In addition to historical information, this Report contains forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are subject to certain risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those reflected in these forward-looking statements. Factors that might cause such a difference include, but are not limited to, management of growth, competition, pricing pressures on the Company's products, industry growth and general economic conditions. PART I

ITEM 1. BUSINESS

A. BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT

The continual evolution in the discovery of new “cutting edge” ingredients and the development in understanding the manner in which they can impact overall health serve as a reminder to emerging technologies and gateways for treating an individual’s challenges with regard to their personal health. The executive team of HST continues to enjoy an unusual position of visibility with organizations involved in developing many of these new products and technologies. Consequently, the year ending December 31, 2010 has positioned the company to investigate some of these emerging technologies for acquisition and/or potential Joint Venture Agreements.

A confluence of opportunity, some old, some new, is pushing us to consider using these new technologies and developing new channels of distribution both within the structure of our original clinics and additionally through physician networks.

B. FINANCIAL INFORMATION ABOUT SEGMENTS

As defined by generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP"), we do not have any segments separate and apart from our business as a whole. Accordingly, there are no measures of revenue from external customers, profit and loss, or total assets aside from what is reported in the Financial Statements attached to this Form 10-K.

C. BUSINESS OF THE COMPANY

COMPANY OVERVIEW

HST Global, Inc. is an Integrated Health and Wellness company that is developing and/or acquiring a network of Wellness Centers worldwide that are primarily focused on the homeopathic and alternative treatment of late stage cancer. In addition, the company intends to acquire innovative products for the treatment of late stage cancer. In this regard, the company primarily focuses on homeopathic and alternative product candidates that are undergoing or have already completed significant clinical testing for the treatment of late stage cancer. The development of new and emerging technologies will broaden the company’s direction and incorporate products that are associated with the biotechnology industry. They will strengthen the company’s relationship with its targeted clinical partners and broaden the channels of distribution currently available to the company.

The company has identified the growing acceptance of alternative cancer treatments worldwide which has placed us in a perfect position to open our own brand of Cancer Treatment Centers. This strategy will enable the company to address the challenges individuals face in the treatment of cancer in the later stages.

The Company has been challenged in the execution of its intention to open Cancer Centers that were originally targeted to be opened this year. Our inability to raise sufficient money coupled with the down turn in the economy of 2010 has delayed opening new locations.

Our executive offices are located at 150 Research Drive Hampton, VA 23666. Our telephone number is 757-766-6100 and our internet address is www.hstglobal.com.

BUSINESS MODEL AND STRATEGY

Cancer is an epidemic that is worldwide and one that does not discriminate. The company has been involved with pre-clinical and proven product candidates that have shown high efficacy in the treatment of various late stage cancers. The success and high efficacy achieved in these treatments has given the company a position of visibility that has attracted a number of International partners that want to move forward and open Centers worldwide. Movement to establish a global chain of Cancer Treatment Centers will provide an immediate revenue stream to the company.

Due to the change in the perception of homeopathic treatments for cancer and other life threatening illnesses, the company has developed a strategy of opening a chain of Wellness Centers worldwide. It is the company's intention to open its first clinic during the fourth quarter of 2011. After an initial one year ramp-up period, anticipated annual gross revenues for each individual clinic should be approximately between 8 and 10 million dollars per year.

As referenced above, the company also focuses on alternative and homeopathic products that are undergoing or have already completed significant clinical testing for the treatment of late stage cancer. Currently, we do not follow any policy or formula as to our acquisition of product candidates, other than seeking products for which pre-clinical or clinical testing has commenced.

REPORT BY THE SCIENTIFIC ADVISORY BOARD

The following summarizes the findings of our Scientific Advisory Board with respect to the ongoing clinical trials:

The purpose of the pre-clinical outcome-based study in Stage IV adult cancers is to study efficacy and safety issues. All patients coming to the clinic are given the following choices:

1. Conventional chemotherapy, either first, second or third line, as appropriate to the patient's prior history;
2. Conventional chemotherapy, either standard or low-dose fractionated, with proprietary immune therapies;
3. Conventional dose or low-dose fractionated chemotherapy with other complimentary products;
4. Insulin Potentiated Therapy using standard chemotherapy with other complimentary therapies, and
5. Any of the above plus hormonal therapies.

