The Securities and Exchange Commission (Commission) issued an Order Instituting Proceedings (OIP) on September 29, 2010, pursuant to Section 12(j) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (Exchange Act), alleging that the seven Respondents have securities registered with the Commission and have failed to file required periodic reports. Each Respondent was served with the OIP by October 5, 2010.

On October 27, 2010, the Commission issued an order revoking the registration of each class of American Classic Voyages Co.'s, securities, pursuant to Exchange Act Section 12(j). See AMERECO, Inc., Exchange Act Release No. 63182. The remaining six Respondents are in default because they did not file an Answer, they did not participate in the telephonic prehearing conference held on October 27, 2010, and they have not otherwise defended the proceeding. See 17 C.F.R. §§ 201.155(a), .220(f), .221(f). Based on these facts, I find the following allegations in the OIP to be true as to them. See 17 C.F.R. § 201.155(a).

Section 12(j) of the Exchange Act authorizes the Commission, where it is necessary or appropriate for the protection of investors, to revoke the registration of a security where the issuer of a security has failed to comply with a provision of the Exchange Act or the rules thereunder. I conclude on these facts that revocation of the registration of each class of the registered securities of AMERECO, American Atlas, American Consolidated, AmeriKing, Ametech, and Ampace is both necessary and appropriate for the protection of investors.
