CAUTIONARY NOTICE WITH RESPECT TO FORWARD LOOKING STATEMENTS

This report contains "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the securities laws. The Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 provides a safe harbor for forward-looking statements. In order to comply with the terms of the safe harbor, the Company notes that a variety of factors could cause the Company's actual results and experience to differ materially from the anticipated results or other expectations expressed in the Company's forward-looking statements.

All statements that are not historical facts are statements that could be "forward-looking statements." You can identify these forward-looking statements through the use of words such as "may," "will," "should," "could," "would," "expect," "anticipate," "assume," "indicate," "contemplate," "seek," "plan," "predict," "target," "potential," "believe," "intend," "estimate," "project," "continue," or other similar words. Forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements regarding the Company's future business prospects, revenues, working capital, liquidity, capital needs, interest costs, income, business operations and proposed services.

These forward-looking statements are based on current expectations, estimates and projections about the banking industry and the economy, management's beliefs, and assumptions made by management. Such information includes, without limitation, discussions as to estimates, expectations, beliefs, plans, strategies, and objectives concerning future financial and operating performance. These statements are not guarantees of future performance and are subject to risks, uncertainties and assumptions that are difficult to predict. Therefore, actual results may differ materially from those expressed or forecasted in such forward-looking statements. The risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to:

- future economic and business conditions;
- lack of sustained growth and disruptions in the economies of the Company's market areas;
- government monetary and fiscal policies;
- the effects of changes in interest rates on the levels, composition and costs of deposits, loan demand, and the values of loan collateral, securities, and interest sensitive assets and liabilities;
- the effects of competition from a wide variety of local, regional, national and other providers of financial, investment, and insurance services, as well as competitors that offer banking products and services by mail, telephone, computer and/or the Internet;
- credit risks;
- higher than anticipated levels of defaults on loans;
- perceptions by depositors about the safety of their deposits;
- ability to weather the current economic downturn;
- loss of consumer or investor confidence;
- the failure of assumptions underlying the establishment of the allowance for loan losses and other estimates, including the value of collateral securing loans;
- the risks of opening new offices, including, without limitation, the related costs and time of building customer relationships and integrating operations as part of these endeavors and the failure to achieve expected gains, revenue growth and/or expense savings from such endeavors;
- increases in deposit insurance premiums;
- changes in laws and regulations, including tax, banking and securities laws and regulations;
- changes in accounting policies, rules and practices;
- changes in technology or products may be more difficult or costly, or less effective, than anticipated;
- the effects of war or other conflicts, acts of terrorism or other catastrophic events that may affect general economic conditions and economic confidence; and
- other factors and information described in this report and in any of the other reports that we file with the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

All forward-looking statements are expressly qualified in their entirety by this cautionary notice. The Company has no obligation, and does not undertake, to update, revise or correct any of the forward-looking statements after the date of this report. The Company has expressed its expectations, beliefs and projections in good faith and believes they have a reasonable basis. However, there is no assurance that these expectations, beliefs or projections will result or be achieved or accomplished.

NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(All Dollar Amounts in Thousands)

NOTE 1 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Net income per share - Net income per share is computed on the basis of the weighted average number of common shares outstanding resulting in 1,670,782 shares for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2009 and 1,676,690 shares for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2008.

Fair values of financial instruments

Financial Accounting Standards Board Accounting Standards Codification 820 (FASB ASC 820), "Fair Value of Financial Instruments," requires disclosure of fair value information for financial instruments, whether or not recognized in the balance sheet, when it is practicable to estimate the fair value. FASB ASC 820 defines a financial instrument as cash, evidence of an ownership interest in an entity or contractual obligations which require the exchange of cash or other financial instruments. Certain items are specifically excluded from the disclosure requirements, including the Company's common stock. In addition, other nonfinancial instruments such as premises and equipment and other assets and liabilities are not subject to the disclosure requirements.

The following methods and assumptions were used by the Company in estimating fair values of financial instruments as disclosed herein:

Cash and due from banks - The carrying amounts of cash and due from banks (cash on hand, due from banks and interest bearing deposits with other banks) approximate their fair value.

Federal funds sold - The carrying amounts of federal funds sold approximate their fair value.

Investment securities available for sale and held to maturity - Fair values for investment securities are based on quoted market prices.

Other investments - No ready market exists for Federal Reserve and Federal Home Loan Bank Stock and they have no quoted market value. However, redemption of this stock has historically been at par value. Management has determined it is not practicable to estimate the fair value and has not performed an impairment analysis.

Loans - For variable rate loans that reprice frequently and for loans that mature within one year, fair values are based on carrying values. Fair values for all other loans are estimated using discounted cash flow analyses, with interest rates currently being offered for loans with similar terms to borrowers of similar credit quality. Fair values for impaired loans are estimated using discounted cash flow analyses or underlying collateral values, where applicable.

Deposits - The fair values disclosed for demand deposits are, by definition, equal to their carrying amounts. The carrying amounts of variable rate, fixed-term money market accounts and short-term certificates of deposit approximate their fair values at the reporting date. Fair values for long-term fixed-rate certificates of deposit are estimated using a discounted cash flow calculation that applies interest rates currently being offered on certificates to a schedule of aggregated expected monthly maturities.

Short-term borrowings - The carrying amounts of borrowings under repurchase agreements, federal funds purchased, U. S. Treasury demand notes, and Federal Home Loan Bank advances approximate their fair values.

Off balance sheet instruments - Fair values of off balance sheet lending commitments are based on fees currently charged to enter into similar agreements, taking into account the remaining terms of the agreements and the counterparties' credit standing.

