for others that also owns an interest in the real estate. The goals of the GEAR UP Plan are as follows:

- Great People. Great customer service starts with hiring great people, training them well and retaining them. It will take great people to accomplish the ambitious goals of the GEAR UP Plan.
- Equity Opportunities. Over the last several years management has created a broad array of equity opportunities for Parkway. On the private equity side this includes the use of discretionary funds, such as the fund with Ohio Public Employees Retirement System ("Ohio PERS"), and partnerships. The judicious use of private equity provides a greater return on equity to the public shareholders. Parkway intends to contribute assets from its balance sheet to form new joint ventures and expects these subsequent ventures to be similar to discretionary funds in their duration and economics. On the public equity side, this includes the judicious use of common equity and preferred equity to manage the balance sheet and growth.

- Asset Recycling. The Company has demonstrated its willingness in the past to sell assets when management believed the time was right. At the start of the GEAR UP Plan, Parkway identified 25 buildings in twelve markets, totaling approximately 5 million rentable square feet to be part of the asset recycling program. Most of these properties are smaller assets or located in smaller markets that do not fit with the Company strategy of owning larger assets in institutional markets. The dispositions that are planned will help align the Company's portfolio with its current acquisition criteria, which focuses on larger properties in institutional markets. In most cases, Parkway will seek to keep a 10% to 30% joint venture interest in the properties being recycled and retain management and leasing agreements. This is a fluid list of assets based on the Company's evaluation of specific market conditions and review of the portfolio. The other side of Asset Recycling is the reinvestment of proceeds from dispositions into other assets, either owned in the fee-simple format or owned jointly with a partner.

These two goals, Equity Opportunities and Asset Recycling, are what combine to transform Parkway from being an owner-operator to being an operator-owner. Management strongly believes that these actions will result in Parkway better leveraging its core strength of operating office properties and will be advantageous for the Company's shareholders over the long term. So whether we are in an economy characterized by growth or recession, purchasing assets with a good partner and leveraging our operating expertise through earning recurring fees allows us to increase our core portfolio in larger and more institutional markets and increase our earnings potential from the services provided.

- Retain Customers. Customer retention remains the cornerstone of the Company's business. We believe that our focus on the customer is why partners choose to partner with Parkway. The goal is a customer retention rate of 70% to 75%. The average customer retention rate since the inception of the GEAR UP Plan on January 1, 2006 is 72.5% and we anticipate that the annual customer retention rate for 2008 will be in the range of 70% to 75%.
- Uncompromising Focus on Operations. Parkway is reaffirming its commitment to do that which it does best, and that is to operate office properties for maximum returns.
- Performance. In the planning process, management first decided what actions to take strategically over the three years of the GEAR UP Plan and secondly, modeled the economic impact of these actions. Given the large component of Asset Recycling in the Plan, management selected a financial metric that would be most appropriate to measure the success of the Plan. This led to the adoption of Cumulative Adjusted Funds Available for Distribution ("Cumulative Adjusted FAD") as the metric for the GEAR UP Plan, with a target of $7.18 per share cumulative over three years. Actual Cumulative Adjusted FAD for 2006 and 2007 exceeded the amount projected by the Company at the beginning of the plan. Management set an internal target for fixed charge coverage before principal payments of 2.5 times as a measure of leverage for the plan. While not a requirement of the plan, this self-imposed target serves to prevent the performance goals being met by adopting an unhealthy over-leveraging of the Company.

For the GEAR UP Plan Parkway is not abandoning the use of Funds from Operations as an operating metric, but rather carrying it a step further to include accountability for capital items and removing the accounting adjustments which are not directly influenced by the operations of its properties. Management believes an Adjusted FAD goal provides an effective alignment with the shareholders by focusing the team on maximizing income from operations while being mindful of capital expenses and ultimately the funds available to cover the dividend. Cumulative Adjusted FAD is calculated as the sum of Adjusted FAD for each of the three years of the plan. The adjustments that will be made to FAD reported each quarter principally include charges for impairment of value and expenses related to the early extinguishment of debt.

Parkway has made progress on its Asset Recycling and Equity Opportunities goals in 2006 and 2007 as follows:

- Dispositions. Parkway sold ten office properties for a gross sales price totaling $153.8 million and recorded a total gain on the sales for financial reporting purposes in the amount of $43.1 million.
- Fund Acquisitions. The Fund with Ohio PERS purchased eight office properties at an aggregate contract purchase price of $230.2 million.
- Fee Simple Purchases. Parkway purchased One Illinois Center in Chicago, Illinois at a contract purchase price of $198 million.

- Other Purchases. Parkway purchased an additional interest in Moore Building Associates, LP, which owns the Toyota Center in Memphis, Tennessee, for $1.4 million raising Parkway's total ownership interest to 75.025%.
- Equity Offering. On December 18, 2006, the Company sold 600,000 shares of common stock to Banc of America Securities LLC at a gross offering price of $50.25 per share and a net price of $49.37 per share. The Company used the net proceeds of approximately $29.6 million to repay indebtedness outstanding under a $19.3 million mezzanine loan incurred in connection with the purchase of One Illinois Center and to purchase additional investments in office properties.
- Stock Buyback. On August 3, 2007, the Board of Directors authorized the repurchase of up to 1.7 million shares of Parkway's outstanding common stock through July 30, 2008. During 2007, the Company purchased approximately 688,000 shares of Parkway common stock for $29.1 million, at an average price of $42.36 per share.

Discretionary Funds and Partnerships

Parkway intends to continue raising discretionary funds and forming partnerships with select investors. Under the terms of these funds and partnerships, where applicable, Parkway will manage all phases of the investment cycle including acquisition, financing, operations, leasing and dispositions. The Company will receive fees for providing these services. As of December 31, 2007, Parkway had one discretionary fund and five partnership agreements of this nature.

On July 6, 2005, Parkway, through affiliated entities, entered into a limited partnership agreement forming a $500 million discretionary fund (the "Fund") with Ohio PERS for the purpose of acquiring high-quality multi-tenant office properties. Ohio PERS is a 75% investor and Parkway is a 25% investor in the Fund, which is capitalized with approximately 40% of equity capital and 60% of non-recourse, fixed-rate first mortgage debt. The Fund targets acquisitions in the existing core Parkway markets of Memphis, Houston, Phoenix, Atlanta, Chicago, Charlotte, Orlando, Tampa/St. Petersburg, Ft. Lauderdale and Jacksonville. As of December 31, 2007, there was approximately $228 million remaining capacity for Fund office investments. Subsequent to December 31, 2007, the Company purchased three office investments for a total purchase price of $236.6 million on behalf of the Fund. Estimated closing costs, building improvements, tenant improvements and leasing costs of $14.2 million are anticipated during the first two years of ownership for a total investment of $250.8 million. Of the total investment, $227.4 million will represent investments by the Fund and $23.4 million will represent an additional investment by Parkway. Therefore, as of February 15, 2008, the Fund was fully invested. With the Fund with Ohio PERS fully invested, management is now focused on establishing a second discretionary fund.

The Fund targets properties with a leveraged internal rate of return of greater than 11%. Parkway serves as the general partner of the Fund and provides asset management, property management, leasing and construction management services to the Fund, for which it is paid market-based fees. After each partner has received a 10% annual cumulative preferred return and a return of invested capital, 20% of the excess cash flow will be paid to the general partner and 80% will be paid to the limited partners. Through its general partner and limited partner ownership interests, Parkway may receive a distribution of the cash flow equivalent to 40%. Parkway had three years to identify and acquire properties for the Fund (the "Commitment Period"), with funds contributed as needed to close acquisitions. Parkway exclusively represents the Fund in making acquisitions within the target markets and within certain predefined criteria. Parkway will not be prohibited from making fee-simple or joint venture acquisitions in markets outside of the target markets, acquiring properties within the target markets that do not meet the fund's specific criteria or selling or joint venturing any currently owned properties. The term of the Fund is seven years from the expiration of the Commitment Period, with provisions to extend the term for two additional one-year periods.

Third Party Management

The Company benefits from a fully integrated management infrastructure, provided by its wholly-owned management subsidiary, Parkway Realty Services LLC ("Parkway Realty"). In addition to the Company's owned properties, Parkway Realty currently manages and/or leases approximately 5.6 million net rentable square feet for third-party owners, joint venture interests and Fund properties. The Company intends to expand its third party fee business through funds or similar ventures.

Financing Strategy

The Company expects to continue seeking fixed rate, non-recourse mortgage financing with maturities from five to ten years typically amortizing over 25 to 30 years on select office building investments as additional capital is needed. The Company targets a debt to total market capitalization ratio at a percentage in the range of 45% to 50%. This ratio may vary at times pending the timing of acquisitions, sales and/or sales of equity securities. In addition, volatility in the price of the Company's common stock may affect the debt to total market capitalization ratio. However, over time the Company plans to maintain a percentage in the range of 45% to 50%. The Company calculates this ratio by including its proportionate share of any debt on assets held in funds and partnerships. In addition to this debt ratio, the Company monitors interest, fixed charge and modified fixed charge coverage ratios. In connection with the GEAR UP Plan, management set an internal target for the modified fixed charge coverage ratio of 2.5 times as a measure of leverage for the plan. While not a requirement of the plan, this self-imposed target serves to prevent the performance goals being met by adopting an unhealthy over-leveraging of the Company. Management believes the debt to market capitalization, interest coverage, fixed charge coverage and modified fixed charge coverage ratios provide useful information on total debt levels as well as the Company's ability to cover interest, principal and/or preferred dividend payments with current income. As of December 31, 2007, Parkway's debt to total market capitalization rate was 56.8%, which is higher than the Company's target range of 45% to 50%. The increase in the rate was due primarily to a stock price decrease.

Parkway may, in appropriate circumstances, acquire one or more properties in exchange for Parkway's equity securities. Parkway has no set policy as to the amount or percentage of its assets which may be invested in any specific property. Rather than a specific policy, Parkway evaluates each property in terms of whether and to what extent the property meets Parkway's investment criteria and strategic objectives. Parkway has no present intentions of underwriting securities of other issuers. The strategies and policies set forth above were determined, and are subject to review by, Parkway's Board of Directors which may change such strategies or policies based upon their evaluation of the state of the real estate market, the performance of Parkway's assets, capital and credit market conditions, and other relevant factors. Parkway provides annual reports to its stockholders that contain financial statements audited by Parkway's independent public accountants.

Capital Allocation

The Equity Opportunities goal of the GEAR UP Plan speaks to capital allocation and the Company's long standing approach to this very important matter. Capital allocation receives constant review by management and the Board of Directors considering many factors including the capital markets, our weighted average cost of capital, buying criteria (written and published), the real estate market and management of the risk associated with the rate of return. We examine all aspects of each type of investment whether it is a Fund asset, Parkway common stock, a mortgage loan receivable or a fee simple purchase. Each carries a relationship to replacement cost which is still an important underwriting discipline for us. Each has a current yield and a leveraged and unleveraged internal rate of return that can be measured on a relative and absolute basis. Currently, management views the Fund and similar ventures as the highest priority of our capital allocation because it produces the highest risk adjusted return as measured by internal Rate of Return and current cash return. Other investment alternatives are available to us but with lesser return or slightly higher risk so we are principally focused on Funds or similar ventures at the present time.

Industry Segments

Parkway's primary business is the operation and ownership of office properties. The Company accounts for each office property or groups of related office properties as an individual operating segment. Parkway has aggregated its individual operating segments into a single reporting segment due to the fact that the individual operating segments have similar operating and economic characteristics.

The individual operating segments exhibit similar economic characteristics such as being leased by the square foot, sharing the same primary operating expenses and ancillary revenue opportunities and being cyclical in the economic performance based on current supply and demand conditions. The individual operating segments are also similar in that revenues are derived from the leasing of office space to customers and each office property is managed and operated consistently in accordance with Parkway's standard operating procedures. The range and type of customer uses of our properties is similar throughout our portfolio regardless of location or class of building and the needs and priorities of our customers do not vary from building to building. Therefore, Parkway's management responsibilities do not vary from location to location based on the size of the building, geographic location or class.

Management Team

Parkway's management team consists of experienced office property specialists with proven capabilities in office property (i) operations; (ii) leasing; (iii) management; (iv) acquisition/disposition; (v) financing; (vi) capital allocation; and (vii) accounting and financial reporting. Parkway's fourteen senior officers have an average of 22 years of real estate industry experience, and have worked together at Parkway for an average of 17 years. Effective March 1, 2008, J. Mitchell Collins will join the Company as Executive Vice President, Chief Financial Officer and Secretary. Mr. Collins joins the Company with eight years of Chief Financial Officer experience with two public real estate companies and ten years of public accounting experience. Management has developed a highly service-oriented operating culture and believes that its focus on operations, proactive leasing, property management and asset management activities will result in higher customer retention and occupancy and will continue to translate into enhanced stockholder value.

Administration

The Company is self-administered and self-managed and maintains its principal executive offices in Jackson, Mississippi. As of January 1, 2008, the Company had 298 employees. The operations of the Company are conducted from approximately 20,000 square feet of office space located at 188 East Capitol Street, One Jackson Place, Suite 1000, Jackson, Mississippi. The building is owned by Parkway and is leased by Parkway at market rental rates.

Available Information

Parkway makes available free of charge on the "Investor Relations" page of its web site, www.pky.com, its filed and furnished reports on Form 10-K, 10-Q and 8-K and all amendments thereto, as soon as reasonably practicable after Parkway electronically files such material with, or furnishes it to, the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines, Code of Business Conduct and Ethics and the Charters of the Audit Committee, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee and Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors are available on the "Investor Relations" page of Parkway's web site. Copies of these documents are also available free of charge in print upon written request addressed to Investor Relations, Parkway Properties, Inc., One Jackson Place Suite 1000, 188 East Capitol Street, Jackson, Mississippi 39201-2195.

ITEM 1A. Risk Factors.

In addition to the other information contained or incorporated by reference in this document, readers should carefully consider the following risk factors. Any of these risks or the occurrence of any one or more of the uncertainties described below could have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial condition and the performance of its business. The Company refers to itself as "we" or "our" in the following risk factors.

Our performance is subject to risks inherent in owning real estate investments.

Our investments are generally made in office properties. We are, therefore, generally subject to risks incidental to the ownership of real estate. These risks include:

- changes in supply of or demand for office properties or customers for such properties in an area in which we own buildings;
- the ongoing need for capital improvements;
- increased operating costs, which may not necessarily be offset by increased rents, including insurance premiums, utilities and real estate taxes, due to inflation and other factors;
- changes in tax, real estate and zoning laws;

- changes in governmental rules and fiscal policies; and
- civil unrest, acts of war, acts of God, including earthquakes and other natural disasters (which may result in uninsured losses) and other factors beyond our control.

Should any of these events occur, our financial condition and our ability to make expected distributions to stockholders could be adversely affected.

The economic conditions of our primary markets affect our operations.

Substantially all of our properties are located in the Southeastern and Southwestern United States and Chicago and, therefore, our financial condition and ability to make distributions to our stockholders is linked to economic conditions in these markets as well as the market for office space generally in these markets. A downturn in these markets may adversely affect our cash flows and ability to make distributions to stockholders.

Customer defaults could adversely affect our operations.

Substantially all of our revenues and income come from rental income from real property. As such, our revenues and income could be adversely affected if a significant number of our customers defaulted under their lease obligations. Our ability to manage our assets is also subject to federal bankruptcy laws and state laws that limit creditors' rights and remedies available to real property owners to collect delinquent rents. If a customer becomes insolvent or bankrupt, we cannot be sure that we could recover the premises from the customer promptly or from a trustee or debtor-in-possession in any bankruptcy proceeding relating to that customer. We also cannot be sure that we would receive rent in the proceeding sufficient to cover our expenses with respect to the premises. If a customer becomes bankrupt, the federal bankruptcy code will apply and, in some instances, may restrict the amount and recoverability of our claims against the customer. A customer's default on its obligations to us could adversely affect our financial condition and the cash we have available for distributions to our stockholders.

Illiquidity of real estate may limit our ability to vary our portfolio.

Real estate investments are relatively illiquid. Our ability to vary our portfolio by selling properties and buying new ones in response to changes in economic and other conditions may therefore be limited. In addition, the Internal Revenue Code limits our ability to sell our properties by imposing a penalty tax of 100% on the gain derived from prohibited transactions, which are defined as sales of property held primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of a trade or business. The frequency of sales and the holding period of the property sold are two primary factors in determining whether the property sold fits within this definition. These considerations may limit our opportunities to sell our properties. If we must sell an investment, we cannot assure you that we will be able to dispose of the investment in the time period we desire or that the sales price of the investment will recoup or exceed our cost for the investment, or that the penalty tax would not be assessed.

Our current and future joint venture investments could be adversely affected by our lack of sole decision-making authority, our reliance on joint venture partners' financial condition and any disputes that may arise between us and our joint venture partners.

Co-investing with third parties through joint ventures is a part of our ongoing business strategy. We may not be in a position to exercise sole decision-making authority regarding the properties owned through joint ventures. Investments in joint ventures may, under certain circumstances, involve risks not present when a third party is not involved, including reliance on our joint venture partners and the possibility that joint venture partners might become bankrupt or fail to fund their share of required capital contributions, thus exposing us to liabilities in excess of our share of the investment. In limited cases, such as gross neglect, the Company can be terminated as the provider of certain fee based services. Joint venture partners may have business interests or goals that are inconsistent with our business interests or goals and may be in a position to take actions contrary to our policies or objectives. Any disputes that may arise between us and joint venture partners may result in litigation or arbitration that would increase our expenses.

We are exposed to potential environmental liability.

Under various federal, state, and local laws, ordinances and regulations, we may be considered an owner or operator of real property and may be responsible for paying for the disposal or treatment of hazardous or toxic substances released on or in our property or disposed of by us, as well as certain other potential costs which could relate to hazardous or toxic substances (including governmental fines and injuries to persons and property). This liability may be imposed whether or not we knew about, or were responsible for, the presence of hazardous or toxic substances.

Uninsured and underinsured losses may adversely affect operations.

We, or in certain instances, customers of our properties, carry commercial general liability, fire and extended coverage insurance with respect to our properties. This coverage has policy specifications and insured limits that we believe are customarily carried for similar properties. We plan to obtain similar coverage for properties we acquire in the future. However, certain types of losses, generally of a catastrophic nature, such as earthquakes and floods, may be either uninsurable or not economically insurable. Should a property sustain damage, we may incur losses due to insurance deductibles, to co-payments on insured losses or to uninsured losses. In the event of a substantial property loss, the insurance coverage may not be sufficient to pay the full current market value or current replacement cost of the property. In the event of an uninsured loss, we could lose some or all of our capital investment, cash flow and anticipated profits related to one or more properties. Inflation, changes in building codes and ordinances, environmental considerations, and other factors also might make it not feasible to use insurance proceeds to replace a property after it has been damaged or destroyed. Under such circumstances, the insurance proceeds we receive might not be adequate to restore our economic position with respect to such property.