The advantages of the pre-clinical studies are to show efficacy and safety, and freedom from adverse toxicities and adverse side-effects. The ongoing conclusion of the studies are that there is a novel, homeopathic, immune boosting therapy that when used alone in cancer, is showing an overall high response rate.

OTHER MATTERS

Employees

HST Global, Inc. and Health Source Technologies, Inc., our wholly owned subsidiary, have a total of one full and one part time employees and one consultant who devote a significant portion of their time to the Company. We believe our relationship with our employees is good.

Research and Development

During the last two full fiscal years, we have not engaged in any research and development activities. Our business model is to in-license technologies developed by others. In the event that we undertake research and development activities in the future, the costs of those efforts will not be borne directly by our consumers.

Intellectual Property

Our goal is to obtain, maintain and enforce patent protection for our products, formulations, processes, methods and other proprietary technologies, preserve our trade secrets, and operate without infringing on the proprietary rights of other parties, both in the United States and in other countries. Our policy is to actively seek to obtain, where appropriate, the broadest intellectual property protection possible for any future product candidates, proprietary information and proprietary technology through a combination of contractual arrangements and patents, both in the U.S. and abroad.

Dependence on one or a few major customers

HSTC is not dependent on one or a few major customers.

Competition

The treatment of late stage cancer is highly competitive, and there will be considerable competition from major pharmaceutical, biotechnology, and specialty cancer companies. Many of our competitors have substantially more resources than we do, including both financial and technical resources. In addition, many of these companies have more experience than we do in preclinical and clinical development, manufacturing, regulatory, and global commercialization. We are also competing with academic institutions, governmental agencies and private organizations that are conducting research in the field of cancer. Competition for highly qualified employees is intense.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Statements about our future expectations are "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of applicable Federal Securities Laws, and are not guarantees of future performance. When used herein, the words "may," "will," "should," "anticipate," "believe," "appear," "intend," "plan," "expect," "estimate," "approximate," and similar expressions are intended to identify such forward-looking statements. These statements involve risks and uncertainties inherent in our business, including those set forth in Item 1A under the caption "Risk Factors," in this Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2010, and other filings with the SEC, and are subject to change at any time. Our actual results could differ materially from these forward-looking statements. We undertake no obligation to update publicly any forward-looking statement.

OVERVIEW

HST Global, Inc. is an Integrated Health and Wellness Biotechnology company that is developing and /or acquiring a network of Wellness Centers worldwide that are primarily focused on the homeopathic and alternative treatment of late stage cancer. In addition, the company intends to acquire innovative products for the treatment of individual health challenges. In this regard, the company primarily focuses on homeopathic and alternative product candidates that are undergoing or have already completed significant clinical testing.

The company has identified the growing acceptance of alternative treatments worldwide which has placed us in a perfect position to open our own brand of Treatment Centers. This strategy will enable the company to address the challenges individuals face in the treatment challenging and in some cases life threatening diseases.

PLAN OF OPERATION

General and administrative expenses consist primarily of salaries and related personnel costs, professional fees, business insurance, rent, general legal activities, and other corporate expenses.

We have never been profitable and do not anticipate having net income unless and until we develop and/or acquire our wellness centers and/or develop new channels of distribution. With respect to our current activities, this is not likely to occur until we obtain significant additional funding. We cannot provide any assurance that we will be able to achieve profitability on a sustained basis, if at all, obtain the required funding, obtain, or complete additional corporate partnering or acquisition transactions.

Accordingly, we will need to raise additional funds or pursue strategic transactions or other strategic alternatives. To date, we have financed our operations primarily through private sales of our equity securities, and we expect to continue obtaining required capital in a similar manner.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Revenues, cost of sales and operating expenses

The Company had revenues of $0 for the year ended December 2010 as compared to $0 for the year ended December 2009. The costs of sales for the same period were $0 in 2010 as compared to $0 for 2009. The Company incurred expenses of $847,850 for the year ended December 2010. The expenses in 2010 were incurred to further the company's Research and Development efforts and continue the company's strategic plan of opening wellness clinics worldwide. Until the Company obtains capital required to develop any properties or businesses and obtains the revenues needed from its future operations to meet its obligations, the Company will be dependent upon sources other than operating revenues to meet its operating and capital needs. Operating revenues may never satisfy these needs.

