(1) Organization and Basis of Presentation

Wells Fargo Clearing Services, LLC (WFCS) and subsidiaries (collectively referred to as “the Company”), are wholly owned by Wachovia Securities Financial Holdings, LLC (WSFH), which is a wholly owned subsidiary of Wells Fargo & Company (WFC). At close of business on November 11, 2016, First Clearing, LLC (FCLLC), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Wells Fargo Advisors, LLC (WFA), merged with and into WFA and was renamed as WFCS. FCLLC had been clearing transactions for WFA customers on a fully-disclosed basis. The customers of WFA were customers of WFCS including for clearing transactions after the merger. WSFH serves as the holding company for the retail brokerage and clearing businesses headquartered in St. Louis, Missouri. WSFH’s principal operating subsidiaries are the Company and Wells Fargo Advisors Financial Network, LLC (FINET).

WFCS is registered as a broker-dealer with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) and the Securities Investors Protection Corporation (SIPC). WFCS is also a member of the National Futures Association (NFA) and is registered as an introducing broker with the Commodity Futures Trading Commission (CFTC).

The Company’s primary business activities include securities and commodities brokerage, investment advisory, asset management services and clearing services. The Company self-clears substantially all customer security transactions except its commodities transactions which are cleared through ADM Investor Services, Inc. on a fully-disclosed basis. The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of WFCS and its subsidiaries. All intercompany balances have been eliminated in consolidation.

(2) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company has defined cash equivalents as highly liquid investments, with original maturities of less than ninety days that are not held for sale in the ordinary course of business.

Asset Management and Service Fees

Asset management and service fees primarily consist of investment and advisory fees, 12b-1 and shareholder accounting service fees received from mutual funds and insurance companies, bank sweep fee income (see Note 12), and other activity-based fees received from clients, mutual funds and insurance companies. Investment advisory fees, which are based on the market value of the client’s assets, are received quarterly, but are recognized as earned on a pro-rata basis over the quarter based on the terms of the contract.

Commissions

Commissions and related clearing expenses are based on the number and size of transactions executed at the client's direction and are recorded on a trade-date basis as securities transactions occur.

Securities Transactions

Trading securities held to accommodate expected customer order flow are recorded on the trade date, as if they had settled. Profit and losses arising from all securities and commodities transactions are recorded on a trade-date basis. Customer securities transactions are recorded on a settlement-date basis.

Securities owned and securities sold, not yet purchased are carried at fair value. Securities owned by customers, including those that collateralize margin or other similar transactions, are not reflected in the Consolidated Statement of Financial Condition as the Company does not have title to these assets.

Securities Lending Activities

Securities borrowed and securities loaned are reported as collateralized financing transactions and are recorded in the accompanying Consolidated Statement of Financial Condition at the amount of cash collateral advanced or received. Securities borrowed transactions require the Company to deposit cash or other collateral with the lender. With respect to securities loaned, the Company receives cash collateral in an amount generally in excess of the market value of securities loaned. The Company monitors the market value of securities borrowed and loaned on a daily basis, with additional collateral obtained or refunded, as necessary.

Securities Purchased/Sold Under Agreements to Resell/Repurchase

Transactions involving purchases of securities under agreements to resell (reverse repurchase agreements) or sales of securities under agreements to repurchase (repurchase agreements) are accounted for as collateralized financing transactions and are recorded at their contracted resale or repurchase amounts plus accrued interest. The Company manages the credit risk associated with these transactions by monitoring the fair value of the collateral obtained, including accrued interest, and by requesting additional collateral when deemed appropriate. The fair value of collateral related to reverse repurchase agreements was $1,298,446 as of December 31, 2016, consisting of U.S. government agency mortgage backed securities. It is the Company's policy to obtain possession and control of securities purchased under agreements to resell. The Company has pledged $276,519 of the collateral associated with its repurchase agreements.

Fair Value

Receivable from brokers, dealers and clearing organizations, receivable from customers, securities under agreements to resell, receivable from affiliates, short-term borrowings, securities sold under agreements to repurchase, payable to brokers, dealers and clearing organizations, payable to customers and payable to affiliates are recorded at contracted amounts that approximate fair value. The fair value of certain of these items is not materially sensitive to shifts in market interest rates because of the limited term to maturity and/or the variable interest rates of many of these instruments.