We have existing debt and refinancing risks that could affect our cost of operations.

We currently have both fixed and variable rate indebtedness and may incur indebtedness in the future, including borrowings under our credit facilities, to finance possible acquisitions and for general corporate purposes. As a result, we are and expect to be subject to the risks normally associated with debt financing including:

- that interest rates may rise;
- that our cash flow will be insufficient to make required payments of principal and interest;
- that we will be unable to refinance some or all of our debt;
- that any refinancing will not be on terms as favorable as those of the existing debt;
- that required payments on mortgages and on our other debt are not reduced if the economic performance of any property declines;
- that debt service obligations will reduce funds available for distribution to our stockholders;
- that any default on our debt could result in acceleration of those obligations; and
- that we may be unable to refinance or repay the debt as it becomes due.

An increase in interest rates would reduce our net income and funds from operations. We may not be able to refinance or repay debt as it becomes due which may force us to refinance or to incur additional indebtedness at higher rates and additional cost or, in the extreme case, to sell assets or seek protection from our creditors under applicable law.

A lack of any limitation on our debt could result in our becoming more highly leveraged.

Our governing documents do not limit the amount of indebtedness we may incur. Accordingly, our board of directors may incur additional debt and would do so, for example, if it were necessary to maintain our status as a REIT. We might become more highly leveraged as a result, and our financial condition and cash available for distribution to stockholders might be negatively affected and the risk of default on our indebtedness could increase.

The cost and terms of mortgage financings may render the sale or financing of a property difficult or unattractive.

The sale of a property subject to a mortgage may trigger pre-payment penalties, yield maintenance payments or make-whole payments to the lender, which would reduce the amount of gain or increase our loss on the sale of a property and could make the sale of a property less likely. Certain of our mortgages will have significant outstanding principal balances on their maturity dates, commonly known as "balloon payments." There is no assurance that we will be able to refinance such balloon payments on the maturity of the loans, which may force disposition of properties on disadvantageous terms or require replacement with debt with higher interest rates, either of which would have an adverse impact on our financial performance and ability to pay distributions to investors.

We may amend our investment strategy and business policies without your approval.

Our Board of Directors determines our growth, investment, financing, capitalization, borrowing, REIT status, operating and distribution policies. Although the Board of Directors has no present intention to amend or revise any of these policies, these policies may be amended or revised without notice to and approval from stockholders. Accordingly, stockholders may not have control over changes in our policies.

Loss of our tax status as a real estate investment trust would have significant adverse consequences to us and the value of our securities.

We believe that we qualify for taxation as a REIT for federal income tax purposes, and we plan to operate so that we can continue to meet the requirements for taxation as a REIT. To qualify as a REIT we must satisfy numerous requirements (some on an annual and quarterly basis) established under the highly technical and complex provisions of the Code applicable to REITs, which include:

- maintaining ownership of specified minimum levels of real estate related assets;
- generating specified minimum levels of real estate related income;
- maintaining certain diversity of ownership requirements with respect to our shares; and
- distributing at least 90% of our taxable income on an annual basis.

The distribution requirement noted above could adversely affect our ability to use earnings for improvements or acquisitions because funds distributed to stockholders will not be available for capital improvements to existing properties or for acquiring additional properties.

Only limited judicial and administrative interpretations exist of the REIT rules. In addition, qualification as a REIT involves the determination of various factual matters and circumstances not entirely within our control.

If we fail to qualify as a REIT, we will be subject to federal income tax (including any applicable alternative minimum tax) on our taxable income at corporate rates. In addition, unless entitled to relief under certain statutory provisions, we will be disqualified from treatment as a REIT for the four taxable years following the year during which we failed to qualify. This treatment would reduce net earnings available for investment or distribution to stockholders because of the additional tax liability for the year or years involved. In addition, we would no longer be required to make distributions to our stockholders. To the extent that distributions to stockholders had been made based on our qualifying as a REIT, we might be required to borrow funds or to liquidate certain of our investments to pay the applicable tax.

As a REIT, we have been and will continue to be subject to certain federal, state and local taxes on our income and property.

There is a risk of changes in the tax law applicable to real estate investment trusts.

Since the Internal Revenue Service, the United States Treasury Department and Congress frequently review federal income tax legislation, we cannot predict whether, when or to what extent new federal tax laws, regulations, interpretations or rulings will be adopted. Any of such legislative action may prospectively or retroactively modify our tax treatment and, therefore, may adversely affect taxation of us and/or our investors.

Limitations on the ownership of our common stock may preclude the acquisition or change of control of our company.

Certain provisions contained in our charter and bylaws and certain provisions of Maryland law may have the effect of discouraging a third party from making an acquisition proposal for us and may thereby inhibit a change of control. Provisions of our charter are designed to assist us in maintaining our qualification as a REIT under the Code by preventing concentrated ownership of our capital stock that might jeopardize REIT qualification. Among other things, these provisions provide that, if a transfer of our stock or a change in our capital structure would result in (1) any person (as defined in the charter) directly or indirectly acquiring beneficial ownership of more than 9.8% (in value or in number, whichever is more restrictive) of our outstanding equity stock excluding Excess Stock, (2) our outstanding shares being constructively or beneficially owned by fewer than 100 persons, or (3) our being "closely held" within the meaning of Section 856(h) of the Code, then:

- any proposed transfer will be void from the beginning and we will not recognize such transfer;
- we may institute legal proceedings to enjoin such transfer;
- we will have the right to redeem the shares proposed to be transferred; and
- the shares proposed to be transferred will be automatically converted into and exchanged for shares of a separate class of stock, the Excess Stock.

Excess Stock has no dividend or voting rights but holders of Excess Stock do have certain rights in the event of our liquidation, dissolution or winding up. Our charter provides that we will hold the Excess Stock as trustee for the person or persons to whom the shares are ultimately transferred, until the time that the shares are retransferred to a person or persons in whose hands the shares would not be Excess Stock and certain price-related restrictions are satisfied. These provisions may have an anti-takeover effect by discouraging tender offers or purchases of large blocks of stock, thereby limiting the opportunity for stockholders to receive a premium for their shares over then-prevailing market prices. Under the terms of our charter, our board of directors has the authority to waive these ownership restrictions.

Furthermore, under our charter, the board of directors has the authority to classify and reclassify any of our unissued shares of capital stock into shares of capital stock with such preferences, rights, powers and restrictions as the board of directors may determine. The authorization and issuance of a new class of capital stock could have the effect of delaying or preventing someone from taking control of us, even if a change in control were in our stockholders' best interests.

Maryland business statutes may limit the ability of a third party to acquire control of us.

Maryland law provides protection for Maryland corporations against unsolicited takeovers by limiting, among other things, the duties of the directors in unsolicited takeover situations. The duties of directors of Maryland corporations do not require them to (a) accept, recommend or respond to any proposal by a person seeking to acquire control of the corporation, (b) authorize the corporation to redeem any rights under, or modify or render inapplicable, any stockholders rights plan, (c) make a determination under the Maryland Business Combination Act, or (d) act or fail to act solely because of the effect of the act or failure to act may have on an acquisition or potential acquisition of control of the corporation or the amount or type of consideration that may be offered or paid to the stockholders in an acquisition. Moreover, under Maryland law the act of a director of a Maryland corporation relating to or affecting an acquisition or potential acquisition of control is not subject to any higher duty or greater scrutiny than is applied to any other act of a director. Maryland law also contains a statutory presumption that an act of a director of a Maryland corporation satisfies the applicable standards of conduct for directors under Maryland law.

The Maryland Business Combination Act provides that unless exempted, a Maryland corporation may not engage in business combinations, including mergers, dispositions of 10 percent or more of its assets, certain issuances of shares of stock and other specified transactions, with an "interested stockholder" or an affiliate of an interested stockholder for five years after the most recent date on which the interested stockholder became an interested stockholder, and thereafter unless specified criteria are met. An interested stockholder is generally a person owning or controlling, directly or indirectly, 10 percent or more of the voting power of the outstanding stock of the Maryland corporation.

General

The Company operates and invests principally in office properties in the Southeastern and Southwestern United States and Chicago, but is not limited to any specific geographical region or property type. As of January 1, 2008, the Company owned or had an interest in 66 office properties comprising approximately 13.0 million square feet of office space located in 11 states.

Property acquisitions in 2007, 2006 and 2005 were funded through a variety of sources, including:

- a. Cash reserves and cash generated from operating activities,
- b. Sales of non-core assets,
- c. Sales of office properties,
- d. Sales of joint venture interests,
- e. Contributions from partners,
- f. Fixed rate, non-recourse mortgage financing with maturities ranging from five to ten years,
- g. Assumption of existing fixed rate, non-recourse mortgages on properties purchased,
- h. Sales of Parkway preferred and common stock, and
- i. Advances on bank lines of credit.

Office Buildings

Other than as discussed under "Item 1. Business", the Company intends to hold and operate its portfolio of office buildings for investment purposes. The Company does not propose any program for the renovation or improvement of any of the office buildings, except as called for under the renewal of existing leases or the signing of new leases or improvements necessary to upgrade recent acquisitions to the Company's operating standards. All such improvements are expected to be financed by cash flow from the portfolio of office properties, advances on bank lines of credit or contributions from partners.

On February 28, 2007, the Company purchased 2.5 acres of land in Jackson, Mississippi for $1.8 million. This land was purchased as part of the Company's plan to develop the 194,000 square foot Class A+ office building known as The Pinnacle at Jackson Place ("The Pinnacle"), adjacent to the Company's headquarters building. The estimated cost of the development is $48.5 million with expected completion in the fall of 2008. The Company has received commitments to lease approximately 70% of the new office space from four major customers. Parkway is considering a joint venture structure for the development whereby Parkway will retain an ownership interest of approximately 20%. The development is designed to utilize benefits available under the Gulf Opportunity Zone Act for new developments in areas affected by Hurricane Katrina. During the year ending December 31, 2007, the Company incurred $13.4 million in development costs for The Pinnacle.

We believe that our insurance coverage contains policy specifications and insured limits that are customary for similar properties, business activities and markets, and we believe our properties are adequately insured. However, an uninsured loss could result in loss of capital investment and anticipated profits.

All office building investments compete for customers with similar properties located within the same market primarily on the basis of location, rent charged, services provided and the design and condition of the improvements. The Company also competes with other REITs, financial institutions, pension funds, partnerships, individual investors and others when attempting to acquire office properties.

The following table sets forth certain information about office properties the Company owned or had an interest in as of January 1, 2008:

(1) Includes 48 office properties owned directly and 18 office properties owned through joint ventures.

(2) Average rent per square foot is defined as the weighted average current gross rental rate including expense escalations for leased office space in the building as of January 1, 2008.

(3) Estimated average gross market rent per square foot is based upon information obtained from (i) the Company's own experience in leasing space at the properties; (ii) leasing agents in the relevant markets with respect to quoted rental rates and completed leasing transactions for comparable properties in the relevant markets; and (iii) publicly available data with respect thereto. Estimated average market rent is weighted by the net rentable square feet expiring in each property.

(4) The percentage of leases expiring in 2008 represents the ratio of square feet under leases expiring in 2008 divided by total net rentable square feet.

The following table sets forth scheduled lease expirations for properties owned as of January 1, 2008 on leases executed as of January 1, 2008, assuming no customer exercises renewal options:

Year of Lease Expiration	Number of Leases	Net Rentable Square Feet Expiring (in thousands)	Percent of Total Net Rentable Square Feet	Annualized Rental Amount Expiring (1) (in thousands)	Weighted Expiring Gross Rental Rate Per Net Rentable Square Foot (2)	Weighted Est Avg Market Rent Per Net Rentable Square Foot (3)

Customers

The office properties are leased to 1,452 customers, which are in a wide variety of industries including banking, insurance, professional services (including legal, accounting, and consulting), energy, financial services and telecommunications. Our largest customer and 25 largest customers accounted for 4.3% and 38.9% respectively, of our annualized rental revenue. The following table sets forth information concerning the 25 largest customers of the properties owned directly or through joint ventures as of January 1, 2008 (in thousands, except square foot data):

Non-Core Assets

Since January 1, 1996, Parkway has pursued a strategy of liquidating its non-core assets and using the proceeds from such sales to acquire office properties, pay down short-term debt and repurchase its own stock. The Company defines non-core assets as all assets other than office and parking properties, which at December 31, 2007 consisted of undeveloped land. The book value of the land, which is available for sale, was $1.5 million as of December 31, 2007 with a carrying cost of approximately $5,000 annually.

ITEM 3. Legal Proceedings.

The Company and its subsidiaries are, from time to time, parties to litigation arising from the ordinary course of their business. Management of Parkway does not believe that any such litigation will materially affect the financial position or operations of Parkway.

ITEM 4. Submission of Matters to a Vote of Security Holders.

None.

- (1) As permitted under the Company's equity compensation plan, these shares were withheld by the Company to satisfy tax withholding obligations for employees in connection with the vesting of stock. Shares withheld for tax withholding obligations do not affect the total number of remaining shares available for repurchase under the Company's common stock repurchase plan.
- (2) On August 3, 2007, the Board of Directors authorized the repurchase of up to 1.7 million shares of Parkway's outstanding common stock through July 30, 2008. The shares may be purchased in the open market or in privately negotiated transactions, and at times and in amounts the Company deems appropriate. In 2007, the Company purchased 687,245 shares of Parkway common stock for $29.1 million, which equates to an average price of $42.36 per share, with 1,012,755 shares still authorized for repurchase.

ITEM 7. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations.

Overview

Parkway is a self-administered and self-managed REIT specializing in the acquisition, operations, leasing and ownership of office properties. The Company is geographically focused on the Southeastern and Southwestern United States and Chicago. As of February 15, 2008 Parkway owned or had an interest in 69 office properties located in 11 states with an aggregate of approximately 14.1 million square feet of leasable space. Included in the portfolio are 21 properties totaling 3.8 million square feet that are owned jointly with other investors, representing 27% of the portfolio. Under the Company's GEAR UP Plan, which started January 1, 2006 and ends December 31, 2008, it is the Company's goal to transform its strategy from being an owner-operator to being an operator-owner. The strategy highlights the Company's strength in providing excellent service in the operation of office properties in addition to its direct ownership of real estate assets. Fee-based real estate services are offered through the Company's wholly owned subsidiary, Parkway Realty Services LLC, which also manages and/or leases approximately 1.8 million square feet for third party owners as of February 15, 2008. The Company generates revenue primarily by leasing office space to its customers and providing management and leasing services to third-party office property owners (including joint venture interests). The primary drivers behind Parkway's revenues are occupancy, rental rates and customer retention.

Occupancy. Parkway's revenues are dependent on the occupancy of its office buildings. With supply of new office buildings remaining in check and the economy continuing to create new office jobs, 2007 was a solid operating year for Parkway. America created 1.1 million new jobs in 2007, on top of 1.8 million in 2006. For Parkway, this translated into improved occupancy to an average of 91.6% during 2007 and another large increase in embedded rental rate growth. Embedded growth is defined as the difference between our weighted average in place cash rents and the weighted average market rental rate. As of January 1, 2008, occupancy of Parkway's office portfolio was 92.0% compared to 92.3% as of October 1, 2007 and 90.8% as of January 1, 2007. Not included in the January 1, 2008 occupancy rate are 14 signed leases totaling 76,000 square feet, which commence during the first and second quarters of 2008 and will raise Parkway's percentage leased to 92.6%. To combat rising vacancy, Parkway utilizes innovative approaches to produce new leases. These include the Broker Bill of Rights, a short-form service agreement and customer advocacy programs which are models in the industry and have helped the Company maintain occupancy around 92% during a time when the national occupancy rate is approximately 87%. Parkway projects average annual occupancy of approximately 93% during 2008 for its office properties.

Rental Rates. An increase in vacancy rates has the effect of reducing market rental rates and vice versa. Parkway's leases typically have three to seven year terms. As leases expire, the Company replaces the existing leases with new leases at the current market rental rate.

Customer Retention. Keeping existing customers is important as high customer retention leads to increased occupancy, less downtime between leases, and reduced leasing costs. Parkway estimates that it costs five to six times more to replace an existing customer with a new one than to retain the customer. In making this estimate, Parkway takes into account the sum of revenue lost during downtime on the space plus leasing costs, which rise as market vacancies increase. Therefore, Parkway focuses a great deal of energy on customer retention. Parkway's operating philosophy is based on the premise that it is in the customer retention business. Parkway seeks to retain its customers by continually focusing on operations at its office properties. The Company believes in providing superior customer service; hiring, training, retaining and empowering each employee; and creating an environment of open communication both internally and externally with customers and stockholders. Over the past ten years, Parkway maintained an average 73.7% customer retention rate. Parkway's customer retention for the year ending December 31, 2007 was 72% compared to 73% for the year ending December 31, 2006.

Strategic Planning. Parkway is a focused office REIT with a hands-on, service-oriented approach, a disciplined capital allocation program and a willingness to recycle assets. However, we see the future transformation taking Parkway from being an owner-operator to being an operator-owner. On January 1, 2006, the Company initiated a new three-year operating plan referred to as the "GEAR UP" Plan that will serve as the spring board to transform Parkway from being first an owner of real estate and secondarily an operator of real estate for others to being first an operator of real estate for others that also owns an interest in the real estate. The goals of the GEAR UP Plan are as follows:

- Great People. Great customer service starts with hiring great people, training them well and retaining them. It will take great people to accomplish the ambitious goals of the Plan.

- Equity Opportunities. Over the last several years management has created a broad array of equity opportunities for Parkway. On the private equity side this includes the use of discretionary funds, such as the fund with Ohio PERS, and partnerships. The judicious use of private equity provides a greater return on equity to the public shareholders. Parkway intends to contribute assets from its balance sheet to form new joint ventures and expects these subsequent ventures to be similar to discretionary funds in their duration and economics. On the public equity side, this includes the judicious use of common equity and preferred equity to manage the balance sheet and growth.
- Asset Recycling. The Company has demonstrated its willingness in the past to sell assets when management believed the time was right. At the start of the GEAR UP Plan, Parkway identified 25 buildings in twelve markets, totaling approximately 5 million rentable square feet to be part of the asset recycling program. Most of these properties are smaller assets or located in smaller markets that do not fit with the Company strategy of owning larger assets in institutional markets. The dispositions that are planned will help align the Company's portfolio with its current acquisition criteria, which focuses on larger properties in institutional markets. In most cases, Parkway will seek to keep a 10% to 30% joint venture interest in the properties being recycled and retain management and leasing agreements. This is a fluid list of assets based on the Company's evaluation of specific market conditions and review of the portfolio. The other side of Asset Recycling is the reinvestment of proceeds from dispositions into other assets, either owned in the fee-simple format or owned jointly with a partner.