Recently Issued Accounting Pronouncements – The following is a summary of recent authoritative pronouncements that could impact the accounting, reporting, and/or disclosure of financial information by the Company.

In June 2009, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (“SFAS”) No. 168, “The FASB Accounting Standards Codification™ and the Hierarchy of Generally Accepted Accounting Principles – a replacement of FASB Statement No. 162,” (“SFAS 168”). SFAS 168 establishes the FASB Accounting Standards Codification™ (“Codification”) as the source of authoritative generally accepted accounting principles (“GAAP”) for nongovernmental entities. The Codification does not change GAAP. Instead, it takes the thousands of individual pronouncements that currently comprise GAAP and reorganizes them into approximately 90 accounting Topics, and displays all Topics using a consistent structure. Contents in each Topic are further organized first by Subtopic, then Section and finally Paragraph. The Paragraph level is the only level that contains substantive content. Citing particular content in the Codification involves specifying the unique numeric path to the content through the Topic, Subtopic, Section and Paragraph structure. FASB suggests that all citations begin with “FASB ASC,” where ASC stands for Accounting Standards Codification. Changes to the ASC subsequent to June 30, 2009 are referred to as Accounting Standards Updates (“ASU”).

In conjunction with the issuance of SFAS 168, the FASB also issued its first Accounting Standards Update No. 2009-1, “Topic 105 –Generally Accepted Accounting Principles” (“ASU 2009-1”) which includes SFAS 168 in its entirety as a transition to the ASC. ASU 2009-1 is effective for interim and annual periods ending after September 15, 2009 and will not have an impact on the Company’s financial position or results of operations but will change the referencing system for accounting standards. Certain of the following pronouncements were issued prior to the issuance of the ASC and adoption of the ASUs. For such pronouncements, citations to the applicable Codification by Topic, Subtopic and Section are provided where applicable in addition to the original standard type and number.

The FASB issued ASU 2009-05, “Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures (Topic 820) – Measuring Liabilities at Fair Value” in August, 2009 to provide guidance when estimating the fair value of a liability. When a quoted price in an active market for the identical liability is not available, fair value should be measured using (a) the quoted price of an identical liability when traded as an asset; (b) quoted prices for similar liabilities or similar liabilities when traded as assets; or (c) another valuation technique consistent with the principles of Topic 820 such as an income approach or a market approach. If a restriction exists that prevents the transfer of the liability, a separate adjustment related to the restriction is not required when estimating fair value. The ASU was effective October 1, 2009 for the Company and will have no impact on financial position or operations.

ASU 2009-12, “Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures (Topic 820) - Investments in Certain Entities That Calculate Net Asset Value per Share (or Its Equivalent),” issued in September, 2009, allows a company to measure the fair value of an investment that has no readily determinable fair market value on the basis of the investee’s net asset value per share as provided by the investee. This allowance assumes that the investee has calculated net asset value in accordance with the GAAP measurement principles of Topic 946 as of the reporting entity’s measurement date. Examples of such investments include investments in hedge funds, private equity funds, real estate funds and venture capital funds. The update also provides guidance on how the investment should be classified within the fair value hierarchy based on the value for which the investment can be redeemed. The amendment is effective for interim and annual periods ending after December 15, 2009 with early adoption permitted. The Company does not have investments in such entities and, therefore, there will be no impact to our financial statements.

ASU 2009-13, “Revenue Recognition (Topic 605): Multiple-Deliverable Revenue Arrangements – a consensus of the FASB Emerging Issues Task Force” was issued in October, 2009 and provides guidance on accounting for products or services (deliverables) separately rather than as a combined unit utilizing a selling price hierarchy to determine the selling price of a deliverable. The selling price is based on vendor-specific evidence, third-party evidence or estimated selling price. The amendments in the Update are effective prospectively for revenue arrangements entered into or materially modified in fiscal years beginning on or after June 15, 2010 with early adoption permitted. The Company does not expect the update to have an impact on its financial statements.

Other accounting standards that have been issued or proposed by the FASB or other standards-setting bodies are not expected to have a material impact on the Company’s financial position, results of operations and cash flows.

NOTE 2 – RESTRICTIONS ON CASH AND DUE FROM BANKS

The Bank is required to maintain average reserve balances either at the Bank or on deposit with the Federal Reserve Bank. The average amounts of these reserve balances for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2009 and for the year ended December 31, 2008 were approximately $2,132 and $2,638, respectively.

NOTE 3 – INVESTMENT SECURITIES

Investment securities with a par value of approximately $201,636 at September 30, 2009 and $174,673 at December 31, 2008 were pledged to secure public deposits and for other purposes required by law.

The following summaries reflect the book value, unrealized gains and losses, approximate market value, and tax-equivalent yields of investment securities listed by type of issuer and maturity at September 30, 2009 and at December 31, 2008.

Securities classified as available-for-sale are recorded at fair market value. The Company had no unrealized losses consisting of securities in a continuous loss position for twelve months or more at September 30, 2009 or December 31, 2008. The Company had total unrealized losses of $296 consisting of 20 securities with a fair value of $31,476 at September 30, 2009 and had total unrealized losses of $401 consisting of 22 securities with a fair value of $10,926 at December 31, 2008. Management does not consider these losses other than temporary, intends to hold these securities to maturity, and believes that the Company has the ability to hold these securities to maturity.

For the nine-month period ended September 30, 2009, $45,605 of par value available-for-sale securities were sold for a gain of $1,352. There were no sales of securities available-for-sale in 2008.

Management reviews securities for other-than-temporary impairment on at least a quarterly basis, and more frequently when economic or market concerns warrant such evaluation. Consideration is given to (1) the length of time and the extent to which the fair value has been less than cost, (2) the financial condition and near-term prospects of the issuer, and (3) the Company does not intend to sell these securities and it is more likely than not that the Company will not be required to sell these securities before recovery of their amortized cost.

