COMMERCE BROKERAGE SERVICES, INC.
(A Wholly Owned Subsidiary of Commerce Bank)

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2017

(1) Organization and Purpose of Company

Commerce Brokerage Services, Inc. (the Company) is a wholly owned subsidiary of Commerce Bank (the Parent). The Parent is a wholly owned subsidiary of Commerce Bancshares, Inc. (CBI). The Company is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission as a broker/dealer to conduct general securities business and as an investment adviser offering fee-based managed accounts. The Company is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, a regulatory organization offering oversight over all securities firms that do business with the public. It is also a member of the Securities Investor Protection Corporation, a corporation whose purpose is to protect the customers of brokers or dealers from loss in case of financial failure of the member. Current activities of the Company consist of providing investment services to customers for a variety of securities including mutual funds, exchange-listed and over-the-counter equity securities, options, municipal bonds, corporate bonds, and U.S. government debt issues. The Company also sells fixed and variable annuities, which are investment products provided by insurance companies.

Transactions for equities, options, and a substantial portion of the Company's mutual fund sales are executed and cleared through National Financial Services LLC (NFS), a clearing organization that also maintains customer brokerage accounts on a fully disclosed basis.

Basis of presentation

The accompanying financial statements are prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

(2) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

(a) Cash

Cash includes cash on hand and cash received from customers held by the Company as of year-end that is due to National Financial Services LLC. As of December 31, 2017, the Company did not hold any cash received from customers and due to NFS. When the Company does hold cash received from customers that is due to NFS, a corresponding liability is recorded in accounts payable and accrued expenses.

(b) Securities transactions

Customer securities positions are not reflected in the Statement of Financial Condition as the Company does not have title to these assets.

(c) Commissions

The Company acts as a broker-dealer or agent to buy and sell securities or insurance contracts on behalf of its customers. In return for such services, for most transactions, the Company earns a commission each time a customer enters into a buy-or-sell transaction. For equity securities purchased, the commission is recorded as a receivable from the customer, and for securities sold, it is recorded as a reduction in the payable to the customer. For other security and contract transactions, such as sales of mutual funds, fixed or variable annuities, etc., a concession is earned and becomes part of the customer's price of the security or contract. Commissions and concessions, along with any related expenses, are recorded on a settlement date basis, which approximates U.S. generally accepted accounting principles. As of December 31, 2017, commission receivables from investment and insurance companies were $91,476 and are recorded in other assets.

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2017

(d) Advisory fees

The Company offers professionally managed, fee-based advisory programs through an arrangement with sub-advisors to provide investment management and advisory services. In return for these services, the Company receives a portion of the customer's advisory fee. Advisory fees are calculated and charged in advance on a quarterly basis, based on the prior quarter's period ending account balance, and are recorded in revenue during the period in which they are earned.

(e) Contract fees and deferred revenue

In conjunction with executing a contract with its clearing organization (in 2010), the Company received a payment at the inception of the contract and seven annual payments. These receipts were recognized in earnings ratably over the seven year contract term. The Company's contract with its clearing organization was renewed and amended in November 2017. Under the new contract, the Company will receive seven additional annual payments, commencing with the effective date of the contract. In the event of termination for certain causes during the seven year term of the new contract (which the Company believes is unlikely to occur), the Company will be required to remit a pro-rated portion of the annual payments received from the clearing organization. Under the terms of the expiring and renewed contracts, the Company recognized $147,823 during 2017 as a reduction of clearing charge expense charged by its clearing organization. At December 31, 2017, deferred revenue of $297,917 was included in accounts payable and accrued expenses.

(f) Securities owned, at fair value

Securities owned, at fair value consist of U.S. government securities with initial maturities of six months. They are stated at fair value, which is based on published bid prices. The fair value measurement is considered to be a Level 1 measurement within the fair value hierarchy of Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 820-10-35. Changes in fair value are recorded in other income in the Statement of Earnings.

(g) Furniture, equipment, and leasehold improvements

Furniture, equipment, and leasehold improvements are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and amortization. Depreciation and amortization are computed on the straight-line basis using estimated useful lives, ranging from three to ten years. Leasehold improvements are amortized over the lesser of the economic useful life of the improvement or the remaining term of the lease.

(h) Other assets

Other assets are comprised of commission receivables from investment and insurance companies, prepaid expenses, and capitalized software, net of amortization.

(i) Accounts payable and accrued expenses

Accounts payable and accrued expenses consist of deferred fees, accrued incentives and sales commissions, accounts payable, and other accrued liabilities.