These two goals, Equity Opportunities and Asset Recycling, are what combine to transform Parkway from being an owner-operator to being an operator-owner. Management strongly believes that these actions will result in Parkway better leveraging its core strength of operating office properties and will be advantageous for the Company's shareholders over the long term. So whether we are in an economy characterized by growth or recession, purchasing assets with a good partner and leveraging our operating expertise through earning recurring fees allows us to increase our core portfolio in larger and more institutional markets and increase our earnings potential from the services provided.

- Retain Customers. Customer retention remains the cornerstone of the Company's business and is why partners choose to partner with Parkway. The goal is a customer retention rate of 70% to 75%. The average customer retention rate since the inception of the GEAR UP Plan on January 1, 2006 is 72.5% and we anticipate that the annual customer retention rate for 2008 will be in the range of 70% to 75%.
- Uncompromising Focus on Operations. Parkway is reaffirming its commitment to do that which it does best, and that is to operate office properties for maximum returns.
- Performance. In the planning process, management first decided what actions to take strategically over the three years of the GEAR UP Plan and secondly, modeled the economic impact of these actions. Given the large component of Asset Recycling in the Plan, management selected a financial metric that would be most appropriate to measure the success of the Plan. This led to the adoption of Cumulative Adjusted Funds Available for Distribution ("Cumulative Adjusted FAD") as the metric for the GEAR UP Plan, with a target of $7.18 per share cumulative over three years. Actual Cumulative Adjusted FAD for 2006 and 2007 exceeded the amount projected by the Company at the beginning of the plan. Management set an internal target for fixed charge coverage before principal payments of 2.5 times as a measure of leverage for the plan. While not a requirement of the plan, this self-imposed target serves to prevent the performance goals being met by adopting an unhealthy over-leveraging of the Company.

For the GEAR UP Plan Parkway is not abandoning Funds from Operations, but rather carrying it a step further to include accountability for capital items and removing the accounting adjustments which are not directly influenced by the operations of its properties. Management believes an Adjusted FAD goal provides an effective alignment with the shareholders by focusing the team on maximizing income from operations while being mindful of capital expenses and ultimately the funds available to cover the dividend. Cumulative Adjusted FAD is calculated as the sum of Adjusted FAD for each of the three years of the plan. The adjustments that will be made to FAD reported each quarter principally include charges for impairment of value and expenses related to the early extinguishment of debt.

Parkway has made progress on its Asset Recycling and Equity Opportunities goals in 2006 and 2007 as follows:

- Dispositions. Parkway sold ten office properties for a gross sales price totaling $153.8 million and recorded a total gain on the sales for financial reporting purposes in the amount of $43.1 million.
- Fund Acquisitions. The Fund with Ohio PERS purchased eight office properties at an aggregate contract purchase price of $230.2 million.
- Fee Simple Purchases. Parkway purchased One Illinois Center in Chicago, Illinois at a contract purchase price of $198 million.
- Other Purchases. Parkway purchased an additional interest in Moore Building Associates, LP, which owns the Toyota Center in Memphis, Tennessee, for $1.4 million raising Parkway's total ownership interest to 75.025%.
- Equity Offering. On December 18, 2006, the Company sold 600,000 shares of common stock to Banc of America Securities LLC at a gross offering price of $50.25 per share and a net price of $49.37 per share. The Company used the net proceeds of approximately $29.6 million to repay indebtedness outstanding under a $19.3 million mezzanine loan incurred in connection with the purchase of One Illinois Center and to purchase additional investments in office properties.
- Stock Buyback. On August 3, 2007, the Board of Directors authorized the repurchase of up to 1.7 million shares of Parkway's outstanding common stock through July 30, 2008. During 2007, the Company purchased approximately 688,000 shares of Parkway common stock for $29.1 million, which equates to an average price of $42.36 per share.

Discretionary Fund. On July 6, 2005, Parkway, through affiliated entities, entered into a limited partnership agreement forming a $500 million discretionary fund with Ohio PERS for the purpose of acquiring high-quality multi-tenant office properties. Ohio PERS is a 75% investor and Parkway is a 25% investor in the Fund, which is capitalized with approximately 40% of equity capital and 60% of non-recourse, fixed-rate first mortgage debt. The Fund targets acquisitions in the existing core Parkway markets of Memphis, Houston, Phoenix, Atlanta, Chicago, Charlotte, Orlando, Tampa/St. Petersburg, Ft. Lauderdale and Jacksonville. As of December 31, 2007, there was approximately $228 million remaining capacity for Fund office investments. Subsequent to December 31, 2007, the Company purchased three office investments for a total purchase price of $236.6 million on behalf of the Fund. Estimated closing costs, building improvements, tenant improvements and leasing costs of $14.2 million are anticipated during the first two years of ownership for a total investment of $250.8 million. Of the total investment, $227.4 million will represent investments by the Fund and $23.4 million will represent an additional investment by Parkway. Therefore, as of February 15, 2008, the Fund was fully invested. With the Fund with Ohio PERS fully invested, management is now focused on establishing a second discretionary fund.

The Fund targets properties with an anticipated leveraged internal rate of return of greater than 11%. Parkway serves as the general partner of the Fund and provides asset management, property management, leasing and construction management services to the Fund, for which it is paid market-based fees. After each partner has received a 10% annual cumulative preferred return and a return of invested capital, 20% of the excess cash flow will be paid to the general partner and 80% will be paid to the limited partners. Through its general partner and limited partner ownership interests, Parkway may receive a distribution of the cash flow equivalent to 40%. Parkway had three years from the inception date of the Fund to identify and acquire properties (the "Commitment Period"), with funds contributed as needed to close acquisitions. Parkway exclusively represents the Fund in making acquisitions within the target markets and within certain predefined criteria. Parkway will not be prohibited from making fee-simple or joint venture acquisitions in markets outside of the target markets, acquiring properties within the target markets that do not meet the Fund's specific criteria or selling or joint venturing any currently owned properties. The term of the Fund is seven years from the expiration of the Commitment Period, with provisions to extend the term for two additional one-year periods.

Financial Condition

Comments are for the balance sheet dated December 31, 2007 compared to the balance sheet dated December 31, 2006.

Office and Parking Properties. In 2007, Parkway continued the application of its strategy of operating and acquiring office properties, joint venturing interests in office assets, as well as liquidating non-core assets and office assets that either no longer meet the Company's investment criteria or the Company has determined value will be maximized by selling. During the year ended December 31, 2007, total assets increased $23.4 million or 1.6% and office and parking properties and office property development (before depreciation) increased $54.3 million or 3.6%.

Purchases, Improvements and Development

Parkway's investment in consolidated office and parking properties increased $11.4 million net of depreciation, to a carrying amount of $1.3 billion at December 31, 2007 and consisted of 60 office and parking properties and one office property development. The primary reason for the increase in office and parking properties relates to the net effect of the purchase of land and an office property, building improvements, development costs, the sale of two office properties, a capital lease for a garage and depreciation recorded during the year.

On February 28, 2007, the Company purchased 2.5 acres of land in Jackson, Mississippi for $1.8 million. This land was purchased as part of the Company's plan to develop the 194,000 square foot Class A+ office building known as The Pinnacle at Jackson Place ("The Pinnacle"), adjacent to the Company's headquarters building. The estimated cost of the development is $48.5 million with expected completion in the fall of 2008. The Company has received commitments to lease approximately 70% of the new office space from four major customers. Parkway is considering a joint venture structure for the development whereby Parkway will retain an ownership interest of approximately 20%. The development is designed to utilize benefits available under the Gulf Opportunity Zone Act for new developments in areas affected by Hurricane Katrina. During the year ending December 31, 2007, the Company incurred $13.4 million in development costs for The Pinnacle.

During the year ending December 31, 2007, the Fund purchased one office property as follows (in thousands):

Office Property	Location	Square Feet	Date Purchased	Purchase Price
Fund Purchase (a):
1401 Enclave Parkway (a)	Houston, Texas	209	06/14/07	$46,500

(a) Parkway's ownership interest is 25% and this property is included in Parkway's consolidated financial statements.

On September 1, 2007, Parkway entered into a lease for the parking garage known as Parking at Jackson Place, which is adjacent to the Company's headquarters and The Pinnacle in Jackson, Mississippi. The term of the lease is 60 years with a renewal option for an additional 30 years. Since the fair value of the land is greater than 25% of the total value of the property, the Company is accounting for the component of the lease attributable to the land as an operating lease and the component attributable to the building as a capital lease. The garage was recorded at a cost of $4.1 million.

During the year ending December 31, 2007, the Company capitalized building improvements and additional purchase expenses of $43.3 million and recorded depreciation expense of $59.7 million related to its office and parking properties.

Dispositions

During the year ending December 31, 2007, Parkway sold two office properties as follows (in thousands):

Office Property	Location	Square Feet	Date Sold	Gross Sales Price	Gain
First Tennessee Plaza and Cedar Ridge	Knoxville, Tennessee	549	06/29/07	$59,000	$20,260

Mortgage Loan. On November 7, 2007, the Company purchased the B participation piece (the “B piece”) of a first mortgage secured by an 844,000 square foot office building in Dallas, Texas known as 2100 Ross for $6.9 million. The B piece was originated by Wachovia Bank, N.A. and has a face value of $10 million and a stated coupon rate of 6.065%. Upon maturity in May 2012, the Company will receive a principal payment of $10 million, which produces a yield to maturity of 15.6%.

Rents Receivable and Other Assets. Rents receivable and other assets increased $9.2 million or 8.4% for the year ending December 31, 2007. The increase is primarily attributable to the increase in earnest money and loan deposits of $5.5 million for the purchase of Gateway Center in Orlando, Florida; Desert Ridge Corporate Center in Phoenix, Arizona and Citicorp Plaza in Chicago, Illinois, all of which closed during the first quarter of 2008.

Intangible Assets, Net. For the year ending December 31, 2007, intangible assets net of related amortization decreased $11.1 million or 13.6% and was primarily due to annual amortization of the existing intangible assets. Parkway accounts for its acquisitions of real estate in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 141, “Business Combinations”, which requires the fair value of the real estate acquired to be allocated to acquired tangible and intangible assets.

Notes Payable to Banks. Notes payable to banks increased $60.0 million or 39.4% for the year ending December 31, 2007. At December 31, 2007, notes payable to banks totaled $212.3 million and resulted primarily from advances under bank lines of credit to purchase additional properties and to make improvements to office properties, purchase Parkway common stock and retire existing debt offset by proceeds from the sale of assets used to reduce bank lines of credit.

On August 24 2007, the Company entered into an interest rate swap agreement with US Bank. The interest rate swap is for a $30 million notional amount and fixes the 30-day LIBOR interest rate at 4.942%, which equates to a total interest rate of 6.224%, for the period September 4, 2007 through August 31, 2008. The swap serves as a hedge on the variable interest rates on a portion of the borrowings under the Company’s $296 million line of credit.

On December 3, 2007, the Company entered into an interest rate swap agreement with JP Morgan. The interest rate swap is for a $50 million notional amount and fixes the 30-day LIBOR interest rate at 4.38%, which equates to a total interest rate of 5.68%, for the period December 31, 2007 through June 30, 2008. The swap agreement serves as a hedge of the variable interest rates on a portion of the borrowings under the Company’s $296 million line of credit.

On December 13, 2007, the Company exercised $96 million of the $110 million accordion feature of its existing unsecured line of credit facility with Wachovia Bank. The Company’s credit facility increased from $200 million to $296 million and is comprised of a $60 million term loan maturing April 2011 and a $236 million revolving loan maturing in April 2010, which includes rights to a one-year extension at Parkway’s discretion with the same terms through April 2011. The interest rate on the credit facility is currently LIBOR plus 130 basis points.

The Company’s $296 million unsecured credit facility requires compliance with a number of restrictive financial covenants, including tangible net worth, fixed charge coverage ratio, unencumbered interest coverage ratio, total debt to total asset ratio, secured debt to total asset value ratio, secured recourse debt to total asset value ratio and unencumbered pool restrictions. As of December 31, 2007 the Company was in compliance with these financial covenants.

Mortgage Notes Payable. Mortgage notes payable increased $18.5 million or 2.7% during the year ending December 31, 2007, as a result of the following (in thousands):

	Increase (Decrease)
Placement of mortgage debt by discretionary fund	$ 59,500
Principal paid on early extinguishment of debt	(25,431)
Scheduled principal payments	(15,580)
	$ 18,489

In connection with the purchase of office buildings, the Fund with Ohio PERS placed the following non-recourse first mortgages during 2007:

- On February 9, 2007, the Fund placed a $31.5 million ten-year non-recourse first mortgage with an interest rate of 5.61% in connection with the 2006 purchase of Overlook II in Atlanta, Georgia. Payments during the term will be on an interest only basis and the loan matures on March 1, 2017.
- On June 14, 2007, the Fund placed a $28 million eight-year non-recourse first mortgage with a fixed interest rate of 5.76% in connection with the purchase of 1401 Enclave Parkway in Houston, Texas. Payments during the mortgage term will be on an interest only basis for five years. Monthly principal and interest payments of $164,000 will be made over the remaining term of the loan with a balloon payment due at maturity.

On December 28, 2007, the Company completed the financing facility of The Pinnacle at Jackson Place for a total of $37.6 million. The facility consists of two mortgages, the proceeds of which will be used to complete the construction and long-term financing of the building. One of the mortgages is being funded under the Federal New Markets Tax Credit ("NMTC") program, which provides funding for development in certain geographic areas. The NMTC mortgage consists of a $23.5 million senior loan and a $6 million subordinate loan, both having a stated maturity of December 2047. Additionally, the facility consists of an additional $8.1 million direct loan with the primary arranger of the facility with a stated maturity of December 2047. The NMTC Senior Loan and the Direct Loan bear interest at LIBOR plus 190 basis points during construction; LIBOR plus 175 basis points upon completion of construction and LIBOR plus 150 basis points upon lease-up. The NMTC subordinate loan bears interest at 3%. The Direct Loan can be prepaid without penalty at anytime. The NMTC Senior and Subordinate Loans can be called by the Lender at the end of the seventh year.

The Company expects to continue seeking fixed-rate, non-recourse mortgage financing with maturities from five to ten years typically amortizing over 25 to 30 years on select office building investments as additional capital is needed. The Company targets a debt to total market capitalization rate at a percentage in the range of 45% to 50%. This rate may vary at times pending acquisitions, sales and/or equity offerings. In addition, volatility in the price of the Company's common stock may affect the debt to total market capitalization ratio. However, over time the Company plans to maintain a percentage in the range of 45% to 50%. The Company calculates this ratio by including its proportionate share of any debt on assets held in funds and partnerships. In addition to this debt ratio, the Company monitors interest, fixed charge and modified fixed charge coverage ratios. The interest coverage ratio is computed by comparing the cash interest accrued to earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization ("EBITDA"). The fixed charge coverage ratio is computed by comparing the cash interest accrued, principal payments made on mortgage loans and preferred dividends paid to EBITDA. The modified fixed charge coverage ratio is computed by comparing cash interest accrued and preferred dividends paid to EBITDA. In connection with the GEAR UP Plan, management set an internal target for the modified fixed charge coverage ratio of 2.5 times as a measure of leverage for the plan. While not a requirement of the plan, this self-imposed target serves to prevent the performance goals being met by adopting an unhealthy over-leveraging of the Company. Management believes the debt to market capitalization, interest coverage, fixed charge coverage and modified fixed charge coverage ratios provide useful information on total debt levels as well as the Company's ability to cover interest, principal and/or preferred dividend payments with current income. As of December 31, 2007, Parkway's debt to total market capitalization rate was 56.8%, which is higher than the Company's target range of 45% to 50%. The increase in the rate was due primarily to a stock price decrease.

The computation of the interest, fixed charge and modified fixed charge coverage ratios and the reconciliation of net income to EBITDA are as follows for the year ended December 31, 2007 and 2006 (in thousands):

(1) Parkway defines EBITDA, a non-GAAP financial measure, as net income before interest, income taxes, depreciation, amortization, losses on early extinguishment of debt and other gains and losses. EBITDA, as calculated by us, is not comparable to EBITDA reported by other REITs that do not define EBITDA exactly as we do.

The Company believes that EBITDA helps investors and Parkway's management analyze the Company's ability to service debt and pay cash distributions. However, the material limitations associated with using EBITDA as a non-GAAP financial measure compared to cash flows provided by operating, investing and financing activities are that EBITDA does not reflect the Company's historical cash expenditures or future cash requirements for working capital, capital expenditures or the cash required to make interest and principal payments on the Company's outstanding debt. Although EBITDA has limitations as an analytical tool, the Company compensates for the limitations by only using EBITDA to supplement GAAP financial measures. Additionally, the Company believes that investors should consider EBITDA in conjunction with net income and the other required GAAP measures of its performance and liquidity to improve their understanding of Parkway's operating results and liquidity.

Parkway views EBITDA primarily as a liquidity measure and, as such, the GAAP financial measure most directly comparable to it is cash flows provided by operating activities. Because EBITDA is not a measure of financial performance calculated in accordance with GAAP, it should not be considered in isolation or as a substitute for operating income, net income, cash flows provided by operating, investing and financing activities prepared in accordance with GAAP. The following table reconciles EBITDA to cash flows provided by operating activities for the year ended December 31, 2007 and 2006 (in thousands):

	Year Ended December 31

Subsidiary Redeemable Preferred Membership Interest. In connection with the purchase of the Capital City Plaza in Atlanta, Georgia on April 2, 2004, Parkway, through a subsidiary company, issued $15.5 million in preferred membership interests to the seller. The preferred membership interests paid the seller a 7% coupon rate and were issued to accommodate their tax planning needs. The seller previously redeemed $4.8 million of the preferred membership interest. On August 7, 2007, the seller redeemed the remaining $10.7 million of preferred membership interests.

Minority Interest – Real Estate Partnerships. During the year ending December 31, 2007, minority interest associated with real estate partnerships decreased $9.8 million. The decrease is mainly attributable to the distribution of loan proceeds offset by equity contributions for the purchase of buildings by the Fund. Item 7. "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operation – Financial Condition – Purchases, Improvements and Development," includes a description of Fund office property purchases during 2007.