Gain on discontinued operations

No income or loss was recorded in the current quarter from discontinued operations or from the disposal of a subsidiary.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

Our capital requirements arise principally due to our expenses in beginning our operations and our plan to open up a Wellness Center in 2011. Our cash balance as of December 31, 2010 was $560.

The Company does not currently have sufficient capital in its accounts, nor sufficient firm commitments for capital to assure its ability to meet its current obligations or to continue its planned operations. The Company is continuing to pursue working capital and additional revenue through the seeking of the capital it needs to carry on its planned operations. There is no assurance that any of the planned activities will be successful.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Board of Directors and Stockholders of HST Global, Inc. and Subsidiary
Hampton, Virginia

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheets of HST Global, Inc. and subsidiary as of December 31, 2010 and 2009, and the related consolidated statements of operations, stockholders' equity (deficiency), and cash flows for each of the years in the two-year period ended December 31, 2010, and for the period from the date of inception on August 7, 2007 to December 31, 2010. HST Global Inc.'s management is responsible for these financial statements. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. The company is not required to have, nor were we engaged to perform, an audit of its internal control over financial reporting. Our audit included consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the company's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of HST Global, Inc. and subsidiary as of December 31, 2010 and 2009, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the years in the two-year period ended December 31, 2010 and for the period from the date of inception on August 7, 2007 to December 31, 2010 in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern. The Company does not have the necessary working capital to service its debt and for its planned activity, which raises substantial doubt about its ability to continue as a going concern. Management's plans in regard to these matters are described in Note 10 to the financial statements. These financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

NOTE 2 - SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

The company considers all highly liquid instruments purchased with maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

REVENUE RECOGNITION

The company considers revenue to be recognized at the time the service is performed.

USE OF ESTIMATES

The preparation of the Company's financial statements required management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The Company's short-term financial instruments consist of cash and cash equivalents and accounts payable. The carrying amounts of these financial instruments approximate fair value because of their short-term maturities. Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to a concentration of credit risk consist principally of cash. During the year the Company did not maintain cash deposits at financial institutions in excess of the $250,000 limit covered by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. The Company does not hold or issue financial instruments for trading purposes nor does it hold or issue interest rate or leverage derivative financial instruments.

EARNINGS PER SHARE

Basic Earnings per Share ("EPS") is computed by dividing net income available to common stockholders by the weighted average number of common stock shares outstanding during the year. Diluted EPS is computed by dividing net income available to common stockholders by the weighted-average number of common stock shares outstanding during the year plus potential dilutive instruments such as stock options and warrants. The effect of stock options on diluted EPS is determined through the application of the treasury exercises are hypothetically used to repurchase the Company's common stock at the average market price during the period. Loss per share is unchanged on a diluted basis since the assumed exercise of common stock equivalents would have an anti-dilutive effect.

INCOME TAXES

The Company uses the asset and liability method of accounting for income. This method requires the recognition of deferred tax assets and liabilities for the expected future tax consequences of temporary differences between the carrying amounts and the tax basis of certain assets and liabilities. Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are computed annually for the difference between the financial statement and tax bases of assets and liabilities that will result in taxable or deductible amounts in the future, based on enacted tax laws and rates applicable to the periods in which the differences are expected to affect taxable income. Valuation allowances are established when necessary to reduce deferred tax assets to the amount expected to be realized. Income tax expense is the tax payable or refundable for the period, plus or minus the change during the period in deferred tax assets and liabilities.

Deferred income taxes may arise from temporary differences resulting from income and expense items reported for financial accounting and tax purposes in different periods. Deferred taxes are classified as current or non-current, depending on the classification of the assets and liabilities to which they relate. Deferred taxes arising from temporary differences that are not related to an asset or liability are classified as current or non-current depending on the periods in which the temporary differences are expected to reverse. The Company had no significant deferred tax items arise during any of the period presented.

CONCENTRATION OF CREDIT RISK

The Company does not have any concentration of related financial credit risk.

RECENT ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

The Company does not expect that the adoption of other recent accounting pronouncements will have a material impact to its financial statements.

ITEM 9. CHANGES IN AND DISAGREEMENTS WITH ACCOUNTANTS ON ACCOUNTING AND FINANCIAL DISCLOSURES

None.

