President's Letter

June 30, 2007

DEAR SHAREHOLDER:

So far, 2007 has been a strong year for U.S. equities. The Standard & Poor's 500 Index is up 6.96% for the six-month period ended June 30, 2007, led by energy and natural resources stocks. Most bond markets, meanwhile, have struggled in recent months. Overall economic growth has been better than most economists and pundits have expected while foreign purchases of U.S. Treasuries have subsided. Globally, interest rates are on the rise.

Enclosed is our report on your W&R Target Portfolio's operations for the six-month period ended June 30, 2007. We are pleased to report that many equity sectors provided positive market returns for the first half of the year, with most of the gains coming between March and May. Financial stocks were the weakest area of the stock market, reflecting fallout over lending practices in the subprime mortgage market, as well as the prospect of higher interest rates. Consumer stocks were also weaker than the rest of the market. Back in December, the markets were expecting the Federal Reserve to ease monetary policy in the wake of an economic slowdown. Instead growth, led by exports, may be accelerating.

Tailwinds of growth

Since January gasoline prices – a key factor that helps shape consumer confidence – have been on a roller-coaster. Overall, we feel the long-term cost trend for energy is upward given rising global demand for a wide variety of natural resources and continuing concerns about energy supplies and energy-related politics, not just in the Middle East, but in energy-exporting countries from Nigeria to Russia to Venezuela.

Economic Snapshot

	6-30-2007	12-31-2006
U.S. unemployment rate	4.50%	4.50%
Inflation (U.S. Consumer Price Index)	2.70%	2.50%
U.S. GDP	3.40%	3.50%
30-year fixed mortgage rate	6.63%	6.16%
Oil price per barrel	$70.68	$61.05

Source: Bloomberg, U.S. Department of Labor

The U.S. Consumer Price Index is the government's measure of the change in the retail cost of goods and services. Gross domestic product measures year-over-year changes in the output of goods and services. Mortgage rates shown reflect the average rate on a conventional loan with a 60-day lender commitment. Oil prices reflect the market price of West Texas intermediate grade crude.

On balance, the economic news has been good, including:

- Corporate profits remained solid, rising around 10 percent
- Inflation remains within the Fed's target (2 percent to 3 percent) range and
- Improving trade and federal deficits.

Our Economic Snapshot chart highlights five selected indicators. Even though headline numbers for items such as inflation and oil can change a great deal from month to month, several of the economic indicators below are in a similar place compared to where they were six months ago – an attractive place to be, in our view.

From a historical perspective, we believe that stock prices appear reasonable, especially given corporate profit levels. We see an attractive path ahead for diversified investors for the balance of the calendar year, although

Respectfully,

Henry J. Herrmann, CFA
President

one that might be marked by a few unexpected curves. As always, we believe that maintaining a well-rounded portfolio remains an important component of securing your financial future.

Illustration of Portfolio Expenses

As a shareholder of a Portfolio, you incur ongoing costs, including management fees, distribution and service fees, and other Portfolio expenses. The following tables are intended to help you understand your ongoing costs (in dollars) of investing in a Portfolio and to compare these costs with the ongoing costs of investing in other mutual funds. The example is based on an investment of $1,000 invested at the beginning of the period and held for the six-month period ended June 30, 2007.

Actual Expenses

The first line in the following tables provides information about actual investment values and actual expenses. You may use the information in this line, together with your initial investment in Portfolio shares, to estimate the expenses that you paid over the period. Simply divide the value of that investment by $1,000 (for example, a $7,500 initial investment divided by $1,000 = 7.5), then multiply the result by the number in the first line under the heading entitled “Expenses Paid During Period” to estimate the expenses you paid on your investment during this period. In addition, there are fees and expenses imposed under the variable annuity or variable life insurance contract through which shares of the Portfolio are held. Additional fees have the effect of reducing investment returns.

