

MAXIM TO REQUEST NASDAQ HEARING REGARDING STOCK LISTING

Maxim Integrated Products, Inc. (NASDAQ: MXIM) announced that it will request a hearing before the Nasdaq Listing Qualifications Panel (the “Panel”) in response to the receipt of a Nasdaq Staff Determination letter dated September 25, 2006. The letter, which Maxim expected, was issued in accordance with standard Nasdaq procedures as a result of the delay in the filing of Maxim’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended June 24, 2006 with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). Timely filing of periodic reports with the SEC is a requirement for continued listing under Nasdaq Marketplace Rule 4310(c)(14). Pending a decision by the Panel, Maxim shares will remain listed on the NASDAQ Stock Market.

As previously disclosed, a Special Committee of Maxim’s Board of Directors has commenced an independent review of Maxim’s past stock option grants and practices. Maxim intends to file its Form 10-K as soon as practicable after completion of its internal review.

This press release contains forward-looking statements under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, including those related to Maxim’s plans to request a hearing before a Nasdaq Listing Qualifications Panel. There can be no assurance that a hearing will be granted by Nasdaq, the outcome of the hearing, if granted, is uncertain and Maxim’s shares could at some point in the future be delisted from Nasdaq for failure to comply with its Marketplace Rules. In addition, there can be no assurance concerning the outcome of the Special Committee’s review. These forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those contemplated herein.