NOTE 4 - LOANS AND ALLOWANCE FOR LOAN LOSSES

The entire balance of the allowance for loan losses is available to absorb future loan losses.

At September 30, 2009, September 30, 2008, and December 31, 2008 loans on which no interest was being accrued totaled $11,318, $3,230 and $2,990, respectively. A portion of the loans on which no interest was being accrued as well as other loans identified by management are classified as impaired. Impaired loans at September 30, 2009, September 30, 2008, and December 31, 2008, were $12,992, $367, and $4,158, respectively. The Company had $1,544 of foreclosed real estate at September 30, 2009, $239 of foreclosed real estate at September 30, 2008, and $639 of foreclosed real estate at December 31, 2008. Loans 90 days past due and still accruing interest totaled $711, $248, and $608 at September 30, 2009, September 30, 2008, and December 31, 2008, respectively.

At September 30, 2009, September 30, 2008, and December 31, 2008 classified assets, the majority consisting of classified loans, were $47,551, $18,885, and $18,170, respectively. At September 30, 2009, September 30, 2008, and December 31, 2008 classified assets represented 49.20%, 20.25%, and 19.99% of total capital (the sum of Tier 1 Capital and the Allowance for Loan Losses), respectively.

NOTE 5 - PREMISES AND EQUIPMENT

Property at September 30, 2009 and December 31, 2008 is summarized as follows:

	September 30, 2009	December 31, 2008
Land and buildings	$ 26,262	$ 26,262
Furniture, fixtures and equipment	9,812	8,811

Less accumulated depreciation and amortization	12,915	11,789
	$ 23,596	$ 23,403

Depreciation and amortization of bank premises and equipment charged to operating expense was $1,170 for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2009, and $1,330 for the year ended December 31, 2008. The construction in progress is primarily related to the renovation of the Company's Surfside branch office located in Conway, South Carolina, land improvements and installation of an automated teller machine (ATM) at the Company's Carolina Forest site located in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina, and the renovation of the Company's Aynor branch office located in Aynor, South Carolina. No remaining construction and equipment costs are associated with the Surfside branch office, the Carolina Forest ATM, and the Aynor branch office.

NOTE 6 - CERTIFICATES OF DEPOSIT IN EXCESS OF $100

At September 30, 2009 and December 31, 2008, certificates of deposit of $100 or more included in time deposits totaled approximately $204,249 and $210,669, respectively. Interest expense on these deposits was approximately $4,124 for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2009 and $8,110 for the year ended December 31, 2008.

NOTE 7 - SECURITIES SOLD UNDER REPURCHASE AGREEMENTS

At September 30, 2009 and December 31, 2008, securities sold under repurchase agreements totaled $110,151 and $67,415, respectively. Securities with a book value of $122,579 ($123,308 fair value) and $71,752 ($72,845 fair value), respectively, were used as collateral for the agreements. The weighted-average interest rate of these agreements was 1.00 percent and 2.41 percent at September 30, 2009 and December 31, 2008, respectively.

NOTE 8 - LINES OF CREDIT

At September 30, 2009, the Bank had unused short-term lines of credit to purchase Federal Funds from unrelated banks totaling $30,500. These lines of credit are available on a one to seven day basis for general corporate purposes of the Bank. All of the lenders have reserved the right to withdraw these lines at their option.

The Bank has a demand note through the U.S. Treasury, Tax and Loan system with the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond. The Bank may borrow up to $7,000 under the arrangement at a variable interest rate. The note is secured by bonds with a market value of $3,011 at September 30, 2009. The amount outstanding under the note totaled $743 and $2,672 at September 30, 2009 and December 31, 2008, respectively.

The Bank also has a line of credit from the Federal Home Loan Bank of Atlanta for $68,756 secured by a lien on the Bank's 1-4 family mortgages. Allowable terms range from overnight to twenty years at varying rates set daily by the FHLB. There were $20,000 in borrowings under the agreement at September 30, 2009 and $30,000 at December 31, 2008.

NOTE 9 - INCOME TAXES

Income tax expense for the quarters ended September 30, 2009 and September 30, 2008 on pretax income of $1,906 and $3,630 totaled $614 and $1,245, respectively. The provision for federal income taxes is calculated by applying the 34% statutory federal income tax rate and increasing or reducing this amount due to any tax-exempt interest, state bank tax (net of federal benefit), business credits, surtax exemption, tax preferences, alternative minimum tax calculations, or other factors. A summary of income tax components and a reconciliation of income taxes to the federal statutory rate are included in fiscal year-end reports.

The Company accounts for income taxes in accordance with FASB ASC 740 "Income Taxes."

NOTE 10 - COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENT LIABILITIES

From time to time the Bank is a party to various litigation matters, both as plaintiff and as defendant, arising from its normal operations. No material losses are anticipated in connection with any of these matters at September 30, 2009.

In the normal course of business, the Bank is a party to financial instruments with off-balance-sheet risk including commitments to extend credit and standby letters of credit. Such instruments have elements of credit risk in excess of the amount recognized in the balance sheet. The exposure to credit loss in the event of nonperformance by the other parties to the financial instruments for commitments to extend credit and standby letters of credit is represented by the contractual notional amount of those instruments. Generally, the same credit policies used for on-balance-sheet instruments, such as loans, are used in extending loan commitments and standby letters of credit.

