A LETTER FROM THE CEO

Dear Shareholder:

We are pleased to present this annual report for Emerging Markets Opportunity Fund, covering the period from the fund's inception on July 13, 2006, through May 31, 2007.

Conditions in the global economy have remained relatively robust, even as U.S. economic growth has moderated. While we expect the global expansion to continue, it probably will do so at a somewhat reduced pace as softer U.S. consumer and business spending reduces demand for imports and some high-flying emerging markets, notably China, take steps to reduce unsustainably high growth rates. These factors may compel global investors to proceed with a sense of greater caution.

The U.S. dollar, however, has continued to decline relative to most other currencies, making investments denominated in foreign currencies more valuable for U.S. residents. We expect this trend to persist, as a stubborn U.S. trade deficit and stronger economic growth in some overseas markets continue to attract global capital away from U.S. markets and toward those with higher potential returns. These factors, combined with a weakening U.S. dollar, could lead to new opportunities and challenges in international equity markets. As always, your financial advisor can help you position your investments for these developments.

For information about how the fund performed during the reporting period, as well as market perspectives, we have provided a Discussion of Fund Performance given by the fund's Portfolio Managers.

Thank you for your continued confidence and support.

Sincerely,

Thomas F. Eggers
Chief Executive Officer
The Dreyfus Corporation

DISCUSSION OF FUND PERFORMANCE

For the period between the fund's inception on July 13, 2006, and May 31, 2007, as provided by Hugh Hunter, Tony Hann, Richard Fairgrieve and Bill Rudman, Portfolio Managers, WestLB Mellon Asset Management (USA) LLC, Sub-Investment Adviser

Fund and Market Performance Overview

The emerging markets continued to advance during the reporting period, benefiting from expanding economies in many regions of the world. Although the fund participated in the market's gains to a significant degree and posted a strong absolute return since its inception date, its returns fell short of the benchmark index, as good results from our bottom-up security selection strategy were partly offset by more disappointing returns from our top-down country allocation strategy.

Between its inception on July 13, 2006, and the end of its annual reporting period on May 31, 2007, the fund achieved total returns of 35.12% for Class A shares, 34.32% for Class C shares, 35.44% for Class I shares and 34.88% for Class T shares.¹ In comparison, the fund's benchmark, the Morgan Stanley Capital International Emerging Markets Index (the "Index"), produced a 38.50% total return for the period from June 30, 2006, through May 31, 2007.²

Effective 6/1/07, Class R shares were renamed Class I shares.

The Fund's Investment Approach

The fund seeks long-term capital appreciation by investing in the stocks of companies organized, or with a majority of their assets and operations, in emerging market countries. The fund may invest in companies of any size. We allocate the fund's assets among emerging market countries using a top-down, quantitative model that incorporates valuation, currency, momentum, growth, interest-rate and risk factors to determine each country's weighting relative to the Index. We also consider qualitative factors, such as political and economic developments, and market factors, such as liquidity. To select individual stocks, our bottom-up process focuses on fundamental analysis, including assessments of each company's management, product lines and competitive positions.

Emerging Markets Continued to Advance in Expanding Global and Domestic Economies

The world's emerging markets continued to post high absolute returns during the reporting period, with gains fueled by strong demand for exports and increased domestic consumption by a growing middle class. Growth was particularly strong in former third-world countries, such as China and India, where low-cost labor has attracted manufacturing operations and investment capital from higher-cost, developed nations.

The fund also produced strong absolute returns, but its results lagged its benchmark index, primarily due to our value-oriented country allocation strategy. Our allocation model tends to favor markets where stocks are more reasonably priced relative to earnings growth. In particular, our model regarded India as richly valued, leading to a generally underweighted position in the subcontinent relative to the benchmark index. However, India's stock market continued to rally. Conversely, our model determined that stocks in Russia were more attractively valued, leading to relatively heavy exposure during a time in which Russian stocks underperformed the averages. In addition, the fund's start-up costs detracted from returns during the reporting period, as did the inflow of new investments. Because it took time to deploy new capital, a larger-than-average cash position prevented the fund from participating more fully in the emerging markets' gains.