Stockholders' Equity. Stockholders' equity decreased $50.4 million or 10.3% during the year ended December 31, 2007 as a result of the following (in thousands):

	Increase (Decrease)
Net income	$ 19,692
Change in market value of interest rate swap	(1,190)
Change in unrealized loss on equity securities	4
Comprehensive income	18,506

On August 3, 2007, the Board of Directors authorized the repurchase of up to 1.7 million shares of Parkway's outstanding common stock through July 30, 2008. The shares may be purchased in the open market or in privately negotiated transactions, and at times and in amounts deemed appropriate by the Company. During 2007, the Company purchased approximately 688,000 shares of common stock for $29.1 million, which equates to an average price per share of $42.36.

Results of Operations

Comments are for the year ended December 31, 2007 compared to the year ended December 31, 2006.

Net income available to common stockholders for the year ended December 31, 2007, was $14.9 million ($.96 per basic common share) as compared to net income available to common stockholders of $19.1 million ($1.34 per basic common share) for the year ended December 31, 2006. Net gains on the sale of real estate and other assets of $20.3 million were included in net income available to common stockholders for the year ended December 31, 2007. Net gains on the sale of real estate and other assets of $22.7 million were included in net income available to common stockholders for the year ended December 31, 2006.

Office and Parking Properties. The analysis below includes changes attributable to same store properties, acquisitions and dispositions of office properties. Same store properties are those that the Company owned during both the current and prior year reporting periods, excluding properties classified as discontinued operations. At December 31, 2007, same store properties consisted of 53 properties comprising 10.8 million square feet. Properties acquired in 2006 and 2007 that do not meet the definition of same store properties consisted of five properties with 970,000 square feet in 2006 and two properties with 286,000 square feet in 2007.

The following table represents revenue from office and parking properties for the years ended December 31, 2007 and 2006 (in thousands):

	Year Ended December 31
	2007	2006	Increase (Decrease)	% Change
Revenue from office and parking properties:
Same store properties	$199,312	$194,438	$ 4,874	2.5%
Properties acquired in 2006	43,622	7,123	36,499	512.4%
Properties acquired in 2007	3,711	-	3,711	0.0%
Properties disposed	32	8,446	(8,414)	-99.6%
Total revenue from office and parking properties	$246,677	$210,007	$36,670	17.5%

Revenue from office and parking properties for same store properties increased $4.9 million or 2.5% for the year ended December 31, 2007 compared to the same period for 2006. The primary reason for the increase is due to an increase in same store occupancy for same store properties for the year ended December 31, 2007 compared to December 31, 2006. Average same store occupancy was 91.7% and 90.0% for the year ended December 31, 2007 and 2006, respectively. Additionally, same store rental rates increased 2.3% for the year ended December 31, 2007 compared to the same period of 2006.

The following table represents property operating expenses for the years ended December 31, 2007 and 2006 (in thousands):

	Year Ended December 31
	2007	2006	Increase (Decrease)	% Change
Property operating expenses:
Same store properties	$ 92,166	$ 91,419	$ 747	0.8%
Properties acquired in 2006	20,270	3,352	16,918	504.7%
Properties acquired in 2007	1,679	-	1,679	0.0%
Office property development	92	-	92	0.0%
Properties disposed	105	4,359	(4,254)	-97.6%
Total property operating expenses	$114,312	$ 99,130	$ 15,182	15.3%

Property operating expenses for same store properties increased $747,000 for the year ended December 31, 2007 compared to the same period for 2006. The primary reason for the increase is due to increased contract services and personnel costs offset by utility savings.

Depreciation and amortization expense attributable to office and parking properties increased $12.9 million or 20.0% for the year ended December 31, 2007 compared to the same period for 2006 and is due to the increase in the net investment in office and parking properties because of additional purchases and improvements to properties.

Management Company Income. The decrease in management company income of $3.7 million for the year ended December 31, 2007 compared to the year ended December 31, 2006 is primarily due to the additional management fee and incentive fee recorded in 2006 as a result of the economic returns generated above an internal rate of return hurdle rate achieved over the life of the Viad joint venture. The fees were received and recognized by Parkway in the second quarter of 2006 at closing of the sale of Viad Corporate Center.

Share Based Compensation Expense. Effective January 1, 2006, Parkway adopted FASB Statement No. 123R, Share-Based Payment ("FAS 123R") using the modified-prospective transition method. In the past the Company had granted stock options for a fixed number of shares to employees and directors with an exercise price equal to or above the fair value of the shares at the date of grant. However, no stock options have been granted to employees since 2002 or to directors since 2003. Since 2003, Parkway has elected to grant restricted shares and deferred incentive share units instead of stock options. Therefore, the adoption of FAS 123R has not had a material impact on income from continuing operations, net income, cash flow from operations, cash flow from financing activities or basic and diluted earnings per share.

Share based compensation expense of $1.5 million, $863,000 and $533,000 was recognized for the years ended December 31, 2007, 2006 and 2005, respectively. Total compensation expense related to nonvested awards not yet recognized was $4.3 million as of December 31, 2007. The weighted average period over which this expense is expected to be recognized is approximately 2.7 years. Total potential compensation expense associated with shares that vest based on performance conditions is $1.5 million as of December 31, 2007.

On January 12, 2007, the Board of Directors approved the grant of 35,874 shares to officers of the Company. The shares were valued at $1.9 million and 34,875 shares will vest four years from grant date and 999 shares will vest subject to achievement of the cumulative goals of the GEAR UP Plan, which will end December 31, 2008. Compensation expense will not be recorded on the shares that vest on performance conditions until the Company determines that it is probable that the goal will be achieved. Therefore, no expense has been recorded to date for the shares that vest based on achievement of the cumulative goals of the GEAR UP Plan.

On January 14, 2008, the Board of Directors approved the grant of 34,542 restricted shares to officers of the Company. The shares are valued at $1.1 million and 34,375 shares will vest four years from grant date and 167 shares will vest subject to achievement of the GEAR UP Plan, which will end on December 31, 2008.

General and Administrative Expense. General and administrative expense increased $1.9 million from $4.7 million in 2006 to $6.6 million in 2007 and is primarily attributable to increased personnel costs, share based compensation expense and professional fees.

Gain on Sale of Real Estate, Joint Venture Interests and Other Assets. For the year ended December 31, 2007, Parkway recorded a gain on the sale of two office properties in Knoxville, Tennessee in the amount of $20.3 million. For the year ended December 31, 2006, the Company recorded a gain on the sale of Viad Corporate Center in the amount of $13.6 million, a gain on the sale of three buildings in Atlanta, Georgia in the amount of $1.6 million, a gain on the sale of Charlotte Park in the amount of $2.6 million and recognized an impairment loss on investment securities in the amount of $119,000.

Interest Expense. Interest expense, including amortization, increased $9.5 million or 21.2% for the year ended December 31, 2007 compared to the same period for 2006 and is comprised of the following (in thousands):

	Year Ended December 31
	2007	2006	Increase (Decrease)	% Change
Interest expense:
Mortgage interest expense	$41,515	$ 32,674	$8,841	27.1%
Bank line interest expense	10,563	10,105	458	4.5%
Subsidiary redeemable preferred membership interest	449	752	(303)	-40.3%
Debt prepayment expense	370	-	370	0.0%
Mortgage loan cost amortization	784	671	113	16.8%
Bank loan cost amortization	418	430	(12)	-2.8%
Total interest expense	$54,099	$ 44,632	$9,467	21.2%

Mortgage interest expense increased $8.8 million or 27.1% for the year ended December 31, 2007 compared to the same period for 2006 and is due to the net effect of new loans placed or assumed in 2007 and 2006, and the early extinguishment of two mortgages in 2007. Item 7. "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations – Financial Condition – Mortgage Notes Payable," includes a discussion of mortgages placed in 2007. The average interest rate on mortgage notes payable as of December 31, 2007 and 2006 was 5.8%.

Bank line interest expense increased $458,000 or 4.5% for the year ended December 31, 2007 compared to the same period for 2006. The change is primarily due to the increase in the average balance of bank borrowings from $168.0 million for the year ended December 31, 2006 to $171.5 million for the year ended December 31, 2007. Additionally, the weighted average interest rate on bank lines of credit increased from 5.9% during the year ended December 31, 2006 to 6.2% during the same period in 2007. The increase in bank borrowings is primarily attributable to advances for purchases of office properties and Parkway common stock.

Discontinued Operations. Discontinued operations is comprised of the following for the years ended December 31, 2007 and 2006 (in thousands):

	Year Ended December 31
	2007	2006	Increase (Decrease)	% Change
Discontinued operations:
Income from discontinued operations	$170	$ 556	$ (386)	-69.4%
Gain on sale of real estate from discontinued operations	-	5,083	(5,083)	-100.0%
Total discontinued operations	$170	$ 5,639	$(5,469)	-97.0%

The net gains and all current and prior period income from the following office property dispositions are included in discontinued operations for the years ended December 31, 2007 and 2006 (in thousands).

Office Property	Location	Square Feet	Date of Sale	Gross Sales Price	Gain (Loss) on Sale
The Park on Camelback	Phoenix, Arizona	102	09/09/05	$17,500	$4,419
250 Commonwealth	Greenville, South Carolina	46	09/14/05	4,020	(238)
2005 Dispositions		148		$21,520	$4,181
Central Station Building	St. Petersburg, Florida	133	08/02/06	$15,000	$ 211
Richmond Centre	Houston, Texas	92	11/29/06	6,906	2,018
Ashford II	Houston, Texas	59	12/07/06	5,250	2,854
2006 Dispositions		284		$27,156	$5,083

Comments are for the year ended December 31, 2006 compared to the year ended December 31, 2005.

Net income available to common stockholders for the year ended December 31, 2006, was $19.1 million ($1.34 per basic common share) as compared to net income available to common stockholders of $13.7 million ($0.97 per basic common share) for the year ended December 31, 2005. Net gains of $22.7 million were included in net income available to common stockholders for the year ended December 31, 2006. Net gains of $5.2 million were included in net income available to common stockholders for the year ended December 31, 2005.

Office and Parking Properties. The analysis below includes changes attributable to same store properties, acquisitions and dispositions of office properties. Same store properties are those that the Company owned during both the current and prior year reporting periods, excluding properties classified as discontinued operations. At December 31, 2006, same store properties consisted of 51 properties comprising 10 million square feet. Properties acquired in 2005 and 2006 that do not meet the definition of same store properties consisted of one property with 105,000 square feet in 2005 and eight properties with 2.2 million square feet in 2006.

The following table represents income from office and parking properties for the years ended December 31, 2006 and 2005 (in thousands):

	Year Ended December 31
	2006	2005	Increase (Decrease)	% Change
Income from office and parking properties:
Same store properties	$174,604	$177,769	$ (3,165)	-1.8%
Properties acquired in 2005	18,357	7,703	10,654	138.3%
Properties acquired in 2006	16,058	-	16,058	0.0%
Properties disposed	988	3,014	(2,026)	-67.2%
Total income from office and parking properties	$210,007	$188,486	$ 21,521	11.4%

Income from office and parking properties for same store properties decreased $3.2 million or 1.8% for the year ended December 31, 2006 compared to the same period for 2005. The primary reason for the decrease is due to a decline in same store occupancy for same store properties for the year ended December 31, 2006 compared to December 31, 2005. Average same store occupancy was 89.7% and 90.3% for the year ended December 31, 2006 and 2005, respectively. Additionally, lease termination fee income decreased $1.5 million for same store properties for the year ended December 31, 2006 compared to the same period for 2005.

The following table represents property operating expenses for the years ended December 31, 2006 and 2005 (in thousands):

	Year Ended December 31
	2006	2005	Increase (Decrease)	% Change
Property operating expenses:
Same store properties	$ 83,203	$ 83,272	$ (69)	-0.1%
Properties acquired in 2005	8,441	3,529	4,912	139.2%
Properties acquired in 2006	6,971	-	6,971	0.0%
Properties disposed	515	1,453	(938)	-64.6%
Total property operating expenses	$ 99,130	$ 88,254	$ 10,876	12.3%

Property operating expenses for same store properties decreased $69,000 for the year ended December 31, 2006 compared to the same period for 2005.

Depreciation and amortization expense attributable to office and parking properties increased $13.6 million or 26.7% for the year ended December 31, 2006 compared to the same period for 2005 and is due to the increase in the net investment in office and parking properties because of additional purchases and improvements to properties.

Management Company Income. The increase in management company income of $2.3 million for the year ended December 31, 2006 compared to the year ended December 31, 2005 is primarily due to the additional management fee and incentive fee of $4.2 million as a result of the economic returns generated above an internal rate of return hurdle rate achieved over the life of the Viad joint venture. The fees were received and recognized by Parkway in the second quarter of 2006 at closing of the sale of Viad Corporate Center. For the year ended December 31, 2005, management company income included acquisition fees earned on the Maitland 200 joint venture of $947,000, an incentive fee of $400,000 earned in connection with the 233 North Michigan joint venture and a commission on the sale of land on behalf of a third-party of $385,000.

Management Company Expenses. Management company expenses increased $534,000 for the year ended December 31, 2006 compared to the same period for 2005 and is attributable to increased personnel and administrative costs allocated to manage and expand fund and joint venture operations.

Share Based Compensation Expense. Effective January 1, 2006, Parkway adopted FASB Statement No. 123R, Share-Based Payment ("FAS 123R") using the modified-prospective transition method. In the past the Company had granted stock options for a fixed number of shares to employees and directors with an exercise price equal to or above the fair value of the shares at the date of grant. However, no stock options have been granted to employees since 2002 or to directors since 2003. Since 2003, Parkway has elected to grant restricted shares and deferred incentive share units instead of stock options. Therefore, the adoption of FAS 123R has not had a material impact on income from continuing operations, net income, cash flow from operations, cash flow from financing activities or basic and diluted earnings per share.

Share based compensation expense of $863,000 and $533,000 was recognized for the years ended December 31, 2006 and 2005, respectively. Total compensation expense related to nonvested awards not yet recognized was $3.8 million as of December 31, 2006.

On June 27, 2006, the Board of Directors granted 67,500 restricted shares to officers of the Company. Half of the shares will vest four years from July 1, 2006. The remaining half will vest if Parkway achieves the strategic goals of the GEAR UP Plan, which will end December 31, 2008. The Company will record compensation expense for the shares that vest based solely on service conditions beginning July 1, 2006 over a four year period. Compensation expense will not be recorded on the shares that vest based on achievement of the GEAR UP Plan until the Company determines that it is probable that the goal will be achieved. Therefore, no expense has been recorded in 2006 for the shares that vest based on performance conditions. Total potential compensation associated with shares that vest based on performance conditions is $1.5 million.

Equity in Earnings of Unconsolidated Joint Ventures. Equity in earnings of unconsolidated joint ventures decreased $745,000 for the year ended December 31, 2006 compared to the same period for 2005 and is primarily due to the sale of the Company's 30% interest in the Viad Corporate Center in June 2006.

Gain on Sale of Real Estate, Joint Venture Interests and Other Assets. For the year ended December 31, 2006, Parkway recorded a gain on the sale of the Viad Corporate Center in the amount of $13.6 million, a gain on the sale of three buildings in Atlanta in the amount of $1.6 million, a gain on the sale of Charlotte Park in the amount of $2.6 million and recognized an impairment loss on investment securities in the amount of $119,000. For the year ended December 31, 2005, the Company recorded a gain on the sale of an 80% joint venture interest in Maitland 200, an office building in Orlando, Florida, in the amount of $1.3 million and recorded an impairment loss of $340,000 on 12 acres of land in New Orleans, Louisiana.

Interest Expense. Interest expense, including amortization, increased $9.2 million or 25.9% for the year ended December 31, 2006 compared to the same period for 2005 and is comprised of the following (in thousands):

	Year Ended December 31
	2006	2005	Increase (Decrease)	% Change
Interest expense:
Mortgage interest expense	$ 32,674	$ 26,043	$ 6,631	25.5%

Bank loan cost amortization	430	504	(74)	-14.7%
Total interest expense	$ 44,632	$ 35,444	$ 9,188	25.9%

Mortgage interest expense increased $6.6 million or 25.5% for the year ended December 31, 2006 compared to the same period for 2005 and is due to the net effect of new loans placed or assumed in 2006 and 2005, the transfer of a mortgage in connection with the sale of a joint venture interest in 2005 and the refinancing of the Teachers Insurance and Annuity Association mortgage in 2005. The average interest rate on mortgage notes payable as of December 31, 2006 and 2005 was 5.8% and 5.7%, respectively.

Bank line interest expense increased $3.5 million or 52.8% for the year ended December 31, 2006 compared to the same period for 2005. The change is primarily due to the increase in the average balance of bank borrowings from $138.6 million for the year ended December 31, 2005 to $168 million for the year ended December 31, 2006. Additionally, the weighted average interest rate on bank lines of credit increased from 4.6% during the year ended December 31, 2005 to 5.9% during the same period in 2006. The increase in bank borrowings is primarily attributable to advances for purchases of office properties.

Discontinued Operations. Discontinued operations is comprised of the following for the years ended December 31, 2006 and 2005 (in thousands):

	Year Ended December 31

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Statement of Cash Flows. Cash and cash equivalents were $11.3 million and $4.5 million at December 31, 2007 and December 31, 2006, respectively. Cash flows provided by operating activities for the year ended December 31, 2007 were $75.9 million compared to $47.6 million for the same period of 2006. The change in cash flows from operating activities is primarily attributable to the effect of the timing of receipt of revenues and payment of expenses.

Cash used in investing activities was $57.0 million for the year ended December 31, 2007 compared to cash used in investing activities of $280.6 million for the same period of 2006. The decrease in cash used by investing activities of $223.6 million is primarily due to the net effect of increased office property purchases and sales in 2006, offset by an increase in office property improvements and development costs in 2007.

Cash used in financing activities was $12.0 million for the year ended December 31, 2007 compared to cash provided by financing activities of $234.2 million for the same period of 2006. The decrease in cash provided by financing activities of $246.2 million is primarily due to the net effect of early extinguishment of two mortgage notes payable in 2007, the redemption of subsidiary redeemable preferred membership interest in 2007, proceeds from the sale of office properties used to reduce bank lines of credit, the purchase of Parkway common stock and proceeds received on mortgage placements in 2006.

Liquidity. The Company plans to continue pursuing the acquisition of additional investments that meet the Company's investment criteria and intends to use bank lines of credit, proceeds from the refinancing of mortgages, proceeds from the sale of non-core assets and office properties, proceeds from the sale of portions of owned assets through joint ventures, possible sales of securities and cash balances to fund those acquisitions.