WELLS FARGO CLEARING SERVICES, LLC

Notes to Consolidated Statement of Financial Condition

December 31, 2016

(Dollars in thousands)

Securities owned and sold, not yet purchased and qualifying securities for the exclusive benefit of customers under Securities Exchange Act Rule 15c3-3 (the Customer Protection Rule) (see Note 3) are recorded at fair value, which is determined by using quoted market or dealer prices, third-party pricing services or other relevant observable information.

The Company categorizes its assets and liabilities that are accounted for at fair value in the Consolidated Statement of Financial Condition into a fair value hierarchy as defined by U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP). The fair value hierarchy is directly related to the amount of subjectivity associated with the inputs utilized to determine the fair value of these assets and liabilities (see Note 10).

Property, Equipment and Leasehold Improvements

Property, equipment and leasehold improvements are recorded at cost, net of accumulated depreciation and amortization. Depreciation of property and equipment is recognized on a straight-line basis using estimated useful lives that range up to 40 years for buildings and up to ten years for furniture and equipment. Leasehold improvements are amortized over the lesser of the estimated useful life of the improvement or the remaining term of the lease. For internal-use software, the Company capitalizes qualifying costs incurred during the application development stage. The resulting asset is amortized on a straight-line basis over five years, the expected life of the asset. The Company periodically reviews the estimated useful lives of its property, equipment and leasehold improvements.

Goodwill and Intangible Asset

Goodwill is the cost of an acquired company in excess of the fair value of identifiable net assets at the acquisition date. Goodwill is assessed annually, or more frequently under certain conditions, for impairment at the reporting unit level. An initial qualitative assessment of goodwill is performed. If based on that review, it is more likely than not a reporting unit's fair value is less than the carrying amount, then a quantitative analysis is performed to determine if there is goodwill impairment. If the fair value of the reporting unit exceeds its carrying value, its goodwill is not deemed to be impaired. At December 31, 2016, WFCS had one reporting unit.

Identified intangible assets that have a finite useful life are amortized in a manner that approximates the estimated decline in the economic value of the identified intangible assets. Identified intangible assets are periodically reviewed to determine whether there have been any events or circumstances to indicate that the recorded amounts are not recoverable. If the valuation of the intangible assets of the Company is less than their carrying amount, a loss is recognized to reduce the carrying amount to fair value, and when appropriate, the amortization period is also reduced.

Income Taxes

WFCS is a single member limited liability company and is treated as a disregarded entity pursuant to Treasury Regulation Section 301.7701-3 for federal income tax purposes. Generally, disregarded entities are not subject to entity-level federal or state income taxation and, as such, the Company is not required to provide for income taxes. The Company's taxable income primarily becomes taxable to the respective members of WFSH, Everen Capital Corporation (Everen) and Wells Fargo Investment Group, Inc. (WFIG). Certain states and foreign jurisdictions may subject the Company to entity-level taxation as a single member limited liability company. The Company files tax returns in various states and local jurisdictions and is subject to income tax examinations by tax authorities for years 2011 and forward.

Based upon its evaluation, the Company has concluded that there are no significant uncertain income tax positions relevant to the jurisdictions where it is required to file income tax returns requiring recognition in the consolidated financial statements. Management monitors proposed and issued tax laws, regulations and cases to determine the potential impact to uncertain income tax positions. The Company recognizes accrued interest and penalties, as appropriate, related to unrecognized income tax benefits in income tax expense. The Company recognized no interest in the year ended December 31, 2016 and there was no accrued interest at December 31, 2016. At December 31, 2016, management had not identified any potential subsequent events that would have a material impact on unrecognized income tax benefits within the next twelve months.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of the consolidated financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements and amounts of income and expense for the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Other

Other assets consist primarily of accrued revenue, dividends receivable, correspondent broker-dealer receivables and prepaid expenses. Accrued expenses and other liabilities consist primarily of vendor payables, dividends payables, legal reserves and lease obligations.

(3) Cash and Securities Segregated Under Federal and Other Regulations

WFCS is required to segregate funds in a special reserve bank account for the exclusive benefit of customers under the Customer Protection Rule. WFCS performs the computation for assets in the proprietary accounts of broker-dealers (PAB) in accordance with the computation set forth in the Customer Protection Rule, so as to enable broker-dealers to include PAB assets as allowable assets in their net capital computations, to the extent allowable under Securities Exchange Act Rule 15c3-1 (the Net Capital Rule). At December 31, 2016, WFCS segregated qualifying securities with a fair value of $898,882 and cash of $109,056 for the exclusive benefit of customers, of which $1,007,570 met the definition of segregated funds pursuant to the Customer Protection Rule. WFCS also segregated cash of $85,600 in a special reserve bank account for PAB, under the Customer Protection Rule as of December 31, 2016.

