Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

The Stockholders
Intercarolina Financial Services, Inc.:

Opinion on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying balance sheet of Intercarolina Financial Services, Inc. (the "Company") as of December 31, 2021, and the related statements of income and retained earnings, and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes (collectively referred to as the "financial statements"). In our opinion, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2021, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's financial statements based on our audit. We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) (PCAOB) and are required to be independent with respect to the Company in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud. Our audit included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Our audit also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Auditors' Report on Supplemental Information

The supplemental information in schedules 1-3 has been subjected to audit procedures performed in conjunction with the audit of Company's financial statements. The supplemental information is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our audit procedures included determining whether the supplemental information reconciles to the financial statements or the underlying accounting and other records, as applicable, and performing procedures to test the completeness and accuracy of the information presented in the supplemental information. In forming our opinion on the supplemental information, we evaluated whether the supplemental information, including its form and content, is presented in conformity with 17 C.F.R. §240.17a-5. In our opinion, the supplemental information is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

Batchelor, Tilling & Roberts, LLP

We have served as the company's auditor since 2013.

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2021

NOTE 1 - Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Organization and Nature of Business - Intercarolina Financial Services, Inc., ("The Company") is a fully disclosed introducing broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and is a member of various exchanges and the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA). The Company's securities are cleared through a clearing broker-dealer. The Company does not maintain customers' security accounts nor does it perform custodial functions related to customer securities.

Basis of Presentation - The Company is engaged in a single line of business as a securities broker-dealer, which comprises several classes of services. The Company's policy is to prepare its financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The Company charges certain expenses to its brokers including occupancy, insurance, regulatory and exchange fees and professional fees. The expenses in the Statement of Income are presented net of chargebacks.

Securities Transactions - Commission revenues from securities transactions are recognized on a trade-date basis.

Accounts Receivable-Brokers - Accounts receivable brokers consists of non-secured advances to brokers and allocable operating expenses charged to brokers which will be repaid with future commissions.

Bad Debts - The Company records an allowance for doubtful receivables in amounts equal to the estimated collection losses that will be incurred. Management considers all accounts receivable collectible at December 31, 2021, therefore no allowance is required.

Furniture and Equipment - Furniture and equipment are recorded at cost. Depreciation is provided over the estimated useful lives of the related assets, primarily 5-10 years, using the straight-line method. Depreciation expense was $1,678 in 2021.

Commissions - Commissions and related clearing expenses are recorded on a trade-date basis as securities transactions occur.

Investment Advisory Income - Investment advisory fees are recognized as earned on a pro rata basis over the term of the contract.

Cash - For purposes of reporting cash flows, cash includes cash on deposit with federally insured commercial banks, cash on deposit with clearing brokers, and certificates of deposit with original maturities of three months or less.

Use of Estimates - The presentation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results may differ from those estimates.

Leases - Effective January 1, 2021, the Company adopted Accounting Standards Updated (“ASU”) No. 2016-02, Leases (Topic 842) (“ASU 2016-02” or “ASC 842”), using the modified retrospective method and utilized the effective date as its date of initial application, with prior periods presented in accordance with previous guidance under ASC 840, Leases (“ASC 840”). At the inception of an arrangement, the Company determines whether the arrangement is or contains a lease based on the unique facts and circumstances present in the arrangement. Leases with a term greater than one year are recognized on the balance sheet as right-of-use assets and current and non-current lease liabilities, as applicable.

Operating lease liabilities and their corresponding right-of-use assets are initially recorded based on the present value of lease payments over the expected remaining lease term. Certain adjustments to the right-of-use asset may be required for items such as incentives received. The interest rate implicit in lease contracts is typically not readily determinable. As a result, the Company utilizes its incremental borrowing rate to discount lease payments, which reflects the fixed rate at which the Company could borrow on a collateralized basis the amount of the lease payments in the same currency, for a similar term, in a similar economic environment. Prospectively, the Company will adjust the right-of-use assets for straight-line rent expense or any incentives received and remeasure the lease liability at the net present value using the same incremental borrowing rate that was in effect as of the lease commencement or transition date. The Company has elected not to recognize leases with an original term of one year or less on the statement of financial condition. The Company typically only includes an initial lease term in its assessment of a lease arrangement. Options to renew a lease are not included in the Company’s assessment unless there is reasonable certainty that the Company will renew.

Assumptions made by the Company at the commencement date are re-evaluated upon occurrence of certain events, including a lease modification. A lease modification results in a separate contract when the modification grants the lessee an additional right of use not included in the original lease and when lease payments increase commensurate with the standalone price for the additional right of use. When a lease modification results in a separate contract, it is accounted for in the same manner as a new lease.