The fund achieved better results in other markets. Overweighted positions in Malaysia and Peru contributed positively to performance, as rising commodity prices benefited materials producers and higher lending volumes boosted earnings for banks.

Successful Security Selections Boosted Fund Performance

Our stock selection strategy proved to be especially successful in China, Thailand and South Africa. Among Thai companies, coal producer Banpu Public benefited from rising industrial demand for energy throughout the Pacific Rim. Oil services and refining company PTT fared well due to tight refinery capacity and improving profit margins. A number of stocks in China produced strong gains in a rapidly growing economy, including electric utility China Resources Power, which was sold during the reporting period, and financial services provider China Merchants Bank. Among the fund's South Africa holdings, Impala Platinum Holdings rose on the strength of higher prices for precious metals.

The fund also received positive contributions from its holdings in Brazil and Taiwan. In Brazil, integrated oil producers such as Petróleo Brasileiro and Cia Vale Do Rio Doce helped satisfy ongoing demand from China for energy commodities. Taiwan posted strong results from shipping companies and manufacturers of flat-screen televisions. On the other hand, results in Russia were undermined by lackluster performance from Gazprom and other energy companies.

Finding Value-Oriented Opportunities in Rising Markets

Global economic growth has remained robust despite signs of a slowdown in the United States, a major trading partner of many emerging-markets nations. Robust growth has produced a reacceleration of inflation in some markets, such as India and China, requiring their central banks to raise short-term interest rates. However, other markets including Brazil and Thailand have reduced interest rates as inflationary pressures subsided. In addition, valuations in some markets have become stretched, in our judgment, after sustained market rallies. In other areas, where explosive earnings growth has justified higher stock prices, valuations have remained more attractive.

Our investment approach is designed to identify those markets where conditions are conducive to higher stock prices. Within those regions, we seek to take advantage of periods of heightened market volatility to purchase stocks of growing companies at reasonable prices.

¹ Total return includes reinvestment of dividends and any capital gains paid, and does not take into consideration the maximum initial sales charges in the case of Class A and Class T shares, or the applicable contingent deferred sales charges imposed on redemptions in the case of Class C shares. Had these charges been reflected, returns would have been lower. Past performance is no guarantee of future results. Share price and investment return fluctuate such that upon redemption, fund shares may be worth more or less than their original cost. Return figures provided reflect the absorption of certain fund expenses by The Dreyfus Corporation in effect through September 30, 2008, at which time it may be extended, terminated or modified. Had these expenses not been absorbed, the fund's returns would have been lower.

The Morgan Stanley Capital International Emerging Markets (MSCI EM) Index is a market capitalization-weighted index composed of companies representative of the market structure of 26 emerging market countries in Europe, Latin America and the Pacific Basin. For comparative purposes, the value of the Index on 6/30/06 is used as the beginning value on 7/13/06.*

FUND PERFORMANCE

† Source: Lipper Inc.

Past performance is not predictive of future performance.

The above graph compares a $10,000 investment made in Class A, Class C, Class I and Class T shares of Emerging Markets Opportunity Fund on 7/13/06 (inception date) to a $10,000 investment made in the Morgan Stanley Capital International Emerging Markets Index (the "Index") on that date. For comparative purposes, the value of the Index on 6/30/06 is used as the beginning value on 7/13/06. All dividends and capital gain distributions are reinvested. The fund's performance shown in the line graph above takes into account the maximum initial sales charge on Class A shares, the applicable contingent deferred sales charge on Class C shares and all other applicable fees and expenses on all classes. The Index is a market capitalization-weighted index composed of companies representative of the market structure of 26 emerging market countries in Europe, Latin America and the Pacific Basin. The Index excludes closed markets and those shares in otherwise free markets that are not purchasable by foreigners. The Index includes gross dividends reinvested and does not take into account charges, fees and other expenses. These factors can contribute to the Index potentially outperforming the fund. Further information relating to fund performance, including expense reimbursements, if applicable, is contained in the Financial Highlights section of the prospectus and elsewhere in this report.

