President's Letter

September 30, 2007

DEAR SHAREHOLDER:

It's been a long year for fixed-income investors. Bond prices faced greater volatility as a subprime lending crisis of global dimensions unfolded. The U.S. dollar weakened against most foreign currencies, making dollar-denominated bonds less attractive. High yield investors, meanwhile, demanded greater income to help offset concern about bond defaults and the potential for a U.S. recession. After months of expressing anxiety about lingering consumer inflation, the Federal Reserve changed policy in September and reduced its short-term interest rate target by 50 basis points (0.50 percent) to 4.75 percent. More cuts may follow.

Among equities, the picture has been brighter, but even more volatile. Stock markets around the globe generally provided attractive returns over the past 12 months, with energy stocks outpacing all other sectors. International stocks, as measured by the Morgan Stanley Capital International EAFE Index, rose 24.87 percent, outperforming U.S. stocks, as measured by the S&P 500 Index, for the 12-month period ended September 30, 2007. Since the spring it has appeared to us that large company domestic growth stocks have come back in favor, boosted by low valuations and solid overseas growth for U.S.-based multinational companies. Also, quality now seems to be a more important equity attribute than we have seen in several years.

Enclosed is our report on your Waddell & Reed Advisors Fund's operations for the 12 months ended September 30, 2007. This past fiscal year the Lehman Brothers Aggregate Bond Index rose 5.13 percent while the S&P 500 Index advanced 16.44 percent.

U.S. growth slows

Dragged down by the worst housing market in a generation, the U.S. economy's four-year-old expansion is slowing. However, growth still appears robust for much of Asia. North America was fortunate to have a relatively mild hurricane season, and this may have been a factor in helping to keep a lid on gasoline prices. This year the biggest financial storm was to be found not in nature, but in the commercial paper and mortgage markets. Liquidity dried up for both business and consumer borrowers with less than perfect credit. Consequently, the financial and consumer discretionary sectors of the S&P 500 have been hard hit over the past six months, with each falling while most other sectors rose.

The economic news is mixed, as you can see in the Economic Snapshot chart below. Overall inflation and unemployment are low. However, the cost of financing a home is slightly higher. Overall GDP growth is solid, while oil prices are substantially higher.

Economic Snapshot
	9-30-2007	9-30-2006
U.S. unemployment rate	4.70%	4.60%
Inflation (U.S. Consumer Price Index)	2.80%	2.10%
U.S. GDP	3.90%	2.40%
30-year fixed mortgage rate	6.28%	6.18%
Oil price per barrel	$ 81.66	$62.91

The U.S. Consumer Price Index is the government's measure of the change in the retail cost of goods and services. Gross domestic product measures year-over-year changes in the output of goods and services. Mortgage rates shown reflect the average rate on a conventional loan with a 60-day lender commitment. Oil prices reflect the market price of West Texas intermediate grade crude.

Respectfully,

Henry J. Herrmann, CFA
President

The opinions expressed in this letter are those of the President of the Fund and are current only through the end of the period of the report, as stated on the cover. The President's views are subject to change at any time, based on market and other conditions, and no forecasts can be guaranteed.

Stock valuations for companies in the S&P 500 appear reasonable to us. As we look forward, even though past performance does not guarantee future results, presidential election years typically have been positive for investors. However, we recommend a prudent level of caution in 2008, as we believe that the range of possibilities for investors is as wide as the current field of presidential candidates. As always, we believe that maintaining a well-rounded portfolio is an essential element for securing your long-term financial future. In both politics and investing, it may be wise to remember that nothing – good or bad – can ever be assured.

Our commitment

As the Waddell & Reed organization's 70th anniversary year draws to a close, let me say that we remain committed to the principles of our founders – Cameron Reed and Chauncey Waddell. We focus on offering you a financial planning philosophy that emphasizes participation in positive markets as well as a very strong effort to manage risk.

We will strive to earn your continued confidence for many years to come.

Manager's Discussion of Global Bond Fund

September 30, 2007

Below, Mark G. Beischel, CFA, portfolio manager of the Waddell & Reed Advisors Global Bond Fund, Inc., discusses positioning, performance and results for the fiscal year ended Sept. 30, 2007. He has 14 years of industry experience. Please note that effective March 2007, Mr. Beischel assumed responsibility as the sole portfolio manager of the Fund. Since January 2002, Mr. Beischel had been co-manager of the Fund, along with Daniel J. Vrabac.

This diagram shows the Fund's fixed-income investment style by displaying the average credit quality of the bonds owned and the Fund's interest rate sensitivity, as measured by average maturity. Shaded areas show the past three years of quarterly data. Source: Morningstar

The Fund returned 9.55 percent (Class A shares at net asset value) for the 12 months ended September 30, 2007, outperforming both its benchmark and peer group. The Lehman Brothers U.S. Dollar-Denominated Universal Index (reflecting the performance of bonds around the world that pay interest in U.S. dollars) increased 5.31 percent, while the Lipper Global Income Funds Universe Average (reflecting the universe of funds with similar investment objectives) increased 6.98 percent for the same period.

Falling U.S. dollar aided results

The Fund's strong performance is largely attributable to its overweight exposure to short-maturity, U.S. dollar-denominated bonds. Over the past 12 months, U.S. dollar-denominated bonds with maturities shorter than five years outperformed bonds that had maturities greater than five years. In addition, the Fund continues to hold foreign currency positions because of our concern with the long-term health of the U.S. dollar. These positions (non-dollar bonds and currency contracts) also benefited the Fund over the course of the fiscal year.

With regard to the market in general, this summer witnessed the ending of an era of unusually low financial market volatility. In the space of a few short weeks, the global economic consensus crumbled. Where in the first half of the year the debate was dominated by strong growth, inflationary concerns and monetary tightening, there has since been a significant shift as the subprime crisis has left its mark.

Portfolio Characteristics

As of 9-30-07

Average maturity	2.36 years
Effective duration	0.81 years
Weighted average bond rating	A

Information presented is for illustrative purposes only and is subject to change.

At this stage, the scale of the crisis is difficult to gauge. In any judgment, however, we believe that two separate factors need to be taken into account:

- first, there's the speed and extent of any improvement in money market behavior; and
- second, there's the ongoing tightening of broader credit conditions which may, in turn, lead to further housing market difficulties.

Central banks may eventually be forced to respond by cutting interest rates further, but we feel that their room to maneuver is in danger of being curtailed by the persistence of inflationary pressures. The massive losses in two U.S. hedge funds further raised fears that the financial fallout from the subprime mortgage meltdown could prove to be more severe than previously assumed. There was a major concern in the market that other leveraged transactions could implode if the economy weakened further, causing a general retreat from risk. With this unfavorable backdrop, the Federal Reserve cut its benchmark rate to 4.75 percent, downgraded its economic view and hinted that more rate cuts may be forthcoming.

World may be resistant to U.S. economic flu

As always, the setback in the U.S sent tremors throughout the other major international markets. Yet, the global economy appears better balanced than it has been for some time and we believe that it is well positioned to handle slower U.S. growth. That said, the combination of soft U.S. growth and strength elsewhere is dollar bearish, and further dollar weakness likely will be concentrated against Asian currencies in our view.