(j) Income taxes

The Company is included in the consolidated federal income tax return filed by CBI. Amounts provided for income tax expense are based on income reported for financial statement purposes and do not necessarily represent amounts currently payable under tax laws. Current income taxes are calculated on a separate return basis utilizing currently enacted tax laws and rates. The amount of expense or benefit is either remitted to or received from CBI. Deferred income taxes are provided for temporary differences between the financial reporting bases and income tax bases of the Company's assets and liabilities using the tax rates and laws that are expected to be in effect when the differences are anticipated to reverse. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized as income or expense in the period that includes the change. The significant components of the net deferred tax asset as of December 31, 2017 included a deferred tax asset of $108,110 relating to stock-based compensation, $70,800 relating to unearned fee income and $26,378 relating to accrued expenses, and a deferred tax liability of $16,889 relating to prepaid expenses. As a result of the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act enacted on December 22, 2017, the Company revalued its deferred tax assets and liabilities using the highest maximum corporate tax rate of 21%. The change was reported as an increase to deferred tax expense of $107,317. Management believes it is more likely than not that the results of future operations will generate sufficient taxable income to realize the deferred tax assets. Based upon its evaluation, the Company has concluded that there are no significant uncertain income tax positions relevant to the jurisdictions where it is required to file income tax returns requiring recognition in the financial statements. In accordance with ASC 740, the Company recognizes accrued interest and penalties, as appropriate, related to unrecognized income tax benefits in income tax expense. There were no accrued interest and penalties at December 31, 2017.

(j) Stock-based compensation

The Company complies with the accounting requirements of ASC 718 for stock-based compensation. Employees of the Company receive shares of CBI common stock in connection with CBI's equity compensation plan. The fair value of awards granted to employees of the Company is determined at the date of grant and recognized ratably as compensation expense and a corresponding capital contribution over the period the award is earned.

On January 1, 2017, the Company adopted ASU 2016-09, "Improvements to Employee Share-Based Payment Accounting". This adoption requires all excess tax benefits and tax deficiencies arising from share-based award payments to be recognized as income tax expense or benefit in the Statement of Earnings, while in previous periods these benefits and deficiencies were recognized in equity. As allowed under the new guidance, the Company elected to change its method of accounting for forfeitures. In prior years, accruals of compensation cost were reduced by an estimate of awards not expected to vest and further adjusted when actual forfeitures occurred. In 2017 and subsequent years, forfeitures will be accounted for when they occur and recognized in compensation cost at that time. The effect of this change, which was recognized as a cumulative-effect adjustment on January 1, 2017, increased stockholder's equity and increased deferred tax assets by $12,555.

(k) Use of estimates

To prepare these financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles, management has made a number of estimates and assumptions relating to the reporting of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, as well as the reported amounts or revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

(l) Subsequent events

The Company evaluated potential subsequent events through February 20, 2018, which is the date that the financial statements were issued.

(3) Related-Party Transactions

A significant portion of the Company's expenses represent payments to the Parent and affiliated companies for rent on the Company's offices, various administrative services provided to the Company, and fees under revenue-sharing arrangements. Under an ongoing agreement that was effective January 1, 2011, the Company was reimbursed by an affiliated company during 2017 for certain expenses, paid by the Company on the affiliate's behalf, which support revenue production at the affiliate. The reimbursements primarily relate to occupancy, data processing, and management fee expenses.

The following table shows the amounts paid (received) by the Company to (from) the Parent and affiliated companies for the year ended December 31, 2017:

	2017
Rent	$ 584,803
Fees paid to affiliates	2,077,104
Expenses reimbursed from affiliate	(88,402)
	$ 2,573,505

The Company leases office space from the Parent under month-to-month arrangements. Rent expense aggregated approximately $49,000 per month in 2017. As of December 31, 2017, the Company had an intercompany payable due to CBI of $80,913 for federal and state income taxes. During 2017, the Company paid CBI $344,724 for income taxes. The Company maintains interest and noninterest-bearing deposit accounts at the Parent. These balances amounted to $2,005,872 at December 31, 2017.

As mentioned above, certain employees of the Company receive stock-based compensation under CBI's stockholder-approved plan. This compensation has been issued in the form of nonvested shares of CBI common stock. These awards generally vest after 4 to 7 years of continued employment, and during 2017, 908 shares vested. At December 31, 2017, employees of the Company held 19,947 nonvested shares and there was $401,500 of unrecognized compensation cost related to these nonvested shares. That cost is expected to be recognized over a weighted average period of approximately 3 years.