Actual Aggregate Total Returns as of 5/31/07

	Inception Date	From Inception
Class A shares
with maximum sales charge (5.75%)	7/13/06	27.38%
without sales charge	7/13/06	35.12%
Class C shares
with applicable redemption charge [†]	7/13/06	33.32%
without redemption	7/13/06	34.32%
Class I shares	7/13/06	35.44%
Class T shares
with applicable sales charge (4.5%)	7/13/06	28.80%
without sales charge	7/13/06	34.88%

Past performance is not predictive of future performance. The fund's performance shown in the graph and table does not reflect the deduction of taxes that a shareholder would pay on fund distributions or the redemption of fund shares.

[†] The maximum contingent deferred sales charge for Class C shares is 1% for shares redeemed within one year of the date of purchase.

UNDERSTANDING YOUR FUND'S EXPENSES (Unaudited)

As a mutual fund investor, you pay ongoing expenses, such as management fees and other expenses. Using the information below, you can estimate how these expenses affect your investment and compare them with the expenses of other funds. You also may pay one-time transaction expenses, including sales charges (loads) and redemption fees, which are not shown in this section and would have resulted in higher total expenses. For more information, see your fund's prospectus or talk to your financial adviser.

Review your fund's expenses

The table below shows the expenses you would have paid on a $1,000 investment in Emerging Markets Opportunity Fund from December 1, 2006 to May 31, 2007. It also shows how much a $1,000 investment would be worth at the close of the period, assuming actual returns and expenses.

Expenses and Value of a $1,000 Investment
assuming actual returns for the six months ended May 31, 2007
	Class A	Class C	Class R	Class T
Expenses paid per $1,000†	$ 10.73	$ 14.73	$ 9.40	$ 12.07
Ending value (after expenses)	$1,152.10	$1,148.40	$1,154.10	$1,151.70

COMPARING YOUR FUND'S EXPENSES WITH THOSE OF OTHER FUNDS (Unaudited)

Using the SEC's method to compare expenses

The Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) has established guidelines to help investors assess fund expenses. Per these guidelines, the table below shows your fund's expenses based on a $1,000 investment, assuming a hypothetical 5% annualized return. You can use this information to compare the ongoing expenses (but not transaction expenses or total cost) of investing in the fund with those of other funds. All mutual fund shareholder reports will provide this information to help you make this comparison. Please note that you cannot use this information to estimate your actual ending account balance and expenses paid during the period.

Expenses and Value of a $1,000 Investment
assuming a hypothetical 5% annualized return for the six months ended May 31, 2007
Expenses paid per $1,000†	$ 10.05	$ 13.79	$ 8.80	$ 11.30
Ending value (after expenses)	$1,014.96	$1,011.22	$1,016.21	$1,013.71

† Expenses are equal to the fund's annualized expense ratio of 2.00% for Class A, 2.75% for Class C, 1.75% for Class R and 2.25% for Class T, multiplied by the average account value over the period, multiplied by 182/365 (to reflect the one-half year period).

FINANCIAL HIGHLIGHTS

The following table describes the performance for each share class for the period from July 13, 2006 (commencement of operations) to May 31, 2007. All information (except portfolio turnover rate) reflects financial results for a single fund share. Total return shows how much your investment in the fund would have increased (or decreased) during the period, assuming you had reinvested all dividends and distributions. These figures have been derived from the fund's financial statements.

