Consolidated Statements of Income, page 47

1. Please tell us your basis for presenting gross profit. In this regard, we note you exclude depreciation and amortization and operating and maintenance costs from gross profit. To avoid placing undue emphasis on cash flow, depreciation and amortization should not be positioned in the income statement in a manner which results in reporting a figure for income before depreciation. Refer to ASC 225-10-S99-8.

We remind you that the company and its management are responsible for the accuracy and adequacy of their disclosures, notwithstanding any review, comments, action or absence of action by the staff.

You may contact Tony Watson, Accountant, at (202) 551-3318 if you have questions regarding comments on the financial statements and related matters. Please contact Scott