Hypothetical Example for Comparison Purposes

The second line of the following tables provides information about hypothetical investment values and hypothetical expenses based on the Portfolio's actual expense ratio and an assumed rate of return of 5% per year before expenses, which is not the Portfolio's actual return. The hypothetical investment values and expenses may not be used to estimate the actual investment value at the end of the period or expenses you paid for the period. You may use this information to compare the ongoing costs of investing in the Portfolio and other funds. To do so, compare this 5% hypothetical example with the 5% hypothetical examples that appear in the shareholder reports of the other funds. Please note that the expenses shown in the tables are meant to highlight your ongoing costs as a shareholder of the Portfolio and do not reflect any fees and expenses imposed under the variable annuity or variable life insurance contract through which shares of the Portfolio are held.

*Portfolio expenses are equal to the Portfolio's annualized expense ratio (provided in the table), multiplied by the average investment value over the period, multiplied by 181 days in the six-month period ended June 30, 2007, and divided by 365.

(1) This line uses the Portfolio's actual total return and actual Portfolio expenses. It is a guide to the actual expenses paid by the Portfolio in the period. The "Ending Investment Value" shown is computed using the Portfolio's actual return and the "Expenses Paid During Period" column shows the dollar amount that would have been paid by an investor who started with $1,000 in the Portfolio. A shareholder may use the information here, together with the dollar amount invested, to estimate the expenses that were paid over the period. For every thousand dollars a shareholder has invested, the expenses are listed in the fourth column.

(2) This line uses a hypothetical 5% annual return and actual Portfolio expenses. It helps to compare the Portfolio's ongoing costs with other mutual funds. A shareholder can compare the Portfolio's ongoing costs by comparing this hypothetical example with the hypothetical examples that appear in shareholder reports of other funds.

The above illustration is based on ongoing costs only.

NOTE 1 – Significant Accounting Policies

W&R Target Funds, Inc. (the Fund) is registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 as a diversified, open-end management investment company. Capital stock is divided into the twenty-one classes (each a Portfolio). The assets belonging to each Portfolio are held separately by the custodian. The following is a summary of significant accounting policies consistently followed by the Fund in the preparation of its financial statements. The policies are in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

- A. Security valuation – Each stock and convertible bond is valued at the latest sale price thereof on each business day of the fiscal period as reported by the principal securities exchange on which the issue is traded or, if no sale is reported for a stock, the average of the latest bid and asked prices. Bonds, other than convertible bonds, are valued using a pricing system provided by a pricing service or dealer in bonds. Convertible bonds are valued using this pricing system only on days when there is no sale reported. Stocks which are traded over-the-counter are priced using the Nasdaq Stock Market, which provides information on bid and asked prices quoted by major dealers in such stocks. Gold bullion is valued at the last settlement price for current delivery as calculated by the Commodity Exchange, Inc. as of the close of that exchange. Securities for which quotations are not readily available or are deemed not to be reliable because of significant events or circumstances identified between the closing of their principal markets and the closing of the New York Stock Exchange are valued at fair value as determined in good faith under procedures established by and under the general supervision of the Fund's Board of Directors. Management's valuation committee makes fair value determinations for the Fund subject to the supervision of the Board of Directors. Short-term debt securities, purchased with less than 60 days to maturity, are valued at amortized cost, which approximates market value. Short-term debt securities denominated in foreign currencies are valued at amortized cost in that currency.
- B. Security transactions and related investment income – Security transactions are accounted for on the trade date (date the order to buy or sell is executed). Securities gains and losses are calculated on the identified cost basis. Premium and discount on the purchase of bonds are amortized for both financial and tax reporting purposes over the remaining lives of the bonds. Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date, except certain dividends from foreign securities where the ex-dividend date may have passed, which are recorded as soon as the Fund is informed of the ex-dividend date. Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis. See Note 3 – Investment Securities Transactions.
- C. Foreign currency translations – All assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated into U.S. dollars daily. Purchases and sales of investment securities and accruals of income and expenses are translated at the rate of exchange prevailing on the date of the transaction. For assets and liabilities other than investments in securities, net realized and unrealized gains and losses from foreign currency translations arise from changes in currency exchange rates. The Fund combines fluctuations from currency exchange rates and fluctuations in market value when computing net realized and unrealized gain or loss from investments.