Notes to Financial Statements

The Company elected the following practical expedients, which must be elected as a package and applied consistently to all of its leases at the transition date (including those for which the entity is a lessee or a lessor): i) the Company did not reassess whether any expired or existing contracts are or contain leases; ii) the Company did not reassess the lease classification for any expired or existing leases (that is, all existing leases that were classified as operating leases in accordance with ASC 840 are classified as operating leases, and all existing leases that were classified as capital leases in accordance with ASC 840 are classified as finance leases); and iii) the Company did not reassess initial direct costs for any existing leases.

For leases that existed prior to the date of initial application of ASC 842 (which were previously classified as operating leases), a lessee may elect to use either the total lease term measured at lease inception under ASC 840 or the remaining lease term as of the date of initial application of ASC 842 in determining the period for which to measure its incremental borrowing rate. In transition to ASC 842, the Company utilized the remaining lease term of its leases in determining the appropriate incremental borrowing rates.

Adoption of this standard resulted in the recording of operating lease liabilities and right-of-use assets of $160,628 on the Company's statement of financial position effective date. The adoption of the standard did not have a material effect on the Company's statement of income, statement of changes in stockholders' equity or statement of cash flows.

Maturities of lease liabilities under operating leases as of December 31, 2021 are as follows:

2022	$	63,180
2023		39,094
2024		3,150
Total Undiscounted Lease Payments		105,424
Less interest		(3,024)
Total Lease Liabilities	$	102,400

The Company leases office space under a five-year agreement expiring in 2023. The Company also leases office equipment under a 63-month agreement expiring in 2024. These leases have been classified as operating leases and are included in the data presented above. The total lease cost associated with these leases for the year ended December 31, 2021 was $50,909.

Deposits Held In Financial Institutions - The Company maintains its cash balances in bank deposit accounts that, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. These accounts are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) up to $250,000 per institution and did exceed the federally insured limit at December 31, 2021.

Subsequent Events - Subsequent events have been evaluated through February 8, 2022, which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

NOTE 2 - Related Party Transactions

The Company has made unsecured non-interest-bearing advances to stockholders of $45,939 as of December 31, 2021.

NOTE 3 - Retirement Plan

The Company maintains a Savings Incentive Match Plan for Employees of Small Employers. The Company did not contribute to the plan in 2021.

NOTE 4 - Income Taxes

The Company has elected "S" Corporation status. Accordingly, all tax attributes are passed through to the stockholders for both federal and state income-tax purposes.

The Company has implemented the accounting guidance for uncertainty in income taxes using the provisions of Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) ASC 740, Income Taxes. Using that guidance, tax positions initially need to be recognized in the financial statements when it is more-likely-than-not the position will be sustained upon examination by the tax authorities. Using that guidance, tax positions initially need to be recognized in the financial statements when it is more-likely-than-not the positions will be sustained upon examination by the tax authorities. Such tax positions initially and subsequently need to be measured as the largest amount of tax benefit that has a greater than 50% likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement with the tax authority assuming full knowledge of the positions and relevant facts. It also provides guidance for derecognition, classification, interest and penalties, accounting in interim periods, disclosure and transition.

As of December 31, 2021, the Company had no uncertain tax positions that qualify for either recognition or disclosure in the financial statements and has incurred no interest or penalties related to unrecognized tax liabilities. With few exceptions, the Company is no longer subject to U.S. federal, state, and local income tax examinations by tax authorities for years before 2018.

Intercarolina Financial Services, Inc.

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2021

NOTE 5 - Net Capital Requirement

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission's Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1 (and the rule of the "applicable" exchange also provides that equity capital may not be withdrawn or cash dividends paid if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1). At December 31, 2021, the Company had net capital of $109,826, which was $80,306 in excess of its required net capital of $29,520. The Company's ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was 4.03 to 1 at December 31, 2021.

NOTE 6 - Revenue from Contracts with Customers

The Company has adopted ASU 2014-09, "Revenue from Contracts with Customers." This ASU requires the Company to recognize the amount of revenue to which it expects to be entitled for the transfer of promised goods or services to customers. This standard also specifies the accounting for certain costs to obtain or fulfill a contract with customers.

Revenue from contracts with customers includes commission income, variable annuity contracts and fees from asset management services. The recognition and measurement of revenue is based on the assessment of individual contract terms. Significant judgment is required to determine whether performance obligations are satisfied at a point in time or over time; how to allocate transaction prices where multiple performance obligations are identified; when to recognize revenue based on the appropriate measure of the Company's progress under the contract; whether revenue should be presented gross or net of certain costs; and whether constraints on variable consideration should be applied due to uncertain future events.