NOTE 1—Significant Accounting Policies:

Emerging Markets Opportunity Fund (the “fund”) is a separate diversified series of Strategic Funds, Inc. (the “Company”) which is registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the “Act”), as a diversified open-end management investment company and operates as a series company currently offering five series, including the fund, which commenced operations on July 13, 2006. The fund’s investment objective seeks long-term capital appreciation by investing in stocks of companies in emerging market countries. The Dreyfus Corporation (the “Manager” or “Dreyfus”) serves as the fund’s investment adviser. During the reporting period, the Manager was a wholly-owned subsidiary of Mellon Financial Corporation (“Mellon Financial”). WestLB Mellon Asset Management (USA) LLC (“WMAM US”) serves as the fund’s sub-investment adviser.

On July 1, 2007, Mellon Financial and The Bank of New York Company, Inc. merged, forming The Bank of New York Mellon Corporation. As part of this transaction, Dreyfus became a wholly-owned subsidiary of The Bank of New York Mellon Corporation.

Dreyfus Service Corporation (the “Distributor”), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Dreyfus, is the distributor of the fund’s shares. Effective June 30, 2007, the Distributor will be known as MBSC Securities Corporation. The fund is authorized to issue 100 million shares of $.001 par value Common Stock in each of the following classes of shares: Class A, Class C, Class R and Class T. Class A and Class T shares are subject to a sales charge imposed at the time of purchase. Class C shares are subject to a contingent deferred sales charge (“CDSC”) on Class C shares redeemed within one year of purchase. Class R shares are sold at net asset value per share only to institutional investors. Other differences between the classes include the services offered to and the expenses borne by each class and certain voting rights. Income, expenses (other than expenses attributable to a specific class), and realized and unrealized gains or losses on investments are allocated to each class of shares based on its relative net assets.

The fund's Board of Directors approved the redesignation of the fund's Class R shares as Class I shares, effective June 1, 2007. The description of the eligibility requirements for Class I shares remains the same as it was for Class R shares.

As of May 31, 2007, MBC Investments Corp., an indirect subsidiary of Mellon Financial, held 341,623 of the outstanding Class A shares, 20,095 of the outstanding Class R shares and 20,096 of the outstanding Class C and Class T shares of the fund.

The Company accounts separately for the assets, liabilities and operations of each series. Expenses directly attributable to each series are charged to that series' operations; expenses which are applicable to all series are allocated among them on a pro rata basis.

The fund's financial statements are prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles, which may require the use of management estimates and assumptions. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

The fund enters into contracts that contain a variety of indemnifications. The fund's maximum exposure under these arrangements is unknown. The fund does not anticipate recognizing any loss related to these arrangements.

(a) Portfolio valuation: Investments in securities are valued at the last sales price on the securities exchange or national securities market on which such securities are primarily traded. Securities listed on the National Market System for which market quotations are available are valued at the official closing price or, if there is no official closing price that day, at the last sales price. Securities not listed on an exchange or the national securities market, or securities for which there were no transactions, are valued at the average of the most recent bid and asked prices, except for open short positions, where the asked price is used for valuation purposes. Bid price is used when no asked price is available. Registered open-end investment companies that are not traded on an exchange are valued at their net asset value. When market quotations or official closing prices are not readily available, or are determined not to reflect accurately fair value, such as when the value of a security has been significantly affected by events after the close of the exchange or market on which the security is principally traded (for example, a foreign exchange or market), but before the fund calculates its net asset value, the fund may value these investments at fair value as determined in accordance with the procedures approved by the Board of Directors. Fair valuing of securities may be determined with the assistance of a pricing service using calculations based on indices of domestic securities and other appropriate indicators, such as prices of relevant ADR's and futures contracts. For other securities that are fair valued by the Board of Directors, certain factors may be considered such as: fundamental analytical data, the nature and duration of restrictions on disposition, an evaluation of the forces that influence the market in which the securities are purchased and sold and public trading in similar securities of the issuer or comparable issuers. Financial futures are valued at the last sales price. Investments denominated in foreign currencies are translated to U.S. dollars at the prevailing rates of exchange. Forward currency exchange contracts are valued at the forward rate.