Following are the off-balance-sheet financial instruments whose contract amounts represent credit risk:

	September 30, 2009
Loan Commitments	$ 48,538
Standby letters of credit	2,225

Loan commitments involve agreements to lend to a customer as long as there is no violation of any condition established in the contract. Commitments generally have fixed expiration dates or other termination clauses and some involve payment of a fee. Many of the commitments are expected to expire without being fully drawn. Therefore, the total amount of loan commitments does not necessarily represent future cash requirements. Each customer's creditworthiness is evaluated on a case-by-case basis. The amount of collateral obtained, if any, upon extension of credit is based on management's credit evaluation of the borrower. Collateral held varies but may include certificates of deposit or other negotiable collateral, commercial and residential real properties, accounts receivable, inventory and equipment.

Standby letters of credit are conditional commitments to guarantee the performance of a customer to a third party. The credit risk involved in issuing standby letters of credit is the same as that involved in making loan commitments to customers. Many letters of credit will expire without being drawn upon and do not necessarily represent future cash requirements.

Management believes that its various sources of liquidity provide the resources necessary for the Bank to fund the loan commitments and to perform under standby letters of credit, if the need arises. Neither the Company nor the Bank are involved in other off-balance sheet contractual relationships or transactions that could result in liquidity needs or other commitments or significantly impact earnings.

NOTE 11 - EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PLAN

The Bank has a defined contribution pension plan covering all employees who have attained age twenty-one and have a minimum of one year of service. Upon ongoing approval of the Board of Directors, the Bank matches one-hundred percent of employee contributions up to three percent of employee salary deferred and fifty percent of employee contributions in excess of three percent and up to five percent of salary deferred. The Board of Directors may also make discretionary contributions to the Plan. For the three-month and nine-month periods ended September 30, 2009 and the year ended December 31, 2008, $92, $286, and $579 respectively, was charged to operations under the plan.

NOTE 12 - REGULATORY MATTERS

The Bank and the Company are subject to various regulatory capital requirements administered by the federal banking agencies. Failure to meet minimum capital requirements can initiate certain mandatory - and possibly additional discretionary - actions by regulators that, if undertaken, could have a direct material effect on the financial statements. The regulations require the Bank and the Company to meet specific capital adequacy guidelines that involve quantitative measures of assets, liabilities, and certain off-balance-sheet items as calculated under regulatory accounting practices. The capital classification is also subject to qualitative judgments by the regulators about components, risk weightings, and other factors.

Quantitative measures established by regulation to ensure capital adequacy require the maintenance of minimum amounts and ratios (set forth in the tables below) of Tier 1 capital to adjusted total assets (Leverage Capital ratio) and minimum ratios of Tier 1 and total capital to risk-weighted assets. To be considered adequately capitalized under the regulatory framework for prompt corrective action, the Company and the Bank must maintain minimum Tier 1 leverage, Tier 1 risk-based and total risk-based ratios as set forth in the tables below. The Company's and the Bank's actual capital ratios are presented in the tables below as of September 30, 2009:

Company

	Actual		For Capital adequacy Purposes Minimum
	Amount	Ratio	Amount	Ratio

Effective January 1, 2008, the Company adopted FASB ASC 820, "Fair Value of Financial Instruments" which provides a framework for measuring and disclosing fair value under generally accepted accounting principles. FASB ASC 820 requires disclosures about the fair value of assets and liabilities recognized in the balance sheet in periods subsequent to initial recognition, whether the measurements are made on a recurring basis (for example, available-for-sale investment securities) or on a nonrecurring basis (for example, impaired loans).

FASB ASC 820 defines fair value as the exchange price that would be received for an asset or paid to transfer a liability (an exit price) in the principal or most advantageous market for the asset or liability in an orderly transaction between market participants on the measurement date. FASB ASC 820 also establishes a fair value hierarchy which requires an entity to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs when measuring fair value. The standard describes three levels of inputs that may be used to measure fair value:

- Level 1 Quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities. Level 1 assets and liabilities include debt and equity securities and derivative contracts that are traded in an active exchange market, as well as U.S. Treasuries and money market funds.
- Level 2 Observable inputs other than Level 1 prices such as quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities; quoted prices in markets that are not active; or other inputs that are observable or can be corroborated by observable market data for substantially the full term of the assets or liabilities. Level 2 assets and liabilities include debt securities with quoted prices that are traded less frequently than exchange-traded instruments, mortgage backed securities, municipal bonds, corporate debt securities, and derivative contracts whose value is determined using a pricing model with inputs that are observable in the market or can be derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data. This category generally includes certain derivative contracts and impaired loans.
- Level 3 Unobservable inputs that are supported by little or no market activity and that are significant to the fair value of the assets or liabilities. Level 3 assets and liabilities include financial instruments whose value is determined using pricing models, discounted cash flow methodologies, or similar techniques, as well as instruments for which the determination of fair value requires significant management judgment or estimation. For example, this category generally includes certain private equity investments, retained residual interests in securitizations, residential mortgage servicing rights, and highly-structured or long-term derivative contracts.

The Company has no assets or liabilities whose fair values are measured using Level 1 inputs.

The Company's available-for-sale investment securities ($222,502 at September 30, 2009) include debt securities of U.S. government sponsored enterprises, municipal bonds, and mortgage backed securities. The Company considers the market quoted prices of these instruments to be equivalent to debt securities that are traded less frequently than exchange-traded instruments and therefore classifies them as Level 2 inputs. The Company predominantly makes loans for the purposes of real estate acquisition, construction, agriculture, commercial and industrial needs, and consumer expenditures. The majority of the Company's loans are real estate secured. Loans which are deemed to be impaired are primarily valued at the fair values of the underlying real estate collateral. Such fair values are obtained using independent appraisals, which the Company considers to be Level 2 inputs. The aggregate carrying amount of impaired loans at September 30, 2009 was $12,992. The Company also generally acquires other real estate owned through foreclosure of debts previously contracted. Other real estate owned is valued at fair value. Fair values for other real estate owned are obtained using independent appraisals, which the Company considers to be Level 2 inputs. The aggregate carrying amount of other real estate owned at September 30, 2009 was $1,544.

