Note 1. Nature of Operations and Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of Operations

Thrivent Investment Management Inc. (the "Company") is a registered introducing broker-dealer with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Exchange Act") and a registered investment adviser under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940. The Company is also member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA") and the Securities Investor Protection Corporation ("SIPC"). The Company is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Thrivent Financial Holdings Inc. ("Holdings"). Holdings is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Thrivent Financial for Lutherans ("Thrivent"), a fraternal benefit society and registered investment adviser. The Company is required to comply with all applicable rules and regulations of the SEC, FINRA and SIPC.

The Company offers and sells shares primarily of Thrivent Mutual Funds ("Funds"). The Company also serves as principal underwriter and distributor of variable life and annuity contracts on behalf of Thrivent. The Company also distributes non-proprietary variable products on behalf of Thrivent Insurance Agency, Inc. ("TIA").

The Company offers asset management, investment advisory and brokerage services through an array of brokerage and managed account products.

The Company clears transactions under a fully disclosed agreement with an unaffiliated third party clearing broker dealer, National Financial Services, Inc. ("NFS").

Sales and distributions of Funds and other products generally occur through field representatives ("FRs"). FRs can be either non-employee independent contractors operating in a nationwide franchise system or they may choose to be employees of the Company. FRs may also provide various fee-based services to clients. Due to differing levels of support provided by the Company to FRs operating in various platforms, FRs are compensated at different amounts or rates depending on the various product and service offerings.

Significant Accounting Policies

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP").

Use of Estimates

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States (U.S. GAAP) requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses. These estimates reflect the best judgment of management and actual results could differ significantly from those estimates.

The significant accounting practices used in preparation of the financial statements are summarized as follows:

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents consist of amounts on deposit with banks and investments in money market mutual funds, of which $53,687 was invested in registered money market funds as of December 31, 2022. The Company considers all highly liquid securities and other investments purchased with an original or remaining maturity of three months or less at the date of purchase to be cash equivalents. Cash equivalents are carried at fair value. The fair value of cash equivalents is based on quoted daily net asset values of the invested fund and are classified as Level 1.

Receivables

Receivable from clearing firm ("NFS") consists of funds receivable from an unaffiliated broker-dealer, including amounts required to be on deposit with NFS and certain transactional and asset based fees earned by TIMI, but not yet paid by NFS. Receivable from related parties consists primarily of fees earned from 12b-1 distributions, revenue sharing and concessions earned from the sales of variable products on behalf of affiliated Thrivent entities. Other receivables consist primarily of monies owed to the Company from field representatives for licensing and registration costs, service fees earned but not collected from the Funds' transfer agent, fees earned but not collected from clients who have entered into financial planning services agreements, and various fees due from the sale of non-proprietary products. All receivables are recorded at their net realizable value.

Deferred revenue

Deferred revenue represents unearned financial planning fees collected from clients prior to the satisfaction of performance obligations, including delivery of financial plans and providing financial advice over the term of the contract. All deferred revenue amounts are expected to be earned within one year, as the performance obligations are satisfied ($98K at 12/31/22).

Thrivent Investment Management Inc.
(dollars in thousands)

Note 2. Income Taxes

Deferred income taxes reflect the net tax effects of temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the amounts used for income tax purposes.

Significant components of the Company's deferred tax assets and liabilities as of December 31 were as follows:

Deferred tax assets:
Retirement and pension	$ 688
Unrealized actuarial adjustment (AOCI)	267
Other	134
Deferred tax assets	$ 1,089

At December 31, 2022 the Company had no federal or state net operating loss carryforwards.

The company is required to establish a valuation allowance for any portion of the deferred income tax assets that management believes will not be realized. In the opinion of management, it is more likely than not that the Company will realize the benefit of the deferred income tax assets, and therefore, no such valuation allowance has been established.

There are no unrecognized or uncertain tax positions at December 31, 2022. Tax years 2019 through 2022 are open under the statute of limitations and remain subject to examination by the IRS.

Note 3. Related Party Transactions

As discussed in Note 1, the Company offers and sells Fund shares through a sales agreement with TDL and serves as the principal underwriter and distributor for other Thrivent affiliated entities.

In accordance with each applicable sale, distribution and underwriting agreement, the Company shall incur and be responsible for certain costs (direct and indirect commissions) paid to FRs related to efforts performed under the agreements. The agreements also provide Thrivent (the "Parent") shall pay as a convenience, these costs to FRs on behalf for the Company and that the Company shall reimburse the Parent. In addition, the Company is compensated for the initial and ongoing sales efforts of Thrivent's variable products, which is recorded as revenue and is summarized in the tables below.

In accordance with its intercompany services agreement, the Company reimbursed Thrivent for various services and costs paid by Thrivent on behalf of the Company. These reimbursements were for compensation; promotional and marketing materials; general and administrative expenses such as accounting, marketing, legal, compliance, and technology. The Company also reimburses Thrivent for field commissions, benefits, distribution costs, and incentives on behalf of the Company. Some of the reimbursements for costs such as benefits, incentives, compliance and field management are based on allocation amounts agreed upon in the intercompany services agreement between Thrivent and the Company.

