REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Board of Directors and Shareholders
of Signal Securities, Inc.:

Opinion on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Signal Securities, Inc. (the Company) as of December 31, 2022, the related statements of income (loss), changes in stockholders' equity, changes in liabilities subordinated to the claims of general creditors pursuant to a satisfactory subordination agreement and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes (collectively referred to as the "financial statements"). In our opinion, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Signal Securities, Inc. as of December 31, 2022 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

These financial statements are the responsibility of Signal Securities, Inc.'s management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on Signal Securities, Inc.'s financial statements based on our audit. We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) ("PCAOB") and are required to be independent with respect to Signal Securities, Inc. in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud. Our audit included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Our audit also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Auditors' Report on Supplemental Information

The supplemental information contained in Schedule I Computation of Net Capital (Schedules II, III and IV are not applicable) required by Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 has been subjected to audit procedures performed in conjunction with the audit of Signal Securities, Inc.'s financial statements. The supplemental information is the responsibility of Signal Securities Inc.'s management. Our audit procedures included determining whether the supplemental information reconciles to the financial statements or the underlying accounting and other records, as applicable, and performing procedures to test the completeness and accuracy of the information presented in the supplemental information. In forming our opinion on the supplemental information, we evaluated whether the supplemental information, including its form and content, is presented in conformity with 17 C.F.R. 240.17a-5. In our opinion, Schedule I Computation of Net Capital is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

Rhodes Orick Pityk & Company

We have served as the Company's auditor since 1995.

SIGNAL SECURITIES, INC.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FOR THE YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2022

(1) SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

History and organization -

Signal Securities, Inc. (the Company) was incorporated on September 24, 1984, as a securities broker-dealer. The Company is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA).

Accounting policies -

The financial statements of the Company have been prepared on an accrual basis in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

Cash and restricted cash and cash equivalents -

For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Company considers all clearing deposits and money market accounts to be cash equivalents. Restricted cash represents monies held for the benefit of customers.

Property and equipment -

Property and equipment are carried at cost. The Company has a policy whereby property additions below a minimum amount are expensed as incurred. Depreciation of property and equipment is provided using the straight-line method for financial reporting purposes based on the following useful lives.

Assets	Estimated Useful Lives
Machinery and Equipment	7 years
Furniture and Fixtures	7 years
Data Processing Equipment	5 years
Leasehold improvements	10 years

For federal income tax purposes, depreciation is computed using the modified accelerated cost recovery system. Expenditures for major renewals and betterments that extend the useful lives of property and equipment are capitalized. Expenditures for maintenance and repairs are charged to expense as incurred.

U. S. Federal Income Taxes -

The Company has elected to be taxed under the provision of Subchapter S of the Internal Revenue Code. Under those provisions, the Company does not pay federal corporate income taxes on its taxable income. Instead, the shareholders are liable for individual federal income taxes on their respective shares of net income.

Advertising costs -

The advertising costs are expensed as incurred. Advertising costs for the year ended December 31, 2022 were $4,485.

Compensated absences -

Compensated absences have not been accrued because the amount cannot be reasonably estimated.

Receivables from dealers -

The Company uses the direct write off method for recording uncollectible receivables from dealers. Management has determined that the receivables from dealers are totally collectible.

Estimates -

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from these estimates.

(2) PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT:

Property and equipment are summarized by major classifications as follows:

Machinery and Equipment	$ 21,815
Furniture and Fixtures	30,808
Data Processing Equipment	90,019
Leasehold improvements	3,212
	145,854
Less accumulated depreciation	(132,052)
	$ 13,802

Depreciation expense for property and equipment for the year ended December 31, 2022, was $5,475.

(3) PROFIT SHARING TRUST:

The Company maintains a defined contribution profit sharing plan and salary reduction plan for its employees. The Company elects to contribute annually a safe harbor contribution for all eligible participants under the plan. The Board of Directors elected a safe harbor contribution equal to 3% of eligible participants' total compensation. The Board of directors elected to make an additional discretionary profit sharing contribution in the amount of $27,324 for the year ended December 31, 2022. For the year ended December 31, 2022, the Company's discretionary and safe harbor contribution to the trust totaled $56,087. The Company has accrued this contribution as a liability on its financial statements.

(4) REVENUE FROM CONTRACTS WITH CUSTOMERS:

Investment Advisory Fees -

The Company earns investment advisory fees from its contracts with customers to provide asset management and financial planning services. Management fees for the majority of the Company's customers are assessed quarterly in advance of service based on the account valuation on the last day of the preceding calendar quarter. Quarterly fees collected in advance are recognized as revenue in monthly, one-third increments as they are earned by the advisers. Occasionally, management fees for customers are assessed in arrears at the end of each quarter of service based on the account valuation on the last day of the quarter. Quarterly fees collected in arrears are recognized as revenue in total at the time that the payment is received. The Company may contract with a customer to charge a flat fee for the creation of a financial plan or asset review. Fees collected for financial planning are recognized at the time when the services are rendered.