(4) Collateral

The Company accepts collateral under securities borrowed agreements and for credit extended to customers. The Company is permitted to repledge or sell these securities held as collateral. At

Notes to Consolidated Statement of Financial Condition

(Dollars in thousands)

December 31, 2016, the fair value of this collateral was $11,144,798, of which $3,190,916 had been repledged by the Company. The collateral is received predominately from customers and is used by the Company primarily to enter into securities lending agreements and to effectuate short sales made by customers.

(5) Offsetting of Securities Financing Agreements

Repurchase and resale activities are subject to master repurchase agreements (MRA) and securities borrowing and lending agreements are subject to master securities lending agreements (MSLA). The Company accounts for transactions subject to these agreements as collateralized financings.

Collateral pledged consists of non-cash instruments, such as securities, and is not netted on the Consolidated Statement of Financial Condition against the related collateralized asset or liability. The Company receives securities as collateral that are not recognized on the Consolidated Statement of Financial Condition. Collateral received or pledged may be increased or decreased over time to maintain certain contractual thresholds as the assets or liabilities underlying each arrangement fluctuate in value. While certain agreements may be over-collateralized, GAAP requires the disclosure to limit the amount of such collateral to the amount of the related recognized asset or liability.

Assets:

(6) Repurchase and Securities Lending Arrangements

Securities sold under repurchase agreements and securities lending arrangements are effectively short-term collateralized borrowings. While not a material risk, there is the residual risk that a counterparty may default and the Company would be exposed to declines in the market value of the collateral securing these transactions. Credit risk associated with these transactions is subject to many factors such as the liquidity of the collateral and the strength of the counterparties involved. The Company attempts to mitigate these risks by the fact that the majority of the securities financing activities involve highly liquid securities. The Company also monitors the financial strength of the counterparties, the fair value of collateral pledged relative to repurchase and securities lending contracts and that collateral is properly returned through the clearing and settlement process.

The following table provides the underlying collateral types of the gross obligations under securities lending agreements as of December 31, 2016:

	Total Gross Obligation

(10) Fair Value Measurement

The Company groups its financial assets and liabilities measured at fair value in three levels, based on markets in which these assets and liabilities are traded and the reliability of the assumptions used to determine fair value. These levels are:

- Level 1 – Valuation is based upon quoted prices for identical instruments traded in active markets.
- Level 2 – Valuation is based upon quoted prices for similar instruments in active markets, quoted prices for identical or similar instruments in markets that are not active, and model-based valuation techniques in which all significant assumptions are observable in the market.
- Level 3 – Valuation is generated from model-based techniques that use significant assumptions not observable in the market. These unobservable assumptions reflect the Company's own estimates of assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability. Valuation techniques include use of discounted cash flow models, option pricing models and similar techniques.

Securities owned and sold, not yet purchased are recorded at fair value on a recurring basis. Fair value measurement is based upon various sources of market pricing. The Company uses quoted prices in active markets where available and will classify such instruments as Level 1 of the fair value hierarchy. Examples include certain equity securities and some highly liquid government securities such as U.S. government obligations.

Securities traded in secondary markets are typically valued using unadjusted vendor prices. These prices are reviewed and may be adjusted using quoted market prices for similar securities if determined necessary. These securities are classified as Level 2 of the hierarchy. Examples include

Short-term borrowings also include $236 in outstanding bank drafts as of December 31, 2016.

The Company had available $1,000,000 in an uncommitted secured line of credit with WFBNA. The entire line of credit with WFBNA is collateralized by securities owned by the Company. At December 31, 2016, the Company did not have a balance outstanding on this line of credit.

(16) Employee Benefits and Deferred Compensation Plans

Defined Contribution Retirement Plans

WFC sponsors a defined contribution retirement plan (the 401(k) Plan). Under the 401(k) Plan, after one month of service, eligible employees may contribute up to 50% of their certified compensation subject to statutory limits. Eligible employees who complete one year of service are eligible for company matching contributions, which are generally dollar for dollar up to 6% of an employee's qualifying compensation. Matching contributions are 100% vested.