On September 20, 2006, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) released Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 157 "Fair Value Measurements" ("FAS 157"). FAS 157 establishes an authoritative definition of fair value, sets out a framework for measuring fair value, and requires additional disclosures about fair-value measurements. The application of FAS 157 is required for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007 and interim periods within those fiscal years. Management does not believe that the application of this standard will have a material impact on the financial statements of the fund.

(b) Foreign currency transactions: The fund does not isolate that portion of the results of operations resulting from changes in foreign exchange rates on investments from the fluctuations arising from changes in market prices of securities held. Such fluctuations are included with the net realized and unrealized gain or loss on investments.

Net realized foreign exchange gains or losses arise from sales and maturities of short-term securities, sales of foreign currencies, currency gains or losses realized on securities transactions and the difference between the amounts of dividends, interest and foreign withholding taxes recorded on the fund's books and the U.S. dollar equivalent of the amounts actually received or paid. Net unrealized foreign exchange gains or losses arise from changes in the value of assets and liabilities other than investments in securities, resulting from changes in exchange rates. Such gains and losses are included with net realized and unrealized gain or loss on investments.

(c) Securities transactions and investment income: Securities transactions are recorded on a trade date basis. Realized gain and loss from securities transactions are recorded on the identified cost basis. Dividend income is recognized on the ex-dividend date and interest income, including, where applicable, accretion of discount and amortization of premium on investments, is recognized on the accrual basis.

The fund has an arrangement with the custodian bank whereby the fund receives earnings credits from the custodian when positive cash balances are maintained, which are used to offset custody fees. For financial reporting purposes, the fund includes net earnings credits as an expense offset in the Statement of Operations.

(d) Affiliated issuers: Investments in other investment companies advised by Dreyfus are defined as "affiliated" in the Act.

(e) Dividends to shareholders: Dividends are recorded on the ex-dividend date. Dividends from investment income-net and dividends from net realized capital gain, if any, are normally declared and paid annually, but the fund may make distributions on a more frequent basis to comply with the distribution requirements of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"). To the extent that net realized capital gain can be offset by capital loss carryovers, if any, it is the policy of the fund not to distribute such gain. Income and capital gain distributions are determined in accordance with income tax regulations, which may differ from U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

(f) Federal income taxes: It is the policy of the fund to continue to qualify as a regulated investment company, if such qualification is in the best interests of its shareholders, by complying with the applicable provisions of the Code, and to make distributions of taxable income sufficient to relieve it from substantially all federal income and excise taxes.

On July 13, 2006, the FASB released FASB Interpretation No. 48 "Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes" (FIN 48). FIN 48 provides guidance for how uncertain tax positions should be recognized, measured, presented and disclosed in the financial statements. FIN 48 requires the evaluation of tax positions taken or expected to be taken in the course of preparing the fund's tax returns to determine whether the tax positions are "more-likely-than-not" of being sustained by the applicable tax authority. Tax positions not deemed to meet the more-likely-than-not threshold would be recorded as a tax benefit or expense in the current year. Adoption of FIN 48 is required for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2006 and is to be applied to all open tax years as of the effective date. Management does not believe that the application of this standard will have a material impact on the financial statements of the fund.

At May 31, 2007, the components of accumulated earnings on a tax basis were as follows: undistributed ordinary income $896,487 and unrealized appreciation $2,764,102.

The tax character of distributions paid to shareholders during the fiscal period ended May 31, 2007 were as follows: ordinary income $66,873.

During the period ended May 31, 2007, as a result of permanent book to tax differences, primarily due to the tax treatment for foreign currency transactions, passive foreign investment companies and Indian capital gain taxes, the fund increased accumulated undistributed investment income-net by $28,820, decreased accumulated net realized gain (loss) on investments by $25,717 and decreased paid-in capital by $3,103. Net assets were not affected by this reclassification.