While we believe that homegrown inflation is unlikely to be a problem in much of the industrialized world, we do feel that booming conditions in emerging markets threaten higher commodity prices and, in time, a weaker dollar, neither of which would make the Federal Reserve's job any easier. We're not making major changes to our forecasts as yet, but the obvious fault-lines are:

- the relationship between the financial and household sectors in the industrialized world;
- the impact of rising inflation on emerging market currency policies; and
- the possibility that the current weakness of the dollar leads in the months ahead to a sense of revulsion toward U.S. assets.

We intend to continue to remain defensive and have structured the Fund to invest in those securities that we feel will be able to maintain their value in a volatile environment. We will continue to seek value through our extensive credit research and buy those companies that we feel are dominant in their industry and/or country, have a quality balance sheet and have strong cash flows from operations.

Our outlook

Our expectation is for the Fed to cut interest rates by 25 basis points within the next quarter, for the Chinese to continue the process of having more flexibility in their currency's exchange rate and for Asian growth to dominate global growth for the foreseeable future. Given that we are in the later stage of the credit cycle, we expect a generally supportive fundamental backdrop to slowly weaken during the fourth quarter of 2007 and into 2008. We are also looking for a slower profit growth forecast, a modest up-tick in default rates and an increase in credit spreads.

The Fund's performance noted above is at net asset value (NAV), and does not include the effect of any applicable sales charges. If reflected, the sales charge would reduce the performance noted.

As with any mutual fund, the value of the Fund's shares will change, and you could lose money on your investment.

Fixed-income securities are subject to interest rate risk and, as such, the net asset value of the Fund's shares may fall as interest rates rise. International investing involves additional risks including currency fluctuations, political or economic conditions affecting the foreign country and differences in accounting standards and foreign regulations. These and other risks are more fully described in the Fund's prospectus.

The opinions expressed in this report are those of the portfolio manager and are current only through the end of the period of the report as stated on the cover. The manager's views are subject to change at any time based on market and other conditions, and no forecasts can be guaranteed.

- (2) Data quoted is past performance and is based on deduction of the maximum applicable sales load for each of the periods. Current performance may be lower or higher. Past performance is no guarantee of future results. Investment return and principal value of an investment will fluctuate and shares, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than their original cost. Please visit www.waddell.com for the Fund's most recent month-end performance. Class A shares carry a maximum front-end sales load of 5.75%. Class B and Class C shares carry a maximum contingent deferred sales charge (CDSC) of 5% and 1%, respectively. (Accordingly, the Class C shares reflect no CDSC since it only applies to Class C shares redeemed within twelve months after purchase.) Class Y shares are not subject to sales charges.

- (3) 10-6-99 for Class B shares and Class C shares (the date on which shares were first acquired by shareholders).

Past performance is not necessarily indicative of future performance. Indexes are unmanaged. The performance graph and table do not reflect the deduction of taxes that a shareholder would pay on Fund distributions or on the redemption of Fund shares.

Performance data quoted represents periods prior to changes in the Fund's name, strategies and policies (effective September 18, 2000). Prior to September 18, 2000, the Fund sought to achieve its goals by investing primarily in junk bonds, with minimal investment in foreign securities. Accordingly, the performance information above for periods prior to that date reflects the operation of the Fund under its former investment strategies and related policies.

Illustration of Fund Expenses

GLOBAL BOND FUND

As a shareholder of the Fund, you incur two types of costs: (1) transaction costs, including sales charges (loads) on purchase payments, redemption fees and exchange fees; and (2) ongoing costs, including management fees, distribution and service fees, and other Fund expenses. The following table is intended to help you understand your ongoing costs (in dollars) of investing in the Fund and to compare these costs with the ongoing costs of investing in other mutual funds. The example is based on an investment of $1,000 invested at the beginning of the period and held for the six-month period ended September 30, 2007.

Actual Expenses

The first line for each share class in the following table provides information about actual account values and actual expenses. You may use the information in this line, together with the amount you invested, to estimate the expenses that you paid over the period. Simply divide your account value by $1,000 (for example, a $7,500 account value divided by $1,000 = 7.5), then multiply the result by the number in the first line under the heading entitled "Expenses Paid During Period" to estimate the expenses you paid on your account during this period. There may be additional fees charged to holders of certain accounts that are not included in the expenses shown in the table. These fees apply to Individual Retirement Accounts (IRAs), IRA Rollovers, Roth IRAs, Conversion Roth IRAs, Simplified Employee Pension (SEP), Simple IRAs, Tax-Sheltered Accounts (TSAs), Keogh Plans, Owner Only 401(k) (Exclusive K) Plans and Final Pay Plans. As of the close of the six months covered by the table, a customer is charged an annual fee of $15 within each plan type. This fee is waived for IRA Rollovers and Conversion Roth IRAs if the customer owns another type of IRA. Coverdell Education Savings Account plans are charged an annual fee of $10 per customer. You should consider the additional fees that were charged to your Fund account over the six-month period when you estimate the total ongoing expenses paid over the period and the impact of these fees on your ending account value as such additional expenses are not reflected in the information provided in the expense table. Additional fees have the effect of reducing investment returns.

Hypothetical Example for Comparison Purposes

The second line for each share class of the following table provides information about hypothetical account values and hypothetical expenses based on the Fund's actual expense ratio and an assumed rate of return of 5% per year before expenses, which is not the Fund's actual return. The hypothetical account values and expenses may not be used to estimate the actual ending account balance or expenses you paid for the period. You may use this information to compare the ongoing costs of investing in the Fund and other funds. To do so, compare this 5% hypothetical example with the 5% hypothetical examples that appear in the shareholder reports of the other funds. Please note that the expenses shown in the table are meant to highlight your ongoing costs only and do not reflect any transactional costs, such as sales charges (loads), redemption fees or exchange fees. Therefore, the second line of each share class in the table is useful in comparing ongoing costs only, and will not help you determine the relative total costs of owning different funds. In addition, if these transactional costs were included, your costs would have been higher.

Fund Expenses

For the Six Months Ended September 30, 2007	Beginning Account Value 3-31-07	Ending Account Value 9-30-07	Annualized Expense Ratio Based on the Six-Month Period	Expenses Paid During Period*
Class A.	$1,000	$1,054.60	1.27%	$ 6.57
Class B.	1,000	1,046.50	2.32	11.87
Class C.	1,000	1,046.80	2.21	11.36
Class Y.	1,000	1,056.80	0.85	4.32

Class A.	$1,000	$1,018.70	1.27%	$ 6.46
Class B.	1,000	1,013.43	2.32	11.68
Class C.	1,000	1,013.98	2.21	11.18
Class Y.	1,000	1,020.83	0.85	4.24

*Fund expenses for each share class are equal to the Fund's annualized expense ratio for each share class (provided in the table), multiplied by the average account value over the period, multiplied by 183 days in the six-month period ended September 30, 2007, and divided by 365.