- D. Federal income taxes – It is the Fund's policy to distribute all of its taxable income and capital gains to its shareholders and otherwise qualify as a regulated investment company under the Internal Revenue Code. Accordingly, provision has not been made for Federal income taxes. See Note 4 – Federal Income Tax Matters.
- E. Dividends and distributions – Dividends and distributions to shareholders are recorded by each Portfolio on the business day following the record date. Net investment income distributions and capital gains distributions are determined in accordance with income tax regulations which may differ from accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. These differences are due to differing treatments for items such as deferral of wash sales and post-October losses, foreign currency transactions, net operating losses and expiring capital loss carryovers.
- F. Repurchase agreements – Repurchase agreements are collateralized by the value of the resold securities which, during the entire period of the agreement, remains at least equal to the value of the loan, including accrued interest thereon. The collateral for the repurchase agreement is held by the Fund's custodian bank.
- G. Forward foreign currency exchange contracts – A forward foreign currency exchange contract (Forward Contract) is an obligation to purchase or sell a specific currency at a future date at a fixed price. Forward Contracts are marked-to-market daily at the applicable translation rates and the resulting unrealized gains or losses are reflected in the Fund's financial statements. Gains or losses are realized by the Fund at the time the forward contract is extinguished. Contracts may be extinguished either by entry into a closing transaction or by delivery of the currency. Risks may arise from the possibility that the other party will not complete the obligations of the Contract and from unanticipated movements in the value of the foreign currency relative to the United States dollar. A Portfolio uses Forward Contracts to attempt to reduce the overall risk of its investments or to enhance returns.
- H. New Accounting Pronouncements – In June 2006, Financial Accounting Standards Board Interpretation No. 48, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes – an interpretation of FASB Statement No. 109 (FIN 48), was issued and is effective on the last business day of the semiannual reporting period for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2006. FIN 48 sets forth a threshold for financial statement recognition, measurement and disclosure of a tax position taken or expected to be taken on a tax return. Management has concluded that the adoption of FIN 48 will not result in a material impact on the Fund's net assets, results of operations and financial statement disclosures. In September 2006, FASB issued Statement on Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 157, "Fair Value Measurements." SFAS No. 157 defines fair value for purposes of financial statement presentation, establishes a hierarchy for measuring fair value in generally accepted accounting principles and expands financial statement disclosures about fair value measurements that are relevant to mutual funds. SFAS No. 157 is effective for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007. The Fund will adopt SFAS No. 157 during 2008 and its potential impact, if any, on each Portfolio's financial statements is currently being assessed by management.

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

NOTE 2 – Investment Management and Payments to Affiliated Persons

Waddell & Reed Investment Management Company (WRIMCO), a wholly owned subsidiary of Waddell & Reed, Inc. (W&R), serves as the Fund's investment manager. NOTE 5 – Options

Options purchased by a Portfolio are accounted for in the same manner as marketable portfolio securities. The cost of portfolio securities acquired through the exercise of call options is increased by the premium paid to purchase the call. The proceeds from securities sold through the exercise of put options are decreased by the premium paid to purchase the put. A Portfolio may also enter into a collar situation in which elements of buying a cap and selling a floor or vice versa are combined in an attempt to reduce risk.

When a Portfolio writes (sells) an option, an amount equal to the premium received by the Portfolio is recorded as a liability. The amount of the liability is subsequently adjusted to reflect the current market value of the option written. The current market value of an option is the last sales price on the principal exchange on which the option is traded or, in the absence of transactions, the mean between the bid and asked prices or a value supplied by a broker-dealer. When an option expires on its stipulated expiration date or the Portfolio enters into a closing purchase transaction, the Portfolio realizes a gain (or loss if the cost of a closing purchase transaction exceeds the premium received when the call option was sold) and the liability related to such option is extinguished. When a written call option is exercised, the premium is added to the proceeds from the sale of the underlying security in determining whether the Portfolio has realized a gain or loss. For the Portfolio, when a written put option is exercised, the cost basis of the securities purchased by the Portfolio is reduced by the amount of the premium received.