NOTE 2—Bank Line of Credit:

The fund participates with other Dreyfus-managed funds in a $350 million redemption credit facility (the “Facility”) to be utilized for temporary or emergency purposes, including the financing of redemptions. In connection therewith, the fund has agreed to pay commitment fees on its pro rata portion of the Facility. Interest is charged to the fund based on prevailing market rates in effect at the time of borrowing. During the period ended May 31, 2007, the fund did not borrow under the Facility.

NOTE 3—Management Fee, Sub-Investment Advisory Fee and Other Transactions With Affiliates:

(a) Pursuant to a management agreement (“Agreement”) with Dreyfus, the management fee is computed at the annual rate of 1.25% of the value of the fund’s average daily net assets and is payable monthly. Dreyfus has contractually agreed to waive receipt of its fees and/or assume the expenses of the fund, until September 30, 2008, so that annual fund operating expenses (excluding Rule 12b-1 fees, shareholder services fees, taxes, interest, brokerage commissions, commitment fees on borrowings and extraordinary expenses) do not exceed 1.75% of the fund’s average daily net assets. The expense reimbursement, pursuant to the undertaking, amounted to $204,765 during the period ended May 31, 2007.

Pursuant to a Sub-Investment Advisory Agreement between Dreyfus and WMAM US, Dreyfus pays WMAM US an annual fee of .725% of the value of the fund’s average daily net assets, payable monthly.

During the period ended May 31, 2007, the Distributor retained $834 and $49 from commissions earned on sales of the fund’s Class A and Class T shares, respectively.

(b) Under the Distribution Plan (the “Plan”) adopted pursuant to Rule 12b-1 under the Act, Class C and Class T shares pay the Distributor for distributing their shares at an annual rate of .75% of the value of the average daily net assets of Class C shares and .25% of the value of the average daily net assets of Class T shares. During the period ended May 31, 2007, Class C and Class T shares were charged $3,917 and $654, respectively, pursuant to the Plan.

(c) Under the Shareholder Services Plan, Class A, Class C and Class T shares pay the Distributor at an annual rate of .25% of the value of their average daily net assets for the provision of certain services. The services provided may include personal services relating to shareholder accounts, such as answering shareholder inquiries regarding Class A, Class C and Class T shares and providing reports and other information, and services related to the maintenance of shareholder accounts. The Distributor may make payments to Service Agents (a securities dealer, financial institution or other industry professional) in respect of these services. The Distributor determines the amounts to be paid to Service Agents. During the period ended May 31, 2007, Class A, Class C and Class T shares were charged $23,829, $1,306 and $654, respectively, pursuant to the Shareholder Services Plan.

The fund compensates Dreyfus Transfer, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Dreyfus, under a transfer agency agreement for providing personnel and facilities to perform transfer agency services for the fund. During the period ended May 31, 2007, the fund was charged $527 pursuant to the transfer agency agreement.

During the period ended May 31, 2007, the fund was charged $4,089 for services performed by the Chief Compliance Officer.

The components of “Due to The Dreyfus Corporation and affiliates” in the Statement of Assets and Liabilities consist of: management fees $18,122, Rule 12b-1 distribution plan fees $673, shareholder services plan fees $3,526, chief compliance officer fees $3,748 and transfer agency per account fees $150, which are offset against an expense reimbursement currently in effect in the amount of $11,614.

(d) Each Board member also serves as a Board member of other funds within the Dreyfus complex. Annual retainer fees and attendance fees are allocated to each fund based on net assets.

(e) Pursuant to an exemptive order from the SEC, the fund may invest its available cash balances in affiliated money market mutual funds. Management fees of the underlying money market mutual funds have been waived by Dreyfus.

NOTE 4—Securities Transactions:

The aggregate amount of purchases and sales of investment securities, excluding short-term securities and forward currency exchange contracts, during the period ended May 31, 2007, amounted to $30,016,768 and $16,657,679, respectively.