(1) This section uses the Fund's actual total return and actual Fund expenses. It is a guide to the actual expenses paid by the Fund in the period. The "Ending Account Value" shown is computed using the Fund's actual return and the "Expenses Paid During Period" column shows the dollar amount that would have been paid by an investor who started with $1,000 in the Fund. A shareholder may use the information here, together with the dollar amount invested, to estimate the expenses that were paid over the period. For every thousand dollars a shareholder has invested, the expenses are listed in the fourth column.

(2) This section uses a hypothetical 5% annual return and actual Fund expenses. It helps to compare the Fund's ongoing costs with other mutual funds. A shareholder can compare the Fund's ongoing costs by comparing this hypothetical example with the hypothetical examples that appear in shareholder reports of other funds.

The above illustration is based on ongoing costs only and does not include any transactional costs, such as sales loads, redemption fees or exchange fees.

NOTE 1 – Significant Accounting Policies

Waddell & Reed Advisors Global Bond Fund, Inc. (the Fund) is registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 as a diversified, open-end management investment company. Its investment objective is to seek a high level of current income, with a secondary objective of capital growth when consistent with the primary objective. The following is a summary of significant accounting policies consistently followed by the Fund in the preparation of its financial statements. The policies are in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

- A. Security valuation – Each stock and convertible bond is valued at the latest sale price thereof on each business day of the fiscal period as reported by the principal securities exchange on which the issue is traded or, if no sale is reported for a stock, the average of the latest bid and asked prices. Bonds, other than convertible bonds, are valued using a pricing system provided by a pricing service or dealer in bonds. Convertible bonds are valued using this pricing system only on days when there is no sale reported. Stocks which are traded over-the-counter are priced using the Nasdaq Stock Market, which provides information on bid and asked prices quoted by major dealers in such stocks. Securities for which quotations are not readily available or are deemed not to be reliable because of significant events or circumstances identified between the closing of their principal markets and the closing of the New York Stock Exchange are valued at fair value as determined in good faith under procedures established by and under the general supervision of the Fund's Board of Directors. Management's valuation committee makes fair value determinations for the Fund, subject to the supervision of the Board of Directors. Short-term debt securities, purchased with less than 60 days to maturity, are valued at amortized cost, which approximates market value. Short-term debt securities denominated in foreign currencies are valued at amortized cost in that currency.
- B. Security transactions and related investment income – Security transactions are accounted for on the trade date (date the order to buy or sell is executed). Securities gains and losses are calculated on the identified cost basis. Premium and discount on the purchase of bonds are amortized for both financial and tax reporting purposes over the remaining lives of the bonds. Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date, except certain dividends from foreign securities where the ex-dividend date may have passed, which are recorded as soon as the Fund is informed of the ex-dividend date. Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis. See Note 3 – Investment Security Transactions.
- C. Federal income taxes – The Fund intends to distribute all of its net investment income and capital gains to its shareholders and otherwise qualify as a regulated investment company under Subchapter M of the Internal Revenue Code. In addition, the Fund intends to pay distributions as required to avoid imposition of excise tax. Accordingly, provision has not been made for Federal income taxes. See Note 4 – Federal Income Tax Matters.
- D. Dividends and distributions – Dividends and distributions to shareholders are recorded by the Fund on the business day following record date. Net investment income dividends and capital gains distributions are determined in accordance with income tax regulations which may differ from accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. These differences are due to differing treatments for items such as deferral of wash sales and post-October losses, foreign currency transactions, net operating losses and expiring capital loss carryovers. At September 30, 2007, $700,321 was reclassified between accumulated undistributed net investment income and accumulated undistributed net realized loss on investment transactions. Net investment income, additional paid-in capital and net assets were not affected by this change.

E. Foreign currency translations – All assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated into United States dollars daily. Purchases and sales of investment securities and accruals of income and expenses are translated at the rate of exchange prevailing on the date of the transaction. For assets and liabilities other than investments in securities, net realized and unrealized gains and losses from foreign currency translation arise from changes in currency exchange rates. The Fund combines fluctuations from currency exchange rates and fluctuations in market value when computing net realized and unrealized gain or loss from investments.

F. Forward foreign currency exchange contracts – A forward foreign currency exchange contract (Forward Contract) is an obligation to purchase or sell a specific currency at a future date at a fixed price. Forward Contracts are marked-to-market daily at the applicable translation rates and the resulting unrealized gains or losses are reflected in the Fund's financial statements. Gains or losses are realized by the Fund at the time the Forward Contract is extinguished. Contracts may be extinguished either by entry into a closing transaction or by delivery of the currency. Risks may arise from the possibility that the other party will not complete the obligations of the contract and from unanticipated movements in the value of the foreign currency relative to the United States dollar. The Fund uses Forward Contracts to attempt to reduce the overall risk of its investments.

G. New Accounting Pronouncements – In June 2006, Financial Accounting Standards Board Interpretation No. 48, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes – an interpretation of FASB Statement No. 109 (FIN 48), was issued and is effective on the last business day of the semiannual reporting period for fiscal years beginning after December 16, 2006. FIN 48 sets forth a threshold for financial statement recognition, measurement and disclosure of a tax position taken or expected to be taken on a tax return. Management has concluded that the adoption of FIN 48 will not result in a material impact on the Fund's net assets, results of operations and financial statement disclosures. In September 2006, FASB issued Statement on Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 157, "Fair Value Measurements." SFAS 157 defines fair value for purposes of financial statement presentation, establishes a hierarchy for measuring fair value in generally accepted accounting principles and expands financial statement disclosures about fair value measurements that are relevant to mutual funds. SFAS No. 157 is effective for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007. The Fund will adopt SFAS 157 during 2008 and its potential impact, if any, on the Fund's financial statements is currently being assessed by management.

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

NOTE 2 – Investment Management and Payments to Affiliated Persons

Waddell & Reed Investment Management Company (WRIMCO), a wholly owned subsidiary of Waddell & Reed, Inc. (W&R), serves as the Fund's investment manager. The Fund pays a fee for investment management services. The fee is computed and paid daily based on the net asset value at the close of business. Until September 30, 2006, the fee was payable by the Fund at the annual rates of: 0.625% of net assets up to $500 million, 0.60% of net assets over $500 million and up to $1 billion, 0.55% of net assets over $1 billion and up to $1.5 billion, and 0.50% of net assets over $1.5 billion. Effective October 1, 2006, under terms of a settlement agreement reached in July 2006 (see Note 7), the fee is payable as follows: 0.59% of net assets up to $500 million, 0.60% of net assets over $500 million and up to $1 billion, 0.55% of net assets over $1 billion and up to $1.5 billion, and 0.50% of net assets over $1.5 billion. During the fiscal year ended September 30, 2007, the amount of the management fee waived due to reduced rates was $106,260.