The Company's available-for-sale investment securities, impaired loans, and other real estate owned are the only assets whose fair values the Company measures using level 2 inputs. The Company has no liabilities whose fair values are measured using Level 2 inputs.

The Company has no assets or liabilities whose fair values are measured using Level 3 inputs.

The Company does not have goodwill, other intangible assets, other assets acquired through foreclosure, or other non-financial assets.

NOTE 15 – SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

The Company has evaluated events subsequent to the balance sheet date through November 9, 2009, which is the date that the financial statements were issued.

Subsequent events may either provide additional evidence about conditions that existed at the balance sheet date, including estimates inherent in the process of preparing financial statements (recognized subsequent events), or provide evidence about conditions that did not exist at the balance sheet date but arose after the balance sheet date but before the financial statements were issued (nonrecognized subsequent events). The effects of recognized subsequent events, if any, have been included in the financial statements. If the effects of nonrecognized subsequent events, if any, are of a nature that they must be disclosed to keep the financial statements from being misleading, the Company would disclose both the nature of the event, an estimate of its financial effect or would state that an estimate of the financial effect cannot be made. As of September 30, 2009, other than as set forth below, there were no nonrecognized subsequent events that required disclosure.

On October 13, 2009, the Company effected a two-for-one common stock split, which resulted in the reduction of the par value of its common stock from $10 per share to $5 per share and the issuance of 838,741 additional shares. The earnings per common share for the year ended December 31, 2008 have been retroactively adjusted for this split as if it occurred on January 1, 2008.

Item 2.*MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

(All dollar amounts in thousands, except per share data.)

Management's Discussion and Analysis is provided to afford a clearer understanding of the major elements of the Company's results of operations, financial condition, liquidity, and capital resources. The following discussion should be read in conjunction with the Company's financial statements and notes thereto and other detailed information appearing elsewhere in this report. In addition, the results of operations for the interim periods shown in this report are not necessarily indicative of results to be expected for the fiscal year. The accompanying consolidated financial statements include all accounts of the Company and the Bank. All significant intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation. The accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements at September 30, 2009 and for the three and nine-month periods ending September 30, 2009 and 2008 have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP") for interim financial information and with the instructions to Form 10-Q of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Accordingly, they do not include all information and footnotes required by GAAP for complete financial statements. However, in the opinion of management, all adjustments (consisting of normal recurring adjustments) considered necessary for a fair presentation have been included.

DISTRIBUTION OF ASSETS AND LIABILITIES

The Company has historically maintained a conservative approach in determining the distribution of assets and liabilities. Loans decreased .2% from $588,371 at September 30, 2008 to $586,947 at September 30, 2009, and decreased 1.9%, from $598,281 at December 31, 2008 to $586,947 at September 30, 2009. Loans decreased as a percentage of total assets from 68.9% to 64.3% from September 30, 2008 to September 30, 2009 and decreased from 68.4% to 64.3% from December 31, 2008 to September 30, 2009. Loan demand in our market area continues at a moderate pace. Securities and federal funds sold increased as a percentage of total assets from 25.6% at September 30, 2008 to 27.2% at September 30, 2009, and increased from 26.1% of total assets at December 31, 2008 to 27.2% at September 30, 2009, a reflection of continued moderate loan demand coupled with lower levels of deposits. The level of investments and excess Federal Reserve deposits provides for a more than adequate supply of liquidity.

Management has sought to build the deposit base with stable, relatively non-interest-sensitive deposits by offering the small to medium deposit account holders a wide array of deposit instruments at competitive rates. Non-interest-bearing demand deposits decreased as a percentage of total assets from 13.1% at September 30, 2008 to 11.7% at September 30, 2009, and increased from 11.5% at December 31, 2008 to 11.7% at September 30, 2009. As more customers, both business and personal, are attracted to interest-bearing deposit accounts, we expect the percentage of non-interest bearing demand deposits to decline over the long-term. Interest-bearing deposits decreased from 67.3% of total assets at September 30, 2008 to 63.5% at September 30, 2009, and decreased from 66.2% at December 31, 2008 to 63.5% at September 30, 2009. Securities sold under agreement to repurchase increased from 7.1% of total assets at September 30, 2008 to 12.1% at September 30, 2009, and increased from 7.7% of total assets at December 31, 2008 to 12.1% at September 30, 2009. Other short-term borrowings decreased from 3.9% of total assets at December 31, 2008 to 2.3% at September 30, 2009. Other short-term borrowings increased from 1.6% at September 30, 2008 to 2.3% at September 30, 2009.

The following table sets forth the percentage relationship to total assets of significant components of the Company's balance sheets as of September 30, 2009 and September 30, 2008 and December 31, 2008:

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Earnings for the three-month periods ended September 30, 2009 and 2008 were $1,292 and $2,385 respectively, resulting in a return on average assets of .57% and 1.11% and a return on average stockholders' equity of 5.87% and 11.42%, respectively.

Earnings for the nine-month periods ended September 30, 2009 and 2008 were $4,071 and $7,062, respectively, resulting in a return on average assets of .60% and 1.09% and a return on average stockholders equity of 6.23% and 11.29%, respectively.