ITEM 9A. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

(a) Evaluation of disclosure controls and procedures

Our management, including our Principal Executive and Principal Financial Officer, evaluated the effectiveness of the design and operation of our disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Securities Exchange Act Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e)) as of December 31, 2010. Our disclosure controls and procedures are designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by the issuer in the reports that it files or submits under the Act (15 U.S.C. 78a et seq.) is recorded, processed, summarized, and reported, within the time periods specified in the Commission's rules and forms. Disclosure controls and procedures include, without limitation, controls and procedures designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by an issuer in the reports that it files or submits under the Act is accumulated and communicated to the issuer's management, including its principal executive and principal financial officers, or persons performing similar functions, as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure. Based on this evaluation, our Chief Executive and Principal Financial Officer concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures were not effective as of December 31, 2010.

(b) Management's Report on Internal Control over Financial Reporting

Our management is responsible for establishing and maintaining adequate internal control over financial reporting as defined in Rules 13a-15(f) and 15d-15(f) under the Exchange Act. Our internal control over financial reporting is designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with U.S. GAAP. Our internal control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that: (i) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of our assets; (ii) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with GAAP, and that our receipts and expenditures are being made only in accordance with authorizations of our management and directors; and (iii) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use or disposition of our assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Because of its inherent limitations, internal control over financial reporting may not prevent or detect misstatements. Also, projections of any evaluation of effectiveness to future periods are subject to the risk that controls may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Under the supervision of our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, our management assessed the effectiveness of our internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2010. In making this assessment, management used the criteria set forth in Internal Control-Integrated Framework issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission. Based on this assessment, our management has concluded that our internal control over financial reporting was ineffective as of December 31, 2010 and there are material weaknesses in our internal control over financial reporting. A material weakness is a deficiency, or a combination of control deficiencies, in internal control over financial reporting such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of our annual or interim financial statements will not be prevented or detected on a timely basis.

The material weaknesses relate to the limited number of persons responsible for the recording and reporting of financial information, the lack of separation of financial reporting duties, and the limited size of our management team in general. We are in the process evaluating methods of improving our internal control over financial reporting, including the possible addition of financial reporting staff and the increased separation of financial reporting responsibility, and intend to implement such steps as are necessary and possible to correct these material weaknesses.

This annual report does not include an attestation report of our registered public accounting firm regarding internal control over financial reporting. Management's report was not subject to attestation by our registered public accounting firm pursuant to temporary rules of the SEC that permit us to provide only management's report in this Annual Report on Form 10-K. Our registered public accounting firm will not be required to opine on internal controls until fiscal 2010.

(c) Change in Internal Controls

There were no changes in our internal control over financial reporting during the quarter ended December 31, 2010, that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.

ITEM 9B. OTHER INFORMATION

SECTION 16(A) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Stock Exchange. SEC regulations require reporting persons to furnish us with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file.

Based solely on our review of the copies of the Forms 3, 4 and 5 and amendments thereto furnished to us by the persons required to make such filings during fiscal 2009 and our own records, we believe that Mr. Howell, and Mr. Clemons each failed to file timely a Form 3 to report initial beneficial ownership.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE.

We have not adopted a code of ethics do date. We are in the process of evaluating the standards of conduct necessary for the deterrence of malfeasance and the promotion of ethical conduct and accountability, and will determine whether a code of ethics is necessary based on our evaluation.

The Company does not have a standing Nominating Committee. There have been no changes to the procedures whereby security holders may recommend nominees to the registrant's board of directors.

The Company is not a "listed issuer" as defined by Rule 10A-3, and does not have a standing Audit Committee. We do not have a financial expert serving on our board of directors.

ITEM 11. EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION COMPENSATION DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Objectives and Philosophy of our Executive Compensation Program

We do not have a standing compensation committee. Our board of directors as a whole makes the decisions as to employee benefit programs and officer and employee compensation. The primary objectives of our executive compensation programs are to:

- attract, retain and motivate skilled and knowledgeable individuals;
- ensure that compensation is aligned with our corporate strategies and business objectives;
- promote the achievement of key strategic and financial performance measures by linking short-term and long-term cash and equity incentives to the achievement of measurable corporate and individual performance goals; and
- align executives' incentives with the creation of stockholder value.