The Company's cash flows are exposed to interest rate changes primarily as a result of its lines of credit used to maintain liquidity and fund capital expenditures and expansion of the Company's real estate investment portfolio and operations. The Company's interest rate risk management objective is to limit the impact of interest rate changes on earnings and cash flows and to lower its overall borrowing costs. To achieve its objectives, the Company borrows at fixed rates, but also utilizes a four-year unsecured revolving credit facility, a five-year unsecured term-loan and two one-year unsecured lines of credit.

At December 31, 2007, Parkway had a total of $212.3 million outstanding under its unsecured bank lines of credit. Parkway's unsecured lines of credit are comprised of a four-year $236 million unsecured revolving credit facility and a five-year $60 million unsecured term loan, both led by Wachovia Bank and syndicated to nine other banks (the "$296 million line"); a $15 million unsecured line of credit with PNC Bank (the "$15 million line") and a $9 million unsecured line of credit with Trustmark National Bank (the "$9 million line"). The interest rates on the $296 million line and the $15 million line were equal to the 30-day LIBOR rate plus 80 to 130 basis points, depending upon overall Company leverage. The interest rate on the $9 million line was equal to the 30-day LIBOR rate plus 132.5 basis points. The weighted average interest rate on unsecured lines of credit was 6.0% and 6.3% at December 31, 2007 and 2006, respectively. As of December 31, 2007, the Company had $99 million available to borrow on all unsecured bank lines of credit.

On December 13, 2007, the Company exercised $96 million of the $110 million accordion feature of its existing unsecured line of credit facility with Wachovia Bank. The Company's credit facility increased from $200 million to $296 million and is comprised of a $60 million term loan maturing April 2011 and a $236 million revolving loan maturing in April 2010, which includes rights to a one-year extension with the same terms through April 2011. The interest rate on the credit facility is currently LIBOR plus 130 basis points. The Company pays an annual administration fee of $35,000 and fees on the unused portion of the revolver ranging between 12.5 and 20 basis points based upon overall Company leverage, with the rate set at 12.5 basis points at December 31, 2007.

The $15 million line matures January 28, 2009, is unsecured and is expected to fund the daily cash requirements of the Company's treasury management system. The $15 million line has a current interest rate equal to the 30-day LIBOR rate plus 130 basis points as of December 31, 2007. Under the $15 million line, the Company does not pay annual administration fees or fees on the unused portion of the line.

The $9 million line with Trustmark National Bank is interest only, has a current interest rate equal to the 30-day LIBOR rate plus 132.5 basis points and matures December 7, 2008. The proceeds of the loan were used to finance the construction of the City Centre Garage, which was completed in 2005.

To protect against the potential for rapidly rising interest rates, the Company entered into interest rate swap agreements in 2007, 2005 and 2004. The Company designated the swaps as hedges of the variable interest rates on the Company's borrowings under the Wachovia unsecured revolving credit facility. Accordingly, changes in the fair value of the swap are recognized in accumulated other comprehensive income until the hedged item is recognized in earnings. The Company's interest rate hedge contracts as of December 31, 2007 and 2006 are summarized as follows (in thousands):

Type of Hedge	Notional Amount	Maturity Date	Reference Rate	Fixed Rate	Fair Market Value December 31
					2007	2006

At December 31, 2007, the Company had $714.5 million in mortgage notes payable with an average interest rate of 5.8% secured by office properties and $212.3 million drawn under bank lines of credit. Parkway's pro rata share of unconsolidated joint venture debt was $9.8 million with an average interest rate of 5.1% at December 31, 2007. Based on the Company's total market capitalization of approximately $1.4 billion at December 31, 2007 (using the December 31, 2007 closing price of $36.98 per common share), the Company's debt represented approximately 56.8% of its total market capitalization. The Company targets a debt to total market capitalization rate at a percentage in the range of 45% to 50%. This rate may vary at times pending acquisitions, sales and/or equity offerings. In addition, volatility in the price of the Company's common stock may affect the debt to total market capitalization ratio. However, over time the Company plans to maintain a percentage in the range of 45% to 50%. The increase in the debt to total market capitalization rate at December 31, 2007 was due primarily to a stock price decrease.

In addition to the debt to total market capitalization ratio, the Company also monitors interest, fixed charge and modified fixed charge coverage ratios. The interest coverage ratio is computed by comparing the cash interest accrued to earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization ("EBITDA"). This ratio for the years ended December 31, 2007 and 2006 was 2.48 and 2.60 times, respectively. The fixed charge coverage ratio is computed by comparing the cash interest accrued, principal payments made on mortgage loans and preferred dividends paid to EBITDA. This ratio for the years ended December 31, 2007 and 2006 was 1.74 and 1.73 times, respectively. The modified fixed charge coverage ratio is computed by comparing the cash interest accrued and preferred dividends paid to EBITDA. This ratio for the years ended December 31, 2007 and 2006 was 2.25 and 2.26 times, respectively. In connection with the GEAR UP Plan, management set an internal target for the modified fixed charge coverage ratio of 2.5 times as a measure of leverage for the plan. While not a requirement of the plan, this self-imposed target serves to prevent the performance goals being met by adopting an unhealthy over-leveraging of the Company. Management believes the debt to market capitalization, interest coverage, fixed charge coverage and modified fixed charge coverage ratios provide useful information on total debt levels as well as the Company's ability to cover interest, principal and/or preferred dividend payments with current income.

The table below presents the principal payments due and weighted average interest rates for the mortgage notes payable as of December 31, 2007.

Thereafter	6.3%	350,179
Total		$714,501
Fair value at 12/31/07		$714,590

The Company presently has plans to make additional capital improvements at its office properties in 2008 of approximately $48.2 million. These expenses include tenant improvements, leasing costs, capitalized acquisition costs and capitalized building improvements. Approximately $17.7 million of these improvements relate to upgrades on properties acquired in recent years that were anticipated at the time of purchase. All such improvements are expected to be financed by cash flow from the properties, contributions from partners and advances on the bank lines of credit.

In 2006, the Company announced the development of a 194,000 square foot Class A+ office building in Jackson, Mississippi known as The Pinnacle at Jackson Place, adjacent to the Company's headquarters building. The estimated cost of the development is $48.5 million and it is expected to be completed in the fall of 2008. In 2008, the Company expects to incur approximately $22.4 million in construction costs. The Company has received commitments to lease approximately 70% of the new office space from four major customers. Parkway is considering a joint venture structure for the development whereby Parkway will retain an ownership interest of approximately 20%. The development is designed to utilize benefits available under the Gulf Opportunity Zone Act for new developments in areas affected by Hurricane Katrina.

On December 28, 2007, the Company completed the financing facility of The Pinnacle at Jackson Place for a total of $37.6 million. The facility consists of two mortgages, proceeds of which will be used to complete the construction and long-term financing of the building. One of the mortgages is being funded under the Federal New Markets Tax Credit ("NMTC") program which provides funding for development in certain geographic areas or areas that have been designated for Federal relief under the Gulf Opportunity Zone Act. The NMTC mortgage consists of a $23.5 million senior loan and a $6 million subordinate loan, both having a stated maturity of December 2047. Additionally, the facility consists of an $8.1 million loan with the primary arranger of the facility with a stated maturity of December 2047. The NMTC Senior Loan and the Direct Loan bear interest at LIBOR plus 190 basis points during construction; LIBOR plus 175 basis points upon completion of construction and LIBOR plus 150 basis points upon lease-up. The NMTC subordinate loan bears interest at 3%. The Direct Loan can be prepaid without penalty at anytime. The NMTC Senior and Subordinate Loans can be called by the lender at the end of the seventh year.

In accordance with the GEAR UP Plan, the Company made three investments in the first quarter of 2008 on behalf of the Fund, totaling $236.6 million. Of the total purchase price, $215 million represents investments by the Fund and $21.6 million represents an additional investment by Parkway. The investments were funded with $142.2 million in mortgage debt and $94.4 million in equity contributions from partners. Parkway's share of the total equity contribution was $30.1 million and was funded with advances from unsecured bank lines of credit. With these three investments, the Fund with Ohio PERS is fully invested. Additionally, the Company continues to pursue its strategy of selling smaller assets, or assets in smaller markets that do not fit with the Company's strategy of owning larger assets in institutional markets. Item 7. "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations – Overview – Strategic Planning," includes a full discussion of the GEAR UP Plan.

In the third quarter of 2008 Parkway has only one mortgage note payable maturing for approximately $40 million that is secured by the Capital City Plaza office property in Atlanta, Georgia. The mortgage will be paid off with advances from unsecured bank lines of credit.

The Company anticipates that its current cash balance, operating cash flows, contributions from partners and borrowings (including borrowings under the working capital line of credit) will be adequate to pay the Company's (i) operating and administrative expenses, (ii) debt service obligations, (iii) distributions to shareholders, (iv) capital improvements, and (v) normal repair and maintenance expenses at its properties, both in the short and long term. In addition, the Company may use proceeds from sales of assets, possible sales of securities and borrowings to fund property acquisitions.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

As of December 31, 2007, the Company was invested in four unconsolidated joint ventures with unrelated investors. These joint ventures are accounted for using the equity method of accounting, as Parkway does not control, but has the ability to significantly influence the operations of the joint ventures and is not the primary beneficiary, as that term is defined in FIN 46R. As a result, the assets and liabilities of the joint ventures are not included in Parkway's consolidated balance sheet. Information relating to the unconsolidated joint ventures at December 31, 2007 is detailed below (in thousands).

Joint Ventures	Property Name	Location	Parkway's Ownership Interest
Wink-Parkway Partnership	Wink Building	New Orleans, LA	50.0%
Parkway Joint Venture, LLC ("Jackson JV")	UBS Building/River Oaks	Jackson, MS	20.0%
RubiconPark I, LLC ("Rubicon JV")	Lakewood/Falls Pointe	Atlanta, GA	20.0%
	Carmel Crossing	Charlotte, NC
RubiconPark II, LLC ("Maitland JV")	Maitland 200	Orlando, FL	20.0%

Cash distributions from unconsolidated joint ventures are made to each partner based on their percentage of ownership in each entity. Cash distributions made to partners in joint ventures where the percentage of debt assumed is disproportionate to the ownership percentage in the venture is distributed based on each partner's share of cash available for distribution before debt service, based on their ownership percentage, less the partner's share of debt service based on the percentage of debt assumed by each partner.

Parkway provides management, construction and leasing services for all of the unconsolidated joint ventures except for the Wink-Parkway Partnership, and receives market based fees for these services. The portion of fees earned on unconsolidated joint ventures attributable to Parkway's ownership interest is eliminated in consolidation.

The following information summarizes the financial position at December 31, 2007 for the investments in which we held an interest at December 31, 2007 (in thousands):

Summary of Financial Position	Total Assets	Mortgage Debt (1)	Total Equity	Parkway's Investment

(1) The mortgage debt, all of which is non-recourse, is collateralized by the individual real estate property or properties within each venture, the net book value of which totaled $113.4 million at December 31, 2007. Parkway's proportionate share of the non-recourse mortgage debt totaled $9.8 million at December 31, 2007.

The following information summarizes the results of operations for the year ended December 31, 2007 for investments which impacted our 2007 results of operations (in thousands):

Summary of Operations	Total Revenue	Net Income (Loss)	Parkway's Share of Equity in Earnings of Unconsolidated Joint Ventures	Parkway's Share of Gain on Sale of Real Estate	Parkway's Share of Net Income

- (1) Phoenix OfficeInvest, LLC is a joint venture that owned Viad Corporate Center, an office property in Phoenix, Arizona, and a venture in which Parkway owned a 25% interest. On June 23, 2006, the venture sold Viad Corporate Center. Parkway received net proceeds of $15.4 million and recognized a gain of $13.6 million from the sale.

Contractual Obligations

We have contractual obligations including mortgage notes payable and lease obligations. The table below presents total payments due under specified contractual obligations by year through maturity as of December 31, 2007 (in thousands):

Contractual Obligations	Payments Due By Period
	Total	2008	2009	2010	2011	2012	Thereafter

The amounts presented above for mortgage notes payable and capital lease obligations include principal and interest payments. The amounts presented for purchase obligations represent the remaining tenant improvement allowances for leases in place and commitments for building improvements and development costs as of December 31, 2007.

On September 1, 2007, Parkway entered into a lease for the parking garage known as Parking at Jackson Place, which is adjacent to the Company's headquarters and The Pinnacle in Jackson, Mississippi. The term of the lease is 60 years with a renewal option for an additional 30 years. Since the fair value of the land is greater than 25% of the total value of the property, the Company is accounting for the component of the lease attributable to the land as an operating lease and the component attributable to the building as a capital lease. The garage was recorded at a cost of $4.1 million.

Parkway has a 75% ownership interest in MBALP and acts as the managing general partner. MBALP is primarily funded with financing from a third party lender, which is secured by a first lien on the rental property of the partnership. The creditors of MBALP do not have recourse to Parkway. In acting as the general partner, Parkway is committed to providing additional funding to partnership deficits up to an aggregate amount of $1 million. To date Parkway has not been required to provide any additional funding to MBALP.

In connection with the 10-year $148.5 million non-recourse first mortgage on One Illinois Center in Chicago, Illinois, the Company delivered $1.4 million in letters of credit to satisfy the various escrow requirements made by the lender. The letters of credit expire June 30, 2008.

Critical Accounting Estimates

General. Parkway's investments are generally made in office properties. Therefore, the Company is generally subject to risks incidental to the ownership of real estate. Some of these risks include changes in supply or demand for office properties or tenants for such properties in an area in which we have buildings; changes in real estate tax rates; and changes in federal income tax, real estate and zoning laws. The Company's discussion and analysis of financial condition and results of operations is based upon its Consolidated Financial Statements. The Company's Consolidated Financial Statements include the accounts of Parkway Properties, Inc., its majority owned subsidiaries and joint ventures in which the Company has a controlling interest. Parkway also consolidates subsidiaries where the entity is a variable interest entity and Parkway is the primary beneficiary, as defined in FASB Interpretation 46R "Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities" ("FIN 46R"). The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires us to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses for the reporting period. Actual results could differ from our estimates.

The accounting policies and estimates used in the preparation of our Consolidated Financial Statements are more fully described in the notes to our Consolidated Financial Statements. However, certain of the Company's significant accounting policies are considered critical accounting policies due to the increased level of assumptions used or estimates made in determining their impact on our Consolidated Financial Statements.

Parkway considers critical accounting policies and estimates to be those used in the determination of the reported amounts and disclosure related to the following:

- (1) Impairment or disposal of long-lived assets;
- (2) Depreciable lives applied to real estate and improvements to real estate;
- (3) Initial recognition, measurement and allocation of the cost of real estate acquired; and
- (4) Allowance for doubtful accounts

Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets. Changes in the supply or demand of tenants for our properties could impact our ability to fill available space. Should a significant amount of available space exist for an extended period, our investment in a particular office building may be impaired. We evaluate our real estate assets upon the occurrence of significant adverse changes to assess whether any impairment indicators are present that affect the recovery of the carrying amount.

Real estate assets are classified as held for sale or held and used in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 144, "Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets". In accordance with SFAS No. 144, the Company records assets held for sale at the lower of carrying amount or fair value less cost to sell. With respect to assets classified as held and used, we periodically review these assets to determine whether our carrying amount will be recovered. A long-lived asset is considered impaired if its carrying value exceeds the estimated fair value. Fair value is based on the estimated and realizable contract sales price (if available) for the asset less estimated costs to sell. If a sales price is not available, the estimated undiscounted cash flows of the asset for the remaining useful life are used to determine if the carrying value is recoverable. The cash flow estimates are based on assumptions about employing the asset for its remaining useful life. Factors considered in projecting future cash flows include but are not limited to: Existing leases, future leasing and terminations, market rental rates, capital improvements, tenant improvements, leasing commissions, inflation and other known variables. Upon impairment, the Company would recognize an impairment loss to reduce the carrying value of the long-lived asset to our estimate of its fair value. The estimate of fair value and cash flows to be generated from properties requires us to make assumptions. If one or more assumptions prove incorrect or if the assumptions change, the recognition of an impairment loss on one or more properties may be necessary in the future, which would result in a decrease in net income.

Parkway recorded an impairment loss on equity securities in the amount of $11,000 and $119,000 in 2007 and 2006, respectively, and an impairment loss on 12 acres of land in New Orleans, Louisiana in the amount of $340,000 in 2005.

Depreciable Lives Applied to Real Estate and Improvements to Real Estate. Depreciation of buildings and parking garages is computed using the straight-line method over an estimated useful life of 40 years. Depreciation of building improvements is computed using the straight-line method over the estimated useful life of the improvement. If our estimate of useful lives proves to be incorrect, the depreciation expense recognized would also be incorrect. Therefore, a change in the estimated useful lives assigned to buildings and improvements would result in either an increase or decrease in depreciation expense, which would result in an increase or decrease in earnings.

Initial Recognition, Measurement and Allocation of the Cost of Real Estate Acquired. Parkway accounts for its acquisitions of real estate in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 141, "Business Combinations," which requires the fair value of the real estate acquired to be allocated to the acquired tangible assets, consisting of land, building, garage, building improvements and tenant improvements, identified intangible assets and liabilities, consisting of the value of above and below market leases, customer relationships, lease costs and the value of in-place leases and any value attributable to above or below market debt assumed with the acquisition.

Parkway allocates the purchase price of properties to tangible and intangible assets based on fair values. The Company determines the fair value of the tangible and intangible components using a variety of methods and assumptions all of which result in an approximation of fair value. Differing assumptions and methods could result in different estimates of fair value and thus, a different purchase price allocation and corresponding increase or decrease in depreciation and amortization expense.

Allowance for Doubtful Accounts. Accounts receivable are reduced by an allowance for amounts that may become uncollectible in the future. Our receivable balance is comprised primarily of rents and operating expense recoveries due from customers. Change in the supply of or demand for office properties could impact our customers' ability to honor their lease obligations, which could in turn affect our recorded revenues and estimates of the collectibility of our receivables. Revenue from real estate rentals is recognized and accrued as earned on a pro rata basis over the term of the lease. We regularly evaluate the adequacy of our allowance for doubtful accounts considering such factors as credit quality of our customers, delinquency of payment, historical trends and current economic conditions. We provide an allowance for doubtful accounts for customer balances that are over 90 days past due and for specific customer receivables for which collection is considered doubtful. Actual results may differ from these estimates under different assumptions or conditions, which could result in an increase or decrease in bad debt expense.