The earnings were primarily attributable to net interest income in each period (see Net Income-Net Interest Income). Other factors include management's ongoing effort to maintain noninterest income at adequate levels (see Net Income - Noninterest Income) and to control noninterest expenses (see Net Income - Noninterest Expenses). This level of earnings, coupled with a moderate dividend policy, has supplied the necessary capital funds to support growth in total assets. Total assets increased $58,845 or 6.9% to $912,335 at September 30, 2009 from $853,490 at September 30, 2008. The following table sets forth the financial highlights for the three and nine-month periods ended at September 30, 2009 and September 30, 2008:

For the nine-month period ended September 30, 2009, average total assets amounted to $898,702 with average stockholders' equity totaling $87,124 for the same period.

NET INCOME

Net Interest Income - Earnings are dependent to a large degree on net interest income, defined as the difference between gross interest and fees earned on earning assets, primarily loans and securities, and interest paid on deposits and borrowed funds. Net interest income is affected by the interest rates earned or paid and by volume changes in loans, securities, deposits, and borrowed funds.

Interest rates paid on deposits and borrowed funds and earned on loans and investments have generally followed the fluctuations in market interest rates in 2009 and 2008. However, fluctuations in market interest rates do not necessarily have a significant impact on net interest income, depending on the bank's rate sensitivity position. A rate sensitive asset (RSA) is any loan or investment on which the interest rate can be repriced either up or down within a certain time interval. A rate sensitive liability (RSL) is an interest paying deposit or other liability on which the interest rate can be repriced either up or down within a certain time interval. When a proper balance between RSA and RSL exists, market interest rate fluctuations should not have a significant impact on earnings. The larger the imbalance, the greater the interest rate risk assumed by the Bank and the greater the positive or negative impact of interest rate fluctuations on earnings. The Bank seeks to manage its assets and liabilities in a manner that will limit interest rate risk and thus stabilize long-term earning power. Management believes that a 200 basis point rise or fall in interest rates will have less than a 10 percent effect on before-tax net interest income over a one-year period, which is within Bank guidelines.

The Bank maintained net interest margins for the three and nine-month periods ended September 30, 2009 of 3.77% and 3.81%, respectively, and 4.03% and 3.96%, respectively, for the same periods in 2008, as compared to management's long-term target of 4.20%. Net interest margins have been compressed for the Bank and industry-wide for several years for a variety of reasons. Dramatic decreases in market interest rates by the Federal Reserve during the first quarter of 2008 and additional decreases in market rates during 2008 placed further significant pressure on net interest margins for the industry as a whole. The resulting more historically typical upward-sloping yield curve would generally enhance the Bank's net interest margin. However, interest rates have been reduced to historically low levels. An extremely low interest rate environment is not one which enhances net interest margin. As well, competition in the Bank's specific market remains significant, as new competitors seek market share and other competitors attempt to reduce their dependence on brokered deposits. These factors tend to compress margins by driving the cost of deposits upward while driving the yields on loans downward.

Fully-tax-equivalent net interest income for the three-month period ended September 30, 2009 was $8,087, a decrease of .6% from the $8,138 attained for the three-month period ended September 30, 2008. During the same period, total fully-tax-equivalent interest income decreased by 9.9% to $10,984 from $12,188 and total interest expense decreased by 28.5% to $2,897 from $4,050. Fully-tax-equivalent net interest income as a percentage of average total earning assets decreased .26% to 3.77% for the three-month period ended September 30, 2009 from 4.03% for the three-month period ended September 30, 2008.

Fully-tax-equivalent net interest income for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2009 was $24,364, an increase of .8% from the $24,174 attained for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2008. During the same period, total fully-tax-equivalent interest income decreased by 12.6% to $33,700 from $38,578 and total interest expense decreased by 35.2% to $9,336 from $14,404. Fully-tax-equivalent net interest income as a percentage of average total earning assets decreased .15% to 3.81% for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2009 from 3.96% for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2008.

The tables on the following four pages present an analysis of average balances, yields and rates for the interest sensitive segments of the Company's balance sheets for the three-month and nine-month periods ended September 30, 2009 and 2008, and a summary of changes in net interest income resulting from changes in volume and changes in rate between the three-month and nine-month periods ended September 30, 2009 and 2008.

(2) Tax-exempt income is presented on a tax-equivalent basis using a 34% tax rate. The amounts shown include tax-equivalent adjustments of $462 and $420 for September 30, 2009 and 2008, respectively.

The table “Rate/Volume Variance Analysis” provides a summary of changes in net interest income resulting from changes in rate and changes in volume. The changes due to rate are calculated as the difference between the current and prior year’s rates multiplied by the prior year’s volume. The changes due to volume are calculated as the difference between the current and prior year’s volume multiplied by the current rates earned or paid (this calculation effectively allocates all rate/volume variances to volume variances).

Provision for Loan Losses – The allowance for loan losses is maintained at an amount based on considerations of classified and internally-identified problem loans, the current trend in delinquencies, the volume of past-due loans, historical loss experience, current economic conditions, the levels of higher-risk loans, declines in collateral value, the effects of changes in risk selection or underwriting practices, the experience, ability and depth of lending management and staff, industry conditions, the effect of changes in concentrations of credit, and loan administration risks.

The level of the allowance for loan losses is determined through the utilization of both quantitative and qualitative measures. Loans are identified as impaired as a result of past due status, management's determination of an inability on the part of the borrower to make full and timely payment of principal and interest, a decline in project performance, or improper loan structuring which evolves in the course of deterioration. Quantified losses associated with such loans are segregated as a component in the determination of the allowance for loan losses.