The fund enters into forward currency exchange contracts in order to hedge its exposure to changes in foreign currency exchange rates on its foreign portfolio holdings and to settle foreign currency transactions. When executing forward currency exchange contracts, the fund is obligated to buy or sell a foreign currency at a specified rate on a certain date in the future. With respect to sales of forward currency exchange contracts, the fund would incur a loss if the value of the contract increases between the date the forward contract is opened and the date the forward contract is closed. The fund realizes a gain if the value of the contract decreases between those dates. With respect to purchases of forward currency exchange contracts, the fund would incur a loss if the value of the contract decreases between the date the forward contract is opened and the date the forward contract is closed. The fund realizes a gain if the value of the contract increases between those dates. The fund is also exposed to credit risk associated with counterparty nonperformance on these forward currency exchange contracts which is typically limited to the unrealized gain on each open contract. The following summarizes open forward currency exchange contracts at May 31, 2007:

Forward Currency Exchange Contracts	Foreign Currency Amounts	Cost ($)	Value ($)	Unrealized Appreciation (Depreciation) ($)
Purchases:
Hong Kong Dollar, expiring 6/4/2007	139,903	17,914	17,917	3
Malaysian Ringgit, expiring 6/1/2007	122,895	36,169	36,161	(8)
Sales:		Proceeds ($)
Brazilian Real, expiring 6/1/2007	42,418	21,916	22,033	(117)
Hong Kong Dollar, expiring 6/1/2007	209,497	26,840	26,830	10
Total				(112)

At May 31, 2007, the cost of investments for federal income tax purposes was $14,585,039; accordingly, accumulated net unrealized appreciation on investments was $2,764,067, consisting of $3,076,848 gross unrealized appreciation and $312,781 gross unrealized depreciation.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

Shareholders and Board of Directors Emerging Markets Opportunity Fund

We have audited the accompanying statement of assets and liabilities, including the statement of investments, of Emerging Markets Opportunity Fund (one of the funds comprising Strategic Funds, Inc.) as of May 31, 2007, and the related statements of operations and changes in net assets and financial highlights for the period from July 13, 2006 (commencement of operations) through May 31, 2007. These financial statements and financial highlights are the responsibility of the Fund's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements and financial highlights based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements and financial highlights are free of material misstatement. We were not engaged to perform an audit of the Fund's internal control over financial reporting. Our audit included consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Fund's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements and financial highlights, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, and evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. Our procedures included confirmation of securities owned as of May 31, 2007 by correspondence with the custodian. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements and financial highlights referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Emerging Markets Opportunity Fund at May 31, 2007, and the results of its operations, the changes in its net assets and the financial highlights for the period from July, 13, 2007 (commencement of operations) through May 31, 2007, in conformity with U. S. generally accepted accounting principles.

IMPORTANT TAX INFORMATION (Unaudited)

In accordance with federal tax law, the fund elects to provide each shareholder with their portion of the fund's foreign taxes paid and the income sourced from foreign countries. Accordingly, the fund hereby makes the following designations regarding its fiscal year ended May 31, 2007:

- the total amount of taxes paid to foreign countries was $18,857.
- the total amount of income sourced from foreign countries was $173,845.

As required by federal tax law rules, shareholders will receive notification of their proportionate share of foreign taxes paid and foreign sourced income for the 2007 calendar year with Form 1099-DIV which will be mailed by January 31, 2008. The fund hereby designates 1.50% of the ordinary dividends during the fiscal year ended May 31, 2007 as qualifying for the corporate dividends received deduction. Also, certain dividends paid by the fund may be subject to a maximum tax rate of 15%, as provided for by the Jobs and Growth Tax Relief Reconciliation Act of 2003. Of the distributions paid during the fiscal year, $66,873 represents the maximum amount that may be considered qualified dividend income.

Also, the fund designates $.0724 per share as a short-term capital gain distribution paid on December 29, 2006.