Introducing Broker/Dealer Revenue from Clearing Firm -

The Company earns commissions and fees from transactions effected in customer accounts at the Company's clearing firm, Hilltop Securities. Clearing firm revenue is recognized monthly by the Company upon receipt of a month-end correspondent settlement.

Brokerage and Insurance Commissions and Fees -

The Company earns commissions and fees from customer contracts for investment company products, annuities, and insurance policies. Revenue from mutual fund and insurance companies is recognized in the period the income was earned.

REIT and Limited Partnership Sales on the Secondary Market -

The Company effectuates all financial transactions pertaining to the settlement of limited partnership and REIT trades on the secondary market through a bank account designated as "Special Account for the Exclusive Benefit of Customers". All fees and commission pertaining to a trade are recognized as revenue at the time that the trade closes and the funds are transferred to the Company's operating account.

(5) SUBORDINATED LOAN FROM A RELATED PARTY:

On March 18, 2022, the Company received approval from FINRA for the full pre-payment of the $250,000 subordinated loan that had a May 31, 2023 maturity date. At December 31, 2022 the Company has no outstanding subordinated loans.

(7) SUBSEQUENT EVENTS:

The Company evaluated subsequent events after the statement of financial condition date of December 31, 2022 through February 21, 2023, which was the date the financial statements were issued, and concluded that no additional disclosures are required.

(8) NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS:

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission uniform net capital rule (Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital. This rule requires a minimum net capital of $100,000 for brokers who participate in initial public offerings as part of the selling group. At December 31, 2022, the Company has net capital of $646,408, which is in excess of its required net capital.

(9) FOCUS REPORT PART II DIFFERENCE:

Differences between the accompanying financial statements and the Company's December 31, 2022, Focus Report Part II are as follows:

(10) COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES:

The Company leases its office space under an operating lease. In 2022, the existing lease had a term of 6 years with a commencement date of January 1, 2017. The lease expired on December 31, 2022. As this right-of-use lease did not provide an implicit interest rate, the Company utilized a 5.5% discount rate to determine the lease liability. When capitalized, the lease was recorded as an asset and a liability in the amount of $336,880. Operating lease expense was recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term. Operating lease expense for the right-of-use asset for the year ended December 31, 2022 was $89,935.

The Company has signed a new six-year lease effective January 1, 2023. Utilizing a 4.5% discount rate, the new lease will be recorded as an asset and a liability in the amount of $509,564.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM ON APPLYING AGREED-UPON PROCEDURES

To the Board of Directors of
Signal Securities, Inc.:

We have performed the procedures included in Rule 17a -5(e)(4) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and in the Securities Investor Protection Corporation (SIPC) Series 600 Rules, which are enumerated below on the accompanying General Assessment Reconciliation (Form SIPC-7) for the year ended December 31, 2022. Management of Signal Securities, Inc. (Company) is responsible for its Form SIPC-7 and for its compliance with the applicable instructions on Form SIPC-7.

Management of the Company has agreed to and acknowledged that the procedures performed are appropriate to meet the intended purpose of assisting you and SIPC in evaluating the Company's compliance with the applicable instructions on Form SIPC-7 for the year ended December 31, 2022. Additionally, SIPC has agreed to and acknowledged that the procedures performed are appropriate for their intended purpose. This report may not be suitable for any other purpose. The procedures performed may not address all the items of interest to a user of this report and may not meet the needs of all users of this report and, as such, users are responsible for determining whether the procedures performed are appropriate for their purposes. The sufficiency of these procedures is solely the responsibility of those parties specified in this report. Consequently, we make no representation regarding the sufficiency of the procedures described below either for the purpose for which this report has been requested or for any other purpose. The procedures we performed and our findings are as follows:

1. Compared the listed assessment payments in Form SIPC-7 with respective cash disbursement records entries, noting no differences;
2. Compared the Total Revenue amounts reported on the Annual Audited Report Form X-17A-5 Part III for the year ended December 31, 2022 with the Total Revenue amount reported in Form SIPC-7 for the year ended December 31, 2022, noting no differences;
3. Compared any adjustments reported in Form SIPC-7 with supporting schedules and working papers, noting no differences;
4. Recalculated the arithmetical accuracy of the calculations reflected in Form SIPC-7 and in the related schedules and working papers supporting the adjustments, noting no differences; and
5. Compared the amount of any overpayment applied to the current assessment with the Form SIPC-7 on which it was originally computed, noting no differences.