Funds From Operations

Management believes that funds from operations available to common shareholders ("FFO") is an appropriate measure of performance for equity REITs and computes this measure in accordance with the National Association of Real Estate Investment Trusts' ("NAREIT") definition of FFO. Funds from operations is defined by NAREIT as net income (computed in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles "GAAP"), excluding gains or losses from sales of property and extraordinary items under GAAP, plus depreciation and amortization, and after adjustments to derive the Company's pro rata share of FFO of consolidated and unconsolidated joint ventures. Further, the Company does not adjust FFO to eliminate the effects of non-recurring charges. The Company believes that FFO is a meaningful supplemental measure of its operating performance because historical cost accounting for real estate assets in accordance with GAAP implicitly assumes that the value of real estate assets diminishes predictably over time, as reflected through depreciation and amortization expenses. However, since real estate values have historically risen or fallen with market and other conditions, many industry investors and analysts have considered presentation of operating results for real estate companies that use historical cost accounting to be insufficient. Thus, NAREIT created FFO as a supplemental measure of operating performance for real estate investment trusts that excludes historical cost depreciation and amortization, among other items, from net income, as defined by GAAP. The Company believes that the use of FFO, combined with the required GAAP presentations, has been beneficial in improving the understanding of operating results of real estate investment trusts among the investing public and making comparisons of operating results among such companies more meaningful. FFO as reported by Parkway may not be comparable to FFO reported by other REITs that do not define the term in accordance with the current NAREIT definition. Funds from operations do not represent cash generated from operating activities in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States and is not an indication of cash available to fund cash needs. Funds from operations should not be considered an alternative to net income as an indicator of the Company's operating performance or as an alternative to cash flow as a measure of liquidity.

The following table presents a reconciliation of the Company's net income to FFO for the years ended December 31, 2007 and 2006 (in thousands, except per share data):

Inflation

Inflation has not had a significant impact on the Company because of the relatively low inflation rate in the Company's geographic areas of operation. Additionally, most of the leases require the customers to pay their pro rata share of operating expenses, including common area maintenance, real estate taxes, utilities and insurance, thereby reducing the Company's exposure to increases in operating expenses resulting from inflation. The Company's leases typically have three to seven year terms, which may enable the Company to replace existing leases with new leases at market base rent, which may be higher or lower than the existing lease rate.

Insurance. Following the devastating hurricanes of 2004 and 2005, the insurance market for properties located in coastal and wind prone areas of the country has been extremely volatile. Following a mild hurricane season in 2006, insurance premiums moderated and the Company renewed its property and casualty insurance policy on April 1, 2007, with an overall decrease in premium cost compared to the previous 16-month policy period. While most individual properties experienced a decline in premium, properties located in coastal or wind prone areas did experience rate increases. Increases or decreases in insurance costs directly related to each property are passed through to customers to the extent allowed by the lease terms. Upon renewal, the deductible for wind damage for properties located in Florida increased from 2% of replacement cost to 5% of replacement cost and for properties located in Harris and Fort Bend County in Texas, deductibles for wind damage increased from 2% to 3% of replacement cost. The new policy will be in effect until April 1, 2008, at which time these lines of coverage will be renewed under market conditions that exist at that time.

Forward-Looking Statements

In addition to historical information, certain sections of this Form 10-K may contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, such as those that are not in the present or past tense, that discuss the Company's beliefs, expectations or intentions or those pertaining to the Company's capital resources, profitability and portfolio performance and estimates of market rental rates. Forward-looking statements involve numerous risks and uncertainties. The following factors, among others discussed herein and in the Company's filings under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, could cause actual results and future events to differ materially from those set forth or contemplated in the forward-looking statements: defaults or non-renewal of leases, increased interest rates and operating costs, failure to obtain necessary outside financing, difficulties in identifying properties to acquire and in effecting acquisitions, failure to qualify as a real estate investment trust under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, environmental uncertainties, risks related to natural disasters, financial market fluctuations, changes in real estate and zoning laws and increases in real property tax rates. The success of the Company also depends upon the trends of the economy, including interest rates, income tax laws, governmental regulation, legislation, population changes and those risk factors discussed elsewhere in this Form 10-K and in the Company's filings under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on forward-looking statements, which reflect management's analysis only as the date hereof. The Company assumes no obligation to update forward-looking statements.

ITEM 7A. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk.

See information appearing under the caption "Liquidity" appearing in Item 7. "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations".

As of December 31, 2007, total outstanding debt was $926.9 million of which $212.3 million or 23% is variable rate debt. If market rates of interest on the variable rate debt fluctuate by 10% (or approximately 60 basis points), the change in interest expense on the variable rate debt would increase or decrease future earnings and cash flows by approximately $1.3 million annually.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

The Shareholders and Board of Directors of Parkway Properties, Inc.

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheets of Parkway Properties, Inc. and subsidiaries as of December 31, 2007 and 2006, and the related consolidated statements of income, stockholders' equity, and cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2007. Our audits also included the financial statement schedules listed in the index at Item 15(a)2. These financial statements and financial statement schedules are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements and financial statement schedules based on our audits. We did not audit the financial statements of Parkway Properties Office Fund, LP, a consolidated joint venture, which statements reflect total assets of $276.7 million and $225.0 million as of December 31, 2007 and 2006, respectively, and total revenues of $33.5 million and $6.8 million for the years ended December 31, 2007 and 2006, respectively. Those statements were audited by other auditors whose report has been furnished to us, and our opinion, insofar as it relates to the amounts included for Parkway Properties Office Fund, LP, is based solely on the report of the other auditors.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits and the report of other auditors provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, based on our audits and the report of other auditors, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of Parkway Properties, Inc. and subsidiaries at December 31, 2007 and 2006 and the consolidated results of their operations and their cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2007, in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles. Also, in our opinion, the related financial statement schedules, when considered in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole, presents fairly in all material respects the information set forth therein.

We also have audited, in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States), Parkway Properties, Inc.'s internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2007, based on criteria established in Internal Control-Integrated Framework issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission and our report dated February 27, 2008 expressed an unqualified opinion thereon.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

The Partners of Parkway Properties Office Fund, LP:

We have audited the consolidated historical-cost balance sheets of Parkway Properties Office Fund, LP (the Partnership) as of December 31, 2007 and 2006, and the related consolidated historical-cost statements of operations, changes in partners' capital and cash flows for the years then ended, not included herein. We also have audited the supplemental consolidated current-value balance sheets of the Partnership as of December 31, 2007 and 2006, and the related supplemental consolidated current-value statements of operations and changes in partners' capital for the years then ended, not included herein. These consolidated financial statements are the responsibility of the Partnership's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the consolidated historical-cost financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Parkway Properties Office Fund, LP as of December 31, 2007 and 2006, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended, in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

As described in note 11, the supplemental consolidated current-value financial statements have been prepared by management to present relevant financial information that is not provided by the consolidated historical-cost financial statements and are not intended to be a presentation in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles. In addition, the supplemental consolidated current-value financial statements do not purport to present the net realizable, liquidation, or market value of the Partnership as a whole. Furthermore, amounts ultimately realized by the Partnership from the disposal of properties may vary significantly from the current values presented.

In our opinion, the supplemental consolidated current-value financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the information set forth in them on the basis of accounting described in note 11.

Our audits were made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the consolidated historical-cost and consolidated current-value financial statements taken as a whole. The consolidating information included in Schedules I - IV is presented for purposes of additional analysis of the consolidated current-value financial statements rather than to present the financial position and results of operations of the individual companies. The consolidating information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audits of the consolidated current-value financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the consolidated current-value financial statements taken as a whole.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
December 31, 2007

NOTE A - Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation and Principles of Consolidation

The accompanying financial statements are prepared following U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP) and the requirements of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). The financial statements include all normal and recurring adjustments that are necessary for a fair presentation of financial position and operating results.

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Parkway Properties, Inc. ("Parkway" or "the Company"), its wholly-owned subsidiaries and joint ventures in which the Company has a controlling interest. The other partners' equity interests in the consolidated joint ventures are reflected as minority interests in the consolidated financial statements. Parkway also consolidates subsidiaries where the entity is a variable interest entity and Parkway is the primary beneficiary, as defined in FASB Interpretation 46R "Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities" ("FIN 46R"). All significant intercompany transactions and accounts have been eliminated in the accompanying financial statements.

The Company determines consolidation for joint ventures based on standards set forth in EITF 96-16, "Investor's Accounting for an Investee When the Investor Has a Majority of the Voting Interest but the Minority Shareholder or Shareholders Have Certain Approval or Veto Rights"; EITF 04-5, "Determining Whether a General Partner, or the General Partners as a Group, Controls a Limited Partnership or Similar Entity When the Limited Partners Have Certain Rights"; Statement of Position 78-9, "Accounting for Investments in Real Estate Ventures"; and FIN 46R. Based on the guidance set forth in these pronouncements, the Company consolidates certain joint ventures where it exercises significant control over major operating and management decisions, or where the Company is the sole general partner and the limited partners do not possess kick-out rights or other substantive participating rights or where the entity is a variable interest entity and Parkway is the primary beneficiary. The equity method of accounting is used for those joint ventures that do not meet the criteria for consolidation and where Parkway exercises significant influence but does not control these joint ventures.

Business

The Company's operations are exclusively in the real estate industry, principally the operation, leasing, acquisition and ownership of office buildings.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Real Estate Properties

Real estate properties are stated at the lower of cost less accumulated depreciation, or fair value. Cost includes the carrying amount of the Company's investment plus any additional consideration paid, liabilities assumed, costs of securing title and improvements made subsequent to acquisition. Depreciation of buildings and building improvements is computed using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets. Depreciation of tenant improvements, including personal property, is computed using the straight-line method over the lesser of useful life or the term of the lease involved. Maintenance and repair expenses are charged to expense as incurred.

When the Company is the owner of the tenant improvements, the leased space is ready for its intended use when the tenant improvements are substantially completed. In limited instances, when the tenant is the owner of the tenant improvements, straight-line rent is recognized when the tenant takes possession of the unimproved space.

The determination of who owns the tenant improvements is subject to significant judgment. In making that determination, the Company considers various factors, including, but not limited to:

- Whether the lease agreement specifies what or how the tenant improvement allowance is spent;
- Whether the tenant improvements are unique to the tenant or general-purpose in nature;
- Whether the ownership of the tenant improvements remains with the landlord or remains with the tenant at the end of the lease term;
- Who bears substantial construction risk and cost of the tenant improvements.

When the Company is the owner of the tenant improvements, the cost to construct the tenant improvements is recorded as an asset and depreciated over the shorter of the asset's useful life or the lease term. To the extent Parkway funded all or a portion of an improvement that is owned by the tenant, the Company treats the cost as a lease incentive and amortizes the costs as a reduction to rental revenue on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease. Lease incentives may also include cash payments to or on behalf of tenants or the buy-out of a prospective tenant's existing lease obligation with a third party and are amortized as a reduction to rental revenue on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease.

Balances of major classes of depreciable assets (in thousands) and their respective estimated useful lives are:

Asset Category	Estimated Useful Life	December 31 2007	December 31 2006
Building and garage	40 years	$1,163,974	$1,157,534
Building improvements	7 to 40 years	90,563	65,109
Tenant improvements	Lesser of useful life or term of lease	149,391	145,742
		$1,403,928	$1,368,385

Depreciation expense related to these assets of $59.7 million, $49.7 million and $40.5 million was recognized in 2007, 2006 and 2005, respectively.

The Company evaluates its real estate assets upon occurrence of significant adverse changes in their operations to assess whether any impairment indicators are present that affect the recovery of the carrying amount. The carrying amount includes the net book value of tangible and intangible assets. Real estate assets are classified as held for sale or held and used in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 144, "Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets". In accordance with SFAS No. 144, Parkway records assets held for sale at the lower of carrying amount or fair value less cost to sell. With respect to assets classified as held and used, Parkway recognizes an impairment loss to the extent the carrying amount is not recoverable and exceeds its fair value. Fair value is based on the estimated and realizable contract sales price (if available) for the asset less estimated costs to sell. If a sales price is not available, the estimated undiscounted cash flows of the asset for the remaining useful life are used to determine if the carrying value is recoverable. The cash flow estimates are based on assumptions about employing the asset for its remaining useful life. Factors considered in projecting future cash flows include but are not limited to: existing leases, future leasing and terminations, market rental rates, capital improvements, tenant improvements, leasing commissions, inflation and other known variables. Upon impairment, Parkway recognizes an impairment loss to reduce the carrying value of the real estate asset to the estimate of its fair value.

Gains from sales of real estate are recognized based on the provisions of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 66 which require upon closing, the transfer of rights of ownership to the purchaser, receipt from the purchaser of an adequate cash down payment and adequate continuing investment by the purchaser. If the requirements for recognizing gains have not been met, the sale and related costs are recorded, but the gain is deferred and recognized generally on the installment method of accounting as collections are received.

Land available for sale (see Note F) is carried at the lower of cost or fair value minus estimated cost to sell.

Purchase Price Allocation

Parkway accounts for its acquisitions of real estate in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 141, "Business Combinations" ("SFAS 141"). Parkway allocates the purchase price of real estate to tangible and intangible assets and liabilities based on fair values. Tangible assets consist of land, building, garage, building improvements and tenant improvements. Intangible assets and liabilities consist of the value of above and below market leases, lease costs, the value of in-place leases, customer relationships and any value attributable to above or below market debt assumed with the acquisition.

The Company may engage independent third-party appraisers to perform the valuations used to determine the fair value of these identifiable tangible and intangible assets. These valuations and appraisals use commonly employed valuation techniques, such as discounted cash flow analyses. Factors considered in these analyses include an estimate of carrying costs during hypothetical expected lease-up periods considering current market conditions, and costs to execute similar leases. Parkway also considers information obtained about each property as a result of its pre-acquisition due diligence, marketing and leasing activities in estimating the fair value of the tangible and intangible assets acquired. In estimating carrying costs, the Company includes real estate taxes, insurance and other operating expenses and estimates of lost rentals at market rates during the expected lease-up periods depending on specific local market conditions and depending on the type of property acquired. Additionally, Parkway estimates costs to execute similar leases including leasing commissions, legal and other related expenses to the extent that such costs are not already incurred in connection with a new lease origination as part of the transaction.

The fair value of above or below market in-place lease values is the present value of the difference between the contractual amount to be paid pursuant to the in-place lease and the estimated current market lease rate expected over the remaining non-cancelable life of the lease. The capitalized above market lease values are amortized as a reduction of rental income over the remaining term of the respective leases. The capitalized below market lease values are amortized as an increase to rental income over the remaining term of the respective leases. Total amortization for above and below market leases was a net reduction of rental income of $788,000, $1.6 million and $2.0 million for the years ending December 31, 2007, 2006 and 2005, respectively.

Amortization of above and below market leases is projected as an increase (decrease) to rental income as follows for the next five years (in thousands):

	Amount
2008	$(319)
2009	(151)
2010	123

The fair value of customer relationships represents the quantifiable benefits related to developing a relationship with the current customer. Examples of these benefits would be growth prospects for developing new business with the existing customer, the ability to attract similar customers to the building, the tenant's credit quality and expectations of lease renewals (including those existing under the terms of the lease agreement or management's expectation for renewal), among other factors. Management believes that there would typically be little value associated with customer relationships that is in excess of the value of the in-place lease and their typical renewal rates. Any value assigned to customer relationships is amortized over the remaining terms of the respective leases plus any expected renewal periods as a lease cost amortization expense. Currently, the Company has no value assigned to customer relationships.

The fair value of at market in-place leases is the present value associated with re-leasing the in-place lease as if the property was vacant. Factors to be considered include estimates of carrying costs during hypothetical expected lease-up periods considering current market conditions and costs to execute similar leases. In estimating carrying costs, the Company includes real estate taxes, insurance and other operating expenses and estimates of lost rentals at market rates during the expected lease-up periods. The value of at market in-place leases is amortized as a lease cost amortization expense over the expected life of the lease, including expected renewals. Total amortization expense for the value of in-place leases was $9.0 million, $8.4 million and $5.5 million for the years ending December 31, 2007, 2006 and 2005, respectively.

Amortization expense for the value of in-place leases is projected as follows for the next five years (in thousands):

	Amount
2008	$7,750
2009	7,628
2010	7,290
2011	6,906
2012	5,971

A separate component of the fair value of in-place leases is identified for the lease costs. The fair value of lease costs represents the estimated commissions and legal fees paid in connection with the current leases in place. Lease costs are amortized over the non-cancelable terms of the respective leases as lease cost amortization expense.

In no event does the amortization period for intangible assets exceed the remaining depreciable life of the building. Should a customer terminate its lease, the unamortized portion of the tenant improvement, in-place lease value, lease cost and customer relationship intangibles would be charged to expense. Additionally, the unamortized portion of above market in-place leases would be recorded as a reduction to rental income and the below market in-place lease value would be recorded as an increase to rental income.

Mortgage Loan Receivable

Parkway records its mortgage loan receivable at the stated principal amount net any premium or discount. As of December 31, 2007 the carrying amount of the mortgage loan receivable was $7.0 million. The Company recognizes the premium or discount over the life of the mortgage loan using the effective interest method. Parkway evaluates the collectability of principal and interest on its mortgage loans, if circumstances warrant, to determine whether it is impaired. A loan is impaired when based on current information and events, it is probable that the Company will be unable to collect all amounts due according to the existing contractual terms. When a loan is impaired, the amount of the loss accrual is calculated by comparing the recorded investment to the value determined by discounting the expected future cash flow at the loan's effective interest rate. No impairment losses were recognized in 2007 associated with the mortgage loan receivable.

Investment in Unconsolidated Joint Ventures

As of December 31, 2007 and 2006, Parkway had a non-controlling interest in four unconsolidated joint ventures, which are accounted for using the equity method of accounting. Therefore, Parkway reports its share of income and losses based on its economic interest in these entities, as measured by its ownership interest or expected cash distributions if materially different than distributions based on ownership interest. Parkway classifies its interests as non-controlling when it holds less than a majority voting interest in the entity and does not have the sole ability, based on the terms of the joint venture agreements, to make decisions about the entities' activities regarding items such as major leases, encumbering the entities with debt, major capital expenditures and whether to dispose of the entities.

Allowance for Doubtful Accounts

Accounts receivable are reduced by an allowance for amounts that the Company estimates to be uncollectible. The receivable balance is comprised primarily of rent and expense reimbursement income due from the customers. Management evaluates the adequacy of the allowance for doubtful accounts considering such factors as the credit quality of our customers, delinquency of payment, historical trends and current economic conditions. The Company provides an allowance for doubtful accounts for customer balances that are over 90 days past due and for specific customer receivables for which collection is considered doubtful.

Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid investments with a maturity of three months or less when purchased to be cash equivalents.

Minority Interest

Minority Interest – Unit Holders

Minority interest in Parkway Properties LP (the “Operating Partnership”) represents the limited partner’s proportionate share of the equity in the operating partnership. The operating partnership pays a regular quarterly distribution to the holders of operating units. Income is allocated to minority interest based on the economic percentage ownership during the year. As of December 31, 2007, the minority interest in our operating partnership consisted of 1,318 operating units held by a party other than the Company.

Minority Interest – Real Estate Partnerships

The Company has an interest in two joint ventures that are included in its consolidated financial statements. Parkway has a 75.025% interest in Parkway Moore, LLC, which owns an interest in Moore Buildings Associates, LP. The Company also owns a 25% interest in Parkway Properties Office Fund, LP.

Moore Building Associates, LP (“MBALP”) was established for the purpose of owning a commercial office building (the Toyota Center in Memphis, Tennessee). In acting as the general partner, Parkway is committed to providing additional funding to meet partnership operating deficits up to an aggregate amount of $1 million. Parkway receives income from MBALP in the form of interest from a construction note receivable, incentive management fees and property management fees. Parkway also receives interest income on a note receivable from Parkway Moore, LLC (“PMLLC”). Any intercompany asset, liability, revenue and expense accounts between Parkway and MBALP and PMLLC have been eliminated.

On July 6, 2005, Parkway, through affiliated entities, entered into a limited partnership agreement forming a $500 million discretionary fund (“the Fund”) with Ohio Public Employees Retirement System (“Ohio PERS”) for the purpose of acquiring high-quality multi-tenant office properties. Ohio PERS has a 75% economic interest and Parkway has a 25% economic interest in the Fund. Parkway serves as the general partner of the Fund and provides asset management, property management, leasing and construction management services to the Fund, for which it is paid market-based fees. As of December 31, 2007, the Fund had fixed rate non-recourse mortgage debt totaling $156.0 million that is secured by ten office properties, which have a carrying value of $234.9 million. Subsequent to December 31, 2007, the Fund purchased three office investments for a total purchase price of $215 million with estimated closing costs, building improvements, tenant improvements and leasing costs of $12.4 million anticipated during the first two years of ownership for a total investment of $227.4 million. Therefore, as of February 15, 2008, the Fund was fully invested.

Since Parkway is the sole general partner and has the authority to make major decisions on behalf of the Fund, thereby giving Parkway a controlling interest, the Fund is included in Parkway’s consolidated financial statements.

Minority interest in real estate partnerships represents the other partners’ proportionate share of equity in the partnerships discussed above at December 31, 2007. Income is allocated to minority interest based on the weighted average percentage ownership during the year.

Revenue Recognition

Revenue from real estate rentals is recognized on a straight-line basis over the terms of the respective leases. The cumulative difference between lease revenue recognized under this method and contractual lease payment terms is recorded as straight line rent receivable on the accompanying balance sheets. The straight line rent adjustment increased revenue by $3.2 million, $5.3 million and $4.2 million in 2007, 2006 and 2005, respectively.

The leases also typically provide for tenant reimbursement of a portion of common area maintenance and other operating expenses. Property operating cost recoveries from customers (“expense reimbursements”) are recognized as revenue in the period in which the expenses are incurred. The computation of expense reimbursements is dependent on the provisions of individual customer leases. Most customers make monthly fixed payments of estimated expense reimbursements. The Company makes adjustments, positive or negative, to expense reimbursement income quarterly to adjust the recorded amounts to the Company’s best estimate of the final property operating costs based on the most recent quarterly budget. After the end of the calendar year, the Company computes each customer’s final expense reimbursements and issues a bill or credit for the difference between the actual amount and the amounts billed monthly during the year. These differences are recorded to expense reimbursement income in the period the final bills are prepared, usually beginning in February and completed by May in the subsequent fiscal year. The net amounts of any such adjustments were not material for the years ended December 31, 2007, 2006 and 2005.

Management company income represents market based fees earned from providing management, construction, leasing, brokerage and acquisition services to third parties. Management fee income is computed and recorded monthly in accordance with the terms set forth in the stand alone management service agreements. Leasing and brokerage commissions are recognized pursuant to the terms of the stand alone agreements at the time underlying leases are signed, which is the point at which the earnings process is complete and collection of the fees is reasonably assured. Fees relating to the purchase or sale of property are recognized when the earnings process is complete and collection of the fees is reasonably assured, which usually occurs at closing. All fees on Company-owned properties and consolidated joint ventures are eliminated in consolidation. The portion of fees earned on unconsolidated joint ventures attributable to Parkway's ownership interest is eliminated in consolidation.

Amortization

Debt origination costs are deferred and amortized using a method that approximates the interest method over the term of the loan. Leasing costs are deferred and amortized using the straight-line method over the term of the respective lease.

Early Extinguishment of Debt

When outstanding debt is extinguished, the Company records any prepayment premium and unamortized loan costs to expense.

Derivative Financial Instruments

The Company follows SFAS No. 133 "Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities" and recognizes all derivative instruments on the balance sheet at their fair value. Changes in the fair value of derivatives are recorded each period in current earnings or other comprehensive income, depending on whether a derivative is designated as part of a hedge transaction and, if it is, the type of hedge transaction. The ineffective portion of the hedge, if any, is immediately recognized in earnings.

Share Based Compensation

Effective January 1, 2003, the stockholders of the Company approved Parkway's 2003 Equity Incentive Plan (the "2003 Plan") that authorized the grant of up to 200,000 equity based awards to employees of the Company. At present, it is Parkway's intention to grant restricted shares and/or deferred incentive share units instead of stock options. Restricted shares and deferred incentive share units are valued based on the New York Stock Exchange closing market price of Parkway common shares (NYSE ticker symbol, PKY) as of the date of grant.

Compensation expense, including estimated forfeitures, is recognized over the expected vesting period, which is four to seven years from grant date for restricted shares subject to service conditions and four years from grant date for deferred incentive share units. Certain restricted shares have been granted to officers of the Company where vesting is contingent upon achieving the cumulative goals of the GEAR UP Plan, which began January 1, 2006 and ends December 31, 2008. Compensation expense will not be recorded on the shares that vest based on performance conditions until the Company determines that it is probable that the goal will be achieved. Therefore, no expense has been recorded in 2006 and 2007 for these shares.

Restricted shares and deferred incentive share units are forfeited if an employee leaves the Company before the vesting date. Shares and/or units that are forfeited become available for future grant under the 2003 Plan.

Income Taxes

Effective January 1, 1997, the Company elected to be taxed as a real estate investment trust (REIT) under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. The Company completed its reorganization into the UPREIT (Umbrella Partnership REIT) structure effective January 1, 1998. The Company anticipates that the UPREIT structure will enable it to pursue additional investment opportunities by having the ability to offer tax-advantaged operating partnership units to property owners in exchange for properties.

A corporate REIT is a legal entity that holds real estate assets, and through distributions to stockholders, is exempt from the payment of Federal income taxes at the corporate level. To maintain qualification as a REIT, the Company is subject to a number of organizational and operational requirements, including a requirement that it currently distribute to stockholders at least 90% of its annual taxable income.

Net Income Per Common Share

Basic earnings per share (“EPS”) are computed by dividing income available to common stockholders by the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding for the year. In arriving at income available to common stockholders, preferred stock dividends are deducted. Diluted EPS reflects the potential dilution that could occur if share equivalents such as employee stock options, restricted shares, deferred incentive share units, warrants and dilutive 8.34% Series B cumulative convertible preferred stock were exercised or converted into common stock that then shared in the earnings of Parkway.

The computation of diluted EPS is as follows:

	Year Ended December 31
	2007	2006	2005
	(in thousands, except per share data)
Numerator:
Basic and diluted net income available to common stockholders	$14,892	$19,109	$13,661
Denominator:
Basic weighted average shares	15,482	14,306	14,065
Effect of employee stock options, deferred incentive share units and warrants	166	181	168
Diluted weighted average shares	15,648	14,487	14,233
Diluted earnings per share	$ 0.95	$ 1.32	$ 0.96

The computation of diluted EPS for 2006 and 2005 did not assume the conversion of the 8.34% Series B cumulative convertible preferred stock because their inclusion would have been anti-dilutive. As of December 31, 2006, there were no shares of Series B preferred stock authorized and outstanding.

Reclassifications

Certain reclassifications have been made in the 2006 and 2005 consolidated financial statements to conform to the 2007 classifications with no impact on previously reported net income or stockholders' equity.

New Accounting Pronouncements

In September 2006, the FASB issued SFAS No. 157, “Fair Value Measurements” (“SFAS No. 157”). SFAS No. 157 defines fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value in generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP), and expands disclosures about fair value measurements. SFAS No. 157 is effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of SFAS No. 157 and does not expect the adoption of this Statement on January 1, 2008 to have a material impact on the Company’s consolidated financial statements.

In December 2007, the FASB issued SFAS No. 141(R), “Business Combinations” (SFAS No. 141R), which revised the previously issued SFAS No. 141 (SFAS No. 141). SFAS No. 141R retains the fundamental requirements of SFAS No. 141, but expands the scope to include all transactions and other events in which one entity obtains control over one or more other businesses. SFAS No. 141R applies prospectively to business combinations for which the acquisition date is on or after the beginning of the first annual reporting period beginning on or after December 15, 2008. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of SFAS No. 141R on the Company’s consolidated financial statements.

In December 2007, the FASB issued SFAS No. 160, “Noncontrolling Interests in Consolidated Financial Statements—an amendment of ARB No. 51” (SFAS No. 160). SFAS No. 160 amends ARB No. 51 to establish accounting and reporting standards for the noncontrolling interest in a subsidiary and for the deconsolidation of a subsidiary. SFAS No. 160 also amends certain of ARB No. 51’s consolidation procedures for consistency with the requirements of SFAS No. 141R. SFAS No. 160 is effective for fiscal years, and interim periods within those fiscal years, beginning on or after December 15, 2008. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of SFAS No. 160 on the Company's consolidated financial statements.

Unaudited Statistical Information

The square feet and percentage leased statistics presented in Notes B, E and H are unaudited.

Note B - Investment in Office and Parking Properties

Included in investment in office and parking properties at December 31, 2007 are 60 office and parking properties located in nine states with an aggregate of 12.0 million square feet of leasable space. This excludes office properties in unconsolidated joint ventures, which are outlined in Note E – Investment in Unconsolidated Joint Ventures. The contract purchase price, excluding closing costs and other adjustments, of office properties acquired during the year ended December 31, 2007 is as follows:

Market Location	Cost (in thousands)
Houston, Texas	$46,500

The Company's acquisitions are accounted for by the purchase method. The results of each acquired property are included in the Company's results of operations from their respective purchase dates.

Summary of Acquisitions

On June 14, 2007, the Fund with Ohio PERS, of which Parkway owns 25%, purchased for $46.5 million 1401 Enclave Parkway, a 209,000 square foot six-story office building in Houston, Texas. The Fund expects to spend $346,000 for closing costs, building improvements, leasing costs and tenant improvements during the first two years of ownership. The purchase was funded with a $28 million first mortgage placement by the Fund and with equity contributions from the partners. In accordance with GAAP, the Fund has been included in the consolidated financial statements of Parkway since Parkway is the sole general partner and has authority to make major decisions on behalf of the Fund, thereby giving Parkway controlling interest.

The purchase price allocated to intangible assets and (liabilities) and weighted average amortization period for each class of asset or liability is as follows for 2007 office property acquisitions (in thousands):

	Amount	Weighted Average Life
Lease in place value	$2,692	4 years
Above market leases	438	3 years
Below market leases	(1,101)	4 years

Subsequent to December 31, 2007, the Company purchased three office investments for a total purchase price of $236.6 million on behalf of the Fund. Of the total purchase price, $215 million represents investments by the Fund and $21.6 million represents an additional investment by Parkway. The investments were funded with $142.2 million in mortgage debt and $94.4 million in equity contributions from partners. Parkway's share of the total equity contribution was $30.1 million and was funded with advances from unsecured bank lines of credit. As of February 15, 2008, the Fund was fully invested.

Summary of Dispositions

On June 29, 2007, the Company sold two office properties, First Tennessee Plaza and Cedar Ridge, totaling 549,000 square feet located in Knoxville, Tennessee for a gross sales price of $59 million. The Company received net cash proceeds from the sale of $56.8 million and the proceeds were used to prepay the $7.4 million first mortgage secured by First Tennessee Plaza and to reduce amounts outstanding under the Company's lines of credit. Parkway recorded a gain on the sale for financial reporting purposes of $20.3 million and expenses related to the prepayment of the mortgage of $494,000 in the second quarter of 2007. Parkway Realty Services, LLC, a subsidiary of the Company, was retained to provide management services for the properties under a five-year agreement. Therefore, all revenue and expense for these properties are included as a component of continuing operations.

Contractual Obligations and Minimum Rental Receipts

Obligations for tenant improvement allowances for leases in place and commitments for building improvements and development costs as of December 31, 2007 are as follows (in thousands):

2008	$44,084
2009	1,142
2010	57
2011	344
Total	$45,627

Minimum future operating lease payments for various equipment leased at the office properties is as follows for operating leases in place as of December 31, 2007 (in thousands):

2008	$ 341
2009	107
2010	93
2011	23
Total	$ 564

The following is a schedule by year of future approximate minimum rental receipts under noncancelable leases for office buildings owned as of December 31, 2007 (in thousands):

2008	$180,248
2009	166,389
2010	142,820
2011	117,692
2012	85,633
Thereafter	209,809
	$902,591

Note C – Office Property Development

On February 28, 2007, the Company purchased 2.5 acres of land in Jackson, Mississippi for $1.8 million. The land was purchased as part of the Company's plan to develop the 194,000 square foot Class A+ office building known as The Pinnacle at Jackson Place ("The Pinnacle"), adjacent to the Company's headquarters building. The estimated cost of the development is $48.5 million with expected completion in the fall of 2008. The Company has received commitments to lease approximately 70% of the new office space from four major customers. Parkway is considering a joint venture structure for the development whereby Parkway will retain an ownership interest of approximately 20%. The development is designed to utilize benefits available under the Gulf Opportunity Zone Act for new developments in areas affected by Hurricane Katrina. During the year ended December 31, 2007, the Company incurred $13.4 million in development costs of the Pinnacle.

On September 1, 2007, Parkway entered into a lease for the parking garage known as Parking at Jackson Place, which is adjacent to the Company's headquarters and The Pinnacle in Jackson, Mississippi. The term of the lease is 60 years with a renewal option for an additional 30 years. Since the fair value of the land is greater than 25% of the total value of the property, the Company is accounting for the component of the lease attributable to the land as an operating lease and the component attributable to the building as a capital lease. The garage was recorded at a cost of $4.1 million.

Note D – Mortgage Loans

On November 7, 2007, the Company purchased the B participation piece (the "B piece") of a first mortgage secured by an 844,000 square foot office building in Dallas, Texas known as 2100 Ross for $6.9 million. The B piece was originated by Wachovia Bank, N.A. and has a face value of $10 million and a stated coupon rate of 6.065%. Upon maturity in May 2012, the Company will receive a principal payment of $10 million, which produces a yield to maturity of 15.6%.

Note E - Investment in Unconsolidated Joint Ventures

In addition to the 60 office and parking properties included in the consolidated financial statements, the Company is also invested in four unconsolidated joint ventures with unrelated investors. These investments are accounted for using the equity method of accounting, as Parkway does not control any of these joint ventures. Accordingly, the assets and liabilities of the joint ventures are not included on Parkway's consolidated balance sheets as of December 31, 2007 and 2006. Information relating to these unconsolidated joint ventures is detailed below (in thousands).

Joint Venture Entity	Property Name	Location	Parkway's Ownership %	Square Feet	Percentage Leased
Wink-Parkway Partnership	Wink Building	New Orleans, LA	50.0%	32	100.0%
Parkway Joint Venture, LLC ("Jackson JV")	UBS/River Oaks	Jackson, MS	20.0%	167	85.7%
RubiconPark I, LLC ("Rubicon JV")	Lakewood/Falls Pointe	Atlanta, GA	20.0%	552	97.5%
	Carmel Crossing	Charlotte, NC
RubiconPark II, LLC ("Maitland JV")	Maitland 200	Orlando, FL	20.0%	204	100.0%
				955	96.1%

Cash distributions from unconsolidated joint ventures are made to each partner based on their percentage of ownership in each entity. Cash distributions made to partners in joint ventures where the percentage of debt assumed is disproportionate to the ownership percentage in the venture is distributed based on each partner's share of cash available for distribution before debt service, based on their ownership percentage, less the partner's share of debt service based on the percentage of debt assumed by each partner.

Parkway provides management, construction and leasing services for all of the unconsolidated joint ventures except for the Wink-Parkway Partnership, and receives market based fees for these services. The portion of fees earned on unconsolidated joint ventures attributable to Parkway's ownership interest is eliminated in consolidation.

Balance sheet information for the unconsolidated joint ventures is summarized below as of December 31, 2007 and December 31, 2006 (in thousands):

Balance Sheet Information (unaudited)

- (1) Phoenix OfficeInvest, LLC (the “Viad JV”) is a joint venture that owned Viad Corporate Center, an office property in Phoenix, Arizona, and a venture in which Parkway owned a 25% interest. On June 23, 2006, the venture sold Viad Corporate Center. Parkway received net proceeds of $15.4 million and recognized a gain of $13.6 million from the sale.

In most cases the Company's share of debt related to its unconsolidated joint ventures is the same as its ownership percentage in the venture. However, in the case of the Rubicon Joint Venture and Maitland Joint Venture, the Company's share of debt is disproportionate to its ownership percentage. The disproportionate debt structure was created to meet the Company's partner's financing criteria. In the Rubicon Joint Venture, Parkway owns a 20% interest in the venture but assumed 13.85% of the debt. In the Maitland Joint Venture, the Company owns a 20% interest in the venture and assumed none of the debt. The terms related to Parkway's share of unconsolidated joint venture mortgage debt are summarized below for December 31, 2007 and 2006 (in thousands):

Note F – Land Available for Sale

At December 31, 2007, Parkway's investment in land available for sale consisted of 12 acres of land in New Orleans, Louisiana with a book value of $1.5 million or .1% of total assets.