The Fund has an Accounting Services Agreement with Waddell & Reed Services Company (WRSCO), a wholly owned subsidiary of W&R. Under the agreement, WRSCO acts as the agent in providing accounting services and assistance to the Fund and pricing daily the value of shares of the Fund. For these services, the Fund pays WRSCO a monthly fee of one-twelfth of the annual fee shown in the following table:

Accounting Services Fee
Average Net Asset Level (in millions)	Annual Fee Rate for Each Level
From $ 0 to $ 10	$ 0
From $ 10 to $ 25	$ 11,500
From $ 25 to $ 50	$ 23,100
From $ 50 to $ 100	$ 35,500
From $ 100 to $ 200	$ 48,400
From $ 200 to $ 350	$ 63,200
From $ 350 to $ 550	$ 82,500
From $ 550 to $ 750	$ 96,300
From $ 750 to $ 1,000	$ 121,600
$ 1,000 and Over	$ 148,500

In addition, for each class of shares in excess of one, the Fund pays WRSCO a monthly per-class fee equal to 2.5% of the monthly accounting services base fee.

The Fund also pays monthly a fee at the annual rate of 0.01% or one basis point for the first $1 billion of net assets with no fee charged for net assets in excess of $1 billion.

For Class A, Class B and Class C shares, the Fund pays WRSCO a monthly per account charge for shareholder servicing of $1.6958 for each shareholder account which is non-networked and which was in existence at any time during the prior month; however, WRSCO has agreed to reduce those fees if the number of total shareholder accounts within the Complex (Waddell & Reed Advisors Funds, Waddell & Reed InvestEd Portfolios, Inc., Ivy Funds and Ivy Funds, Inc.) reaches certain levels. For certain networked accounts (that is, those shareholder accounts whose Fund shares are purchased through certain financial intermediaries), WRSCO has agreed to reduce its per account fees charged to the Fund to $0.50 per month per shareholder account. Additional fees may be paid by the Fund to those intermediaries. For Class Y shares, the Fund pays WRSCO a monthly fee equal to one-twelfth of 0.15 of 1% of the average daily net assets of Class Y of the Fund for the preceding month. Additional fees may be paid by the Fund to those intermediaries. The Fund also reimburses W&R and WRSCO for certain out-of-pocket costs for all classes.

As principal underwriter for the Fund's shares, W&R received gross sales commissions for Class A shares (which are not an expense of the Fund) of $669,116. A contingent deferred sales charge (CDSC) may be assessed against a shareholder's redemption amount of Class A, Class B and Class C shares and paid to W&R. During the fiscal year ended September 30, 2007, W&R received $1,125, $9,932 and $2,311 in CDSC for Class A, Class B and Class C shares, respectively. With respect to Class A, Class B and Class C shares, W&R paid sales commissions of $435,350 and all expenses in connection with the sale of Fund shares, except for registration fees and related expenses.

Under a Distribution and Service Plan for Class A shares adopted by the Fund pursuant to Rule 12b-1 under the Investment Company Act of 1940, the Fund may pay monthly a distribution and/or service fee to W&R in an amount not to exceed 0.25% of the Fund's Class A average annual net assets. The fee is to be paid to reimburse W&R for amounts it expends in connection with the distribution of the Class A shares and/or provision of personal services to Fund shareholders and/or maintenance of shareholder accounts.

Under the Distribution and Service Plan adopted by the Fund for Class B and Class C shares, respectively, the Fund may pay W&R a service fee of up to 0.25%, on an annual basis, of the average daily net assets of the class to compensate W&R for providing services to shareholders of that class and/or maintaining shareholder accounts for that class and a distribution fee of up to 0.75%, on an annual basis, of the average daily net assets of the class to compensate W&R for distributing the shares of that class.

During the fiscal year ended September 30, 2007, the Fund paid Directors' regular compensation of $20,083, which is included in other expenses.

W&R is a subsidiary of Waddell & Reed Financial, Inc., a public holding company, and a direct subsidiary of Waddell & Reed Financial Services, Inc., a holding company.

NOTE 3 – Investment Security Transactions

Purchases of investment securities, other than U.S. government obligations and short-term securities, aggregated $96,122,980, while proceeds from maturities and sales aggregated $98,716,644. Purchases of options aggregated $453,330, while proceeds from sales of options aggregated $155,374. Purchases of short-term securities and U.S. government obligations aggregated $3,118,664,672 and $7,128,429, respectively. Proceeds from maturities and sales of short-term securities and U.S. government obligations aggregated $3,061,515,012 and $4,353,017, respectively.

For Federal income tax purposes, cost of investments owned at September 30, 2007 was $339,031,421, resulting in net unrealized appreciation of $12,036,391, of which $15,060,892 related to appreciated securities and $3,024,501 related to depreciated securities.

NOTE 4 – Federal Income Tax Matters

For Federal income tax purposes, the Fund's distributed and undistributed earnings and profit for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2007 and the related net capital losses and post-October activity were as follows:

Net ordinary income	$11,801,068
Distributed ordinary income	11,355,891
Undistributed ordinary income	2,305,559
Realized long-term capital gains	—
Distributed long-term capital gains	—
Undistributed long-term capital gains	—
Net capital losses	—
Post-October losses deferred	759,269

Internal Revenue Code regulations permit the Fund to defer into its next fiscal year net capital losses or net long-term capital losses and net foreign currency losses incurred between each November 1 and the end of its fiscal year (post-October losses).

Capital loss carryovers are available to offset future realized capital gain net income incurred in the 8 taxable years succeeding the loss year for Federal income tax purposes. The following shows the totals by year in which the capital loss carryovers will expire if not utilized.

September 30, 2008	$ 4,673,554
September 30, 2009	39,713,139
September 30, 2010	10,992,010
September 30, 2011	1,273,649
Total carryover	$56,652,352

NOTE 5 – Multiclass Operations

The Fund currently offers four classes of shares, Class A, Class B, Class C and Class Y, each of which have equal rights as to assets and voting privileges. Class Y shares are not subject to a sales charge on purchases, are not subject to a Rule 12b–1 Distribution and Service Plan and are subject to a separate shareholder servicing fee structure. A comprehensive discussion of the terms under which shares of each class are offered is contained in the Prospectus and the Statement of Additional Information for the Fund.

Income, non-class specific expenses, and realized and unrealized gains and losses are allocated daily to each class of shares based on the value of their relative net assets as of the beginning of each day adjusted for the prior day's capital share activity.

NOTE 6 – Swaps

The Fund may invest in swap agreements, which are agreements to exchange the return generated by one instrument for the return generated by another instrument. The Fund may enter into credit default, total return, variance and other swap agreements to: 1) preserve a return or a spread on a particular investment or portion of its portfolio; 2) to protect against any increase in the price of securities the Fund anticipates purchasing at a later date; or 3) to attempt to enhance yield.

Credit default swaps involve the exchange of a fixed rate premium for protection against the loss in value of an underlying security in the event of a defined credit event, such as payment default or bankruptcy. Under a credit default swap one party acts as a guarantor by receiving the fixed periodic payment in exchange for the commitment to purchase the underlying security at par if the defined credit event occurs. The Fund may enter into credit default swaps in which either it or its counterparty act as the guarantor.

Total return swaps involve a commitment to pay periodic interest payments in exchange for a market-linked return based on a security or a basket of securities representing a variety of securities or a particular index. To the extent the total return of the security, index or other financial measure underlying the transaction exceeds or falls short of the offsetting interest rate obligation, the Fund will receive a payment from or make a payment to the counterparty.