For Asset Strategy Portfolio, transactions in written put options were as follows:

	Number of Contracts	Premium Received

NOTE 6 – Futures

No price is paid upon entering into a futures contract. Instead, upon entering into a futures contract, a Portfolio is required to deposit, in a segregated account, an amount of cash or liquid securities equal to a varying specified percentage of the contract amount. This amount is known as the initial margin. Subsequent payments (variation margins) are made or received by the Portfolio each day, dependent on the daily fluctuations in the value of the underlying debt security or index. These changes in the variation margins are recorded by the Portfolio as unrealized gains or losses. Upon the closing of the contracts, the cumulative net change in the variation margin is recorded as realized gain or loss. A Portfolio uses futures to attempt to reduce the overall risk of its investments or to enhance returns.

NOTE 7 – Swaps

Each Portfolio may invest in swap agreements, which are agreements to exchange the return generated by one instrument for the return generated by another instrument. Each Portfolio may enter into credit default, total return, variance and other swap agreements to: 1) preserve a return or a spread on a particular investment or portion of its portfolio; 2) to protect against any increase in the price of securities the Portfolio anticipates purchasing at a later date; or 3) to attempt to enhance yield.

Credit default swaps involve the exchange of a fixed rate premium for protection against the loss in value of an underlying security in the event of a defined credit event, such as payment default or bankruptcy. Under a credit default swap one party acts as a guarantor by receiving the fixed periodic payment in exchange for the commitment to purchase the underlying security at par if the defined credit event occurs. Each Portfolio may enter into credit default swaps in which either it or its counterparty act as the guarantor.

Total return swaps involve a commitment to pay periodic interest payments in exchange for a market-linked return based on a security or a basket of securities representing a variety of securities or a particular index. To the extent the total return of the security, index or other financial measure underlying the transaction exceeds or falls short of the offsetting interest rate obligation, the Portfolio will receive a payment from or make a payment to the counterparty.

Variance swaps involve a contract in which two parties agree to exchange cash flows based on the measured variance of a specified underlying security or index during a certain time period. On the trade date, the two parties agree on the strike price of the contract (the reference level against which cash flows are exchanged), as well as the number of units in the transaction and the length of the contract. Like an option contract, the value of a variance swap is influenced by both realized and implied volatility, as well as the passage of time. Each Portfolio may enter into variance swaps to manage volatility risk.

The creditworthiness of firms with which a Portfolio enters into a swap agreement is monitored by WRIMCO. If a firm's creditworthiness declines, the value of the agreement would likely decline, potentially resulting in losses. If a default occurs by the counterparty to such a transaction, the Portfolio will have contractual remedies pursuant to the agreement related to the transaction.

Swaps are marked-to-market daily based on valuations provided by a pricing vendor or a broker dealer. Changes in value are recorded as unrealized appreciation (depreciation) in the Statement of Operations. Collateral, in the form of cash or securities, may be required to be held in segregated accounts with the custodian or counterparty. Payments received or made at the beginning of the measurement period are reflected as such on the Statement of Assets and Liabilities. These upfront payments, as well as any periodic payments, are recorded as realized gain or loss in the Statement of Operations. Gains or losses may be realized upon termination of the swap agreement.

Entering into swap agreements involves certain risks. Among these are possible failure of the counterparty to fulfill its obligations, possible lack of liquidity, and unfavorable changes in interest rates or underlying investments.

