AMERICAN NATIONAL BANK ANNOUNCES MANAGEMENT CHANGES FOR TRUST AND INVESTMENT SERVICES DIVISION

Danville, VA -- American National Bank and Trust Company, subsidiary of American National Bankshares Inc. (NASDAQ: AMNB), announced today that, as part of its management succession plan, Danny K. Wrenn has been named Senior Vice President & Senior Trust Officer. E. Budge Kent, Jr., currently Executive Vice President and Chief Trust & Investment Officer, will assume the new position of Senior Advisor for the Bank. Kent will continue as a member of the Board of Directors of the Bank and American National Bankshares Inc. The changes will be effective January 1, 2006.

Mr. Wrenn will assume direct responsibility for managing the Bank's trust and brokerage activities. He has served as Vice President and Senior Trust Officer since joining the Bank in February 2005. Prior to that, he served as Vice President and Senior Trust Officer for RBC Centura, where he was responsible for managing the Personal Trust area.

"I am pleased to announce this strengthening of our senior management team", said Charles H. Majors, President and Chief Executive Officer. "Both Dan and Budge bring a tremendous amount of experience and expertise to their new roles."

The Trust and Investment Services Division of the Bank manages over $400 million in assets for trusts, estates and retail brokerage customers. Services are provided to businesses, consumers, and nonprofit organizations, and include trust and estate administration, investment management, brokerage and financial planning.