Variance swaps involve a contract in which two parties agree to exchange cash flows based on the measured variance of a specified underlying security or index during a certain time period. On the trade date, the two parties agree on the strike price of the contract (the reference level against which cash flows are exchanged), as well as the number of units in the transaction and the length of the contract. Like an option contract, the value of a variance swap is influenced by both realized and implied volatility, as well as the passage of time. The Fund may enter into variance swaps to manage volatility risk.

The creditworthiness of firms with which a Fund enters into a swap agreement is monitored by WRIMCO. If a firm's creditworthiness declines, the value of the agreement would likely decline, potentially resulting in losses. If a default occurs by the counterparty to such a transaction, the Fund will have contractual remedies pursuant to the agreement related to the transaction.

Swaps are marked-to-market daily based on valuations provided by a pricing vendor or a broker-dealer. Changes in value are recorded as unrealized appreciation (depreciation) in the Statement of Operations. Collateral, in the form of cash or securities, may be required to be held in segregated accounts with the custodian or counterparty. Payments received or made at the beginning of the measurement period are reflected as such on the Statement of Assets and Liabilities. These upfront payments, as well as any periodic payments, are recorded as realized gain or loss in the Statement of Operations. Gains or losses may be realized upon termination of the swap agreement.

Entering into swap agreements involves certain risks. Among these are possible failure of the counterparty to fulfill its obligations, possible lack of liquidity, and unfavorable changes in interest rates or underlying investments.

NOTE 7 – Regulatory and Litigation Matters

On July 24, 2006, WRIMCO, W&R and WRSCO (collectively, Waddell & Reed) reached a settlement with each of the SEC, the New York Attorney General (NYAG) and the Securities Commissioner of the State of Kansas to resolve proceedings brought by each regulator in connection with its investigation of frequent trading and market timing in certain Waddell & Reed Advisors Funds.

Under the terms of the SEC's cease-and-desist order (SEC Order), pursuant to which Waddell & Reed neither admitted nor denied any of the findings contained therein, among other provisions Waddell & Reed has agreed to: pay $40 million in disgorgement and $10 million in civil money penalties; cease and desist from violations of the antifraud provisions and certain other provisions of the federal securities laws; maintain certain compliance and ethics oversight structures; retain an independent consultant to periodically review Waddell & Reed's supervisory, compliance, control and other policies and procedures; and retain an independent distribution consultant (described below). According to the SEC Order, the SEC found that some market timers made profits in some of the Waddell & Reed Advisors Funds, and that this may have caused some dilution in those Funds. Also, the SEC found that Waddell & Reed failed to make certain disclosures to the Waddell & Reed Advisors Funds' Boards of Directors and shareholders regarding the market timing activity and Waddell & Reed's acceptance of service fees from some market timers.

The Assurance of Discontinuance with the NYAG (NYAG Settlement), pursuant to which Waddell & Reed neither admitted nor denied any of the findings contained therein, among its conditions requires that Waddell & Reed: reduce the aggregate investment management fees paid by certain of the Waddell & Reed Advisors Funds and by certain of the W&R Target Funds, Inc. (the Funds) by $5 million per year for five years, for a projected total of $25 million in investment management fee reductions; bear the costs of an independent fee consultant to be retained by the Funds to review and consult regarding the Funds' investment management fee arrangements; and make additional investment management fee-related disclosures to Fund shareholders. The NYAG Settlement also effectively requires that the Funds implement certain governance measures designed to maintain the independence of the Funds' Boards of Directors and appoint an independent compliance consultant responsible for monitoring the Funds' and WRIMCO's compliance with applicable laws.

The consent order issued by the Securities Commissioner of the State of Kansas (Kansas Order), pursuant to which Waddell & Reed neither admitted nor denied any of the findings contained therein, requires Waddell & Reed to pay a fine of $2 million to the Office of the Commissioner.

The SEC Order further requires that the $50 million in settlement amounts described above will be distributed in accordance with a distribution plan developed by an independent distribution consultant, in consultation with Waddell & Reed, and that is agreed to by the SEC staff and the Funds' Disinterested Directors. The SEC Order requires that the independent distribution consultant develop a methodology and distribution plan pursuant to which Fund shareholders shall receive their proportionate share of losses, if any, suffered by the Funds due to market timing. Therefore, it is not currently possible to specify which particular Fund shareholders or groups of Fund shareholders will receive distributions of those settlement monies or in what proportion and amounts.

The foregoing is only a summary of the SEC Order, NYAG Settlement and Kansas Order. A copy of the SEC Order is available on the SEC's website at www.sec.gov. A copy of the SEC Order, NYAG Settlement and Kansas Order is available as part of the Waddell & Reed Financial, Inc. Form 8-K as filed on July 24, 2006.

In addition, pursuant to the terms of agreement in the dismissal of separate litigation, Waddell & Reed has also agreed to extend the reduction in the aggregate investment management fees paid by the Funds, as described above, for an additional five years.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

The Board of Directors and Shareholders,
Waddell & Reed Advisors Global Bond Fund, Inc.:

We have audited the accompanying statement of assets and liabilities, including the schedule of investments, of Waddell & Reed Advisors Global Bond Fund, Inc. (the “Fund”) as of September 30, 2007, and the related statement of operations for the year then ended, the statements of changes in net assets for each of the two years in the period then ended, and the financial highlights for each of the five years in the period then ended. These financial statements and financial highlights are the responsibility of the Fund’s management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements and financial highlights based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements and financial highlights are free of material misstatement. The Fund is not required to have, nor were we engaged to perform, an audit of its internal control over financial reporting. Our audits included consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Fund’s internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. Our procedures included confirmation of securities owned as of September 30, 2007, by correspondence with the custodian and brokers; where replies were not received from brokers, we performed other auditing procedures. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements and financial highlights referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Waddell & Reed Advisors Global Bond Fund, Inc. as of September 30, 2007, the results of its operations for the year then ended, the changes in its net assets for each of the two years in the period then ended, and the financial highlights for each of the five years in the period then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

CORPORATION DEDUCTIONS – Under Federal tax law, the amounts reportable as Qualifying Dividends are eligible for the dividends received deduction in the year received as provided by Section 243 of the Internal Revenue Code.

The tax status of dividends paid will be reported to you on Form 1099-DIV after the close of the applicable calendar year.

Shareholders are advised to consult with their tax adviser concerning the tax treatment of dividends and distributions from the Funds.

The Board of Directors of Waddell & Reed Advisors Global Bond Fund, Inc.

Each of the individuals listed below serves as a director for the Fund, and for the other portfolios within the Waddell & Reed Advisors Funds (21 portfolios), Waddell & Reed InvestEd Portfolios, Inc. (3 portfolios) and W&R Target Funds, Inc. (25 portfolios) (collectively, the Advisors Fund Complex), except that Robert L. Hechler is not a Director of W&R Target Funds, Inc. The Advisors Fund Complex, together with the Ivy Family of Funds, comprise the Waddell & Reed/Ivy Fund Complex (Fund Complex). The Ivy Family of Funds consists of the portfolios in the Ivy Funds (16 portfolios) and Ivy Funds, Inc. (12 portfolios).