The Company employs migration analysis to determine the levels of risks and associated losses with homogenous pools of loans. This analysis determines levels of loss associated with pools of loans based on risk grade and historical loss factors by risk grades. Risk grading incorporates various loan attributes, including the majority of those associated with higher risk loans. These loan attributes are: demonstrated financial capacity and position, the borrower's demonstrated willingness to pay, proper loan structure, lien perfection on collateral, proper documentation, adherence to loan agreement covenants, and adherence to loan policy, among others. Quantified losses associated with pools of loans from migration analysis are segregated as a component in the determination of the allowance for loan losses.

The Company utilizes various qualitative factors to quantify additional risks and potential inherent losses existing in the Company's loan portfolios. These include consideration of levels and trends in delinquencies, changes in the loan grading mix, trends in the volume and terms of loans, over-margined real estate loans, national and local economic trends and conditions, changes in risk selection and underwriting practices, the experience, ability and depth of lending management and staff, industry conditions, loan concentrations, geographic concentrations, regulatory considerations, and various loan administration risks. Quantified losses associated with these qualitative factors are segregated as a component in the determination of the allowance for loan losses.

The provision for loan losses was $2,221 for the three-month period ended September 30, 2009 and $500 for the three-month period ended September 30, 2008. Net loan charge-offs/(recoveries) totaled $1,654 for the three-month period ended September 30, 2009 and $444 for the same period in 2008. The increased provisions and higher level of net charge-offs during the three-month period ended September 30, 2009 reflects the national economic recession and its impact on the local economy in which the Company operates. The Myrtle Beach-Conway-North Myrtle Beach South Carolina Metropolitan Statistical Area, wherein the majority of the Company's operations are situated, has experienced significant declines in various sectors of its economy, primarily in the real estate sectors. The allowance for loan losses as a percentage of net loans was 1.55% at September 30, 2009 and was 1.17% at September 30, 2008.

The provision for loan losses was $6,547 for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2009 and $1,354 for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2008. Net loan charge-offs/(recoveries) totaled $4,671 for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2009 and $1,069 for the same period in 2008. The increased provision and higher level of net charge-offs during the nine-month period ended September 30, 2009 again reflect the decline in local economic activity and real estate values as noted in the preceding paragraph.

The levels of loans on which no interest was being accrued, impaired loans, foreclosed real estate, and classified assets at September 30, 2009 and 2008 are outlined in the notes to the consolidated unaudited financial statements (See NOTE 4 – LOANS AND ALLOWANCE FOR LOAN LOSSES). All of these measurements increased during 2009, some markedly, and remained above levels historically experienced by the Company at September 30, 2009. Although increased, management considers all such levels manageable, and well below current industry averages. However, management recognizes the potential for further deterioration of economic conditions in the Company's market areas in the short-term, especially with respect to real estate related activities and real property values. Consequently, management anticipates the Company will continue to incur above average provisions for the remainder of 2009 and 2010.

Securities Transactions – At September 30, 2009, December 31, 2008, and September 30, 2008 total market value appreciation in the investment portfolio totaled $2,343, $2,310, and $1,773, respectively. As indicated, the market values of the Company's investment portfolio increased from September 30, 2008 to December 31, 2008, and increased from December 31, 2008 to September 30, 2009. During 2008 bond values fluctuated due to variances in the slope of the yield curve because of instability in new issue coupon rates and intermittent movement of funds between the bond market and the stock market. However, the yield curve generally normalized over the period. During the first half of 2009 management sold a portion of its investment portfolio, in part, to take advantage of existing gains in a historically low interest rate environment, and, in part, to facilitate the re-establishment of its investment portfolio maturity strategy previously impacted by numerous investment calls. All investments sold were callable in the near term. The decline in the total market value appreciation during the periods is also attributable to the reinvestment of investment proceeds at currently lower market interest rates. The changes in market value appreciation/(depreciation) in the investment portfolio do not generally directly affect operating results since the Company does not acquire investment securities for trading. However, the changes in the market value appreciation/(depreciation) in the investment portfolio for the three and nine month periods ended September 30, 2009 and September 30, 2008 are a component of Comprehensive Income and are set forth in the Condensed Consolidated Statements of Comprehensive Income contained herein.

Noninterest Income - Noninterest income decreased by 7.1% to $1,902 for the three-month period ended September 30, 2009 from $2,047 for the three-month period ended September 30, 2008, primarily attributable to declines in credit card merchant discount income and mortgage negotiation fees. Noninterest income increased by 11.7% to $6,278 for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2009 from $5,620 for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2008. The increase in noninterest income for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2009, was primarily due to realized gains from the sale of investment securities, $1,352. These gains were offset by decreased service charges on deposit accounts, down $259 or 9.0% to $2,604 for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2009. These gains were also offset by other operating income, down $435 or 15.8% to $2,322 for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2009.

Noninterest Expenses - Noninterest expenses increased by 3.7% to $5,699 for the three-month period ended September 30, 2009 from $5,917 for the three-month period ended September 30, 2008. The major components of noninterest expenses are salaries and employee benefits, which decreased 7.2% to $3,472 from $3,741; occupancy expense which increased .5% to $824 from $820; and other operating expenses which increased by 3.5% to $1,403 from $1,356. Salaries and benefits decreased due to reduced staffing and decreased benefits expenses. Occupancy expense generally continues to grow due to the addition of new banking facilities. However, the increase in occupancy expense during 2009 is primarily attributable to the Company's installation of a new core application system, the renovation of branch offices, and the replacement of automated teller machines (ATMs). Other operating expenses have increased due to increased FDIC premiums, including a special assessment of $406 accrued as of June 30, 2009 and payable September 30, 2009, and increased other miscellaneous expense.