Brokerage Commissions – The Company buys and sells securities on behalf of its customers. Each time a customer enters into a buy or sell transaction, the Company charges a commission. Commissions and related clearing expenses are recorded on the trade date (the date that the Company fills the trade order by finding and contracting with a counterparty and confirms the trade with the customer). The Company believes that the performance obligation is satisfied at a point in time (the trade date) because that is when the underlying financial instrument or purchaser is identified, the pricing is agreed upon and the risks and rewards of ownership of the securities have been transferred to/from the customer.

Investment Advisory Fees – The Company provides investment advisory services on a daily basis. The Company believes the performance obligation for providing advisory services is satisfied over time because the customer is receiving and consuming the benefits as they are provided by the Company. Fee arrangements are based on a percentage applied to the customer's assets under management. Fees are received quarterly and are recognized as revenue at that time as they relate specifically to the services provided in that period, which are distinct from the services provided in other periods.

Variable Annuity Contracts - The Company purchases insurance based products in the form of variable annuity contracts on behalf of its customers. Each time a customer enters into one of these contracts, the Company earns a commission. The Company believes that the performance obligation is satisfied at a point in time (the contract date) because that is when the underlying financial instrument is identified, the pricing is agreed upon and the risks and rewards of ownership of the contract have been transferred to the customer.

NOTE 7 – Economic Injury Disaster Loans

In response to the Coronavirus (COVID-19) outbreak in 2020, the U.S. Federal Government enacted the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act that, among other economic stimulus measures, established the Economic Injury Disaster Loan program (EIDL) to provide small business loans and advances. In May 2020, the Company obtained an EIDL loan in the amount of $64,000. The loan had a one-year deferral on payments but interest continued to accrue at 3.75%. The loan was repaid in February 2021.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED ACCOUNTING FIRM ON APPLYING AGREED-UPON PROCEDURES

The Stockholders
Intercarolina Financial Services, Inc.:

We have performed the procedures included in Rule 17a-5(e)(4) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and in the Securities Investor Protection Corporation (SIPC) Series 600 Rules, which are enumerated below and were agreed to by Intercarolina Financial Services, Inc. and SIPC, solely to assist you and SIPC in evaluating Intercarolina Financial Services, Inc.'s compliance with the applicable instructions of the General Assessment Reconciliation (Form SIPC-7) for the year ended December 31, 2021. Intercarolina Financial Services, Inc.'s management is responsible for its Form SIPC-7 and for its compliance with those requirements. This agreed-upon procedures engagement was conducted in accordance with standards established by the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and in accordance with attestation standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. The sufficiency of these procedures is solely the responsibility of those parties specified in this report. Consequently, we make no representation regarding the sufficiency of the procedures described below either for the purpose for which this report has been requested or for any other purpose. The procedures we performed and our findings are as follows:

1. Compared the listed assessment payments in Form SIPC-7 with respective cash disbursement records entries, noting no differences;
2. Compared the Total Revenue amount reported on the Annual Audited Report Form X-17A-5 Part III for the year ended December 31, 2021 with the Total Revenue amount reported in Form SIPC-7 for the year ended December 31, 2021, noting no differences;
3. Compared any adjustments reported in Form SIPC-7 with supporting schedules and working papers, noting no differences;
4. Recalculated the arithmetical accuracy of the calculations reflected in Form SIPC-7 and in the related schedules and working papers supporting the adjustments, noting no differences; and
5. Compared the amount of any overpayment applied to the current assessment with the Form SIPC-7 on which it was originally computed, noting no differences.

We were not engaged to, and did not conduct an examination, the objective of which would be the expression of an opinion on compliance. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion. Had we performed additional procedures, other matters might have come to our attention that would have been reported to you.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the specified parties listed above and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

The Shareholders
Intercarolina Financial Services, Inc.:

We have reviewed management's statements, included in the accompanying Exemption Report, in which (1) Intercarolina Financial Services, Inc. (the "Company") identified the following provisions of 17 C.F.R. § 15c3-3(k) under which the Company claimed exemption from 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c3-3: (2)(ii) (exemption provisions), and (2) the Company stated that the Company met the identified exemption provisions throughout the most recent fiscal year without exception. The Company's management is responsible for compliance with the exemption provisions and its statements.

Our review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about the Company's compliance with the exemption provisions. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on management's statements. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the provisions set forth in paragraph (k)(2)(ii) of Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.