A director is “interested” by virtue of his or her current or former engagement as an officer of Waddell & Reed Financial, Inc. (WDR) or its wholly owned subsidiaries, including the funds’ investment advisor, WRIMCO; the funds’ principal underwriter, W&R; and the funds’ transfer agent, WRSCO, as well as by virtue of their personal ownership of shares of WDR. The other directors (more than a majority of the total number) are disinterested; that is, they are not employees or officers of, and have no financial interest in, WDR or any of its wholly owned subsidiaries, including W&R, WRIMCO and WRSCO. Each director serves an indefinite term, until he or she dies, resigns, is removed or becomes disqualified.

David P. Gardner serves as the Independent Chairman of the Fund’s Board and of the board of directors of the other funds in the Advisors Fund Complex.

Additional Information about Directors

The Statement of Additional Information (SAI) for the Fund includes additional information about the Fund’s directors. The SAI is available without charge, upon request, by calling 1.888.WADDELL. It is also available on the Waddell & Reed website, www.waddell.com.

Renewal of Investment Management Agreement for Waddell & Reed Advisors Global Bond Fund, Inc.

At its meeting on August 13, 14 and 15, 2007, the Fund's Board of Directors, including all of the Disinterested Directors, considered and approved the continuance of the existing Investment Management Agreement ("Management Agreement") between WRIMCO and the Fund. The Disinterested Directors were assisted in their review by independent legal counsel and met with such counsel separately from representatives of WRIMCO. The Disinterested Directors also received and considered a memorandum from their independent legal counsel regarding the Disinterested Directors' responsibilities in evaluating the Management Agreement. This memorandum explained the regulatory requirements pertaining to the Disinterested Directors' evaluation of the Management Agreement. In addition, the Disinterested Directors engaged an independent fee consultant whose responsibilities included managing the process by which the proposed management fees under the Management Agreement were negotiated with WRIMCO.

Prior to the Board meeting, independent legal counsel sent to WRIMCO a request for information to be provided to the Directors in connection with their consideration of the continuance of the Management Agreement. WRIMCO provided materials to the Directors that included responses to the request letter and other information WRIMCO believed was useful in evaluating the continuation of the Management Agreement. Thereafter, independent legal counsel sent to WRIMCO a supplemental request for certain additional information, and WRIMCO provided additional information in response to this request. The Directors also received reports prepared by an independent third party, Lipper Inc. ("Lipper"), relating to the Fund's performance and expenses compared to the performance of the universe of comparable mutual funds selected by Lipper (the "Performance Universe") and to the expenses of a peer group of comparable funds selected by Lipper (the "Peer Group"), respectively. Further, the Directors received a written evaluation from the independent fee consultant, a summary of which is included in this Annual Report. At their meeting, the Directors received a presentation from representatives of WRIMCO regarding services provided by it and its affiliates (collectively, "W&R") to the Fund. In addition, during the course of the year, WRIMCO had provided information relevant to the Directors' consideration of the continuance of the Management Agreement.

Nature, Extent and Quality of Services Provided to the Fund

The Directors considered the nature, extent and quality of the services provided to the Fund pursuant to the Management Agreement and also the overall fairness of the Management Agreement.

The Directors considered WRIMCO's research and portfolio management capabilities and that W&R also provides oversight of day-to-day fund operations, including fund accounting and administration and assistance in meeting legal and regulatory requirements. The Directors also considered WRIMCO's practices regarding the selection and compensation of brokers and dealers that execute portfolio transactions for the Fund, those brokers' and dealers' provision of brokerage and research services to WRIMCO, and the benefits derived by the other funds in the Advisors Fund Complex and by other clients of WRIMCO from such services. The Directors also considered the favorable history, reputation, qualification and background of WRIMCO and W&R's extensive administrative, accounting and compliance infrastructure.

Fund Performance, Management Fee and Expense Ratio. The Directors considered the Fund's performance, both on an absolute basis and in relation to the performance of its Performance Universe. The Fund's performance was also compared to relevant market indices and to a Lipper index, as applicable.

The Directors considered the management fees and total expenses of the Fund and also considered the Fund's management fees and total expenses in relation to the management fees and total expenses, respectively, of its Peer Group. The Directors' review also included consideration of the Fund's management fees at various asset levels, which reflected breakpoints in the management fee structure, and average account size information. In addition, the Directors considered the investment management fees, if any, paid to WRIMCO (or its affiliate) by other mutual funds managed by WRIMCO (or its affiliate) with similar investment objectives, policies and strategies as the Fund ("Similar Funds"). The Directors also considered the subadvisory fees, if any, paid to WRIMCO (or its affiliate) by other mutual funds advised by WRIMCO (or its affiliate), as well as the management fees, if any, paid by other client accounts managed by WRIMCO (or its affiliate), with similar investment objectives, policies and strategies as the Fund ("Other Accounts").

The Directors considered that the Fund's total return performance was lower than the Performance Universe median for the one-, five-, seven-, and ten-year periods and lower than the Lipper index for the one-, three-, five-, seven-, and ten-year periods.

The Directors considered the range and average of the management fees and expense ratios of the Peer Group. They considered that the Fund's management fee was lower than the Peer Group median and that the overall expense ratio was higher than the Peer Group median. They considered that the Fund's non-management fee expenses were higher than the Peer Group median on an unadjusted basis but that, when adjusted for the Fund's smaller average account size, the non-management fee expenses were lower than the Peer Group median. They also considered that, with the breakpoints in the fee schedule, the Fund's effective management fees at various asset levels were lower than the asset-weighted average for its Peer Group.

The Directors also considered that there were no Similar Funds managed by WRIMCO or its affiliates with similar investment objectives, policies and strategies as the Fund and that the Other Accounts had average advisory fees that were higher than the management fee of the Fund. The Directors considered the relevance of the fee information provided for the Other Accounts to evaluate the appropriateness and reasonableness of the Fund's management fee.

Profitability and Economies of Scale

The Directors also considered that the Fund's management fee structure includes breakpoints that provide for a reduction of payments to reflect anticipated economies of scale. The Directors also considered the management fee rate reductions that became effective October 1, 2006, for the Fund and certain other funds in the Advisors Fund Complex, and the anticipated impact of the fee rate reduction for the Fund on its investment management fees and overall expense ratio. In concluding that the benefits accruing to WRIMCO and its affiliates by virtue of their relationship to the Fund were reasonable in comparison with the costs of providing the investment management services and the benefits accruing to the Fund, the Directors considered specific data as to WRIMCO's profit with respect to the Fund for a recent period. The Directors also considered WRIMCO's methodology for determining this data.

