The Aristotle Corporation Announces 2009 Second Quarter and Six Month Results

Stamford, CT, August 7, 2009 - The Aristotle Corporation (NASDAQ: ARTL; ARTLP) announced today its results of operations for the second quarter and six months ended June 30, 2009.

In the second quarter of 2009, net sales decreased 9.5% to $51.4 million from $56.8 million in the second quarter of 2008. Earnings from operations decreased by 18.9% in the second quarter of 2009 to $8.6 million, or 16.6% of net sales. In the same quarter of 2008, earnings from operations totaled $10.5 million (including a $.7 million insurance recovery), or 18.6% of net sales. In the six months ended June 30, 2009, net sales decreased 8.9% to $97.7 million from $107.2 million in the six months ended June 30, 2008. Earnings from operations decreased by 17.1% in the first six months of 2009 to $15.4 million, or 15.8% of net sales. In the same six months of 2008, earnings from operations totaled $18.6 million (including the insurance recovery), or 17.4% of net sales.

For the second quarter ended June 30, 2009, net earnings applicable to common stockholders were $1.5 million, or $.08 per diluted common share, compared to $4.5 million, or $.25 per diluted common share, in the second quarter of 2008. Net earnings applicable to common stockholders for the first six months of 2009 were $3.5 million, or $.19 per diluted common share, compared to $7.3 million, or $.41 per diluted common share, for the comparable six months of 2008. Pursuant to a settlement with the Internal Revenue Service of an audit previously reported by the Company, the second quarter and six months ended June 30, 2009 includes additional Federal income taxes of $.5 million and $1.3 million for the 2006 and 2007 tax years, respectively, plus approximately $.2 million of interest, related to a partial disallowance of the Company's historical Federal net operating tax losses that were utilized. Such amounts reduced net income for the quarter and six months ended June 30, 2009 by approximately $.11 per diluted common share. No additional taxes were due for any years prior to 2006.

Steven B. Lapin, Aristotle's President and Chief Operating Officer, stated, "The continuing budgetary uncertainty in many key states has kept sales at disappointing levels, and significant federal stimulus monies accessible by our K-12 accounts have not yet been observed. As always, management diligently applies all available skills to retain historical operating efficiencies on behalf of its customers and stockholders."

To the extent that any of the statements contained in this release are forward-looking, such statements are based on current expectations that involve a number of uncertainties and risks that could cause actual results to differ materially from those projected or suggested in such forward-looking statements. Aristotle cautions investors that there can be no assurance that actual results or business conditions will not differ materially from those projected or suggested in such forward-looking statements as a result of various factors, including, but not limited to, the following: (i) the ability of Aristotle to obtain financing and additional capital to fund its business strategy on acceptable terms, if at all; (ii) the ability of Aristotle on a timely basis to find, prudently negotiate and consummate additional acquisitions; (iii) the ability of Aristotle to manage any to-be acquired businesses; (iv) there is not an active trading market for the Company's securities and the stock prices thereof are highly volatile, due in part to the relatively small percentage of the Company's securities which is not held by the Company's majority stockholder and members of the Company's Board of Directors and management; and (v) other factors identified in Item 1A, Risk Factors, contained in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2008. As a result, Aristotle's future development efforts involve a high degree of risk.