Noninterest expenses increased by 1.9% to $17,703 for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2009 from $17,378 for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2008. The major components of noninterest expenses are salaries and employee benefits which decreased 5.3% to $10,565 from $11,152. Occupancy expense increased 3.1% to $2,426 for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2009 from $2,354 for the same period in 2008. Other operating expenses increased 21.7% to $4,712 from $3,872 for the same periods, respectively. Other operating expenses have increased due to increased FDIC premiums, including a special assessment of $406 accrued as of June 30, 2009 and payable September 30, 2009, and increased other miscellaneous expense.

Income Taxes – Provisions for income taxes decreased 50.7% to $614 for the three-month period ended September 30, 2009 from $1,245 for the three-month period ended September 30, 2008. Income before income taxes less interest on tax-exempt investment securities decreased 52.7% to $1,590 for the three-month period ended September 30, 2009 from $3,362 for the same period in 2008.

Provisions for income taxes decreased 48.1% to $1,859 for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2009 from $3,580 for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2008. Income before income taxes less interest on tax-exempt investment securities decreased by 48.8% to $5,033 for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2009 from $9,827 for the same period in 2008.

LIQUIDITY

The Bank's liquidity position is primarily dependent on short-term demands for funds caused by customer credit needs and deposit withdrawals and upon the liquidation of bank assets to meet these needs. The Bank's liquidity sources include cash and due from banks, federal funds sold, and short-term investments. In addition, the Bank has established federal funds lines of credit from correspondent banks and has the ability to borrow funds from the Federal Reserve System and the Federal Home Loan Bank of Atlanta. Management believes that short-term and long-term liquidity sources are adequate to meet funding needs, including the funding of off-balance sheet loan commitments and standby letters of credit, if the need arises. Although the Bank has not experienced heavy liquidity pressures, there can be no assurance that such pressures will not be felt in the future. Neither the Company nor the Bank is involved in other off-balance sheet contractual relationships or transactions that could result in liquidity needs or other commitments or significantly impact earnings.

LIQUIDITY – (continued)

The table below summarizes future contractual obligations as of September 30, 2009 (in thousands).

	At September 30, 2009
	Payments Due by Period
	Within One Year	Over One to Two Years	Over Two to Three Years	Over Three to Five Years	Over Five Years	Total

Total	$449,042	$28,918	$7,078	$6,210	$ -	$491,248

CAPITAL RESOURCES

Total stockholders' equity was $88,915 and $83,526 at September 30, 2009 and December 31, 2008, representing 9.75% and 9.55% of total assets, respectively. At September 30, 2009, the Company and the Bank exceeded quantitative measures established by regulation to ensure capital adequacy (see NOTE 12 to the consolidated unaudited financial statements - REGULATORY MATTERS). Capital is considered sufficient by management to meet current and prospective capital requirements and to support anticipated growth in Bank operations.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

We have adopted various accounting policies which govern the application of accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America in the preparation of our financial statements. Our significant accounting policies are described in the notes to the consolidated financial statements at December 31, 2008 as filed in our Annual Report on Form 10-K. Certain accounting policies involve significant judgments and assumptions by us which have a material impact on the carrying value of certain assets and liabilities. We consider these accounting policies to be critical accounting policies. The judgments and assumptions we use are based on historical experience and other factors, which we believe to be reasonable under the circumstances. Because of the nature of the judgments and assumptions we make, actual results could differ from these judgments and estimates that could have a major impact on our carrying values of assets and liabilities and our results of operations.

We believe the allowance for loan losses is a critical accounting policy that requires the most significant judgments and estimates used in preparation of our consolidated financial statements. Refer to the portions of our 2008 Annual Report on Form 10-K and this Form 10-Q that address our allowance for loan losses for description of our processes and methodology for determining our allowance for loan losses.

RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES

In the normal course of its business, the Company encounters two significant types of risks: economic and regulatory. There are three main components of economic risk: interest rate risk, credit risk and market risk. The Company is subject to interest rate risk to the degree that its interest-bearing liabilities mature or reprice at different speeds, or on different basis, than its interest-earning assets. Credit risk is the risk of default on the Company's loan portfolio that results from borrower's inability or unwillingness to make contractually required payments. Market risk, as it relates to lending and real estate held for operating locations, results from potential changes in the value of collateral underlying loans receivable and the market value of real estate held by the Company.

The Company is subject to the regulations of various governmental agencies. These regulations can and do change significantly from period to period. The Company also undergoes periodic examinations by the regulatory agencies, which may subject it to further changes with respect to asset valuations, amounts of required loss allowances and operating restrictions from the regulators' judgments based on information available to them at the time of their examination.

Item 3. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

Market risk, in regard to interest rate risk, is the risk of loss from adverse changes in market prices and rates. The Company's market risk arises principally from the interest rate risk inherent in its lending, deposit, and borrowing activities. Management actively monitors and manages its interest rate risk exposure. In addition to other risks which the Company manages in the normal course of business, such as credit quality and liquidity risk, management considers interest rate risk to be a significant market risk that could potentially have a material effect on the Company's financial condition and results of operations (See MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS - Net Income – Net Interest Income). Other types of market risks, such as foreign currency risk and commodity price risk, do not arise in the normal course of the Company's business activities.

Item 4. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

Based on the evaluation required by 17 C.F.R. Section 240.13a-15(b) or 240.15d-15(b) of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in 17 C.F.R. Sections 240.13a-15(e) and 240.15d-15(e)), the Company's chief executive officer and chief financial officer concluded that such controls and procedures, as of the end of the period covered by this quarterly report, were effective.

There has been no change in the Company's internal control over financial reporting during the most recent fiscal quarter that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company's internal control over financial reporting.