The Company also has a non-qualified, non-contributory defined benefit retirement plan (the Plan) to provide certain employees with benefits in addition to those provided by the non-contributory defined benefit plans sponsored by Thrivent. The Company uses a measurement date of December 31 in its benefit plan disclosures.

2023	$ 249
2024	$ 268
2025	$ 265
2026	$ 262
2027	$ 259
2028 - 2032	$ 1,292

In 2023, the Company expects to contribute $249 to the Plan to fund projected benefit payments.

Note 5. Clearing Agreement

The Company is an introducing broker and clears certain securities transactions with and for customers on a fully disclosed basis through NFS. In addition, the Company transmits all customer funds and securities to NFS. In connection with these arrangements, the Company has agreed to indemnify the clearing broker dealer for losses incurred in connection with transactions introduced by the Company. The Company reserves for these potential losses. At December 31, 2022, no reserve was reflected in the accrued expenses line in the statement of financial condition as there was no obligation for losses at year-end.

Note 6. Commitments and Contingencies

In the normal course of business, the Company may indemnify and guarantee certain service providers against potential losses in connection with their acting as service providers to the Company. The maximum potential amount of future payments the Company could be required to make under these indemnifications cannot be estimated, however, the Company believes that it is unlikely it will have to make material payments under these arrangements and has not recorded a contingent liability in the financial statements for any indemnifications.

The Company is involved in the normal course of business in legal, regulatory and arbitration proceedings, including class actions, concerning matters arising in connection with the conduct of its activities as a diversified financial services firm. These include proceedings specific to the Company as well as proceedings generally applicable to business practices in the industries in which it operates. The Company can also be subject to litigation arising out of its general business activities, such as its investments, contracts, and employment relationships. Uncertain economic conditions, heightened and sustained volatility in the financial markets and significant financial reform legislation may increase the likelihood that clients and other persons or regulators may present or threaten legal claims or that regulators increase the scope or frequency of examinations of the Company or the financial services industry generally.

Thrivent Investment Management Inc.

As with other financial services firms, the level of regulatory activity and inquiry concerning the Company's businesses remains elevated. From time to time, the Company receives requests for information from, and/or has been subject to examination or claims by the SEC, FINRA, state insurance and securities regulators, state attorneys general and various other governmental and quasi-governmental authorities on behalf of themselves or clients concerning the Company's business activities and practices, and the practices of the Company's field representatives. The Company has pending matters which include information requests, exams or inquiries that the Company received during recent periods regarding certain matters, including: sales and distribution of mutual funds, annuities, and insurance products. The number of reviews and investigations has increased in recent years with respect to many firms in the financial services industry, including the Company. The Company has cooperated and will continue to cooperate with the applicable regulators regarding their inquiries.

These legal and regulatory proceedings and disputes are subject to uncertainties and, as such, it is inherently difficult to determine whether any loss is probable or even possible, or to reasonably estimate the amount of any loss. The Company cannot predict with certainty if, how or when such proceedings will be initiated or resolved or what the eventual settlement, fine, penalty or other relief, if any, may be, particularly for proceedings that are in their early stages of development or where plaintiffs seek indeterminate damages. Some issues may need to be resolved, including through potentially lengthy discovery and determination of important factual matters and by addressing unsettled legal questions relevant to the proceedings in question, before a loss or range of loss can be reasonably estimated for any proceeding. An adverse outcome could have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial condition or results of operations.

In accordance with applicable accounting standards, the Company establishes an accrued liability for contingent litigation and regulatory matters when those matters present loss contingencies that are both probable and can be reasonably estimated. In such cases, there still may be an exposure to loss greater than any amounts reasonably estimated and accrued. When a loss contingency is not both probable and estimable, the Company does not establish an accrued liability, but continues to monitor, in conjunction with any outside counsel handling a matter, further developments that would make such loss contingency both probable and reasonably estimable. Once the Company establishes an accrued liability with respect to a loss contingency, the Company continues to monitor the matter for further developments that could affect the amount of the accrued liability that has been previously established, and any appropriate adjustments are made each reporting period.

Note 7. Regulatory Requirements

The Company is subject to the SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1), which requires the Company to maintain minimum net capital. The Company has elected to use the alternative standard permitted by Rule 15c3-1. Advances to affiliates, dividend payments, and other equity withdrawals are subject to certain notification and other provisions of the SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule or other regulatory bodies.

At December 31, 2022, the Company had net capital of $35,260 which was $35,010 in excess of its minimum net capital required of $250.

Note 8. Subsequent Events

The Company evaluated events or transactions that may have occurred after the balance sheet date for potential recognition or disclosure through February 28, 2023, the date the financial statements were available to be issued. No events or transactions were identified that affect the Company's December 31, 2022 financial statements or that require further disclosure.