To achieve these objectives, our board of directors evaluates our executive compensation program with the objective of setting compensation at levels they believe will allow us to attract and retain qualified executives. In addition, a portion of each executive's overall compensation is tied to key strategic, financial and operational goals set by our board of directors. We also generally provide a portion of our executive compensation in the form of options that vest over time, which we believe helps us retain our executives and align their interests with those of our stockholders by allowing the executives to participate in our longer term success as reflected in asset growth and stock price appreciation.

Named Executive Officers

The following table identifies our principal executive officer, our principal financial officer and our most highly paid executive officers, who, for purposes of this Compensation Disclosure and Analysis only, are referred to herein as the "named executive officers."

Name	Corporate Office
Ron Howell	Chief Executive Officer and Interim Chief Financial Officer

Components of our Executive Compensation Program

At this time, Named Executive Officers receives compensation for their services to the Company. Compensation will be negotiated in the near future and may be contingent on the availability of financing. The primary elements of our executive compensation program will be base salaries and option grant incentive awards, although the board of directors has the authority to award cash bonuses, benefits and other forms of compensation as it sees fit.

The Company has entered into a consulting agreement with Mr. Howell whereby the Company agreed to pay Mr. Howell $10,000 per month for consulting services thru December 31, 2010. The consulting agreement may be terminated at will by the Company. The Company intends to continue to engage Mr. Howell as a consultant until his consulting services are no longer required.

We do not have any formal or informal policy or target for allocating compensation between short-term and long-term compensation, between cash and non-cash compensation or among the different forms of non-cash compensation. Instead, we have determined subjectively on a case-by-case basis the appropriate level and mix of the various compensation components. Similarly, we do not rely on benchmarking against our competitors in making compensation related decisions.

Base salaries

Base salaries will be used to recognize the experience, skills, knowledge and responsibilities required of our named executive officers. Base salary, and other components of compensation, may be evaluated by our board of directors for adjustment based on an assessment of the individual's performance and compensation trends in our industry.

Equity Awards

Our stock option award program will be the primary vehicle for offering long-term incentives to our executives. To date, we have not issued any equity awards. We intend our equity awards to executives to generally be made in the form of warrants. We believe that equity grants in the form of warrants provide our executives with a direct link to our long-term performance, create an ownership culture, and align the interests of our executives and our stockholders.

Cash bonuses

Our board of directors has the discretion to award cash bonuses based on our financial performance and individual objectives. The corporate financial performance measures (revenues and profits) will be given the greatest weight in this bonus analysis. We have not yet granted any cash bonuses to any named executive officer nor have we yet developed any specific individual objectives while we wait to attain revenue and profitability levels sufficient to undertake any such bonuses.

Benefits and other compensation

Our named executive officers are permitted to participate in such health care, disability insurance, bonus and other employee benefits plans as may be in effect with the Company from time to time to the extent the executive is eligible under the terms of those plans. As of the date of this Registration Statement, with exception to health care, we have not implemented any such employee benefit plans.

CURRENT COMPENSATION AGREEMENTS

As discussed below, we have not agreed to pay the Named Executive Officers an annual salary. We will negotiate base salary in the near future. Base salary may be increased from time to time with the approval of the board of directors. The following table summarizes the agreed annual salary of each of the named executive officers:

NONQUALIFIED DEFERRED COMPENSATION

To date, we currently offer no defined contribution or other plan that provides for the deferral of compensation on a basis that is not tax-qualified to any of our employees, including the named executive officers.

COMPENSATION OF DIRECTORS

We intend to use a combination of cash and equity-based compensation to attract and retain candidates to serve on our board of directors. We intend to compensate directors who are also our employees for their service on our board of directors. Therefore, Mr. Howell will receive compensation for his service on our board of directors, which compensation has not yet been determined.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE INTERLOCKS AND INSIDER PARTICIPATION

We do not currently have a standing Compensation Committee. Our entire board of directors participated in deliberations concerning executive officer compensation.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT

The board of directors has reviewed and discussed the Compensation Discussion and Analysis required by Item 402(b) of Regulation S-K with management and, based on such review and discussions, the board of directors has recommended that this Compensation Discussion and Analysis be included in this Registration Statement on Form 10.
