On February 26, 2004, the Superior Court of the State of California for the County of Contra Costa preliminarily approved the settlement as set forth in the Stipulation and Agreement of Settlement jointly filed by the general partners (the "General Partners") of NTS-Properties III, NTS-Properties IV, NTS-Properties V, NTS-Properties VI and NTS-Properties VII (the "Partnerships"), along with certain of their affiliates, with the class of plaintiffs in the action captioned Buchanan et al. v. NTS-Properties Associates V, et al. (Case No. C 01-05090) (the "Litigation") on December 5, 2003. The Superior Court's order, which sets forth its preliminary determination that the Stipulation and Agreement of Settlement is within the range of reasonableness, and is fair, just and adequate to the class of plaintiffs, is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1. The Superior Court has scheduled a hearing (the "Final Hearing") at 8:30 a.m. on May 6, 2004, to finally determine, among other things, whether: (1) the Stipulation and Agreement of Settlement is fair, reasonable and adequate, and in the best interests of the class of plaintiffs, and (2) the Litigation should be dismissed with prejudice and on the merits in accordance with the Stipulation and Agreement of Settlement.

At the Final Hearing, any member of the class of plaintiffs may appear personally or through his or her counsel to object to the final approval of the Stipulation and Agreement of Settlement, the entry of a final judgment dismissing with prejudice the Litigation or the application for an award of attorneys' fees and expenses to the counsel for the class of plaintiffs. To do so, a class member must file the following with the Superior Court and the attorneys for the class of plaintiffs and the General Partners and other defendants at least fourteen days prior to the Final Hearing: (1) a notice of the class member's intention to appear at the Final Hearing, (2) a detailed statement of the class member's specific objections and (3) the grounds for the objections and any documents that the class member desires the Superior Court to consider.

Pending the entry by the Superior Court of a final judgment and order dismissing the Litigation with prejudice, all members of the class of plaintiffs are barred and enjoined from: (1) transferring, selling, assigning or otherwise disposing of any limited partner units of the Partnerships, (2) granting a proxy to object to the merger of the Partnerships into NTS Realty Holdings Limited Partnership ("NTS Realty") as contemplated by the joint consent solicitation statement/prospectus that NTS Realty filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission or (3) commencing a tender offer for the limited partner units of the Partnerships.

More information on the settlement will be provided to members of the class pursuant to a notice and claim form approved by the Superior Court. This notice will be sent to the members of the class by March 11, 2004.

This announcement is not an offer to purchase, a solicitation of an offer to sell or the solicitation of a proxy to vote, any of the limited partner units of the Partnerships or of NTS Realty. The limited partnership units of NTS Realty, which will be issued if the merger is approved and completed, have not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933 (the “Act”) and may not be offered or sold in the United States absent registration under the Act or an applicable exemption from the registration requirement.
