Forward Looking Statement

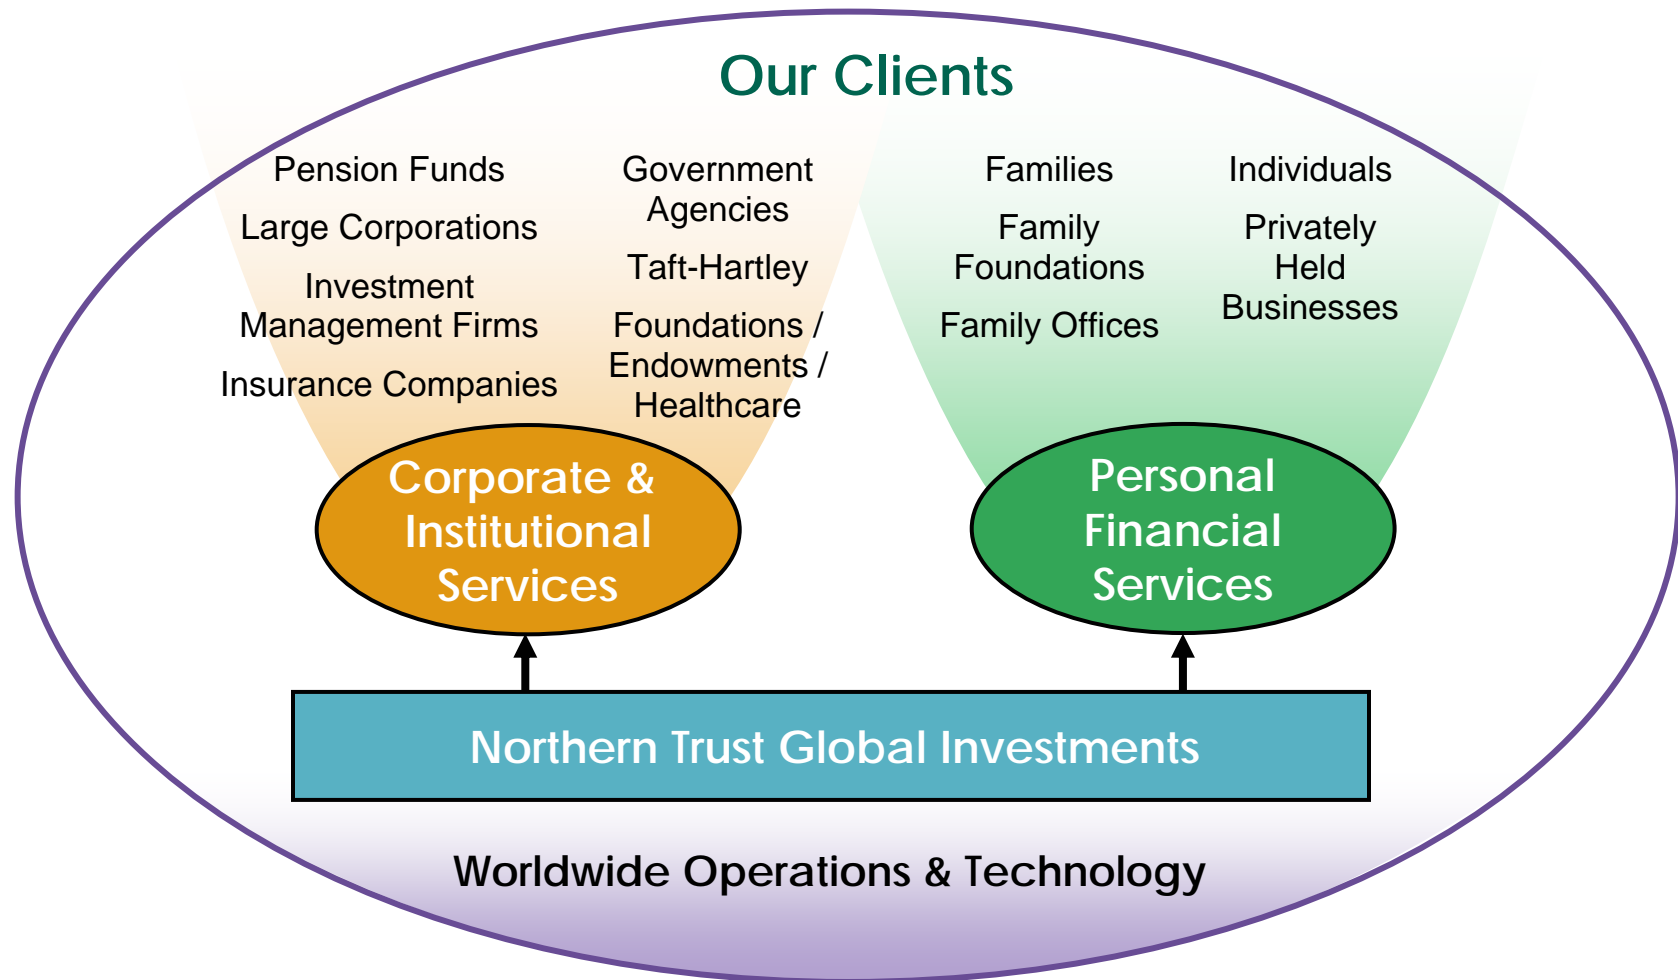

This presentation may include forward-looking statements such as statements that relate to Northern Trust's financial goals, dividend policy, expansion and business development plans, anticipated expense levels and projected profit improvements, business prospects and positioning with respect to market, demographic and pricing trends, strategic initiatives, re-engineering and outsourcing activities, new business results and outlook, changes in securities market prices, credit quality including reserve levels, planned capital expenditures and technology spending, anticipated tax benefits and expenses, and the effects of any extraordinary events and various other matters (including with respect to litigation, other contingent liabilities and obligations, and regulation involving Northern Trust and changes in accounting policies, standards and interpretations) on Northern Trust's business and results. These statements speak of Northern Trust's plans, goals, targets, strategies, beliefs, and expectations, and refer to estimates or use similar terms. Actual results could differ materially from those indicated by these statements because the realization of those results is subject to many risks and uncertainties. Our 2007 financial annual report and periodic reports to the SEC contain information about specific factors that could cause actual results to differ, and you are urged to read them. Northern Trust disclaims any continuing accuracy of the information provided in this presentation after today.

Current Environment

The environment beginning in the summer of 2007 and continuing today has been characterized by uncertainty, complexity and volatility.

UNCERTAINTY

- “Until the housing market, and particularly house prices, shows clearer signs of stabilization, growth risks will remain to the downside. Recent increases in oil prices pose additional downside risks to growth.” Ben Bernanke, Chairman of the Board of Governors of the U.S. Federal Reserve, June 3, 2008

COMPLEXITY

- “The risk of subprime mortgages has been dispersed to Europe and Asia, and within the euro area, bank losses were relatively widely spread.” Imene Rahmouni-Rousseau, Head of the Financial Stability Division, French Central Bank, June 5, 2008

VOLATILITY

- S&P 500: 27 notable daily moves from July 2007 through March 2008
- Senior management shakeups at major global banks and brokerage firms continue