The 401(k) Plan includes a discretionary profit sharing contributions feature which allows WFC to make a contribution to eligible employees' 401(k) Plan accounts. Profit sharing contributions are vested after three years of service.

Deferred Compensation Plans

The Company maintains various unfunded deferred compensation plans in which select groups of employees are participants, as defined by the individual plans. Certain plans include awards subject to specific vesting dates or salary deferrals as defined in the individual plans.

Certain of the deferred compensation plans allow the participants to select a rate of return option which tracks the return on selected financial instruments. The Company attempts to economically hedge its exposure by purchasing investments which track the participants' returns. These assets totaled $1,086,873 at December 31, 2016, and are included in securities owned, at fair value in the Consolidated Statement of Financial Condition.

(17) Subordinated Borrowings

On January 29, 2016, the Company repaid the outstanding balance plus accrued interest on a subordinated loan agreement scheduled to mature on January 31, 2016. Prior to repayment, interest related to the subordinated loan was paid quarterly and based on the 90-day LIBOR rate plus 0.25%. At December 31, 2016, the Company has no subordinated borrowings.

The Company has a $300,000 subordinated revolving line of credit with WFC which can have advances made until December 31, 2020 and any outstanding advances are due to be repaid no later than December 31, 2021. The Company also has a $250,000 subordinated revolving line of credit with WFC which can have advances made until December 31, 2022 and any outstanding advances are due to be repaid no later than December 31, 2023. At December 31, 2016, the Company did not have a balance outstanding on either of these lines of credit.

Borrowings under these subordinated lines are allowable in computing net capital under the Net Capital Rule. To the extent these borrowings are required for the Company's continued compliance with minimum net capital requirements, they may not be repaid.

(18) Dividends

For the year ended December 31, 2016, the Company did not declare or pay any dividends to WSFH. The Company's ability to make capital and certain other distributions is subject to the rules and regulations of the SEC, FINRA and various other regulatory agencies and exchanges.

(19) Net Capital

WFCS is subject to the Net Capital Rule, which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital, as defined. WFCS elected to use the alternative method, permitted by the Net Capital Rule, which requires that WFCS maintain minimum net capital, as defined, equal to the greater of $1,500 or 2% of aggregate debit balances arising from customer transactions. WFCS is also subject to the CFTC's minimum financial requirements set forth in Regulation 1.17 of the CEA, which requires that the Company maintain minimum net capital, as defined, equal to $1,500.

At December 31, 2016, WFCS had net capital of $4,055,934 which was $3,975,155 in excess of its required minimum net capital of $80,779. At December 31, 2016, WFCS's net capital balance was 100.42% of aggregate debit balances.

(20) Financial Instruments with Off-balance Sheet Risk

In the normal course of business, the Company has activities that involve the execution, settlement and financing of various customer securities transactions. These activities may expose the Company to off-balance-sheet risk in the event the customer or other broker is unable to fulfill its contractual obligations and the Company has to purchase or sell the financial instrument underlying the contract at a loss.

The Company's customer securities activities are transacted on either a cash or margin basis. In margin transactions, the Company extends credit to customers, subject to various regulatory and internal margin requirements, collateralized by cash and securities in the customers' accounts. In connection with these activities, the Company executes and clears customer transactions involving the sale of securities not yet purchased, substantially all of which are transacted on a margin basis subject to individual exchange regulations. The Company also offers non-purpose loans to its customers. These transactions may expose the Company to significant off-balance-sheet risk in the event margin and other contractual collateral are not sufficient to fully cover losses that customers may incur. In the event a customer fails to satisfy its obligations, the Company may be required to purchase or sell financial instruments at prevailing market prices to fulfill the customer's obligations. The Company seeks to control the risks associated with its customer activities by requiring customers to maintain margin and other contractual collateral in compliance with various regulatory and internal guidelines. The Company monitors required margin and other contractual collateral levels daily and, pursuant to such guidelines, requires the customer to deposit additional collateral or to reduce positions when necessary.

The Company's customer financing and securities settlement activities require the Company to pledge customer securities as collateral in support of various secured financing sources such as securities loaned. In the event the counterparty is unable to meet its contractual obligation to return customer securities pledged as collateral, the Company may be exposed to the risk of acquiring the securities at prevailing market prices in order to satisfy its customer obligations. The Company controls this risk by monitoring the market value of securities pledged on a daily basis and by requiring adjustments of collateral levels in the event of excess market exposure. In addition, the Company establishes credit limits for such activities and monitors compliance on a daily basis.