We were engaged by the Company to perform this agreed-upon procedures engagement and conducted our engagement in accordance with attestation standards established by the AICPA and in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). We were not engaged to and did not conduct an examination or a review engagement, the objective of which would be the expression of an opinion or conclusion, respectively, on the Company's Form SIPC-7 and for its compliance with the applicable instructions of the Form SIPC-7 for the year ended December 31, 2022. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion or conclusion. Had we performed additional procedures, other matters might have come to our attention that would have been reported to you.

We are required to be independent of the Company and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements related to our agreed upon procedures engagement.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Company and SIPC and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Board of Directors and Shareholders of Signal Securities, Inc.

We have reviewed management's statements, included in the accompanying Exemption Report, in which 1) Signal Securities, Inc. identified the following provisions of 17 C.F.R. Rule 15c 3-3(k) under which Signal Securities, Inc. claimed the following exemptions from 17 C.F.R. Rule 240.15c 3-3 (k) (2) (ii) and (k) (2) (i) and 2) Signal Securities, Inc. stated that Signal Securities, Inc. met the identified exemption provisions throughout the most recent fiscal year without exception.

The Company is also filing this Exemption Report because the Company's other business activities contemplated by Footnote 74 of the SEC Release No. 34-70073 adopting amendments to 17 C.F.R Rule 240.17a-5 are limited to mutual fund retailer, municipal securities broker, broker or dealer selling variable life insurance or annuities, broker or dealer selling tax shelter or limited partnerships in primary distributions and private placement of securities. In addition, the Company did not directly or indirectly receive, hold, or otherwise owe funds or securities for or to customers, other than money or other consideration received and promptly transmitted in compliance with paragraph (a) or (b) (2) of Rule 15c2-4 and/or funds received and promptly transmitted for effecting transactions via subscriptions on a subscription way basis where the funds are payable to the issuer or its agent and not to the Company; did not carry accounts of or for customers; and did not carry PAB accounts (as defined in Rule 15c3-3) throughout the most recent fiscal year, December 31, 2022, without exception.

Signal Securities, Inc.'s management is responsible for compliance with the exemption provisions and its statements.

Our review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about Signal Securities, Inc.'s compliance with the exemption provisions. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on management's statements. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the provisions set forth in paragraphs (k) (2) (ii), (k) (2) (i) of Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the Company's other business activities contemplated by Footnote 74 of the SEC Release No. 34-70073 adopting amendments to 17 C.F.R. 240.17a-5, and related SEC Staff Frequently Asked Questions.

SIGNAL SECURITIES, INC.

EXEMPTION REPORT FOR THE YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2022

Signal Securities, Inc. (the "Company") is a registered broker-dealer subject to Rule 17a-5 promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission (17 C.F.R. §240.17a-5, "Reports to be made by certain brokers and dealers"). This Exemption Report was prepared as required by 17 C.F.R. §17a-5(d)(1) and (4). To the best of its knowledge and belief, the Company states the following:

(1) The Company claimed an exemption from 17 C.F.R. §240.15c3-3 under the following provisions of 17 C.F.R. §240.15c3-3(k)(2)(ii):

As an introducing broker/dealer, the Company clears all transactions with and for customers on a fully disclosed basis with Hilltop Securities, Inc. (clearing firm). The Company promptly transmits all customer funds and securities to Hilltop Securities, Inc. which carries all of the accounts of such customers and maintains and preserves such books and records as are customarily made and kept by a clearing broker or dealer.

(2) The Company claimed an exemption from 17 C.F.R. §240.15c3-3 under the following provisions of 17 C.F.R. §240.15c3-3 (k)(2)(i):

The Company effectuates all financial transactions pertaining to the settlement of limited partnership and REIT trades on the secondary market through a bank account designated as "Special Account for the Exclusive Benefit of Customers" pursuant to 17 C.F.R. §240.15c3-3 (k)(2)(i).

(3) The Company is also filing this Exemption Report because the Company's other business activities contemplated by Footnote 74 of the SEC Release No. 34-70073 adopting amendments to 17 C.F.R. §240.17a-5 are limited to mutual fund and variable annuity/variable life transactions where the company did not directly or indirectly receive, hold, or otherwise owe funds or securities for or to customers (other than funds received and promptly transmitted for effecting transactions via subscriptions on a subscription way basis where the funds are payable to the issuer of its agent and not to the Company).

To the best of its knowledge and belief, the Company believes that it met the provisions of the above exemptions during the fiscal year 2022 without exception.

Signal Securities, Inc.

I, Jerry Singleton, affirm that, to my best knowledge and belief, this Exemption Report is true and correct.