In determining whether to approve the proposed continuance of the Management Agreement, the Directors considered the best interests of the Fund and the overall fairness of the proposed Management Agreement. The Directors considered the following factors to be of primary importance to their approval of the continuance of the Fund's Management Agreement, without any one factor being dispositive:

- the performance of the Fund compared with the average performance of its Performance Universe and with relevant indices;
- the Fund's investment management fees and total expenses compared with the management fees and total expenses of the Peer Group;
- the existence or appropriateness of breakpoints in the Fund's management fees;
- the cost/profitability to WRIMCO and any actual or anticipated economies of scale in relation to the services it provides to the Fund;
- the other benefits that accrue to WRIMCO as a result of its relationship to the Fund; and
- the favorable history, reputation, qualification and background of WRIMCO as well as the qualifications of its personnel.

Based on the discussions, considerations and information described generally above, including in particular the evaluation provided by the independent fee consultant, the Board determined that the Fund's Management Agreement is fair and reasonable and that continuance of the Management Agreement was in the best interests of the Fund. In reaching these determinations, the Board concluded that: the nature, extent and quality of the services provided by WRIMCO for the Fund are adequate and appropriate; the performance of the Fund was satisfactory; it retained confidence in WRIMCO's overall ability to manage the Fund; and the management fee paid to WRIMCO was reasonable in light of comparative management fee information, the breakpoints in the proposed management fee for the Fund, the services provided by WRIMCO, the costs of the services provided, and the profits realized and other benefits likely to be derived by WRIMCO from its relationship with the Fund.

The Board of Directors for each of the mutual funds has appointed an independent fee consultant. Posted below is a summary of the written fee evaluation of such consultant for the most recent year.

Overview

Waddell & Reed, Inc. (“W&R”), Waddell & Reed Investment Management Company (“WRIMCO”) and Waddell & Reed Services Company (“WRSCO”) (collectively, “Waddell”) agreed on July 19, 2006 to the New York Attorney General Assurance of Discontinuance (“AOD”). Among other things, the AOD stipulates that WRIMCO may manage or advise a mutual fund for Waddell & Reed Advisors Funds (“Advisors Funds”), W&R Target Funds, Inc. (“Target Funds”), or Waddell & Reed InvestEd Portfolios, Inc. (“InvestEd Portfolios”) (collectively, “Funds”) only if the Disinterested Directors of the Fund’s Board appoint a Senior Officer or an Independent Fee Consultant (“IFC”), who is to manage the process by which proposed management fees are negotiated. The AOD further stipulates that the Senior Officer or IFC is to prepare a written annual evaluation for use by the Funds’ Boards of Directors in evaluating the reasonableness of the proposed management fees for the Funds.

On August 22, 2006, the Disinterested Directors retained me as IFC for the Funds. In this capacity, I have prepared the first annual written evaluation of the proposed management fees for the Funds.

Role of the IFC

The AOD charges the IFC with managing the process by which the proposed management fees (including, but not limited to, advisory fees) to be charged to the Funds are negotiated in a manner which is at an arm’s length and reasonable and consistent with the AOD. In this role, the IFC does not replace the Directors in negotiating management fees with WRIMCO and the IFC does not substitute his or her judgment for that of the Directors about the reasonableness of the proposed fees. As the AOD states, “Waddell may manage or advise a Fund after October 1, 2006 only if the reasonableness of the proposed management fees is determined by the Board of Directors of the Funds using an annual independent written evaluation prepared by or under the direction of a Senior Officer or the Independent Fee Consultant... ”.

In addition, the AOD requires that the IFC keep the Funds’ Boards of Directors fully and promptly informed of the fee evaluation process and that Waddell cooperate fully with the IFC and provide any information requested by the IFC that relates to the IFC’s fee evaluation.

Factors Involved in the IFC’s Written Evaluation

The AOD stipulates that the IFC’s written evaluation must address at least six factors:

1. The nature and quality of Waddell’s services, including Fund performance
2. Management fees (including any components thereof) charged by other mutual fund companies for like services
3. Management fees (including any components thereof) charged to institutional and other clients of Waddell for like services
4. Possible economies of scale as the Fund(s) grow larger
5. Costs to Waddell and its affiliates of supplying services pursuant to the management fee agreements, excluding any intra-corporate profit
6. Profit margins of Waddell and its affiliates from supplying such services

My comments are included in the following paragraphs, organized into three topics: the process, the materials, and the findings of my evaluation of the proposed management fees and the contract renewal process..

Process

The contract renewal process is defined to include the principal sequential steps by which the Disinterested Directors go about determining the reasonableness of the proposed management fees for the Funds in the context of their annual consideration of the proposed continuance of the Funds' respective Investment Management Agreements with WRIMCO. The 2007 contract renewal process from my perspective began with my retention and is anticipated to conclude at the Board meeting on August 14/15, 2007. As IFC, I participated throughout the contract renewal process.

The Board previously created the Special Compliance & Governance Committee ("Compliance Committee") which is charged with responsibility for the preparatory work associated with the contract renewal process.

A calendar of due dates was prepared and agreed to by the Compliance Committee in order to ensure that the Disinterested Directors and Board receive all the necessary information for their contract renewal process in plenty of time to carefully deliberate and to ask for any follow-up information as needed.

The Disinterested Directors instructed independent legal counsel to the Disinterested Directors, Kirkpatrick & Lockhart Preston Gates Ellis LLP ("K&L Gates"), to prepare a letter requesting the necessary information from WRIMCO needed for the contract renewal process. This information was promptly and cooperatively provided by WRIMCO. The Lipper Company ("Lipper"), a division of Reuters, was asked to provide independently compiled comparative information about the Funds.

Lipper selected the peer group funds and sought input from the investment professionals at WRIMCO to ensure that Lipper understood the investment and distribution intricacies of the Funds.

The Compliance Committee met on July 12, 2007, with me and K&L Gates to discuss the information provided by WRIMCO and Lipper and to determine whether to request any additional information from WRIMCO prior to the August Disinterested Directors and Board meetings. At the Compliance Committee's direction, K&L Gates sent a supplemental request to WRIMCO for certain additional information which WRIMCO promptly and cooperatively provided prior to the August meetings.

As part of my responsibilities as IFC, I was requested to attend the Disinterested Directors' meetings of August 13–15, 2007, to present my evaluation of the proposed management fees for the Funds and to discuss with the Disinterested Directors my findings. On August 13, I met separately with the Disinterested Directors and K&L Gates to address these matters in preparation for the Board Meetings on August 14/15, 2007.

Materials

Materials refer to the informational materials which were prepared by all the parties involved in the contract renewal process in response to the data requested by the Disinterested Directors through the Compliance Committee and K&L Gates. As IFC, I reviewed all the data produced and found it to be responsive to the data requested by the Disinterested Directors. I also reviewed certain other materials that I considered relevant.

I used these materials to analyze trends and comparative information about the six factors discussed above. My review follows. I would note that, apart from these materials, the Disinterested Directors also received information throughout the year, some of which I reviewed, that may also be relevant to the contract renewal process.

(1) Nature and Quality of Services

Under the AOD, I am obliged to comment on the investment performance of the Funds. The data for these comparisons are drawn from the Lipper materials discussed above. Performance information is based on April 30, 2007 data.