(21) Guarantees, Commitments and Contingent Liabilities

Underwriting Commitments

In the normal course of business, the Company enters into debt and equity underwriting commitments. There were no open transactions relating to such underwriting commitments at December 31, 2016.

Lease Commitments

The Company leases office space primarily related to its branch network and home offices under operating leases expiring at various dates through the year 2030. Minimum future rental payments required under such leases and minimum future sublease income to be received that have initial or remaining non-cancelable lease terms in excess of one year at December 31, 2016 are as follows:

Years ending December 31:	Operating leases	Non-cancelable subleases
2017	$145,357	$588
2018	130,066	211
2019	111,223	181
2020	91,710	184
2021	70,511	129
Thereafter	132,905	—

Minimum future rental commitments do not include operating leases entered into by affiliates for which the Company shares rent expense. Expense is allocated to the Company for its share of rent expense incurred under these operating leases and has not been included in the minimum future rental payments above.

Some of the Company's leases contain escalation clauses and renewal options.

Litigation

The Company is involved in a number of judicial, regulatory and arbitration proceedings concerning matters arising from the conduct of the Company's business activities. Although there can be no assurances as to the ultimate outcome, the Company has generally denied, or believes it has a meritorious defense and will deny, liability in all significant litigation pending against the Company, and it intends to defend vigorously each case. Reserves are established for legal claims when payments associated with the claims become probable and the costs can be reasonably estimated. The actual costs of resolving legal claims may be substantially higher or lower than the amounts reserved for those claims. Based on information currently available, advice of counsel, available insurance coverage and established reserves, the Company believes that the eventual outcome of such matters will not, individually or in the aggregate, have a material adverse effect on the Company's consolidated financial position. However, in the event of unexpected future developments, it is possible that the ultimate resolution of those matters, if unfavorable, may be material to the Company's results of operations for any particular period.

Exchange Member Guarantees

The Company is a member of various exchanges that trade and clear securities or futures contracts or both. Associated with its memberships, the Company may be required to pay a proportionate share of the financial obligations of another member who may default on its obligations to an exchange. Although the rules governing different exchange memberships vary, in general the Company's guarantee obligations would arise only if an exchange had previously exhausted its resources. In addition, any such guarantee obligation would be apportioned among the other non-defaulting members of the exchange. Any potential contingent liability under these membership agreements cannot be estimated. The Company has not recorded any contingent liability in the consolidated financial statements for these agreements and believes that any potential requirement to make payments under these agreements is remote.

Other Contingencies

On December 13, 2016, the Federal Reserve Bank (FRB) and Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) notified WFC that they had jointly determined that its 2016 resolution plan submission does not adequately remedy two of the three deficiencies identified by the FRB and FDIC in its 2015 resolution plan. WFC is required to remedy the two deficiencies in a revised submission to be provided to the FRB and FDIC by March 31, 2017 (the "Revised Submission"). If it fails to timely submit the Revised Submission or if the FRB and FDIC jointly determine that the Revised Submission does not adequately remedy the deficiencies, the FRB and FDIC will limit the size of WFC's broker-dealer assets, including the Company, to levels in place as of September 30, 2016.

Some contracts that the Company enters into in the normal course of business include indemnification provisions that obligate the Company to make payments to the counterparty or others if certain events occur. These contingencies generally relate to changes in the value of underlying assets, liabilities, or equity securities or upon the occurrence of events, such as an adverse litigation judgment or an adverse interpretation of the tax law. The indemnification clauses are often standard contractual terms and were entered into in the normal course of business based on an assessment that the risk of loss would be remote. Since there are no stated or notional amounts included in the indemnification clauses and the contingencies triggering the obligation to indemnify have not occurred and are not expected to occur, the Company is not able to estimate the maximum potential amount of future payments under these indemnification clauses. There are no amounts reflected on the Consolidated Statement of Financial Condition as of December 31, 2016, related to these indemnification clauses.

(22) Subsequent Events

The Company has evaluated the effects of events that have occurred subsequent to December 31, 2016 through February 22, 2017, the date the Company issued its Consolidated Statement of Financial Condition. During this period, there have been no material subsequent events that would require recognition or disclosure in the Consolidated Statement of Financial Condition.