NOTE 8 – Commitment

In connection with Asset Strategy Portfolio's investment in Vietnam Azalea Fund Limited (VAF), the Portfolio is contractually committed to provide additional capital of up to $2,700,000 if and when VAF requests such contributions or draw downs. The total commitment is limited to $3,000,000. At June 30, 2007, Asset Strategy Portfolio had made its first contribution of $300,000.

NOTE 9 – Regulatory and Litigation Matters

On July 24, 2006, WRIMCO, W&R and WRSCO (collectively, Waddell & Reed) reached a settlement with each of the SEC, the New York Attorney General (NYAG) and the Securities Commissioner of the State of Kansas to resolve proceedings brought by each regulator in connection with its investigation of frequent trading and market timing in certain Waddell & Reed Advisors Funds.

Under the terms of the SEC's cease-and desist order (SEC Order), pursuant to which Waddell & Reed neither admitted nor denied any of the findings contained therein, among other provisions Waddell & Reed has agreed to: pay $40 million in disgorgement and $10 million in civil money penalties; cease and desist from violations of the antifraud provisions and certain other provisions of the federal securities laws; maintain certain compliance and ethics oversight structures; retain an independent consultant to periodically review Waddell & Reed's supervisory, compliance, control and other policies and procedures; and retain an independent distribution consultant (described below). According to the SEC Order, the SEC found that some market timers made profits in some of the Waddell & Reed Advisors Funds, and that this may have caused some dilution in those Funds. Also, the SEC found that Waddell & Reed failed to make certain disclosures to the Waddell & Reed Advisors Funds' Boards of Directors and shareholders regarding the market timing activity and Waddell & Reed's acceptance of service fees from some market timers.

The Assurance of Discontinuance with the NYAG (NYAG Settlement), pursuant to which Waddell & Reed neither admitted nor denied any of the findings contained therein, among its conditions requires that Waddell & Reed: reduce the aggregate investment management fees paid by certain of the Waddell & Reed Advisors Funds and certain of the W&R Target Funds, Inc. (the Funds) by $5 million per year for five years, for a projected total of $25 million in investment management fee reductions; bear the costs of an independent fee consultant to be retained by the Funds to review and consult regarding the Funds' investment management fee arrangements; and make additional investment management fee-related disclosures to Fund shareholders. The NYAG Settlement also effectively requires that the Funds implement certain governance measures designed to maintain the independence of the Funds' Boards of Directors and appoint an independent compliance consultant responsible for monitoring the Funds' and WRIMCO's compliance with applicable laws.

The consent order issued by the Securities Commissioner of the State of Kansas (Kansas Order), pursuant to which Waddell & Reed neither admitted nor denied any of the findings contained therein, requires Waddell & Reed to pay a fine of $2 million to the Office of the Commissioner.

The SEC Order further requires that the $50 million in settlement amounts described above will be distributed in accordance with a distribution plan developed by an independent distribution consultant, in consultation with Waddell & Reed, and that is agreed to by the SEC staff and the Funds' Disinterested Directors. The SEC Order requires that the independent distribution consultant develop a methodology and distribution plan pursuant to which Fund shareholders shall receive their proportionate share of losses, if any, suffered by the Funds due to market timing. Therefore, it is not currently possible to specify which particular Fund shareholders or groups of Fund shareholders will receive distributions of those settlement monies or in what proportion and amounts. However, as noted above, the SEC Order makes certain findings with respect to market timing activities in some of the Waddell & Reed Advisors Funds only. Accordingly, it is not expected that shareholders of W&R Target Funds, Inc. will receive distributions of settlement monies.

The foregoing is only a summary of the SEC Order, NYAG Settlement and Kansas Order. A copy of the SEC Order is available on the SEC's website at www.sec.gov. A copy of the SEC Order, NYAG Settlement and Kansas Order is available as part of the Waddell & Reed Financial, Inc. Form 8-K as filed on July 24, 2006.

In addition, pursuant to the terms of agreement in the dismissal of separate litigation, Waddell & Reed has also agreed to extend the reduction in the aggregate investment management fees paid by the Fund, as described above, for an additional five years.