Stock-based compensation expense recognized in the Statement of Earnings during 2017 was $165,165, while the related income tax benefit recognized in the Statement of Earnings was $61,129. Stock-based compensation is recorded as a contribution to additional paid-in capital, which also totaled $165,165 during 2017.

(4) Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The following table presents the carrying amounts and estimated fair values of the Company's financial instruments at December 31, 2017:

		2017
	Level in Fair Value Measurement Hierarchy	Carrying Amount	Fair Value
Financial assets:
Securities owned, at fair value	Level 1	$8,465,589	$8,465,589

COMMERCE BROKERAGE SERVICES, INC.
(A Wholly Owned Subsidiary of Commerce Bank)

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2017

Some of the Company's financial instruments are not measured at fair value on a recurring basis, but the carrying amounts approximate fair value because of the liquidity or short maturity of these instruments. Such financial assets and financial liabilities include cash, receivable from and payable to clearing organization, other assets and accounts payable and accrued expenses.

The fair value of securities owned is based on published bid prices in an active market for identical assets and liabilities as of the reporting date and are categorized in Level 1 of the fair value hierarchy.

(5) Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (SEC Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1 (and the rule of the applicable exchange also provides that equity capital may not be withdrawn or cash dividends paid if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1). At December 31, 2017, the Company had regulatory net capital of $9,034,908, which was $8,784,908 in excess of its required net capital of $250,000.

(6) Retirement Plans

A portion of the Company's employees are covered by a noncontributory defined benefit pension plan offered by CBI, however, participation in the pension plan is not available to employees hired after June 30, 2003. All participants are fully vested in their benefit payable upon normal retirement date, which is based on years of participation and compensation. Since January 2011, all benefits accrued under the pension plan have been frozen. However, the accounts continue to accrue interest at a stated annual rate. The CBI pension plan was slightly underfunded at December 31, 2017, as the projected benefit obligation exceeded the value of plan assets by approximately 6%. The Company recorded pension expense of $5,313 in 2017 related to the plan.

Substantially all of the Company's employees are covered by a defined contribution (401(k)) plan offered by CBI, under which the Company makes matching contributions. During 2017, the Company recorded $322,665 of expense related to CBI's 401(k) plan.

(7) Income Taxes

Income tax expense for the year ended December 31, 2017 is comprised of the following components:

	2017		2017
Current expense		Deferred expense
Federal	$ 475,610	Federal	$ 11,857
State	41,420	State	(10,655)
Total	$ 517,030	Total	$ 1,202

(8) New Accounting Standards

The FASB issued ASU 2014-09, "Revenue from Contracts with Customers", in May 2014, which has been followed by additional clarifying guidance on specified implementation issues. The ASU supersedes revenue recognition requirements in Topic 605, Revenue Recognition, including most industry specific revenue recognition guidance in the FASB Accounting Standards Codification. The core principle of the new guidance is that an entity should recognize revenue to depict the transfer of promised goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the entity expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. The guidance identifies specific steps that entities should apply in order to achieve this principle. Under the ASU and related amendments, the guidance is effective for interim and annual periods beginning January 1, 2018 and must be applied retrospectively, whether through a full restatement of prior periods or a cumulative adjustment upon adoption of the ASU.

The Company has completed an extensive review of its revenue and has concluded that the new guidance does not require any significant change in the revenue recognition process. The Company is in the process of determining the method by which it will adopt the ASU and in developing the expanded disclosures required in future periods.

In February 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-02, "Leases", in order to increase transparency and comparability by recognizing lease assets and lease liabilities on the balance sheet and disclosing key information about leasing arrangements. The ASU primarily affects lessee accounting, which requires the lessee to recognize a right-of-use asset and a liability to make lease payments for those leases classified as operating leases under previous GAAP. For leases with a term of 12 months or less, an election by class of underlying asset not to recognize lease assets and lease liabilities is permitted. The ASU also provides additional guidance as to the definition of a lease, identification of lease components, and sale and leaseback transactions. The amendments in the ASU are effective for interim and annual periods beginning January 1, 2019. The Company is participating in a working group formed by its Parent to assess the changes required, and to review a newly created software module designed by its software vendor to comply with the new accounting requirements.

- 5) Compared the amount of any overpayment applied to the current assessment with the Form SIPC-7 on which it was originally computed, noting no such overpayment.

We were not engaged to, and did not conduct an examination, the objective of which would be the expression of an opinion on compliance with the applicable instructions of the Form SIPC-7. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion. Had we performed additional procedures, other matters might have come to our attention that would have been reported to you.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the specified parties listed above and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
