7. Asset Valuation and Impairments, page 20

8. We note that goodwill accounted for 27% of total assets as of December 31, 2008. Tell us and disclose when you performed your impairment tests.

In light of the significance of your goodwill balance, we expect robust and comprehensive disclosure in your critical accounting policies regarding your impairment testing policy. This disclosure should provide investors with sufficient information about management's insights and assumptions with regard to the recoverability of goodwill. Specifically, we believe you should provide the following information:

- Provide a more detailed description of the steps you perform to review goodwill for recoverability.
- Disclose a breakdown of your goodwill balance as of December 31, 2008 by reporting unit.
- Disclose any changes to your reporting units or allocations of goodwill by reporting unit and the reasons for such changes.
- Describe the significant estimates and assumptions you employed under the discounted cash flows methodology to determine the fair value of your reporting units in your impairment analysis. For example, you should disclose the discount rates for each reporting unit and how those discount rates were determined, including your consideration of any market risk premiums. In addition, we believe your disclosure should address your estimates of future cash flows, as follows:

- 1) Provide a discussion of your historical cash flow growth rates and explain how your historical growth rates were considered when determining the growth rate to be utilized in your cash flow projections.
 - 2) Disclose the growth rate you need to achieve in your cash flow projections in order to avoid having a goodwill impairment charge.
 - 3) In view of the current economic environment, discuss how you considered the uncertainties inherent in your estimated future growth rates. For example, you should explain if and when you anticipated a recovery of the economy in your growth rates used in your cash flows analysis.
- Describe changes to the assumptions and methodologies, if any, since your last annual impairment test.

For further guidance, refer to Release No. 33-8350 "Interpretation: Commission Guidance Regarding Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations." Please provide us with the proposed disclosures.

9. We note that wireless licenses accounted for 17% of total assets as of December 31, 2008. Please tell us and disclose when you performed your annual impairment test and concluded that wireless licenses were not impaired. Tell us whether you performed subsequent interim impairment tests. If you did not, tell us why, addressing the factors in paragraph 8 of SFAS 144. You should discuss in your critical accounting policies and estimates the factors you considered in determining why no interim impairment testing under SFAS 142 was required.

In light of the significance of your wireless licenses balance, we expect robust and comprehensive disclosure in your critical accounting policies regarding your impairment testing policy. This disclosure should provide investors with sufficient information about management's insights and assumptions with regard to the recoverability of wireless licenses. Specifically, we believe you should provide the following information:

- Disclose the carrying value of the intangible asset for each unit of accounting.
- Describe the nature of the valuation techniques you employed in performing the impairment tests. If you used a discounted cash flow methodology, addressing EITF D-108, describe the method you used to isolate the cash flows associated with the intangible asset. If you used a hypothetical build-up or start-up method, describe qualitatively and quantitatively the significant estimates and assumptions used in your valuation method to determine the fair value of each unit of accounting in your impairment analysis.

- Quantitatively and qualitatively describe in detail the changes in the estimates used in your assumptions to determine the fair value of your units of accounting since your last impairment test. In addition, tell us and disclose how the assumptions in your most recent test were impacted by the current economic environment.
- Provide a sensitivity analysis showing the impact on your impairment test resulting from a one percent change in each of your significant assumptions. For example, you should separately quantify the impact of a one percent decline in your revenue growth rates, one percent decline in your net cash flows and a one percent increase in your discount rate.
- Provide a sensitivity analysis that discloses the impairment amount that would have resulted from hypothetical reductions in the fair value of your licenses at the time of your impairment testing.

Please provide us with the proposed disclosures.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

10. We note that you have a reportable segment, Wireline, for which you report significant data regarding two components, Voice and Data. Note 6. Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets, page 50

11. We note that you have determined that your reporting units for purpose of testing impairments are your operating segments. Furthermore, we note that that you have discussed the operations of two components of your Wireline segment—Voice and Data. Please note that paragraph 30 of SFAS 142 states an operating segment shall be deemed to be a reporting unit if all of its components are similar, if none of its components is a reporting unit, or if it comprises only a single component. Tell us why you believe that you do not have reliable financial and cash flow information at lower levels. Tell us how you prepare your regulatory reports and the state and other levels.