My experience is that fund directors should focus on longer-term performance during the contract renewal process (though they may choose to focus on shorter-term performance for other purposes such as portfolio evaluation). For this summary I have concentrated on 3-year performance in comparison to the “performance universe”, rather than on the more limited “performance group” because fund investors are more typically concerned with the objective and style of management than the size of the fund.

Generally speaking, the Funds reflect strong and improving performance in the 3- and 5-year periods. 5-year performance has 47% of the Funds in the first two quintiles of their performance universe and 11% in the 5th quintile. The 3-year figures upgrade to 53% of the Funds in the first two quintiles and only 8% in the 5th quintile.

The short-term 1-year period depicts a decline in the performance of a number of Funds, with only 33% of Funds falling in the first two quintiles, and 19% in the 5th quintile. The performance gap is more evident when comparing the 82% of Funds that are in the first three quintiles of performance for the 3-year period versus only 44% for the 1-year period.

In their supplemental request, the Disinterested Directors asked WRIMCO for an explanation for the decline in the 1-year performance of these Funds compared to their 3- and 5-year performance. In response to this request, WRIMCO advised that in general, short-term performance had improved through June 30, 2007. Additional performance updates to July 19 were provided by WRIMCO in response to the supplemental request from K&L Gates and still more updates to July 31 were provided at the August 13, 2007 meeting of the Disinterested Directors.

WRSCO maintains internal statistics to track service quality, which showed a decline in the quality of customer service provided to the Funds' shareholders. The Disinterested Directors were informed about corrective actions to be taken in February 2007 and the quality has improved slightly through June 30, 2007.

(2) Management Fees and Total Expense Comparison for Comparable Mutual Funds

Information for this metric is drawn from the Lipper analysis and is compared with a peer group for each Fund. Overall, more Funds have improved their comparative ranking of actual management fees in 2007 than declined. However, the majority of Funds have management fees above the median of their peer groups. In general the cause of the higher total expenses than the peer group are caused by non-management fees which are discussed under the findings paragraphs below.

(3) Management Fees for Alternate Products

WRIMCO manages money for many different types of clients besides mutual funds. These include corporate and municipal pension funds and investment pools for wealthy individuals. Collectively, these services are advertised as "separate accounts." Several of these separate accounts are managed with the same investment objective and in the same style as some of the Advisors, Target and InvestEd Funds.

In most cases, the data provided by WRIMCO show that net management fees for the Funds are higher than that of the equivalent separate accounts. WRIMCO has explained these differences by reference to the different type of responsibilities borne by the mutual fund manager and the separate account manager. As IFC, I find these differences in fees reasonable.

(4) Costs to Waddell and its Affiliates of Supplying Services

An important component of the profit margin and economies of scale discussion which follows is to ensure that the cost allocation procedures which exist are reasonable and consistent from year to year. WRIMCO uses multiple methodologies for allocation including assets, revenue, time, and square footage. The bases of allocation have remained consistent over the past several years. As IFC, I know of no better way to perform these allocations and find WRIMCO's allocation methodologies reasonable.

(5) Profit Margins from Supplying Management Services

In general, under the Gartenberg ruling, independent directors of mutual funds are required to assess that the profitability of the advisory contracts to the advisor is not excessive. In addition, Lipper has provided a benchmark against which to evaluate the before-marketing, before-tax profitability of WRIMCO. This analysis places WRIMCO collectively at the bottom of Lipper peers. As a result, I do not find the margins to be excessive.

(6) Possible Economies of Scale

Economies of scale occur when assets grow and a fund's fixed costs are spread over a larger asset base. Typically, fund managers share economies of scale by implementing break points, or scale-downs, in the structure of the management fee. As a general rule, fund directors establish break points prospectively at an asset level beyond the current asset level so that shareholders benefit from future asset growth. Lipper provided the Disinterested Directors with a comprehensive listing of break points in the Waddell Funds and compared the effective fee at a uniform asset level.

Findings

After reviewing the materials (discussed above) which WRIMCO and Lipper have produced, I have summarized my findings for the purpose of discussion at the August 14/15, 2007 Disinterested Directors and Board meetings. These include four specific areas: Fund performance, non-management expenses, economies of scale, and total expenses.

Fund Performance

While I found that the Funds have generally acceptable performance, certain Funds have either continuing or recent challenges. In my view, long-term performance issues should draw more attention as they reflect investment capabilities rather than short-term swings in the market. WRIMCO has addressed each of these Funds in its response to K&L Gates' initial letter. The Disinterested Directors may choose to monitor the Funds on the long-term performance list by a variety of possible approaches.

Because the list of Funds with 1-year performance declines includes Funds whose 3-year and 5-year performance periods reflect superior performance, the shift should be noted by the Disinterested Directors. WRIMCO has provided the Disinterested Directors with an explanation of reasons for 1-year performance decline from the 3-year and 5-year trends together with a performance update for consideration at their August 14/15, 2007 meetings.

Non-Management Expenses

Waddell's business model leads to higher non-management expenses across the Funds in general. This business model targets the small to mid-level investor population, an approach that has resulted in many relatively small shareholdings. In their supplemental request to WRIMCO, the Disinterested Directors requested additional information about the possibility of charging an annual account fee on small shareholdings. WRIMCO has provided this information for consideration by the Disinterested Directors at their August 14/15, 2007 meetings.

Economies of Scale

In order to allow the shareholders to share in the economies of scale realized by the Funds, there are break points to the management fees for all Funds other than money market funds. The current break points of the Funds appear adequate in providing economies of scale with the possible exception of the Advisors Core Investment Fund, which is the largest in the complex.

In their supplemental request to WRIMCO, the Disinterested Directors asked for an analysis of an additional break point at the $5 billion average asset level for this Fund. WRIMCO has provided this information and offered to institute an additional break point of 2.5 basis points at $5.0 billion in assets. The Board will consider this offer at the August 14/15, 2007 meetings.

Total Expenses

If a Fund consistently demonstrates poor performance, higher than average expenses, or a combination of both, it may be appropriate for the Disinterested Directors to consider taking affirmative action. Possible actions include requesting more frequent reports, WRIMCO's providing more research support, WRIMCO's providing more portfolio management capability, seeking an outside sub-advisor, or requesting a voluntary fee waiver to reduce total expenses and/or improve performance.

In their supplemental request, the Disinterested Directors asked WRIMCO to analyze the potential impact of a voluntary waiver on two such Funds, the Advisor High Income Fund and the Target Small Cap Value Fund. WRIMCO provided this information in its supplemental response for consideration by the Boards at their August 14/15, 2007 meetings.

In conclusion, as IFC, I have monitored the process, reviewed the materials, and find that:

- The contract renewal process conducted under the supervision of the Disinterested Directors has been careful, deliberate, and conscientious.
- The materials used during the contract renewal process were prepared by WRIMCO or Lipper. As IFC, I have reviewed the material used in this report. I have monitored the process under which Lipper selected the peers and produced its report. The materials were prepared without bias and in sufficient detail to facilitate meaningful decisions by the Disinterested Directors and the full Boards.
- The discussion which took place leading up to and at the Disinterested Directors and Board meetings was substantive and conducted in accordance with the best interests of the shareholders of the Funds.