Note G - Notes Payable

Notes Payable to Banks

At December 31, 2007, the Company had a total of $212.3 million outstanding under the following lines of credit (in thousands):

Line of Credit	Lender	Interest Rate	Maturity	Outstanding Balance
$9 Million Unsecured Line of Credit	Trustmark National Bank	6.6%	12/07/08	$ 9,000
$15 Million Unsecured Line of Credit	PNC Bank	5.9%	01/28/09	8,349
$236 Million Unsecured Line of Credit (1)	Wachovia Bank	6.1%	04/27/10	135,000
$60 Million Unsecured Term Loan (2)	Wachovia Bank	5.6%	04/27/11	60,000
		6.0%		$ 212,349

- (1) The interest rate on the $236 Million Unsecured Line of Credit represents the weighted average interest rate of short-term LIBOR borrowings and includes a $30 million interest rate swap that expires August 31, 2008 and a $50 million interest rate swap that expires June 30, 2008.

- (2) The interest rate on the $60 Million Term Loan represents the weighted average interest rate of two interest rate swaps that expire December 31, 2008.

On August 24 2007, the Company entered into an interest rate swap agreement with US Bank. The interest rate swap is for a $30 million notional amount and fixes the 30-day LIBOR interest rate at 4.924%, which equates to a total interest rate of 6.224%, for the period September 4, 2007 through August 31, 2008. The swap serves as a hedge on the variable interest rates on a portion of the borrowings under the Company's $296 million line.

On December 3, 2007, the Company entered into an interest rate swap agreement with JP Morgan. The interest rate swap is for a $50 million notional amount and fixes the 30-day LIBOR interest rate at 4.38%, which equates to a total interest rate of 5.68%, for the period December 31, 2007 through June 30, 2008. The swap agreement serves as a hedge of the variable interest rates on a portion of the borrowings under the Company's $296 million line.

On December 13, 2007, the Company exercised $96 million of the $110 million accordion feature of its existing unsecured bank credit facility with Wachovia Bank. The Company's credit facility increased from $200 million to $296 million and is comprised of a $60 million term loan maturing April 2011 and a $236 million revolving loan maturing in April 2010, which includes rights to a one-year extension with the same terms through April 2011. The interest rate on the credit facility is currently LIBOR plus 130 basis points. The Company pays an annual administration fee of $35,000 and fees on the unused portion of the revolver ranging between 12.5 and 20 basis points based upon overall Company leverage, with the rate set at 12.5 basis points at December 31, 2007.

The Company's $296 million unsecured credit facility requires compliance with a number of restrictive financial covenants, including tangible net worth, fixed charge coverage ratio, unencumbered interest coverage ratio, total debt to total asset ratio, secured debt to total asset value ratio, secured recourse debt to total asset value ratio and unencumbered pool restrictions. As of December 31, 2007 the Company was in compliance with these financial covenants and had a total of $99 million available to borrow on all unsecured lines of credit.

The $15 million line matures January 28, 2009, is unsecured and is expected to fund the daily cash requirements of the Company's treasury management system. The $15 million line has a current interest rate equal to the 30-day LIBOR rate plus 130 basis points. Under the $15 million line, the Company does not pay annual administration fees or fees on the unused portion of the line.

The $9 million line with Trustmark National Bank is unsecured, has a current interest rate equal to the 30-day LIBOR rate plus 132.5 basis points and matures December 7, 2008. The proceeds of the loan were used to finance the construction of the City Centre Garage, which was completed in 2005.

To protect against the potential for rapidly rising interest rates, the Company entered into interest rate swap agreements in 2007, 2005 and 2004. The Company designated the swaps as cash flow hedges of the variable interest rates on the Company's borrowings under the $296 million line. These swaps are considered to be fully effective and changes in the fair value of the swaps are recognized in accumulated other comprehensive income. The Company's interest rate hedge contracts as of December 31, 2007 and 2006 are summarized as follows (in thousands):

Type of Hedge	Notional Amount	Maturity Date	Reference Rate	Fixed Rate	Fair Market Value Asset/(Liability)
					December 31 2007	December 31 2006
Swap	$50,000	06/30/08	1 - Month LIBOR	4.380%	$ 15	$ -

- (1) On February 9, 2007, the Fund placed a $31.5 million ten-year non-recourse first mortgage with an interest rate of 5.61% in connection with the 2006 purchase of Overlook II in Atlanta, Georgia. Payments during the mortgage term will be on an interest only basis and the loan matures on March 1, 2017.
- (2) On June 14, 2007, the Fund placed a $28 million eight-year non-recourse first mortgage with a fixed interest rate of 5.76% in connection with the purchase of 1401 Enclave Parkway in Houston, Texas. Monthly payments during the first five years of the mortgage will be on an interest only basis. Monthly principal and interest payments of $164,000 will be made over remaining term of loan with a balloon payment due at maturity.
- (3) On December 28, 2007, the Company completed the financing facility of The Pinnacle at Jackson Place for a total of $37.6 million. The facility consists of two mortgages, proceeds of which will be used to complete the construction and long-term financing of the building. One of the mortgages is being funded under the Federal New Markets Tax Credit (“NMTC”) program which provides funding for development in certain geographic areas or areas that have been designated for Federal relief under the Gulf Opportunity Zone Act. The NMTC mortgage consists of a $23.5 million senior loan and a $6 million subordinate loan, both having a stated maturity of December 2047. Additionally, the facility consists of an $8.1 million loan with the primary arranger of the facility with a stated maturity of December 2047. The NMTC Senior Loan and the Direct Loan bear interest at LIBOR plus 190 basis points during construction; LIBOR plus 175 basis points upon completion of construction and LIBOR plus 150 basis points upon lease-up. The NMTC subordinate loan bears interest at 3%. The Direct Loan can be prepaid without penalty at anytime. The NMTC Senior and Subordinate Loans can be called by the lender at the end of the seventh year.

The aggregate annual maturities of mortgage notes payable at December 31, 2007 are as follows (in thousands):

2008	$ 55,938

Note I - Income Taxes

The Company elected to be taxed as a real estate investment trust (REIT) under the Internal Revenue Code, commencing with its taxable year ended December 31, 1997. To qualify as a REIT, the Company must meet a number of organizational and operational requirements, including a requirement that it currently distribute at least 90% of its adjusted taxable income to its stockholders. It is management's current intention to adhere to these requirements and maintain the Company's REIT status. As a REIT, the Company generally will not be subject to corporate level federal income tax on taxable income it distributes currently to its stockholders. If the Company fails to qualify as a REIT in any taxable year, it will be subject to federal income taxes at regular corporate rates (including any applicable alternative minimum tax) and may not be able to qualify as a REIT for four subsequent taxable years. Even if the Company qualifies for taxation as a REIT, the Company may be subject to certain state and local taxes on its income and property, and to federal income and excise taxes on its undistributed taxable income. In addition, taxable income from non-REIT activities managed through taxable REIT subsidiaries is subject to federal, state and local income taxes.

In January 1998, the Company completed its reorganization into an umbrella partnership REIT ("UPREIT") structure under which substantially all of the Company's office building real estate assets are owned by an operating partnership, Parkway Properties LP (the "Operating Partnership"). Presently, substantially all interests in the Operating Partnership are owned by the Company and a wholly-owned subsidiary.

At December 31, 2007, the Company had net operating loss ("NOL") carryforwards for federal income tax purposes of $5.3 million which expire at various dates beginning in 2008 through 2018. The utilization of these NOLs can cause the Company to incur a small alternative minimum tax liability.

The Company's income differs for income tax and financial reporting purposes principally because real estate owned has a different basis for tax and financial reporting purposes, producing different gains upon disposition and different amounts of annual depreciation. The following reconciles GAAP net income to taxable income for the years ending December 31, 2007, 2006 and 2005 (in thousands):

	2007 Estimate	2006 Actual	2005 Actual

Note J - Stock Option and Long-Term Compensation Plans

Effective January 1, 2003, the stockholders of the Company approved Parkway's 2003 Equity Incentive Plan ("the 2003 Plan") that authorized the grant of up to 200,000 equity based awards to employees of the Company. At present, it is Parkway's intention to grant restricted shares and/or deferred incentive share units instead of stock options to employees of the Company, although the 2003 Plan authorizes various forms of incentive awards, including options. On each July 1 beginning with July, 2004, the number of shares available under the plan will increase automatically by .25% of the number of shares of common stock outstanding on that date (increase of 39,750 and 35,370 shares in 2007 and 2006, respectively), provided that the number of shares available for grant under this plan and the 2001 Directors' Plan shall not exceed 11.5% of the shares outstanding (less the restricted shares issued and outstanding) plus shares issuable on the conversion of outstanding convertible debt and equity securities or the exercise of warrants or other rights to purchase common shares. The 2003 Plan has a ten-year term.

On January 12, 2007, the Board of Directors approved the grant of 35,874 restricted shares to officers of the Company. The shares are valued at $1.9 million and 34,875 shares will vest four years from grant date and 999 shares will vest subject to achievement of the GEAR UP Plan, which will end December 31, 2008.

As of December 31, 2007, a total of 220,999 shares of restricted stock have been granted to officers of the Company. The shares are valued at $9.0 million, which equates to an average price per share of $40.72, with 121,000 shares vesting seven years from the grant date, 66,375 shares vesting four years from grant date and the remaining 33,624 shares vesting upon achievement of the goals of the GEAR UP Plan. The value, including estimated forfeitures, of restricted shares that vest based on service conditions will be amortized to compensation expense ratably over the vesting period for each grant of stock. The value of restricted shares that vest based on performance conditions, in this case achievement of the GEAR UP Plan goals, will be amortized to expense over the applicable vesting period once the Company determines that it is probable that the goal will be achieved. As of December 31, 2007, a total of 21,835 deferred incentive share units have been granted to employees of the Company. The deferred incentive share units are valued at $1.0 million, which equates to an average price per share of $45.96, and the units vest four years from grant date. Compensation expense related to the restricted stock and deferred incentive units of $1.5 million, $863,000 and $533,000 was recognized in 2007, 2006 and 2005, respectively. Total compensation expense related to nonvested awards subject to service conditions not yet recognized was $4.3 million as of December 31, 2007. The weighted average period over which this expense is expected to be recognized is approximately 2.7 years. Total potential compensation associated with shares that vest based on performance conditions is $1.5 million.

On January 14, 2008, the Board of Directors approved the grant of 34,542 restricted shares to officers of the Company. The shares are valued at $1.1 million and 34,375 shares will vest four years from grant date and 167 shares will vest subject to achievement of the GEAR UP Plan.

A summary of the Company's restricted stock and deferred incentive share unit activity under the 2003 Equity Incentive Plan is as follows:

Pro forma information regarding net income and net income per share is required by FAS 123R, and has been determined as if the Company had accounted for its employee stock options under the fair value method of that Statement. The fair value for these options was estimated at the date of grant using a Black-Scholes option pricing model with the following weighted-average assumptions for 2005: risk-free interest of 4.3%, dividend yield of 5.55%; volatility factor of the expected market price of the Company's common stock of .196; and a weighted-average expected life of the options of five years for the 1994 Stock Option Plan, 1991 Directors' Stock Option Plan and 2001 Directors' Stock Option Plan. No options were granted during 2005, 2006 and 2007.

The following table illustrates the effect on net income and earnings per share if the Company had applied the fair value recognition provisions of FAS 123R to stock-based employee compensation for the years ended December 31, 2005 (in thousands, except per share amounts):

	Year Ended December 31 2005

Note K – Commitments and Contingencies

Legal Matters

Parkway is subject to various legal proceedings and claims that arise in the ordinary course of business. These matters are generally covered by insurance. The Company believes that the final outcome of such matters will not have a material effect on our financial statements.

Commitments

Parkway has an investment in Moore Building Associates LP (“MBALP”) established for the purpose of owning a commercial office building (the Toyota Center in Memphis, Tennessee). Parkway has a 75% ownership interest in MBALP and acts as the managing general partner of this partnership. In acting as the general partner, the Company is committed to providing additional funding to meet partnership operating deficits up to an aggregate of $1 million.

Standby Letters of Credit

In connection with the first mortgage placed on One Illinois Center, located at 111 East Wacker Drive in Chicago, Illinois, the Company delivered $1.4 million in letters of credit to satisfy the various escrow requirements made by the lender. The letters of credit expire June 30, 2008.

Note L – Other Matters

In connection with the purchase of the Capital City Plaza in Atlanta, Georgia on April 2, 2004, Parkway, through a subsidiary company, issued $15.5 million in preferred membership interests to the seller. The preferred membership interests paid the seller a 7% coupon rate and were issued to accommodate their tax planning needs. The seller previously redeemed $4.8 million of the preferred membership interest. On August 7, 2007, the seller redeemed the remaining $10.7 million of preferred membership interests.

On August 3, 2007, the Board of Directors authorized the repurchase of up to 1.7 million shares of Parkway’s outstanding common stock through July 30, 2008. As of December 31, 2007, the Company has purchased approximately 688,000 shares for $29.1 million, which equates to an average price of $42.36 per share.

Supplemental Profit and Loss Information

Included in operating expenses are taxes, principally property taxes, of $34.3 million, $29.0 million and $24.3 million for the years ended December 31, 2007, 2006 and 2005, respectively.

Note M - Fair Values of Financial Instruments

Cash and cash equivalents

The carrying amounts for cash and cash equivalents approximated fair value at December 31, 2007 and 2006.

Mortgage loans

The fair value of the mortgage notes payable are estimated using discounted cash flow analysis, based on the Company's current incremental borrowing rates for similar types of borrowing arrangements. The aggregate fair value of the mortgage notes payable without recourse at December 31, 2007 was $714.6 million as compared to its carrying amount of $714.5 million. The aggregate fair value of the mortgage notes payable without recourse at December 31, 2006 was $707.2 million as compared to its carrying amount of $696.0 million.

Note N – Segment Information

Parkway's primary business is the ownership and operation of office properties. The Company accounts for each office property or groups of related office properties as an individual operating segment. Parkway has aggregated its individual operating segments into a single reporting segment due to the fact that the individual operating segments have similar operating and economic characteristics.

The Company believes that the individual operating segments exhibit similar economic characteristics such as being leased by the square foot, sharing the same primary operating expenses and ancillary revenue opportunities and being cyclical in the economic performance based on current supply and demand conditions. The individual operating segments are also similar in that revenues are derived from the leasing of office space to customers and each office property is managed and operated consistently in accordance with Parkway's standard operating procedures. The range and type of customer uses of our properties is similar throughout our portfolio regardless of location or class of building and the needs and priorities of our customers do not vary from building to building. Therefore, Parkway's management responsibilities do not vary from location to location based on the size of the building, geographic location or class.

The management of the Company evaluates the performance of the reportable office segment based on funds from operations applicable to common shareholders ("FFO"). Management believes that FFO is an appropriate measure of performance for equity REITs and computes this measure in accordance with the National Association of Real Estate Investment Trusts' ("NAREIT") definition of FFO. Funds from operations is defined by NAREIT as net income (computed in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles "GAAP"), excluding gains or losses from sales of property and extraordinary items under GAAP, plus depreciation and amortization, and after adjustments to derive the Company's pro rata share of FFO of consolidated and unconsolidated joint ventures. Further, the Company does not adjust FFO to eliminate the effects of non-recurring charges. The Company believes that FFO is a meaningful supplemental measure of its operating performance because historical cost accounting for real estate assets in accordance with GAAP implicitly assumes that the value of real estate assets diminishes predictably over time, as reflected through depreciation and amortization expenses. However, since real estate values have historically risen or fallen with market and other conditions, many industry investors and analysts have considered presentation of operating results for real estate companies that use historical cost accounting to be insufficient. Thus, NAREIT created FFO as a supplemental measure of operating performance for real estate investment trusts that excludes historical cost depreciation and amortization, among other items, from net income, as defined by GAAP. The Company believes that the use of FFO, combined with the required GAAP presentations, has been beneficial in improving the understanding of operating results of real estate investment trusts among the investing public and making comparisons of operating results among such companies more meaningful. FFO as reported by Parkway may not be comparable to FFO reported by other REITs that do not define the term in accordance with the current NAREIT definition. Funds from operations do not represent cash generated from operating activities in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States and is not an indication of cash available to fund cash needs. Funds from operations should not be considered an alternative to net income as an indicator of the Company's operating performance or as an alternative to cash flow as a measure of liquidity.

The following is a reconciliation of FFO and net income available to common stockholders for office properties and total consolidated entities for the years ending December 31, 2007, 2006 and 2005. Amounts presented as “Unallocated and Other” represent primarily income and expense associated with providing management services, corporate general and administration expense, interest expense on unsecured lines of credit and preferred dividends.

Item 9. Changes in and Disagreements with Accountants on Accounting and Financial Disclosure.

None.

Item 9A. Controls and Procedures.

The Company's management, with the participation of the Company's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, has evaluated the effectiveness of Parkway's disclosure controls and procedures as of December 31, 2007. Based on that evaluation, the Company's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer concluded that Parkway's disclosure controls and procedures were effective as of December 31, 2007. There were no changes in the Company's internal control over financial reporting during the fourth quarter of 2007 that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to affect, the Company's internal control over financial reporting.

The Company's internal control system was designed to provide reasonable assurance to the Company's management and board of directors regarding the preparation and fair presentation of published financial statements. All internal control systems, no matter how well designed, have inherent limitations. Therefore, even those systems determined to be effective can provide only reasonable assurance with respect to the financial statement preparation and presentation.

Management's Report on Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

The Company's management, with the participation of the Company's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, is responsible for establishing and maintaining adequate internal control over financial reporting. The Company's management has assessed the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2007. In making this assessment, we used the criteria set forth by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission (COSO) in Internal Control – Integrated Framework. Based on our assessment we have concluded that, as of December 31, 2007, the Company's internal control over financial reporting is effective based on those criteria. Our independent registered public accounting firm, Ernst & Young LLP, have provided an attestation report on the Company's internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2007.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

Shareholders and Board of Directors
Parkway Properties, Inc.

We have audited Parkway Properties Inc.'s internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2007, based on criteria established in Internal Control—Integrated Framework issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission (the COSO criteria). Parkway Properties, Inc.'s management is responsible for maintaining effective internal control over financial reporting, and for its assessment of the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting included in the accompanying Management's Report on Internal Control over Financial Reporting. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the company's internal control over financial reporting based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether effective internal control over financial reporting was maintained in all material respects. Our audit included obtaining an understanding of internal control over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk, and performing such other procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

A company's internal control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Because of its inherent limitations, internal control over financial reporting may not prevent or detect misstatements. Also, projections of any evaluation of effectiveness to future periods are subject to the risk that controls may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

In our opinion, Parkway Properties, Inc. maintained, in all material respects, effective internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2007, based on the COSO criteria.

We also have audited, in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States), the 2007 consolidated financial statements of Parkway Properties, Inc. and our report dated February 27, 2008 expressed an unqualified opinion thereon.
